LOST AND FOUND.

Un the same day I received a telegram from the Sensary of the Commonwealth, saying : "Your rode of the services of your command is accepted. Ball yourselves in readiness to march on short pute Answer, stating number of men." With all the zeal and energy I could muster, sol with the support and confidence of as good a boly of officers and men as can be found any-where every arrangement was made to perfect as prestivation. I solicited arms and accourtements, but did not receive them. I strach we black to regularition. I solicited arms and accoutrements, bat did not receive them. I attach no blame to say department for this failure to furnich arms, because I know and appreciate the difficulties which slways surround and embarrass arrange-ments made under such circumstances. To my telegraphic despatch to. Washington, stating that I could send one regiment to the capital by Thursday or Friday, but that it was desirable to arm and equip them here, I received a reply that I should remain until mustered into serve in this city.
