

in connection with their extensive Cabinet Business,			non, it also empraces much valuable instruction on va- i	and I will conclude with a low words of personal in			most perfect model of government and legislation, the now manufacturing a superior article of	SPRING OPENING	839 CHESTNUT STREET,	tion, it also embraces much valuable instruction on va- rious other subjects of equal importance with tastics- ambients that for who have not been resularly trained if	explanation .: I was born in 1805. Of a vigorous frame and active habits, I enjoyed for filty years		The war spirit is abroad in the Jersies. X. Y.	founded upon principles of justice and right. It
BILLIARD TABLES,	SPRING OPENING	OPPOSITE THE CONTINENTAL.	in the military service are familiar with. The thou-	uninterrupted health. During the summer months,	and rivers.		was for this reason that our national flag had be-
MOORE & CAMPION'S IMPROVED CUSHIONS.	07	ap13-w&s-tM25	fray should not fail to acquire all available military	I seldom omitted a daily swim in Charles river; and the celdest weather of winter rarely induced	Articles of dress and ornament have sup-	Interview Between the Mayor of Balti- more and the President and Cabinet	come the honored beacon to the oppressed of every no connection with their extensive Cabinet Bunness, are now manufacturing a superior article of BLLIARD TABLES. And have now on hand a full supply. finished with NGORE & CAMPION'S IMPROVED CUSHIONS. Which are pronounced, by all who have used them, to be superior to all others. For the quality and finish of these Tables the manu- facturers refer to their numerous patrons throughout the Union, who are familiar with the character of their work.	OLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VESTINGS,	TINE SHIRT MANUFACTORY J. W.		me to resort to an outside garment. In 1835, on a	plied proper names, and a great many are de- rived from animals, birds, fishes, insects, and	at Washington.	clime and every nation upon the earth. The facturers refer to their numerous patrons throughout	LADIES' CLOAKINGS,	C SCOTT, S14 CHESTNUT Street, a faw doors below the Continental." The attention of Wholesale Deaters is invited to his IMFROVED CUT of SHIRTS, of superior fit, make, and material on hand and made to order at shortset notice. 184-44			reptiles. Mr. Bowditch quaintly says, "The	[From the Baltimore Sun of Monday.]	speaker's allusion to the almost magical power of work.	And all goods suited to MEN AND BOYS! WEAR,	Dealers is invited to his IMPROVED CUT OF	A vols. 31 50. This work has been prepared under the	and once, when the thermometer was at zero, the	Bible informs us that man originally gave to		our flag abroad, hitherto, in affording protection to all who inveke it, was touching and beautiful.
REMOVAL.	WHOLESALE AND RETAIL,	and made to order at shortest notice. JE4-U	issued in a neat, convenient form, well bound and pro-	gentlemen who had gathered around the fire in an insurance office in Boston, proposed, as I entered in		upon his return from Washington yesterday,	Under it the Hungarian exile was enabled to bid REMOVAL.			Jusery muscrated.	the room, to subscribe to buy me an overcoat, be-	air their names. The debt has certainly been	whither he had been summoned by the President.	successful defiance to his foes, and under it, also,
W. & J. ALLEN & BRO.:	C. SOMERS & SON'S,		CAUATOV TACTICS Also sublished by order of t	canse, as they said, it made them cold te look at me. At fifty, however, I ceased to be a young	rongid in these later times : they have given to	It will be read, doubiless, with general interest, though the alternative presented in the remarks of	the lowliest of our land until now, could in every
Respectfully inform their friends and customers that they have removed from No. 240 South RECOND Streat to their	525 CHHSTNUT Street, under JAYNE'S HALL.	FANOY GOODS AND DRUGGSITS'	miums bestowed on this volume have not been unme.	man : and my dress was no longer such as to exert	man all their names back again." Some are	the Freeident can hardly be expected to satisfy
SECOND Street to their		ARTICLES.	sant style as to make it a favorite with even those who	a chilling influence over my friends. In February,	disagreeable enough. No wonder that Aaron		[
NEW STORE,	SPRING, 1861.	W. D. GLENN, 26 SOUTH FOURTH STREET,	do not wish to use it practically. MCCLELLAND'S BAYONET EXERCISES. 1 vol. J	1859, I slipped upon the ice, but did not fall; and I supposed that I had escaped with merely a slight	Dodhan of Wantgomovy county Kentucky	land occupy with respect to the Administration	of our nationality, and while there was a heart to oherish it, and an arm to defend it, he trusted in
1909 CHESTRUT STREET,		20 SOUTH FOORIN SIRARI,	$125. This is a manual of superior merit in its speci-	pain, and the laugh of the bystanders. I had,	proposed to change his name, in May, 1857,	and, in consequence of this position, the zeal of our gitizens with regard to their territory exposes	It also that on the operation of the second se Second second s
Where they will have always on hand a fine amoriment	BENJAMIN V. MARSH, HENET HENDERBON, LEWIS W. HATWARD, ALCHARD WOOD, EDW'D V. TOWNERN, ALFERD H. FOSTER,	Offers to the trade for cash, or on the usual credit.		however, injured the nead of the thigh bone; and [	-probably before marriage-for what lady	them to the most inconsiderate abuse and misre-	would be forever. As the symbol of that power
" ROSEWOOD, WALNUT, AND OAK	R. WOOD, MARSH, & HAYWARD,	French, English and American HAIR BRUSHES,	who certainly would not present his heirs with anything of questionable excellence.	the result was a gradually increasing lameness. In June, I removed to my summer residence in	could think of sleeping with a live bedbug?	presentation of the people of the North. It is not	which protected our liberties and defended our
FURNITURE;	Importers and Wholesale Dealers in			Brookline. Here, in an apartment curtained by		essential to the purposes of the Administration that Northern troops should pass through any	homes, we should be earnest and faithful in hand-
	이 가슴 물건에 가지 않는 것 같아. 이 집 같이 있는 것 같은 것 같은 것 같아. 가슴	PERFUMERY and SOAPs in great variety,	All the standard MILITARY BOOKS extant, torsther with a full collection of all the istoria and best Macel- laneous Publications, at the Publisher's lowest process A Gift worth from 50 cents to $100 presented with every Book. Boldiers, cutzens, everybody, turn in at BEORGE G. EVANSAS	forest trees, I sat day after day, week after week, a prisoner; my sole occupation being the collec-	namon trees fruits flowers and other vege-	other slave State: but if it were, resistance would	ing it down unsullied, as a like blessing upon those
Which they will sell at less than their former prices, in consequence of having greater facilities for business,	DRY GOODS	PURE ESSENTIAL OILS, TOILET BOTTLES and PUFF BOXES,	A Gift worth from 50 conts to $100 presented with	tion and arrangement of the materials for the pre-	tation have been pressed into the service to	be expected, while resistance in Maryland is de- nonneed without stint, and with the utmost vindic-	who shall come after us, and well might we be
and being under ios appanne. They respectfully solicit a call before purchasing eisewhere.		SMELLING BOTTLES and FLASKS,	Stery Book. Boldlers, citizens, everybody, turn in at GEURGE G. LVANS	sent edition, and the laborious preparation of the .	make up our human nomenclature. The ele-	tiveness because the sentiment of our neonle has	went to say, " May it wave over us in glory still, and wither the arm that is raised to bring that elsewhere.	CLOTHING, mh25-1m No. 309 MAREET Street, Philadelphia.	POCKET-BOOKS, PURSES, and PORTMONNALES,	TOURNAL AILE DOOR COMMANDER 1-1	Thdex. On August 2, a visit was made by my st- tending surgeons. I arose to receive them; and in	ments have contributed their quota, as well	been deliberately ignored by some and misrepre- sented by others. With a proper sense of the re- lations involved, the subjoined document will be	bescon low !"
LOUKING GLASSES.	Bille-In 110, 309 MARE & Street, Finisdespila.	GENUINE LUBIN'S EXTRACTS		the effort to open the drawer of a small writing-	as heat, cold, fuel, and the points of the com-	Isting involved, the subjoined document will be	He claimed that it was no boast to say that
T OOKTNICLOT ASSES	S <sup>PRING.</sup> 1861.	AND			passWhile the Park Theatre existed in New	duly appreciated :	here was reared the purest and most untram-
LOOKING-GLASSES.	S	LOW'S SOAPS.	SUPPLIED WITH	oaste, a severe fracture of the thigh occurred	York, what a first-rate restaurant did Mr.	STATEMENT OF MAYOR BROWN AS TO HIS INTER-	melled sanctuary of religion on heaven's foot-
Now daily exhibiting and completing new and elegent		Always on hand.	SOPPLIED WITH		Winddust keep! The seasons, time, numerals,	VIEW WITH HR. LINCOLN. BALTIMOBE, April 21, 7 <sup>1</sup> / <sub>2</sub> o'clock P. M.	stool. Religion was not here orippled by
tyles of	J.T. WAY & OO.;	PRICES LOW.		which must last as long as I live Twice sleenty i-	dimensions, space, the months, music, dan-	Mayor Brown received a telegram from the Pre-	State alliance, as was the case in England. In Europe, where this freedom did not exist,
LOOKING-GLASSES,		mh39-im	POCKET BIBLES,		cing, colors, society, edifices, parts of build-	sident of the United States at 3 o'clock this (Sun- day), morning, directed to himself and Governor
Combining all the latest improvements and facilities in		TO YOU WANT WHISKERS?		ceived every alleviation which science could sug-	ings, signs of Inns, building-materials, inrni-	Hicks, requesting them to go to Washington by	here. The Government, while it protects, dares aspuisoture.	NO. 95 NORTH THIRD STREET,	DO YOU WANT WEISKERS!		Septi of manual of the strengt workers !	ture, the inside of houses, streets, utensils,	special train, in order to consult with Mr. Lincoln	not impede the spread of the Gospel. The foreigner Freat novelties in Walnut and Gold and Rosewood			방법 방법 소문에 대한 상품을 받으며 전망하는 것이다.	fixed employment almost indispensable. I ac-	tools, mathematics, logic, literature and law	for the preservation of the peace of Maryland. The Mayor replied that Governor Hicks was not	who comes here, no matter hew oppressed abroad, and Gold Frames for MIRRORS. The most extensive and varied assortment in the	THING BEAD OF AND TO DOT DA	DO YOU WANT A MOUSTACHE?	THE THE HAPTNING	and ingly commanded the printing of this most in	have given surnames to man. We learn (p. 336) an anecdote of two Boston lawyers Lord	1 s as a few and 2 month of 20 her alterning and a summer	dropped his fetters the moment he set foot upon sountry.	IMPORTERS AND JOBBERS	DO YOU WANT A MOUSTACHE?	No. 121 South THIRD Street,	the autumn of 1859; and it has enabled me to at- tain a state of cheerful discomfort."	Lord hurst and the Hon Issish Onlines The	Itocolving an answer by telegraph in the shirma-	our soil. No questions are asked such as to what church has pronounced its maledictions upon them.
JAMES S. EARLE & SON,		BELLINGHAM'S		Were this an indifferent book, instead of	President of Harvard College. Both are in	I DIN. JOHN C. Drund, and D. I. Wanns, L GS., WIDIN	I For all these seasons he thought the language of
EARLES' GALLERIES,	07	[문화학에에 프로젝트 이 이 제품 10 H 20 L 상태학자는 유럽이다.]	A UTHORIZED MILITARY BOOKS.		their eighty-ninth year, and Mr. Quincy, re-	he had summoned to attend him, proceeded at once	the text was adapted for every Christian hear
		CELEBRATED STIMULATING		death would induce us to mitigate any sen-	cently elected a member of the Massachusetts	After a series of delays they were enabled to	now, and should inspire prayer "for the peace and mh7-tf 816 CHESTNUT STREET.	DRY GOODS.	ONGUENT,		tence which, as a critic, it should be our duty	Historical Society, mentioned on that occa-	procure a special train, about half past seven	prosperity of our Jerusalem."
PAPER HANGINGS.			Prepared by a Board of Artillery Omders. 1 Vol. 8V0. $2,50.	to many angles Dut indeed of Cardella Com		o'clock, in which they arrived at Washington about ten. They repaired at once to the Press.	Having discussed the claims of our country to
	OVE STOCK IS UNUSUALLY LARSE AND	FOR THE WHISKERS AND HAIR.	BALTIMORE, Md., January 15, 1859.	names" is a curiosity of literature, affording	ed upon the mothers of Lord Lyndhurst and	dent's house, where they were admitted to an im-	our fealty and love, our duties as citizens were next considered. The first of these was, loyaling
PAPER HANGINGS.	UEX STUDE IS PRESUMENT SELECT AND		Nir: The Light Artillery Board assembled by Special Outers, No. 134, of 1855, and Special Orders No. 116, of	much information, and written as gaily as if	himself, who were confined (in 1772) about	mediate interview, to which the Cabinet and Gene- ral Scott were summoned. A long conversation	to the Government. This was enjoined in the fets 3m COMPLETE.	The subscribers take pleasure in announcing to the		the author were not suffering great bodily	the same time. Since Romulus and Remus.	and discussion ensued. The President, upon his part, recognized the good faith of the city and	Psalm before him. Jerusalem was to Israel the
HOWELL & BOURKE,		I citizens of the United States that they have obtained [	MOLALIN TEMM TERRICH REMAINT	T	there has probably never been a more remark-	part, recognized the good faith of the city and State authorities, and insisted upon his own. He
N. E. corner of FOURTH and MARKET Streets,	1861.	the Agency for, and are now enabled to offer to the	Captain First Artillery.	of the best printed books within our know-	able pair of nurslings. Money and thrift, and	admitted the excited state of feeling in Baltimore,	I hussi duty enjoined upon us in the Bible. And
MANUPACTURES OF	DALE, ROSS, & CO.,	American public the above justly-celebrated and world-renowned article.	HENRY J, HUNT, Bt. Major, Gaptain Second Artillery. HENRY J, HUNT, Bt. Major, Gaptain Second Artillery.	ledge, the typographical artists (John Wilson	their opposites, have given surnames, as well	and his desire and duty to avoid the fatal conse-	now, especially, did the lesson of this text come
PAPER HANGINGS,	LATE	THE STIMULATING ONGUENT	Gaptain Second Artillery.		as charity, commerce, navigation, dignities,	quences of a collision with the people. He urged, on the ether hand, the absolute, irresistible neces-	, home to our hearts, for of all times in our history the present hour made the strongest demand upor
BORDERS,	DALE, 8088, & WITHERS,	Is prepared by Dr. C. P. BELLINGHAM, an eminent physician of London, and is warranted to bring out a	HARDEE'S TACTICS.	passed the chefs d'œuvre of the famed River-		sity of having a transit through the State for such	I own demotion on low-I statement my re-
FIRE SCREENS.	NO. 521 MARKET STREET,	thick set of	Rife and Light Infantry Tactics, for the exercise and mangavres of Troops when acting as Light Infant-	side Press.	products and objects of trade, eatables, horse-		for acting promptly, without inquiring into why
WINDOW-CURTAIN PAPE G.	Have now open their full	WHISKERS, OR A MOUSTACHE In from three to mx weeks. This article is the only	Riffe and Light Infantry Factors, for the castolas and mancacyres of Troops when sotup 3s Light Infant- ry or Riffemen. Prepared under the direction of the War Department. By Bravet Lieutenant-Colonei W. J. HARDEE, U. S. A. Vol. 1-SCHOOLS OF THE	The Origin of names is naturally first dis-		The protection of Washington, he asseverated.	and wherefores. When mutiny was abroad or e de la principa de la companya de l	SPRING IMPORTATIONS	I am a state kind yead by the Pranch and in London 484 L	W. J. HARDEE, U.S. A. Vol. I -SCHOOLS OF THE SOLDINE AND COMPANY; INSTRUCTIONS FOR SKIR-	cussed in this work, and Mr. Bowditch says:	fighting, weapons, diseases, medicines, drinks,	with great carnestness, was the sole object of con-	<ul> <li>shipboard, it was not for the sailors to ask quest</li> <li>tions as to the cause of it; their duty was to erast</li> </ul>
Always on hand, a large and		Paris it is in universal use.	SolDHER AND COMPANY; INSTRUCTIONS FOR SKIR- MISHERS, Vol. 118CHOOL OF THE BATALION. Two Vols. complete. §1.80. An Acito establish an uniform mode of Discipline and Field Exercise for the Militia of the United States. Exercise which is and shall be ordered to be observed exercise which is and shall be ordered to be observed by the regular Armytof the United States. In the dif- ferent oorse of infantry. Avillery, and Tiffsmen, shall also be observed by the militar, in the exercise and dis- opline of the said corps respectively, throughout the United States."	" Every name, no doubt, originally had a processing on most from	intemperance, ejaculations. Many Christian
ELEGANT STOOK	SILKS	It is a beautiful, economical, soothing, yet stimula- ting compound, acting as if by magic upon the roots, causing a beautiful growth of luxuriant hair. If ap-	An Act to establish an uniform mode of Discipline and	meaning, or was first assumed or imposed from	names are used as surnames; many names	tended for any purpose hostile to the State, or ag- gressive as against the Southern btates. Being	with the people; the rulers were but the repre-
of 600DS, from the	ΔπΔ	causing a beautiful growth of luxuriant hair. If sp- plied to the scalp it will ours baldress, and cause to spring up in the place of the bald spots a fine growth of new hair. Applied according to directions, it will turn here or rowy hair DARK, and restore gray heir to its original color, leaving it soft, smooth, and flexible. The "ONGUENT" is an indispensable article in every gentleman's toilet, and after one week suce they would in the United States, to whom all orders must be ad- dreesed.	SECTION 1. That the system of discipline and field	its real or supposed fitness, from some acci-	have Saxon terminations, each with a distinc-	I now maple to nimk mem up the rotomac in sect-	- sentatives and executors of the popular will
FINEST GOLD PAPER to the LOWEST PRICED	FANCY DRESS GOODS.	spring up in the place of the bald spots a fine growth of a new heir. Applied according to directions, it will turn	by the regular Army of the United States. In the dif-	dental circumstance, or from mere caprice.	tive meaning. Some names originated in de-	rity, the Government must either bring them	Everything must be done to maintain a pure, na
ARTICLES.	The attention of CASH BUYERS is especially in- mh29-2m	BED OF TOWY hair DARK, and restore gray hair to its original color, leaving it soft, smooth, and flexible,	ferent corps of infantry. Artillery, and finemen, Skall   also be observed by the militia, in the exercise and dis-	Each individual is distinguished from his fel- lews only by his name. But for this system,	fective orthography. Bellows, with a family	c through Maryland or abandon the capital. He called on General Scott for his opinion, which the	tional character, for the loss of this was a certain in our RETAIL DEPARTMENT will be found	viteg.	The "ONGUENT" is an indispensable article in every	cipline of the said corps respectively, throughout the	history and biography could scarcely exist."	crest which represents water poured from a		a preductor of Dational ruin. The history of ancien
THE NEWEST STYLES OF THE SEASON.	RAIGUEL, MOORE, & Co.,	not, for any consideration, be without it.	Approved Washington, May 12, 1820.	Christian names may be called fortuitous.	chalice into a pasin, is probably a corruption	might be brought through Maryland, without go
	. [1품] 이상 영상 가슴 이 가슴	in the United States, to whom all orders must be ad-	CAVALRY TACTICS. Published by order of the War Department. First	The anymomous of originated later in life, after	of de Belle Lall. Foreign manies get anored	from Perryville to Annapolis, and thence by rai	whith now covered with the many of and
SEWING MACHINES.	NO. 220 & 222 NORTH	Price one dollar a box ; for sale by all Druggists and	Part. SCHOOL OF THE TROOPER ; OF THE PLATOON	the character and habits of the individual had	by pronunciation The English family name		Y LINE AND COVERED WITH THE MORE OF COMENTIC
WHEELER & WILSON	THIRD STREET,	dressed. Proce one dollar a box; for sale by all Druggists and Dealers; or a box of the "ONG UENT," warranted to have the desired affect. will be sant to any who desire it, by mail, direct. securely packed, on receipt of price and postage, $1.18. Apply to, or address	Participal of order of the Taoorne; of the Platon Part. School of the Taoorne; of the Platon Ann of the Rouankon Diskountab. Second Part. School of the Roopne; of the Platoon And of the Souankon Mounted. Third; PartEvolutions	been formed, and after he had engaged in	of Chalmondeley proponneed Chumley Would	marching them to the Relay House on the Wash	lips of her most gifted philosophers.
- 2011년 1월 🖣 🖣 - 2012년 1월		and postage, $1.18. Apply to, or address	OF A REGIMENT.	some permanent occupation, trade, or pursuit.	be spelt, in this country, as sounded.	ington Railroad, and thence by rail to the capital If the people would permit them to go by either	Again, the text taught us that the circumstance
SEWING MACHINES.	Are now opening their usual large assortment of	HORACE L. HEGEMAN & C ., Druggists, &s.				of these routes uninterruptedly, the necessity o their passing through Baltimore would be avoided
PRIORS REDUCED, November 1578, 1960.	FRENCH, BRITISH, GERMAN, & DOMESTIC	Druggists, &c.	I'DE SVRIAM OF USVELLY A SCHOS BUNDIOU IN (00 DIEGUL- )	They were given by the community in which	Many words are derived from names. Mal-		r of the hour demanded in a pre-eminent degree
1211-3m 628 CHESTNUT Street, Second Floor.	▲ 사용 관계에 가격하는 것 같아? 이 사람을 가지 않는 것		TRUCH OI DIBLOOM FERTIMENCE, HAVING DEEN Spiroved of	he dwelt-by enemies as well as by friends."	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses	their passing through Baltimore would be avoided	the exercise of piety towards God. Prayer we
	TITT ACCT	24 WILLIAM Street, New York. DYOTT & CO., No. 239 North SECOND Street, Phi-	the President of the United States, is now published for	he dwelt-by enemies as well as by friends."	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso	I their passing through Baltimore would be avoided If the people would not permit them a transl their semate from the city, they must select their	the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer was the only religious exercise expressed in the text ir but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th
STEPAL. ABLE.	DRY GOODS.		the President of the United States, is now published for	he dwelt-by enemies as well as by friends."	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" tanght. We have the Spenserian stanza	their passing through Baltimore would be avoided If the people would not permit them a transi thus remote from the city, they must select their own best route, and, if need be, fight their way	of the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer was the only religious exercise expressed in the text ir but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th y acknowledgment, of God's sovereignty. Now
COAL OIL.	DRY GOODS, To which the attention of		the President of the United States, is now published for	he dwelt-by enemies as well as by friends."	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos	their passing through Baltimore would be avoided if the people would not permit them a transi thus remote from the city, they must select their own best route, and, if need be, fight their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera earnestly depresented. The President expresses	the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer was the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th acknowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God an SUBTERRANEAN	and an		the President of the United States, is now published for the government of the said service. Accordingly, instruction in the same will be given atter the method pointed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and mancuvres laid down in this system are positively forbidden. J. R. FOINSETA. Becreatry of War.	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English surnames sparsely existed before the	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos suth gives his name to a hat, as Sir William	their passing through Baltimore would be avoided If the people would not permit them a transi thus remote from the city, they must select their own best routs, and, if need be, fight their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera earnestly deprecated. The President expressed his hearty concurrence in the desire to avoid	of the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer was the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th acknowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God, an a to show that trust by manfully doing our who
SUBTERRANEAN	To which the attention of		the President of the United States, is now published for the government of the said service. Accordingly, instruction in the same will be given atter the method pointed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and mancuvres laid down in this system are positively forbidden. J. R. FOINSETA. Becreatry of War.	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English surnames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene-	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos suth gives his name to a hat, as Sir William Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington and	<ul> <li>their passing through Baltimore would be avoided If the people would not permit them a transi thus remote from the city, they must select their own best route, and, if need be, fight their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera earnesity deprecated. The President expresses his hearty concurrence in the desire to avoid [] collision, and said no troops should be ordere benerat Baltimore if they ware purpitted to g</li></ul>	the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer was the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th acknowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God, an to show that trust by manfully doing our whol d duty. To trust God merely, without making a
SUBTERRANEAN COAL OIL,	To which the attention of CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS		the President of the United States, is now published for the government of the said service. Accordingly, instruction in the same will be given atter the method pointed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and mancuvres laid down in this system are positively forbidden. J. R. FOINSETA. Becreatry of War.	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English surnames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene- ral until two or three centuries later.	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos suth gives his name to a hat, as Sir William Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington and Bincher to boots. A Colt and a Bowie repre-	their passing through Baltimore would be avoided If the people would not permit them a transi thus remote from the city, they must select their own best route, and, if need be, fight their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera earnestly deprecated. The President expressed his hearty concurrence in the desire to avoid collision, and said no troops should be ordered through Baltimore if they were permitted to g universal shearts of the other routes and	f the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer was the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th schnowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God, an to show that trust by manfully doing our whoi duty. To trust God merely, without making a feator, he held would be to tempt God; whilst of the show that trust by manfully doing our whoi
SUBTERRANEAN COAL OIL, Vacqualled for Illuminating and	To which the attention of CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS 19 FARTICULARLY INVITED. mh26-lm.	JEWELRY, &cc.	the President of the United States, is now published for the government of the said service. Accordingly, instruction in the same will be given atter the method pointed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and mancuvres laid down in this system are positively forbidden. J. R. FOINSETA. Becreatry of War.	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English surnames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene- ral until two or three centuries later. Mr. Bowditch gives some curious and amu-	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos suth gives his name to a hat, as Sir William Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington and Blucher to boots. A Golt and a Bowie repre- sent the revolver of one, and the knife of the	<ul> <li>their passing through Baltimore would be avoided If the people would not permit them a transi thus remote from the city, they must select their own best route, and, if need be, fight their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera sarnesity deprecated. The President expresses is hearty concurrence in the desire to avoid collision, and said no troops should be ordered through Baltimore if they were permitted to g uninterrupted by either of the other routes ang g gested. In this dispesition the Scoretary of Wa</li> </ul>	f the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer was the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th schnowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God, an to show that trust by manfully doing our whoi duty. To trust God merely, without making a feator, he held would be to tempt God; whilst of the show that trust by manfully doing our whoi
SUBTERRANEAN COAL OIL,	To which the attention of CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS IS PARTICULARLY INVITED.	JEWELRY, drc.	the President of the United Statis, is used spherosa for the President of the said service. Accordingly, instruction in the same will be given atter the method printed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and mencuvres laid down in this system are positively forbidden. Beoretary of War. Beoretary of War. McCLELLAND'S BAYONET EXERCISES. Manual of Bayonet Exercises. By GEORGE B. M.C. CLELLAN. Captain First Resiment Cavalry, U.S. A. Printed by order of the War Department. Universide the content of the same of the of the of the same of the form of the Cavalry, U.S.	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English surnames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene- ral until two or three centuries later. Mr. Bowditch gives some curious and amu- sing specimens of Christian names. He men-	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos suth gives his name to a hat, as Sir William Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington and Blucher to boots. A Colt and a Bowie repre- sent the revolver of one, and the knife of the other.	<ul> <li>their passing through Baltimore would be avoided If the people would not permit them a transi- thus remote from the city, they must select their own best route, and, if need be, fight their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera- earnestly deprecated. The President expressed is hearty concurrence in the desire to avoid collision, and said no troops should be ordered through Baltimore if they were permitted to g gested. In this dispesition the Secretary of We expressed his participation. Neven Room assured the President that the cit</li> </ul>	f the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer was the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th acknowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God, an a to show that trust by manfully doing our who duty. To trust God merely, without making s effort, he held would be to tempt God; whilst of the other hand, to repair to work without trusting in Him, would be to deny God. The "prayer fa- perce" should how he the prayer of every hear
SUBTERRANEAN COAL OIL, Vacqualized for Illuminating and	To which the attention of CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS IS PARTICULARLY INVITED. mh#-1m. SPRING GOODS, 1861.	JEWELRY, drc.	<ul> <li>In the President Fermients, naving been spherics of the president of the guide distors, is now published for the government of the said service.</li> <li>Accordingly, instruction in the same will be given atter the method printed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and mancuvers laid down in this system are positively formers.</li> <li>McCLELLAND'S BAYONET EXERCISES.</li> <li>Manuai of Bayonet Exercises, Prepared for the use of the Army of the United States. By GEORGE BAMC.</li> <li>Printed by order of the War Department.</li> <li>HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY.</li> <li>HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY.</li> </ul>	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English surnames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene- ral until two or three centuries later. Mr. Bowditch gives some curious and amu- sing specimens of Christian names. He men- tions that Lord Ceke declared more than one	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos suth gives his name to a hat, as Sir William Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington an Blucher to boots. A Golt and a Bowie repre- sent the revolver of one, and the knife of the other. The volume concludes with a Supplement	<ul> <li>their passing through Baltimore would be avoided If the people would not permit them a transi thus remote from the city, they must select their own best routs, and, if need be, fight their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera estreestly deprecated. The President expresses is hearly concurrence in the desire to avoid collision, and said no troops should be ordered through Baltimore if they were permitted to g uninterrupted by either of the other routes sug gested. In this dispesition the Scoretary of Wa expressed his participation. Mayor Brown assured the President that the cit arthoutid ges all lawful means to prevent the set of the second the set of the set of the second the second by a state of the second ges all lawful means to prevent arthout the second ges all lawful means to prevent arthout the second second second second by a state arthout the second ges all lawful means to prevent arthout the second ges all lawful means to prevent arthout the second seco</li></ul>	f the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer was the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and the acknowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God, an to show that trust by manfully doing our who duty. To trust God merely, without making a effort, he held would be to tempt God; whilst of the other hand, to repair to work without trustin in Him, would be to deny God. The "prayer for Feace " should now be the prayer of every hear of the trust means through war it was for the trust means the terms through war it was for the text means through war it was for the text means through the text was the text of the trust means the text of SUBTERRANEAN COAL OIL, Vaceualised for Illuminating and	To which the attention of CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS IS FARTICULARLY INVITED. mh#-1m. SPRING GOODS, 1861.	JEWELRY, drc.	<ul> <li>In the President Fermients, naving been spherics of the president of the guide distors, is now published for the government of the said service.</li> <li>Accordingly, instruction in the same will be given atter the method printed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and mancuvers laid down in this system are positively formers.</li> <li>McCLELLAND'S BAYONET EXERCISES.</li> <li>Manuai of Bayonet Exercises, Prepared for the use of the Army of the United States. By GEORGE BAMC.</li> <li>Printed by order of the War Department.</li> <li>HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY.</li> <li>HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY.</li> </ul>	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English surnames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene- ral until two or three centuries later. Mr. Bowditch gives some curious and amu- sing specimens of Christian names. He men- tions that Lord Coke declared more than one to be illegal, and mentions numerous great	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos suth gives his name to a hat, as Sir Willian Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington and Bincher to boots. A Colt and a Bowie repre- sent the revolver of one, and the knife of the other. The volume concludes with a Supplement and an index of surnames, which fills over	<ul> <li>their passing through Baltimore would be avoided If the people would not permit them a transi thus remote from the oity, they must select their own best route, and, if need be, fight their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera estreestly deprecated. The President expresses is hearly concurrence in the desire to avoid collision, and said no troops should be ordered through Baltimore if they were permitted to g uninterrupted by either of the other routes sug gested. In this dispesition. Mayor Brown assured the President that the cit authorities would use all lawful means to preven their cilizens from leaving Baltimore to attack th</li> </ul>	f the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer was the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and the acknowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God, an to show that trust by manfully doing our who duty. To trust God merely, without making a effort, he held would be to tempt God; whilst of the other hand, to repair to work without trustif in Him, would be to deny God. The "prayer for Peace " should now be the prayer of every hear if t that peace must come through war, it was for us, nevertheless to pray for peace. If it was
SUBTERRANEAN COAL OIL, Vzequalled for Illuminating and LUBRICATING PURPOSES. This Oil as beautifully white, entirely free from any upplement odor, is non-explosive, and burns with i	To which the attention of CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS IF PARTICULARLY INVITED. MAND-IM. SPRING GOODS, 1861. ABBOTT, JOHNES & OO.	DYOTT & CO., No. 239 North SECOND Street, Phi- adelphis Agents. mh33-5m JEWELRY, &cc. FINE WATCH REPAIRING. DERSONS HAVING FINE WATCHES that have hitherto given no satisfaction to the wearers, are invited to bring them to our store, where all defects can be remedied by thoroughly skillful and escentific workmen, and the watch watranted to give	<ul> <li>In the President Fermients, naving been spherics of the president of the guide distors, is now published for the government of the said service.</li> <li>Accordingly, instruction in the same will be given atter the method printed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and mancuvers laid down in this system are positively formers.</li> <li>McCLELLAND'S BAYONET EXERCISES.</li> <li>Manuai of Bayonet Exercises, Prepared for the use of the Army of the United States. By GEORGE BAMC.</li> <li>Printed by order of the War Department.</li> <li>HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY.</li> <li>HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY.</li> </ul>	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English surnames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene- ral until two or three centuries later. Mr. Bowditch gives some curious and anu- sing specimens of Christian names. He men- tions that Lord Ceke declared more than one to be illegal, and mentions numerous great men who were satisfied with one. We could	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos suth gives his name to a hat, as Sir Willian Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington and Blucher to boots. A Colt and a Bowie repre- sent the revolver of one, and the knife of the other. The volume concludes with a Supplement and an index of surnames, which fills over 250 pages. The author's humor has pervade	<ul> <li>their passing through Baltimore would be avoided If the people would not permit them a transi thus remote from the city, they must select their own best route, and, if need be, fight their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera estreestly deprecated. The President expresses his hearty concurrence in the desire to avoid collision, and said no troops should be ordered through Baltimore if they were permitted to g uninterrupted by either of the other routes sug gested. In this dispesition the Secretary of Wa expressed his participation. Mayor Brown assured the President that the cit authorities would use all lawful means to prever there ditare from leaving Baltimore to attack the troops in passing at a distance, but he urged, a troops in passing at a distance, but he urged, a troops in passing at a distance, but he urged, a troops in passing at a distance, but he urged, a troops in passing at a distance, but he urged, a troops in passing at a distance, but he urged, a the output the troops in passing at a distance in the second passing at a distance in the but and the second passing at a distance in the but he was a distance in the second passing at a distance in the but and the second passing at a distance in the but and the second passing at a distance in the but and the second passing at a distance in the second passing at a distance in</li></ul>	the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer was the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th acknowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God, an to show that trust by manfully doing our whol duty. To trust God merely, without making s effort, he held would be to tempt God; whilst of the other hand, to repair to work without trustin in Him, would be to deny God. The "prayer far Peace " should now be the prayer of every hear at us, nevertheless to pray for peace. If it was come through privation and soffering, let ns.
SUBTERRANEAN COAL OIL, Unequalled for Illuminating and LUBRICATING PURPOSES. This Oil as beautifally white, entirely free from any upleasant odor, is non-explosive, and burns with the beautifal bright and white flame.	To which the attention of CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS IF PARTICULARLY INVITED. MAND-IM. SPRING GOODS, 1861. ABBOTT, JOHNES & OO.	DYOTT & CO., No. 239 North SECOND Street, Phi- adelphis Arentz. mh33-5m JEWELRY, &cc. FINE WATCH REPAIRINC. DERSONS HAVING FINE WATCHES that have hitherto given no satisfaction to the wearers, are invited to bring them to our store, where all defects can be remedied by thoroughly skillel and scientific workmen, and the watch werranted to give manual cooks, Musical Boxes, &c., carefully put in complete order.	<ul> <li>In Present Particular in the states, is now published for the president of the said service.</li> <li>Accordingly, instruction in the same will be given atter the method pointed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and mencuvres laid down in this system are positively forbidden.</li> <li>I. R. FOINSETA.</li> <li>Beoretary of Way.</li> <li>McCLLAND'S BAYONET EXERCISES.</li> <li>Manuai of Bayonet Exercises. By GEORGE B. Mc- OLELLAN. Captain First Regiment. Gavalry, U. S.</li> <li>Printed by order of the Way Department. One vol. 12mo. $126.</li> <li>HEADQUETERS OF THE ARNT.</li> <li>HADQUETERS OF THE ARNT.</li> <li>Horewith I have the honor to submit a system of Bayonet Exercise, translated from the French by Captain. Geo. B. McCleilan, Corps Engineers, U. S.</li> </ul>	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English surnames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene- ral until two or three centuries later. Mr. Bowditch gives some curious and anu- sing specimens of Christian names. He men- tions that Lord Ceke declared more than one to be illegal, and mentions numerons great men who were satisfied with one. We could extend the list. George Washington, Israel	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos suth gives his name to a hat, as Sir Willian Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington and Blucher to boots. A Colt and a Bowie repre- sent the revolver of one, and the knife of the other. The volume concludes with a Supplement and an index of surnames, which fills over 250 pages. The author's humor has pervade	<ul> <li>their passing through Baltimore would be avoided If the people would not permit them a transi thus remote from the city, they must select their own best routs, and, if need be, fight their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera sarcestly deprecated. The President expressed is hearly concurrence in the desire to avoid collision, and said no troops should be ordered through Baltimore if they were permitted to g uninterrupted by either of the other routes ang gested. In this dispesition the Scoretary of Wa expressed his participation. Mayor Brown assured the President that the cit authorities would use all lawful means to prevent their citizens from leaving Baltimore to attack the thesame time, the impossibility of their bein able to promise anything more than their bein eaforts in the streamy the servicement we of the same time, the impossibility of the bein the same time, the end the servicement we affect the the furned the servicement we of the same time, the impossibility of the bein the same time, the servicement we affect the servicement we affect the servicement we affect to the servicement we affect to the servicement we affect to the servicement we affect the servicement we affect to the servicement we the service the servicement we the service the servicement we affect to the servicement we the service the servicement we the service the servicement we the servicement we affect to the servicement we the service to that th</li></ul>	of the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer was the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and the acknowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God, an to show that trust by manfully doing our whol duty. To trust God merely, without making s effort, he held would be to tempt God; whilst of the other hand, to repair to work without trustif in Him, would be to deny God. The "prayer fi Peace " should now be the prayer of every hear If that peace must come through war, it was f us, nevertheless to pray for peace. If it was come through privation and suffering, let us, I said, still pray that peace may soon reign throug all the borders of our lend. It a show the
SUBTERRANEAN COAL OIL, Unequalled for Illuminating and LUBRICATING PURPOSES. This Oil as beautifally white, entirely free from any unpleasant odor, is non-explosive, and burns with a beautifal bright and white flame. Warranted in all cases to give satisfaction.	To which the attention of CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS Is PARTICULARLY INVITED. MASS-IM. SPRING GOODS, 1861. ABBOTT, JOHNES & CO.	DYOTT & CO., No. 239 North SECOND Street, Phi- adelphis Arents. mh33-5m JEWELRY, &cc. FINE WATCH REPAIRING. DERSONS HAVING FINE WATCHES that have hitherto given no satisfaction to the wearers, are invited to bring them to our store, where all defects can be remedied by thoroughly skillful and scientific workmen, and the watch werranted to give entire satisfaction. Maniel Clocks, Musical Boxes, &c., carefully put in complete Order.	<ul> <li>In Present Particular in the states, is now published for the president of the said service.</li> <li>Accordingly, instruction in the same will be given atter the method pointed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and mancuvres laid down in this system are positively forbidden.</li> <li>N. FOINSETA.</li> <li>Beoretary of War.</li> <li>Manual of Bayonet Exercises. By GEORGE B. Mc- OLELLAN. Castain First Regiment. Cavalry, U.S.</li> <li>Printed by order of the War Department. One vol. 12m. 51.</li> <li>Handy Contain First Regiment.</li> <li>Handy Retrain States.</li> <li>Brander Exercises.</li> <li>Handy Retrain States.</li> <li>Handy Retrain States.</li> <li>Handy The War.</li> <li>Manual Contain First Regiment.</li> <li>Handy Retrain States.</li> <li>Handy Therewith I have the honor to submit a system of Bayonet Exercise.</li> <li>Horewith I have the honor to submit a system of Bayonet Karolies, translated from the French by Captain Geo. B. MoCleilan, Corps Engineers. U. S.</li> <li>Army, and the state of the size printed for distribu- tion to the Army of and tystic states.</li> </ul>	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English surnames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene- ral until two or three centuries later. Mr. Bowditch gives some curious and anu- sing specimens of Christian names. He men- tions that Lord Ceke declared more than one to be illegal, and mentions numerous great men who were satisfied with one. We could	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos suth gives his name to a hat, as Sir Willian Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington and Blucher to boots. A Colt and a Bowie repre- sent the revolver of one, and the knife of the other. The volume concludes with a Supplement and an index of surnames, which fills over 250 pages. The author's humor has pervade even this list of names. His last note, refer- ring to a child called Vensvia, intimates the	<ul> <li>their passing through Baltimore would be avoided If the people would not permit them a transi thus remote from the city, they must select their own best route, and, if need be, fight their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera enrestly deprecated. The President expresses his bearty concurrence in the desire to avoid collision, and said no troops should be ordered through Baltimore if they were permitted to g uninterrupted by either of the other routes ang gested. In this dispesition the Scoretary of Wa expressed his participation. Mayor Brown assured the President that the cit authorities would use all lawful means to prever their citizens from leaving Baltimore to attack the troops in pessing at a distance; but he urged, s the same time, the impossibility of their bein able to promise anythings more than their bein afforts in that direction. The excitement we the server in that direction the server we the server in the server in the server in the server in the server afforts in the direction.</li> </ul>	the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer was the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th acknowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God; an to show that trust by manfully doing our whol duty. To trust God merely, without making s effort, he held would be to tempt God; whilst of the other hand, to repair to work without trustin in Him, would be to deny God. The "prayer fa Peace " should now be the prayer of every hear if that peace must come through war, it was fa as us, nevertheless to pray for peace. If it was come through privation and suffering, let us, 1 said, still pray that peace may soon reign throug all the borders of our land. In short, the de
SUBTERRANEAN COAL OIL, Unequalised for Illuminating and LUBRICATING PURPOSES. This Oil as beautifully white, entirely free from any supposed of a son-explosive, and barns with a beautiful bright and white flame. Warranted in all cases to give satisfaction. Manufactured and for Sale by	To which the attention of CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS Is PARTICULARLY INVITED. MASS-IM. SPRING GOODS, 1861. ABBOTT, JOHNES & CO.	DYOTT & CO., No. 239 North SECOND Street, Phi- adelphis Arentz. mh33-5m JEWELRY, &cc. FINE WATCH REPAIRINC. DERSONS HAVING FINE WATCHES that have hitherto given no satisfaction to the wearers, are invited to bring them to our store, where all defects can be remedied by thoroughly skilling and solenullo workmen. and the watoh worknow to give entire satisfaction. Mante Clocks, Musical Boxes, &c., carefully put in complete order. PARE & BROTHER, Importers of Watches, Musical Boxes, Clocks, &c., sy4-3m 394 CHESTNUE Street, below Fourth.	<ul> <li>In Present Particular in the states, is now published for the president of the said service.</li> <li>Accordingly, instruction in the same will be given atter the method pointed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and mancuvres laid down in this system are positively forbidden.</li> <li>N. FOINSETA.</li> <li>Beoretary of War.</li> <li>Manual of Bayonet Exercises. By GEORGE B. Mc- OLELLAN. Castain First Regiment. Cavalry, U.S.</li> <li>Printed by order of the War Department. One vol. 12m. 51.</li> <li>Handy Contain First Regiment.</li> <li>Handy Retrain States.</li> <li>Brander Exercises.</li> <li>Handy Retrain States.</li> <li>Handy Retrain States.</li> <li>Handy The War.</li> <li>Manual Contain First Regiment.</li> <li>Handy Retrain States.</li> <li>Handy Therewith I have the honor to submit a system of Bayonet Exercise.</li> <li>Horewith I have the honor to submit a system of Bayonet Karolies, translated from the French by Captain Geo. B. MoCleilan, Corps Engineers. U. S.</li> <li>Army, and the state of the size printed for distribu- tion to the Army of and tystic states.</li> </ul>	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English surnames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene- ral until two or three centuries later. Mr. Bowditch gives some curious and amu- sing specimens of Christian names. He men- tions that Lord Coke declared more than one to be illegal, and mentions numerous great men who were satisfied with one. We could extend the list. George Washington, Israel Putnam, George Bancroft, Washington Irving,	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos suth gives his name to a hat, as Sir Willian Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington and Blucher to boots. A Colt and a Bowie repre- sent the revolver of one, and the knife of the other. The volume concludes with a Supplement and an index of surnames, which fills over 250 pages. The author's humor has pervade- even this list of names. His last note, refer ring to a child called Vensvia, intimates the this Christian name was doubtless given be	<ul> <li>their passing through Baltimore would be avoided If the people would not permit them a transi thus remote from the city, they must select their own best routs, and, if need be, fight their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera sarcestly deprecated. The President expressed is hearly concurrence in the desire to avoid collision, and said no troops should be ordered through Baltimore if they were permitted to g uninterrupted by either of the other routes sug gested. In this dispesition the Scoretary of Wa expressed his participation. Mayor Brown assured the President that the cit authorities would use all lawful means to prever their citizens from leaving Baltimore to attack the the same time, the impossibility of their bein able to promise anything more than thefr bein able to promise anything more than the fir way great, he told the Fresident; the people of a classes were fully aroused, and it was impossib- it on the super fully aroused, and it was impossib- ting one to anything the programmeter of the convergence of the second of the super fully aroused, and it was impossib- ting one to anything more than the first of the convergence of the term of the super fully aroused, and it was impossib- ting one to anything more of the convergence of the term of the super fully aroused, and it was impossib- term of the super fully aroused, and it was impossib- term of the super fully aroused, and it was impossib- term of the super fully aroused, and it was impossib- termore one to a super fully aroused, and it was impossib- termore one to a super fully aroused, and it was impossib- termore one to a super fully aroused, and it was impossib- termore one to a super fully aroused, and it was impossib- termore one to a super fully aroused and it was impossib- termore one to a super fully aroused and it was impossib- termore one to a super fully aroused, and it was impossib- termore one to a super fully aroused and it was impossib- termore one to a super fully aroused a</li></ul>	f the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer wa the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th acknowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God; an to show that trust by manfully doing our whol duty. To trust God morely, without making a effort, he held would be to tempt God; whilst of the other hand, to repair to work without trustif in Him, would be to deny God. The "prayer f Peace " should now be the prayer of every hear If that peace must come through war, it was f as come through privation and suffering, let us, I said, still pray that peace may soon reign throug all the borders of our land. In short, the de tiny of our land, he alleged, was now in the han of its praying people. Every man and wom
SUBTERRANEAN COAL OIL, Vaccualled for Illuminating and LUBRICATING PURPOSES. This Oil is beautifully white, entirely free from any auplement odor, is non-explosive, and barns with a beautiful bright and white finme. Warranted in all cases to give satisfaction. Manufactured and for Sale by GEO. W. WOOTTEN,	To which the attention of CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS IS FARTICULARLY INVITED. MhW-lm. SPRING GOODS, 1861. ABBOTT, JOHNES & CO. 527 MARKET STREET, AND 584 COMMERCE STREET.	DYOTT & CO., No. 239 North SECOND Street, Phi- adelphis Arents. mh33-5m JEWELRY, &cc. FINE WATCH REPAIRING. DERSONS HAVING FINE WATCHES that have hitherto given no satisfaction to the wearers, are invited to bring them to our store, where all defects can be remedied by thoroughly skillful and scientific workmen, and the watch werranted to give entire satisfaction. Maniel Clocks, Musical Boxes, &c., carefully put in complete Order.	<ul> <li>In the President Fermines is a visual best spherose of the president of the guide states, is now published for the government of the scale service.</li> <li>Accordingly, instruction in the same will be given atter the method printed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and mencuryes laid down in this system are positively forbidden.</li> <li>R. FOINSETT.</li> <li>Beoretary of War.</li> <li>Manual of Bayonet Exercises. By GEUBOGE B. McCl.ELLAN. CBAYONET EXERCISES.</li> <li>Manual of Bayonet Exercises. By GEUBOGE B. McCl.ELLAN. Castain First Resiment. Cavalry, U.S.</li> <li>Printed by order of the War Department.</li> <li>Une vol. 12mo. $125.</li> <li>HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY.</li> <li>Bir Herewith I have the honor to submit a system of Bayonet Exercise, translated from the French by Captain Geo. B. McClellan, Corps Engineers, U.S. Army.</li> <li>Istrongly recommend its being printed for distribution to the Army and the trat to e made. y regulations.</li> <li>The enclosed extracts from reports of the Inspector General, &amp;c., to show the value.</li> </ul>	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English surnames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene- ral until two or three centuries later. Mr. Bowditch gives some curious and amu- sing specimens of Christian names. He men- tions that Lord Ceke declared more than one to be illegal, and mentions numerous great men who were satisfied with one. We could extend the list. George Washington, Israel Putnam, George Bancroft, Washington Irving, Benjamin Franklin, John Locke, John Hamp- den, Oliver Cromwell, John Churchill, (first Duke of Marlborough.) Arthur Wellesley,	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos suth gives his name to a hat, as Sir William Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington and Blucher to boots. A Colt and a Bowie repre- sent the revolver of one, and the knife of the other. The volume concludes with a Supplement and an index of surnames, which fills over 250 pages. The author's humor has pervade even this list of names. His last note, refer ring to a child called Vensvia, intimates the this Christian name was doubtless given be cause the child had an eruption . It is sad to think that Mr. Bowditch did not	<ul> <li>their passing through Baltimore would be avoided If the people would not permit them a transi thus remote from the city, they must select their own best routs, and, if need be, fight their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera sarcestly deprecated. The President expressed is hearly concurrence in the desire to avoid collision, and said no troops should be ordered through Baltimore if they were permitted to g uninterrupted by either of the other routes ang gested. In this dispesition the Scoretary of Wa expressed his participation. Mayor Brown assured the President that the cit authorities would use all lawful means to prevent their citizens from leaving Baltimore to attack the the same time, the impossibility of their bein able to promise anything more than their bein efforts in that direction. The excitement we great, he told the President; the people of a olasses were fully aroused, and it was impossibility to rany one to answer for the consequences of the pressure of Northern troops anywhere within or the same time, the impossibility of their bein allots on the subser for the consequences of the olasses were fully aroused, and it was impossibility the same time, the president; the people of a olasses were fully aroused, and it was impossibility the same time of Northern troops anywhere within or the same time of Northern troops anywhere within or the same of the same of the conset of the otherne</li></ul>	the exercise of piety towards God. Prayer way the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and the acknowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God; an to show that trust by manfully doing our who duty. To trust God morely, without making a effort, he held would be to tempt God; whilst of the other hand, to repair to work without trustin in Him, would be to deny God. The "prayer for Peace " should now be the prayer of every hear at us, nevertheless to pray for peace. If it was come through privation and suffering, let us, I said, still pray that peace may soon reign throug all the borders of our land. In short, the de the of us praying people. Every man and wom praying to God, wielded a power mightier the
SUBTERRANEAN COAL OIL, Unequalled for Himminating and LUBRICATING PURPOSES. This Oil us beautifully white, entirely free from any anyleasant odor, is non-explosive, and burns with a beautiful bright and white fiame. Warranted in all cases to give satisfaction. Manufactured and for Sale by	To which the attention of CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS Is PARTICULARLY INVITED. MASS-IM. SPRING GOODS, 1861. ABBOTT, JOHNES & OO. 527 MARKET STREET,	DYOTT & CO., No. 239 North SECOND Street, Phi- adelphis Arentz. mb33-5m JEWELRY, & C. FINE WATCH REPAIRING. DERSONS HAVING FINE WATCHES that have hitherto given no satisfaction to the warers, are invited to bring them to our store, where all defects can be remedied by thoroughly skilled and scientific order. PARE & BROTHER, Mantel Clocks, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete order. PARE & BROTHER, importers of Watches, Musical Boxes, Clock, & c., spt-3m 324 CHESTNUT Street, below Pourth. BEST OHOICE YET OFFERED.	<ul> <li>Ite President Fermients, fastis, is now published for the president of the gaid service.</li> <li>Accordingly, instruction in the same will be given atter the method printed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercise; forhidden.</li> <li>Isid down in this system are population for hidden and Recordingly, instruction in the same will be given atter the method printed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercise; forhidden.</li> <li>Isid down in this system are population for hidden and the system are population of the same are population of the same set of the same the Army of the United States. By GEORGE B. Mc- OLLLAN, Captain First Regiment Cavalry, U. S. A. Printed by order of the War Department.</li> <li>Une vol. 12mo. S126.</li> <li>Washingron, B. C., December, SI, 18SI.</li> <li>Hon. C. M. Conxan, Scoretary of War.</li> <li>Bir: Herewith 1 have the honor to submit a system of Bayonet Exercise, transited from the Prench by Captain Geo. B. McClellan, Corps Engineers, U. S. Army.</li> <li>Istrongly recommend its being printed for distribu- tion to the Army is not 's at the mage, 'y regulation, s part of the 'System of Instruction.'' The solosed extracts for m reports of the Inspector General, &amp;c., to show the value. I have the honor to be army is and 's at the medoed of the System's of the 'System of Instruction.'' The solosed extracts for with hith respect.</li> <li>I have the honor to be army is and 's at the medoed of the 'Argon's diverse of the 'Argon's diverse of the 'Argon's diverse of the 'Argon's and 's at the medoed's 's court of the 'Argon's and 's at the made 's the shoard's the solose's argon's of the 'Argon's diverse of</li></ul>	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English surnames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene- ral until two or three centuries later. Mr. Bowditch gives some curious and amu- sing specimens of Christian names. He men- tions that Lord Ceke declared more than one to be illegal, and mentions numerous great men who were satisfied with one. We could extend the list. George Washington, Israel Putnam, George Bancroft, Washington Irving, Benjamin Franklin, John Locke, John Hamp- den, Oliver Cromwell, John Churchill, (first Duke of Marlborough.) Arthur Wellesley, George Canging, the two William Pitts, Henry	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos suth gives his name to a hat, as Sir William Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington an Blucher to boots. A Colt and a Bowie repre- sent the revolver of one, and the knife of the other. The volume concludes with a Supplement and an index of surnames, which fills over 250 pages. The author's humor has pervade even this list of names. His last note, refer- ring to a child called Vensvia, intimates the this Christian name was doubless given be cause the child had an eruption . It is sad to think that Mr. Bowditch did not live to witness the certain success of this	<ul> <li>their passing through Baltimore would be avoided If the people would not permit them a transi thus remote from the city, they must select their own best routs, and, if need be, fight their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera sarcestly deprecated. The President expresson is hearly concurrence in the desire to avoid collision, and said no troops should be ordered through Baltimore if they were permitted to g uninterrupted by either of the other routes sug gested. In this dispesition the Scoretary of Wa expressed his participation. Mayor Brown assured the President that the cit authorities would use all lawful means to prever the citizens from leaving Baltimore to attack th troops in passing at a distance; but he urged, a the same time, the impossibility of their bein able to promise anything more than their bein great; he told the Fresident; the people of a classes were fully aroused, and it was impossible for any one to answer for the consequences of the presence of Northern troops anywhere within on borders. He reminded the President also that this of the action of the it president also that the other the dires of the reminded the President also that the set of the other muthorities were command.</li> </ul>	the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer wa the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th acknowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God; an to show that trust by manfully doing our whol duty. To trust God merely, without making s effort, he held would be to tempt God; whilst d the other hand, to repair to work without trustin in Him, would be to deny God. The "prayer fa Peace " should now be the prayer of every hear of the there hand, to repair to work without trustin in Him, would be to gray for peace. If it was some through privation and suffering, let us, is said, still pray that peace may soon reign throug all the borders of our land. In short, the det iny of our land, he alleged, was now in the han of its praying people. Every man and womin praying to God, wielded a power mightier this to the tword. For this reason, it was said that the
SUBTERRANEAN COAL OIL, Unequalled for Himminating and LUBRICATING PURPOSES. This Oil as beantifully white, extirely free from any unpleasant odor, is non-explosive, and burns with a beautiful bright and white flames. Warranted in all cases to give satisfaction. Manufactured and for Sale by GEO, W. WOOTTEN,	To which the attention of CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS IS PARTICULARLY INVITED. mh85-1m. SPRING GOODS, 1861. ABBOTT, JOHNES & OO. 527 MARKET STREET, AND 584 COMMERCE STREET, Kave now open their	DYOTT & CO., No. 239 North SECOND Street, Phi- adelphis Arentz. mh33-5m JEWELRY, &cc. FINE WATCH REPAIRINC. DERSONS HAVING FINE WATCHES that have hitherto given no satisfaction to the wearers, are invited to bring them to our store, where all defects can be remedied by thoroughly skillel and complete order. PARE & BROTHER, Mantel Clocks, Musical Bores, &c., carefully put in complete order. PARE & BROTHER, insorters of Watches, Musical Bores, &c., carefully put in complete order. PARE & BROTHER, insorters of Watches, Musical Bores, &co., carefully put in set of the Street, below Fourth. BEST OHOICE YET OFFERED. MEW GOODS. NEW STORE. NEW STORE.	<ul> <li>Ite President Fermients, fastis, is now published for the president of the gaid service.</li> <li>Accordingly, instruction in the same will be given atter the method printed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercise; forhidden; and down in this system are population for hidden; and down in this system are population for hidden; and down in this system are population for hidden; and down in this system are population; and down in this system; and down in this system; and down in this system; are population; and the system are population; and the system of the present the Army of the United States. By GEORGE B. Mc- OLLLAN, Captain First Regiment Cavalry, U. S. A. Printed by order of the War Department. Une vol. 12mo. S125.</li> <li>Hone, C. M. Conxan, Scoretary of War. Bir: Herewith 1 have the honor to submit a system of Bayonet Exercise; translated from the Prench by Captain Geo. B. MoClellan, Corps Engineers, U. S. Army. I strongly recommend its being printed for distribu- tion to the Army is nd the is the made, y regulation, a part of the "System of Instruction." The solosed extracts for m reports of the Inspector General, &amp;c., to show the value. I have the honor to be army is with high respect. Approved. Con RAD, WINFIEL 0 SCUTT. C. M. CONRAD, of War.</li> </ul>	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English surnames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene- ral until two or three centuries later. Mr. Bowditch gives some curious and amu- sing specimens of Christian names. He men- tions that Lord Ceke declared more than one to be illegal, and mentions numerous great men who were satisfied with one. We could extend the list. George Washington, Israel Putnam, George Bancroft, Washington Irving, Benjamin Franklin, John Locke, John Hamp- den, Oliver Cromwell, John Churchill, (first Duke of Marlborough.) Arthur Wellealey, George Canping, the two William Pitts, Henry Brougham, John Dryden, John Pym, Algernon	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos suth gives his name to a hat, as Sir William Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington and Blucher to boots. A Colt and a Bowie repre- sent the revolver of one, and the knife of the other. The volume concludes with a Supplement and an index of surnames, which fills over 250 pages. The author's humor has pervade even this list of names. His last note, refer- ring to a child called Veusvia, intimates the this Christian name was doubless given be cause the child had an eruption . It is sad to think that Mr. Bowditch did not live to witness the certain success of this book. With little trouble, we could write	<ul> <li>their passing through Baltimore would be avoided If the people would not permit them a transi thus remote from the city, they must select their own best route, and, if need be, fight their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera estreesity deprecated. The President expresses is hearty concurrence in the desire to avoid collision, and said no troops should be ordered through Baltimore if they were permitted to g uninterrupted by either of the other routes sug gested. In this dispesition the Scoretary of We expressed his participation. Mayor Brown assured the President that the cit authorities would use all lawful means to prever their citizens from leaving Baltimore to attack th troops in passing at a distance; but he urged, a the same time, the impossibility of their bein able to promise anything more than their bein able to promise anything more than their bein the source of Northern troops anywhere within or brosence of Northern troops anywhere within or broders. He reminded the President also that the in presence of Northern troops anywhere within or broders. He reminded the President also that the in presence of Northern troops anywhere within or borders. He reminded the President also that th is jurisdiction of the city suthorities was confined if the balt of the star suthorities was confined if the presence of Northern troops anywhere within or borders. He reminded the President also that th is jurisdiction of the city suthorities was confined if the presence of Northern troops anywhere within or borders. He reminded the President also that th is jurisdiction of the city suthorities was confined if the presence of Northern troops anywhere within or borders. He reminded the president also that the is jurisdiction of the city suthorities was confined if the presence of northern troops anywhere within or borders.</li> </ul>	the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer was the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th acknowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God; an to show that trust by manfully doing our whol duty. To trust God merely, without making s effort, he held would be to tempt God; whilst d the other hand, to repair to work without trustin in Him, would be to deny God. The "prayer fa Prace" should now be the prayer of every hear of the through privation and suffering, let us, said, still pray that peace may soon reign throug all the borders of our land. In short, the de tiny of our land, he alleged, was now in the han of its praying people. Every man and womin praying to God, wielded a power mightier the the tword. For this reason, it was sid that the
SUBTERRANEAN COAL OIL, Usequalled for Illuminating and LUBRICATING PURPOSES. This Oil as beautifully white, entirely free from any unpleasant odor, is non-explosive, and burns with a basatifal bright and white flame. Warranted in all cases to give satisfaction. Manufactured and for Sale by GEO. W. WOOTTEN, mbM-1m 38 South SECOND Street, Philadelphis. HARDWARE.	To which the attention of CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS IS PARTICULARLY INVITED. mh#5-im. SPRING GOODS, 1861. ABBOTT, JOHNES & OO, 527 MARKET STREET, AND 584 COMMERCE STREET, Kave new open their NEW IMPORTATION	DYOTT & CO., No. 239 North SECOND Street, Phi- adelphis Arentz. mh23-5m JEWELRY, &cc. FINE WATCH REPAIRINC. DERSONS HAVING FINE WATCHES that have hitherto given no satisfaction to the wearer, are invited to bring them to our store, where all defects can be remedied by thoroughly skilled and scientific workmen, and the watch worranted to give entire satisfaction. Musical Boxes, &c., carefully put in complete order. PARE & BROTHER, importers of Watches, Musical Boxes, &c., carefully put in complete order. PARE & BROTHER, importers of Watches, Musical Boxes, &c., carefully put in Stat CHESTNUT Street, below Fourth. BEST OHOICE YET OFFERED. NEW GOODS. NEW STORE. DEEM STYLES. GREAT METROPOLITAN	<ul> <li>The President Fermients, fasting been sphericed for the president of the gaid service.</li> <li>Accordingly, instruction in the same will be given atter the method printed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and nident the president of the gaid service.</li> <li>Accordingly, instruction in the same will be given atter the method printed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and nident the president of the gaid service.</li> <li>Accordingly, instruction in the same will be given atter the method printed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and nident the formation of the gaid service.</li> <li>Manual of Baymet Exercises. Frequent of the set the Army of the context set of the set of the Army of the other forms the set of the Army of the other forms the set of the Army of the other forms the set of the Army of the set of the bood of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the bood of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the bood of the set of the set</li></ul>	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English surnames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene- ral until two or three centuries later. Mr. Bowditch gives some curious and amu- sing specimens of Christian names. He men- tions that Lord Ceke declared more than one to be illegal, and mentions numerons great men who were satisfied with one. We could extend the list. George Washington, Israel Putnam, George Bancroft, Washington Irving, Benjamin Franklin, John Locke, John Hamp- den, Oliver Cromwell, John Churchill, (first Duke of Marlborough.) Arthur Wellesley, George Canning, the two William Pitts, Henry Brougham, John Dryden, John Pym, Algernon Sydney, Robert Peel, Alexander Pope, Wal-	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos suth gives his name to a hat, as Sir Willian Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington and Blucher to boots. A Colt and a Bowie repre- sent the revolver of one, and the knife of the other. The volume concludes with a Supplement and an index of surnames, which fills over 250 pages. The author's humor has pervade even this list of names. His last note, refer- ring to a child called Vensvia, intimates the this Christian name was doubless given be cause the child had an eruption . It is sad to think that Mr. Bowditch did not live to witness the certain success of thi book. With little trouble, we could write dozen articles upen and out of it, without ex-	<ul> <li>their passing through Baltimore would be avoided If the people would not permit them a transi thus remote from the oity, they must select their own best routs, and, if need be, fight their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera sarnestly deprecated. The President expresses is hearly concurrence in the desire to avoid collision, and said no troops should be ordere through Baltimore if they were permitted to g minterrupted by either of the other routes sug gested. In this dispesition the Scoretary of We expressed his participation. Mayor Brown assured the President that the cit authorities would use all lawful means to prever their citizens from leaving Baltimore to attack th troops in passing at a distance; but he urged; a the same time, the impossibility of their bein able to promise anything more than their bein the forts in that direction. The excitement we great; he told the President; the people of a olasses were fully aroused, and it was impossibl for any one to answer for the consequences of its presence of Northern troops anywhere within or borders. He reminded the President also that the indication of the city authorities was confined its their own population, and that he could give r promises for the people elsewhere, because l</li></ul>	the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer was the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th acknowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God; an to show that trust by manfully doing our whol duty. To trust God merely, without making s effort, he held would be to tempt God; whilst d the other hand, to repair to work without trustin in Him, would be to deny God. The "prayer fa Prace" should now be the prayer of every hear of the through privation and suffering, let us, said, still pray that peace may soon reign throug all the borders of our land. In short, the de tiny of our land, he alleged, was now in the han of its praying people. Every man and womin praying to God, wielded a power mightier the the tword. For this reason, it was sid that the
SUBTERRANEAN COAL OIL, Vacualled for Illuminating and LUBRICATING PURPOSES. This Oil as beautifully white, entirely free from any anylessent odor, is non-explosive, and barrs with a beautiful bright and white flame. Warranted in all cases to give satisfaction. Manufactured and for Sale by GEO. W. WOOTTEN, mhM-1m 38 South SECOND Street, Philadelphis.	To which the attention of CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS IS PARTICULARLY INVITED. mh#5-im. SPRING GOODS, 1861. ABBOTT, JOHNES & OO, 527 MARKET STREET, AND 584 COMMERCE STREET, Kave new open their NEW IMPORTATION	DYOTT & CO., No. 239 North SECOND Street, Phi- adelphis Arentz. mh33-5m JEWELRY, &cc. FINE WATCH REPAIRINC. DERSONS HAVING FINE WATCHES that have hitherto given no satisfaction to the wearers, are invited to bring them to our store, where all defects can be remedied by thoroughly skillel and scientific workmen, and the watch werranted to give antire satisfactions. Musical Boxes, &c., carefully put in complete order. PARE & BROTHER, insorters of Watches, Musical Boxes, &c., carefully put in complete order. PARE & BROTHER, insorters of Watches, Musical Boxes, &c., carefully put in set of the Street, below Fourth. BEST OHOICE YET OFFERED. NEW GOODS. NEW STORE. GREAT METROPOLITAN	<ul> <li>The President Fermines is a transference of the president of the state of the state</li></ul>	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English surnames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene- ral until two or three centuries later. Mr. Bowditch gives some curious and amu- sing specimens of Christian names. He men- tions that Lord Ceke declared more than one to be illegal, and mentions numerous great men who were satisfied with one. We could extend the list. George Washington, Israel Putnam, George Bancroft, Washington Irving, Benjamin Franklin, John Locke, John Hamp- den, Oliver Gromwell, John Churchill, (first Duke of Marlborough.) Arthur Wellesley, George Canning, the two William Pitts, Henry Brougham, John Dryden, John Pym, Algernon Sydney, Bobert Peel, Alexander Pope, Wal-	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos suth gives his name to a hat, as Sir Willian Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington and Blucher to boots. A Colt and a Bowie repre- sent the revolver of one, and the knife of the other. The volume concludes with a Supplement and an index of surnames, which fills over 250 pages. The author's humor has pervade even this list of names. His last note, refer- ring to a child called Vensvia, intimates the this Christian name was doubless given be cause the child had an eruption. It is sad to think that Mr. Bowditch did not live to witness the certain success of thi book. With little trouble, we could write dozen articles upen and out of it, without ex- hansting it. Let it remain, fittest monumen	<ul> <li>their passing through Baltimore would be avoided If the people would not permit them a transi thus remote from the city, they must select their own best route, and, if need be, fight their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera sarrestly deprecated. The President expresses is hearly concurrence in the desire to avoid collision, and said no troops should be ordered through Baltimore if they were permitted to g minterrupted by either of the other routes sug gested. In this dispesition the Scoretary of We expressed his participation. Mayor Brown assured the President that the cit authorities would use all lawful means to prever their citizens from leaving Baltimore to attack th troops in passing at a distance; but he urged, a the same time, the impossibility of their bein able to promise anything more than their bein able to promise for the consequences of the presence of Northern troops anywhere within or borders. He reminded the President also that the invision of the city authorities was confined in their own population, and that he could give n would be unable to keep them if given. The President frankly acknowledged this difference of the server of the server of the the of the of the server of the server of the other the of the of the provide the server of the other of the order of the other of the other of the other of the order of the other of the other of the other of the order of the other ot</li></ul>	the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer was the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th acknowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God; an to show that trust by manfully doing our whol duty. To trust God merely, without making s effort, he held would be to tempt God; whilet d the other hand, to repair to work without trustin in Him, would be to deny God. The "prayer fi Peace " should now be the prayer of every hear If that peace must come through war, it was f as come through privation and suffering, let us, 1 said, still pray that peace may soon reign throug all the borders of our land. In short, the de thy of our land, he alleged, was now in the han of its praying people. Every man and womin praying to God, wielded a power mightier th the bestord. For this reason, it was said that th destiny of a nation depended less upon the wisde of its rulers than upon the morals of the people. The name and example of our illustrio
SUBTERRANEAN COAL OIL, Unequalled for Illuminating and LUBRICATING PURPOSES. This Oil as beautifully white, entirely free from any unpleasant odor, is non-explosive, and barras with a beautiful bright and white flame. Warranted in all cases to give satisfaction. Manufactured and for Sale by GEO. W. WOOTTEN, unbit-im 38 South SECOND Street, Philadelphis. HARDWARE.	To which the attention of CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS IS PARTICULARLY INVITED. MASS-IM. SPRING GOODS, 1861. ABBOTT, JOHNES & OO. 527 MARKET STREET, AND 584 COMMERCE STREET, Have now open their NEW IMPORTATION 07	DYOTT & CO., No. 239 North SECOND Street, Phi- adelphis Arentz. mh33-5m JEWELRY, &cc. FINE WATCH REPAIRINC. DERSONS HAVING FINE WATCHES that have hitherto given no satisfaction to the wearers, are invited to bring them to our store, where all defects can be remedied by thoroughly skillel and scientific workmen, and the watch werranted to give antire satisfactions. Musical Boxes, &c., carefully put in complete order. PARE & BROTHER, insorters of Watches, Musical Boxes, &c., carefully put in complete order. PARE & BROTHER, insorters of Watches, Musical Boxes, &c., carefully put in set of the Street, below Fourth. BEST OHOICE YET OFFERED. NEW GOODS. NEW STORE. GREAT METROPOLITAN	<ul> <li>The President Fermines is a transference of the president of the state of the state</li></ul>	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English surnames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene- ral until two or three centuries later. Mr. Bowditch gives some curious and amu- sing specimens of Christian names. He men- tions that Lord Ceke declared more than one to be illegal, and mentions numerous great men who were satisfied with one. We could extend the list. George Washington, Israel Putnam, George Bancroft, Washington Irving, Benjamin Franklin, John Locke, John Hamp- den, Oliver Gromwell, John Churchill, (first Duke of Marlborough.) Arthur Wellesley, George Canning, the two William Pitts, Henry Brougham, John Dryden, John Pym, Algernon Sydney, Bobert Peel, Alexander Pope, Wal-	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos suth gives his name to a hat, as Sir William Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington and Blucher to boots. A Colt and a Bowie repres sent the revolver of one, and the knife of the other. The volume concludes with a Supplement and an index of surnames, which fills over 250 pages. The author's humor has pervade even this list of names. His last note, refer ring to a child called Vensvia, intimates the this Christian name was doubtless given be cause the child had an eruption . It is sad to think that Mr. Bowditch did no live to witness the certain success of thi book. With little trouble, we could write dozen articles upen and out of it, without ex- hausting it. Let it remain, fittest monumer of the lamented author's ingenuity. learning	<ul> <li>their passing through Baltimore would be avoided If the people would not permit them a transi thus remote from the city, they must select their own best routs, and, if need be, fight their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera sarnestly deprecated. The President expresses is hearly concurrence in the desire to avoid collision, and said no troops should be ordered through Baltimore if they were permitted to g uninterrupted by either of the other routes sug gested. In this dispetition the Scoretary of Wa expressed his participation. Mayor Brown assured the President that the cit authorities would use all lawful means to prever the citizens from leaving Baltimore to attack th troops in passing at a distance; but he urged; a the same time, the impossibility of their bein able to promise anything more than their bein the forts in that direction. The excitement way great; he told the President; the people of a classes were fully aroused, and it was impossible for any one to answer for the consequences of it presence of Northern troops anywhere within or borders. He reminded the President also that th ignisdiction of the city authorities was confined it would be unable to keep them if given. The President frankly acknowledged this diff so the prosine the keep them if given.</li> </ul>	the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer was the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th schnowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God, an to show that trust by manfully doing our whol duty. To trust God merely, without making s effort, he held would be to tempt God; whilst of the other hand, to repair to work without trust in Him, would be to deny God. The "prayer fa Peace" should now be the prayer of every hear if that peace must come through war, it was fa us, nevertheless to pray for peace. If it was come through privation and suffering, let us, 1 said, still pray that peace may soon reign throug all the borders of our land. In short, the de the word. For this reason, it was said that it destiny of a nation depended less upon the wisds of its rulers than upon the morals of the people. The name and example of our illustrio washington were next gracefully introduced. L though, he said, he regarded the Bible as affordi
SUBTERRANEAN COAL OIL, Unequalled for Illuminating and LUBRICATING PURPOSES. This Oil as beautifully white, entirely free from any unpleasent odor, is non-explosive, and burns with a beautiful bright and white flame. Warranted in all cases to give satisfaction. Manufactured and for Sale by GEO, W. WOOTTEN, MMM-IM 38 South SECOND Street, Philadelphia. HARDWARE. MOORE, HENSZEY, & CO	To which the attention of CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS IS PARTICULARLY INVITED. mh#5-im. SPRING GOODS, 1861. ABBOTT, JOHNES & OO, 527 MARKET STREET, AND 584 COMMERCE STREET, Kave new open their NEW IMPORTATION	DYOTT & CO., No. 239 North SECOND Street, Phi- adelphis Arentz. mb33-5m JEWELRY, & C. FINE WATCH REPAIRING. DERSONS HAVING FINE WATCHES that have hitherto given no satisfaction to the wearers, are invited to bring them to our store, where all defeats can be remedied by thoroughly skillel and scientific workmen, and the watch werranted to give mantel Clocks, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete order. PARE & BROTHER, Importers of Watches, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete order. PARE & BROTHER, Importers of Watches, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete order. PARE & BROTHER, Importers of Watches, Musical Boxes, & Clock, & c., sp4-3m 324 CHESTNUT Street, below Fourth. BEST OHOICE YET OFFERED. NEW GOODS. NEW STORE. GREAT METROPOLITAN JEWELRY DEPOT, FOUR THIRTY-TWO CHESTNUT STREET. GREAT SACRIFICE, TO INSURE QUICK SALES	<ul> <li>The President Fermients, fasting been spheres of the president of the guide fast, in power published for the government of the said service.</li> <li>Accordingly, instruction in the same will be given atter the method printed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and mancuvers laid down in this system are positively forbidden.</li> <li>T. R. FOINSETT, S. R. S. S.</li></ul>	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English surnames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene- ral until two or three centuries later. Mr. Bowditch gives some curious and amu- sing specimens of Christian names. He men- tions that Lord Coke declared more than one to be illegal, and mentions numerous great men who were satisfied with one. We could extend the list. George Washington, Israel Putnam, George Bancroft, Washington, Israel Putnam, George Bancroft, Washington Irving, Benjamin Franklin, John Locke, John Hamp- den, Oliver Cromwell, John Churchill, (first Duke of Marlborough.) Arthur Wellealey, George Canning, the two William Pitts, Henry Brougham, John Dryden, Joha Pym, Algernon Sydney, Robert Peel, Alexander Pope, Wal- ter Scott, Thomas Moore, Alfred Tennyson, Charles Dickens. On the other hand, many illustrious or eminent persons have had double	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" tanght. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos suth gives his name to a hat, as Sir William Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington and Blucher to boots. A Colt and a Bowie repre- sent the revolver of one, and the knife of the other. The volume concludes with a Supplement and an index of surnames, which fills over 250 pages. The author's humor has pervade even this list of names. His last note, refer- ring to a child called Vensvia, intimates the this Christian name was doubtless given be cause the child had an eruption . It is sad to think that Mr. Bowditch did not live to witness the certain success of this book. With little trouble, we could write dozen articles upen and out of it, without ex- hansting it. Let it remain, fittest monumer of the lamented author's ingenuity, learning inductry, nationes, talent, and bonkom	<ul> <li>their passing through Baltimore would be avoided If the people would not permit them a transi thus remote from the city, they must select their own best routs, and, if need be, fight their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera sarnesity deprecated. The President expressed is hearty concurrence in the desire to avoid collision, and said no troops should be ordered through Baltimore if they were permitted to g uninterrupted by either of the other routes ang gested. In this dispesition the Scoretary of We expressed his participation. Mayor Brown assure the President that the cit authorities would use all lawful means to preven their citizens from leaving Baltimore to attack the effort is in that direction. The excitement we great, he told the President; the people of a lasses were fully aroused, and it was impossible for any one to answer for the consequences of the presence of Northern troops anywhere within or is borders. He reminded the President also that the ather own population, and that he could give I promises for the tore starts within or a their own that the Government could only and the own that the Government could only and the oity authorities to use their best efforts withen or the resident frankly acknowledged this dif- oulty, and saw that the Government could only and the oity authorities to use their best efforts withen or the orth pressence of the the index forts within or the orth pressident frankly acknowledged this dif- oulty, and saw that the Government could only and the outy authorities to use their best efforts with the o</li></ul>	the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer was the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th acknowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God, an to show that trust by manfully doing our whol duty. To trust God merely, without making s effort, he held would be to tempt God; whilst of the other hand, to repair to work without trust in Him, would be to deny God. The "prayer fa Peace" should now be the prayer of every hear if that peace must come through war, it was fa us, nevertheless to pray for peace. If it was some through privation and suffering, let us, 1 said, still pray that peace may soon reign throug all the borders of our land. In short, the de tiny of our land, he alleged, was now in the han of its praying people. Every man and womin praying to God, wielded a power mightier thi the sword. For this reason, it was said that th destiny of a nation depended less upon the wiede of its rulers than upon the morals of the people. The name and example of our illustrio Washington were next gracefully introduced. A though, he said, he regarded the Bible as affordit the highest lessons of wisdom, yet we had in ad
SUBTERRANEAN COAL OIL, Unequalled for Illuminating and LUBRICATING PURPOSES. This Oil as beantifully white, entirely free from any unpleasant odor, is non-explosive, and burns with the beantiful bright and white flame. Warranted in all cases to give satisfaction. Manufactured and for Sale by GEO, W. WOOTTEN, MANUFACTURE 38 South SECOND Street, Philadelphia. HARDWARE. MOORE, HENSZEY, & CO ARE NOW OPENING THEIR SPRING STOCK OF	To which the attention of CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS IS PARTICULARLY INVITED. MAND-IM. SPRING GOODS, 1861. ABBOTT, JOHNES & OO. 527 MARKET STREET, AND 594 COMMERCE STREET, Kave new open their NEW IMPORTATION OF SILKS AND FANOY DRY GOODS,	DYOTT & CO., No. 239 North SECOND Street, Phi- adelphis Arentz. mb33-5m JEWELRY, & C. FINE WATCH REPAIRING. DERSONS HAVING FINE WATCHES that have hitherto given no satisfaction to the wearers, are invited to bring them to our store, where all defects can be remedied by thoroughly skillel and scientific workmen, and the watch werranted to give mantel Cicoka, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete order. PARE & BROTHER, Importers of Watches, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete order. PARE & BROTHER, Importers of Watches, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete order. PARE & BROTHER, Importers of Watches, Musical Boxes, & Clock, & c., sp4-3m 394 CHESTNUT Street, below Fourth. BEST OHOICE YET OFFERED. NEW GOODS. NEW STORE. GREAT METROPOLITAN JEWELRY DEPOT, FOUR THIRTY-TWO CHESTNUT STREET. GREAT SACRIFICE, TO INSURE QUICK SALES	<ul> <li>The President Fermients, fasting been spheres of the president of the guide fast, in power published for the government of the said service.</li> <li>Accordingly, instruction in the same will be given atter the method printed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and mancuvers laid down in this system are positively forbidden.</li> <li>T. R. FOINSETT, S. R. S. S.</li></ul>	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English surnames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene- ral until two or three centuries later. Mr. Bowditch gives some curious and amu- sing specimens of Christian names. He men- tions that Lord Coke declared more than one to be illegal, and mentions numerous great men who were satisfied with one. We could extend the list. George Washington, Israel Putnam, George Bancroft, Washington Irving, Benjamin Franklin, John Locke, John Hamp- den, Oliver Cromwell, John Churchill, (first Duke of Marlborough.) Arthur Wellealey, George Canning, the two William Pitts, Henry Brougham, John Dryden, Joha Pym, Algernon Sydney, Robert Peel, Alexander Pope, Wal- ter Scott, Thomas Moore, Alfred Tennyson, Charles Dickens. On the other hand, many Illustrious or eminent persons have had double Christian names; but Mr. Bowditch has no right	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" tanght. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos suth gives his name to a hat, as Sir William Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington and Blucher to boots. A Colt and a Bowie repre- sent the revolver of one, and the knife of the other. The volume concludes with a Supplement and an index of surnames, which fills over 250 pages. The author's humor has pervade even this list of names. His last note, refer- ring to a child called Vensvia, intimates the this Christian name was doubtless given be cause the child had an eruption . It is sad to think that Mr. Bowditch did not live to witness the certain success of thi book. With little trouble, we could write dozen articles upen and out of it, without ex- hansting it. Let it remain, fittest monumer of the lamented author's ingenuity, learning industry, patience, talent, and bonkomi is monumers moriar."————————————————————————————————————	<ul> <li>their passing through Baltimore would be avoided If the people would not permit them a transi thus remote from the city, they must select their own best routs, and, if need be, fight their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera- sarnesity deprecated. The President expressed is hearty concurrence in the desire to avoid it collision, and said no troops should be ordered through Baltimore if they were permitted to g uninterrupted by either of the other routes ang gested. In this dispesition the Scoretary of We expressed his participation. Mayor Brown assure the President that the cit authorities would use all lawful means to preven their citizens from leaving Baltimore to attack the effort is in that direction. The excitement we great, he told the President; the people of a lasses were fully aroused, and it was impossible for any one to answer for the consequences of the presence of Northern troops anywhere within or is borders. He reminded the President also that the is president frankly acknowledged this dif- outly, and saw that the Government could only and the orty authorities to use their best efforts with their own population, and that he could give n their own that the Government could only and the orty authorities to use their best efforts with the new that the Government could only and the city authorities to use their best efforts with the interview terminated with the distintor.</li> </ul>	f the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer way the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th acknowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God, and to show that trust by manfully doing our whold duty. To trust God merely, without making s effort, he held would be to tempt God; whilst of the other hand, to repair to work without trustin in Him, would be to deny God. The "prayer fa- the other hand, to repair to work without trusting the other hand, to repair to make the prayer of every hear if that peace must come through war, it was fa- us, nevertheless to pray for peace. If it was come through privation and suffering, let us, 1 said, still pray that peace may soon reign throug all the borders of our land. In short, the de tiny of our land, he alleged, was now in the hand of its praying people. Every man and worm praying to God, wielded a power mightier the the basiny of a ration depended less upon the wisde of its rulers than upon the morals of the people. The name and example of our illustrio Washington were next gracefully introduced. A though, he said, he regarded the Bible as affording the highest lessons of wisdom, yet we had in ad- tion to this the counsel of one whose words show
SUBTERRANEAN COAL OIL, Unequalised for Illuminating and LUBRICATING PURPOSES. This Oil is beautifully white, entirely free from any supleasant odor, is non-explosive, and barns with basatiful bright and white flame. Warranted in all cases to give satisfaction. Manufactured and for Sale by GEO, W. WOOTTEN, mhw-im 38 South SECOND Street, Philadelphia. HARDWARE. MOORE, HENSZEY, & CO ABE NOW OFENING THEIR SPRING STOCK OF HARDWARE.	To which the attention of CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS IF PARTICULARLY INVITED. mh#-1m. SPRING GOODS, 1861. ABBOTT, JOHNES & OO, 527 MARKET STREET, AND 594 COMMERCE STREET, Have now open their NEW IMPORTATION of SILKS AND FANOY DRY GOODS, To which they invite the attention of the trade.	DYOTT & CO., No. 239 North SECOND Street, Phi- adelphis Arentz. mbH3-5m JEWELRY, & C. FINE WATCH REPAIRING. DERSONS HAVING FINE WATCHES that have hitherto given no satisfaction to the wearers, are invited to bring them to our store, where all defects can be remedied by thoroughly skilled and scientific workmen, and the watch worknow for the momple outfort. FARE & BROTHER, Importors of Watches, Munical Boxes, & a., carefully put in complete outfor. FARE & BROTHER, importors of Watches, Munical Boxes, Clocks, & c., sy4-5m 334 CHEBTNUF Street, below Fourth. BEST OHOICE YET OFFERED. NEW GOODS. NEW STORE. NEW STORE. SREAT MET ROPOLITAN JE WELLRY DE POT, FOUR THIRTY-TWO CHESTNUT STREET. GREAT SACRIFICE, TO INSURE QUICK SALEB I have opened, at the above store, one of the fineat and beat-assoried stores of iswer, Store, one of the fineat and seat-assoried stores of iswerp stated waves, and Fanoy Goods, ever before officied to the public. I will cuaranty to give perfect satisfaction to overy	<pre>the Present of Dregonic Periods is a state of the present of the state of the</pre>	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English surnames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene- ral until two or three centuries later. Mr. Bowditch gives some curious and amu- sing specimens of Christian names. He men- tions that Lord Ceke declared more than one to be illegal, and mentions numerous great men who were satisfied with one. We could extend the list. George Washington, Israel Putnam, George Bancroft, Washington Irving, Benjamin Franklin, John Locke, John Hamp- den, Oliver Cromwell, John Churchill, (first Duke of Marlborough.) Arthur Wellesley, George Canning, the two William Pitts, Henry Brougham, John Dryden, Joha Pym, Algernon Sydney, Robert Peel, Alexander Pope, Wal- ter Scott, Thomas Moore, Alfred Tennyson, Charles Dickens. On the other hand, many Illustrious or eminent persons have had double Christian names; but Mr. Bowditch has no right to count in Lydia Huntley Sigourney among	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos suth gives his name to a hat, as Sir William Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington and Blucher to boots. A Colt and a Bowie repre- sent the revolver of one, and the knife of the other. The volume concludes with a Supplement and an index of surnames, which fills over 250 pages. The author's humor has pervade even this list of names. His last note, refer- ring to a child called Vensvia, intimates the this Christian name was doubtless given be cause the child had an eruption . It is sad to think that Mr. Bowditch did not live to witness the certain success of this book. With little trouble, we could write dozen articles upen and out of it, without ex- hansting it. Let it remain, fittest monumer of the lamented author's ingenuity, learning industry, patience, talent, and bonkomi "Non omnis moriar,"—and Mr. Bowditch will long be remembered in Boston—out of it will long be remembered in Boston—out of it of the lamented author's ingenuity for a sub- with long be remembered in Boston—out of it of the lamented author's ingenuity for a sub- with long be remembered in Boston—out of it of the lamented author's ingenuity for a sub- with long be remembered in Boston—out of it of the lamented author's ingenuity for a sub- with long be remembered in Boston—out of it of the lamented author's ingenuity for a sub- stantion is moriar, and box of the lamented author's ingenuity for a sub- with long be remembered in Boston—out of the sub-	<ul> <li>their passing through Baltimore would be avoided If the people would not permit them a transi thus remote from the city, they must select their own best routs, and, if need be, fight their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera sarcestly deprecated. The President expressed is hearly concurrence in the desire to avoid collision, and said no troops should be ordered through Baltimore if they were permitted to g uninterrupted by either of the other routes ang gested. In this dispesition the Scoretary of Wa expressed his participation. Mayor Brown assured the President that the cit authorities would use all lawful means to preven their citizens from leaving Baltimore to attack the diroops in passing at a distance; but he urged, s the same time, the impossibility of their bein able to promise anything more than their bein efforts in that direction. The excitement we great, he told the President; the people of a blasses were fully aroused, and it was impossibility torars. He reminded the President also that the their own population, and that he could give n promises for the opople elsewhere, because 1 would be unable to keep them if given. The President frankly acknowledged this diff a their own population, and that he could give n promises for the people of a border. The president also that the stream output provide the the forement could only and the city authorities to use their best efforts wi respect to those under their jurisdiction. The interview terminated with the distinct as the city authorities to use their best efforts wi respect to those under their periadent that the on the interview terminated with the distinct as the surve on the part of the President that no mo</li> </ul>	the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer way the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th acknowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God, an to show that trust by manfully doing our whol duty. To trust God merely, without making a effort, he held would be to tempt God; whilst of the other hand, to repair to work without trustin in Him, would be to deny God. The "prayer fa Peace " should now be the prayer of every hear is, nevertheless to pray for peace. If it was come through privation and suffering, let us, 1 said, still pray that peace may soon reign throug as all the borders of our land. In short, the de the sword. For this reason, it was said that the sword. For this reason, it was said that the sword. For this reason, it was said that the the name and example of our illustrio the fits relaying were next gracefully introduced. A though, he said, he regarded the Bible as affording the highest lessons of wiedom, yet we had in ad tho this the counsel of one whose words shor the in the is the source of one whose words shor the in the sword as a saured authority, alluding
SUBTERRANEAN COAL OIL, Unequalled for Illuminating and LUBRICATING PURPOSES. This Oil as beautifully white, entirely free from any supposent odor, is non-explosive, and burns with the beautiful bright and white flame. Warranted in all causes to give satisfaction. Manufactared and for faile by GEO, W. WOOTTEN, Mini-Im 38 South SECOND Street, Philadelphia. HARDWARE, MOORE, HENSZEY, & CO ARE NOW OFENING THEIR SPRING STOCK OF	To which the attention of CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS Is PARTICULARLY INVITED. mh#5-1m. SPRING GOODS, 1861. ABBOTT, JOHNES & OO, 527 MARKET STREET, AND 594 COMMERCE STREET, Kave new open their NEW IMPORTATION of SILKS AND FANOY DRY GOODS, To which they invite the attention of the trade. 525-3m	DYOTT & CO., No. 239 North SECOND Street, Phi- adelphis Arentz. mbH3-5m JEWELRY, & C. FINE WATCH REPAIRING. DERSONS HAVING FINE WATCHES that have hitherto given no satisfaction to the wearers, are invited to bring them to our store, where all defects can be remedied by thoroughly skilled and scientific workmen, and the watch worknow for the momple outfort. FARE & BROTHER, Importors of Watches, Munical Boxes, & a., carefully put in complete outfor. FARE & BROTHER, importors of Watches, Munical Boxes, Clocks, & c., sy4-5m 334 CHEBTNUF Street, below Fourth. BEST OHOICE YET OFFERED. NEW GOODS. NEW STORE. NEW STORE. SREAT MET ROPOLITAN JE WELLRY DE POT, FOUR THIRTY-TWO CHESTNUT STREET. GREAT SACRIFICE, TO INSURE QUICK SALEB I have opened, at the above store, one of the fineat and beat-assoried stores of iswer, Store, one of the fineat and seat-assoried stores of iswerp stated waves, and Fanoy Goods, ever before officied to the public. I will cuaranty to give perfect satisfaction to overy	<pre>the Present of Dregonic Periods is a state of the present of the state of the</pre>	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English surnames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene- ral until two or three centuries later. Mr. Bowditch gives some curious and amu- sing specimens of Christian names. He men- tions that Lord Ceke declared more than one to be illegal, and mentions numerous great men who were satisfied with one. We could extend the list. George Washington, Israel Putnam, George Bancroft, Washington Irving, Benjamin Franklin, John Locke, John Hamp- den, Oliver Cromwell, John Churchill, (first Duke of Marlborough.) Arthur Wellealey, George Canning, the two William Pitts, Henry Brougham, John Dryden, John Pym, Algernon Sydney, Bobert Peel, Alexander Pope, Wal- ter Scott, Thomas Moore, Alfred Tennyson, Charles Dickens. On the other hand, many illustrious or eminent persons have had double Christian names; bnt Mr. Bowditch has no right to count in Lydia Huntley Sigourney among these, for her second is really her malden	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos suth gives his name to a hat, as Sir William Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington and Blucher to boots. A Colt and a Bowie repre- sent the revolver of one, and the knife of the other. The volume concludes with a Supplement and an index of surnames, which fills over 250 pages. The author's humor has pervade even this list of names. His last note, refer- ring to a child called Veusvia, intimates the this Christian name was doubtless given be cause the child had an eruption . It is sad to think that Mr. Bowditch did not live to witness the certain success of thi book. With little trouble, we could write dozen articles upen and out of it, without ex- hausting it. Let it remain, fittest monumer of the lamented author's ingenuity, learning industry, patience, talent, and bohomit will long be remembered in Boston—out of i to a, by this work. Truly does Campbell say	<ul> <li>their passing through Baltimore would be avoided If the people would not permit them a transi thus remote from the city, they must select their own best routs, and, if need be, fight their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera sarnestly deprecated. The President expressed bis hearty concurrence in the desire to avoid collision, and said no troops should be ordered through Baltimore if they were permitted to g uninterrupted by either of the other routes sug gested. In this dispesition the Scoretary of Wa expressed his participation. Mayor Brown assured the President that the cit authorities would use all lawful means to preven their citizens from leaving Baltimore to attack the d troops in passing at a distance; but he urged, a the same time, the impossibility of their bein able to promise anything more than thefr bein the first in that direction. The excitement we great, he told the President; the people of a classes were fully aroused, and it was impossibility to ray one to answer for the consequences of the issue time, the impossibility of the stimoties to the it was unborities was confined it broeders. He reminded the President also that it in president frankly acknowledged this diff calty, and saw that the Government could only an the city authorities to use their best efforts within or borders under their jurisdiction. The interview terminated with the distinct as the city authorities to use their best efforts within the surance on the part of the President that no mo the interview terminated with the distinct as the city authorities to use their best efforts within the interview terminated with the distinct as the interview terminated with the distinct as outrance on the part of the President that no mo troops would be sent through Baltimore unless o of the the trankly in other the directions of the set of the sent through Baltimore and the distinct as the city authorities to use their best efforts with the interview terminated with the distinct</li></ul>	the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer way the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th submovedgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God, an to show that trust by manfully doing our whol duty. To trust God merely, without making s effort, he held would be to tempt God; whilst of the other hand, to repair to work without trust in Him, would be to deny God. The "prayer far Peace " should now be the prayer of every hear if that peace must come through war, it was far us, nevertheless to pray for peace. If it was come through privation and suffering, let us, said, still pray that peace may soon reign throug all the borders of our land. In short, the de tiny of our land, he alleged, was now in the han of its praying people. Every man and women praying to God, wielded a power mightier the the sword. For this reason, it was said that ti destiny of a nation depended hes upont it was of its rulers than upon the morals of the people. The name and example of our illustrio Washington were next gracefully introduced. though, he said, he regarded the Bible as afford it highest lessons of wisdom, yet we had in ad tion to this the counsel of one whose words show be regarded as a saored authority, alluding the farewell address of Washington, which, asaid on path address of Washington, which, asaid on the to be written in letters of end
SUBTERRANEAN COAL OIL, Unequalled for Illuminating and LUBRICATING PURPOSES. This Oil as beautifully white, entirely free from any supleasant odor, is non-explorite, and burns with the beautiful bright and white flame. Warranted in all causes to give satisfaction. Manufactared and for faile by GEO, W. WOOTTEN, Manufactared and for faile by GEO, W. WOOTTEN, MARKET, and 416 COMMERCE STREET mbi-im	To which the attention of CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS IS PARTICULARLY INVITED. MAND-1m. SPRING GOODS, 1861. ABBOTT, JOHNES & OO. 527 MARKET STREET, AND 584 COMMERCE STREET, Eave now open their NEW IMPORTATION of SILKS AND FANOY DRY GOODS, To which they invite the attention of the trade. MAND 584 (1990) 1861	DYOTT & CO., No. 232 North SECOND Street, Phi- adelphis Arentz. mb33-5m JEWELRY, & C. FINE WATCH REPAIRING. DERSONS HAVING FINE WATCHES that have hitherto given no satisfaction to the warers, are invited to bring them to our store, where all defects can be remedied by thoroughly skilled and scientific workmen, and the watch warranted to give mantel Clocks, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete order. Mantel Clocks, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete order. BEST OHOICE YET OFFERED. NEW GOODS. NEW STORE. NEW GOODS. NEW STORE. NEW STORE. GREAT METROPOLITAN JE WELLRY DEPOT, FOUR THIRTY-TWO CHESTNUT STREET. GREAT SACRIFICE, TO INSURE QUICK SALES I have opened at the show store, one of the fineat and Fanoy Goods, ever before officied to the public. I will guaranty to give perfect saturation to every call and examine my stock and you will find a class of goods equal to any in the city. OBER THE DIG SALES.	<pre>the Present of Dregonic Periods is a state of the present of the state of the</pre>	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English sumames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene- ral until two or three centuries later. Mr. Bowditch gives some curious and amu- sing specimens of Christian names. He men- tions that Lord Ceke declared more than one to be illegal, and mentions numerous great men who were satisfied with one. We could extend the list. George Washington, Israel Putnam, George Bancroft, Washington Irving, Benjamin Franklin, John Locke, John Hamp- den, Oliver Cromwell, John Churchill, (first Duke of Marlborough.) Arthur Wellesley, George Canning, the two William Pitts, Henry Brougham, John Dryden, John Pym, Algernon Sydney, Robert Peel, Alexander Pope, Wal- ter Scott, Thomas Moore, Alfred Tennyson, Charles Dickens. On the other hand, many Illustrious or eminent persons have had double Christian names; but Mr. Bowditch has no right to count in Lydia Huntley Sigourney among these, for her second is really her maiden name, and, in Encland, if Miss Lydia Huntley	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos suth gives his name to a hat, as Sir William Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington am Blucher to boots. A Golt and a Bowie repre- sent the revolver of one, and the knife of the other. The volume concludes with a Supplement and an index of surnames, which fills over 250 pages. The author's humor has pervade even this list of names. His last note, refer- ring to a child called Vensvia, intimates the this Christian name was doubless given be cause the child had an eruption . It is sad to think that Mr. Bowditch did not live to witness the certain success of thi book. With little trouble, we could write dozen articles upen and out of it, without ex- hausting it. Let it remain, fittest monumer of the lamented author's ingenuity, learning industry, patience, talent, and bonhomi "Non omnis moriar,"—and Mr. Bowditch will long be remembered in Boston—out of it hook, by this work. Truly does Campbell say But trave his ashes to the wind.	<ul> <li>their passing through Baltimore would be avoided If the people would not permit them a transi thus remote from the city, they must select their own best routs, and, if need be, fight their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera sarnestly deprecated. The President expressed is hearly concurrence in the desire to avoid collision, and said no troops should be ordered through Baltimore if they were permitted to g uninterrupted by either of the other routes sug gested. In this dispesition the Scoretary of Wa expressed his participation. Mayor Brown assured the President that the cit authorities would use all lawful means to prever the collision, the impossibility of their bein able to promise anything more than their bein able to promise anything more than their bein the same time, the impossibility of their bein able to promise anything more than their bein able to promise anything more than their bein the same time, the impossibility of their bein able to promise anything more than their bein able to promise anything more than their bein the same time, the impossibility of their bein able to promise anything more than their bein great, he told the Fresident; the people of a olasses were fully aroused, and it was impossible for any one to answer for the consequences of the presence of Northern troops anywhere within or borders. He reminded the President also that the indication of the city authorities was confined in a the city authorities to use their best efforts with a the city authorities to use their best efforts with the interview that the Government could only an the city authorities to use their best efforts with the interview tarminated with the distincts and the city authorities to use their best efforts with the interview tarminated with the distincts and the city authorities to are there of our outhors and with the understanding that the city authorition. The Interview tarminated in the rest donts and is tructed in their transit in other direct</li></ul>	f the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer way the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th acknowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God, an to show that trust by manfully doing our whol duty. To trust God merely, without making a effort, he held would be to tempt God; whilst of the other hand, to repair to work without trust in Him, would be to deny God. The "prayer fa- preserve" should now be the prayer of every hear if that peace must come through war, it was fa- us, nevertheless to pray for peace. If it was come through privation and suffering, let us, said, still pray that peace may soon reign throug all the borders of our land. In short, the de tiny of our land, he alleged, was now in the ham of its praying people. Every man and wome praying to God, wielded a power mightier the the aword. For this reason, it was ald that the destiny of a nation depended hes supon the wisde of its rulers than upon the morals of the people. The name and example of our illustrio Washington were next gracefully introduced. A though, he said, he regarded the Bible as afford the highest lessons of wisdom, yst we had in add tion to this the counsel of one whose words shor be regarded as a sacred authority, alluding the farewell address of Washington, which, said, ought to be written in letters of gold a instilled into the mind of every child. But abs
SUBTERRANEAN COAL OIL, Unequalised for Himminating and LUBRICATING PURPOSES. This Oil as beautifully white, entirely free from any supposent odor, is non-explosive, and burns with the beautiful bright and white flame. Warranted in all causes to give satisfaction. Manufactared and for Sale by GEO. W. WOOTTEN, Manufactared and for Sale by GEO. W. WOOTTEN, Manufactared and for Sale by GEO. W. WOOTTEN, MANUFACTION BECOND Street, Philadelphis. HARDWARE. MOORE, HENSZEY, & CO ABE NOW OFENING THEIR SPRING STOCK OF HARDWARE, "MARKET, and 416 COMMERCE STREET Mal-im GROCERIES.	To which the attention of CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS IS PARTICULARLY INVITED. MASS-IM. SPRING GOODS, 1861. ABBOTT, JOHNES & OO. 527 MARKET STREET, AND 584 COMMERCE STREET, Have now open their NEW IMPORTATION 07 SILKS AND FANOY DRY GOODS, To which they invite the attention of the trade. (ast-im) SPRING, 1861 WURTS, AUSTIE, & MOVEIGH,	DYOTT & CO., No. 232 North SECOND Street, Phi- adelphis Arentz. mb33-5m JEWELRY, & C. FINE WATCH REPAIRING. DERSONS HAVING FINE WATCHES that have hitherto given no satisfaction to the warers, are invited to bring them to our store, where all defects can be remedied by thoroughly skilled and scientific workmen, and the watch warranted to give mantel Clocks, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete order. Mantel Clocks, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete order. BEST OHOICE YET OFFERED. NEW GOODS. NEW STORE. NEW GOODS. NEW STORE. NEW STORE. GREAT METROPOLITAN JE WELLRY DEPOT, FOUR THIRTY-TWO CHESTNUT STREET. GREAT SACRIFICE, TO INSURE QUICK SALES I have opened at the show store, one of the fineat and Fanoy Goods, ever before officied to the public. I will guaranty to give perfect saturation to every call and examine my stock and you will find a class of goods equal to any in the city. OBER THE DIG SALES.	<pre>the President Fermients, induced by publication of Dregonal Fermients, induced by the president of the gaid service. Accordingly, instruction in the same will be given atter the method printed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and mancuvers laid down in this system are positively forbidden. D. R. FOINSETT, Beoretary of Way. McCLELLAND'S BAYONET EXERCISES. Mannai of Bayonet Exercises, Prepared for the case of the Army of the United States. By GEOROGE B. MC. CLELLAN. Castain First Regiment Cavalry, U.S. A. Printed by order of the War Departures HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMT. Bir Hearwith have the honor to submit a system of Bayonet Exercise, translated from the French by Captain Geo. B. McClellan, Corps Engineers, U.S. Army. Istrongly recommend its being printed for distribu- tion to the Army ; and that to emade. y regulation, s part of the Bayone to the United States. I have the honor to be sir, with high respect. M. CONRAD, Secretary of War. Bir Herewith I have the honor to submit a system of Bayonet Exercise, translated from the French by Captain Geo. B. McClellan, Corps Engineers, U.S. Army. I strongly recommend its being printed for distribu- tion to the Army ; and the to be are, y regulation, s part of the System of Instruction." M. CONRAD, WINFIELD SCUTT. General, &amp;c., to show the Yate. Apy of the above works forwarded by mail free of postage to any part of the United States, on the receipt of the published price. Remittances can be made in sold dollars and portage transf. Mos. 20 and y4 North FUURTH Street, apl-8t WARTHER SOLDIERS11! SUPPLIED WITH</pre>	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English sumames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene- ral until two or three centuries later. Mr. Bowditch gives some curious and amu- sing specimens of Christian names. He men- tions that Lord Ceke declared more than one to be illegal, and mentions numerous great men who were satisfied with one. We could extend the list. George Washington, Israel Putnam, George Bancroft, Washington Irving, Benjamin Franklin, John Locke, John Hamp- den, Oliver Cromwell, John Churchill, (first Duke of Marlborough.) Arthur Wellesley, George Canning, the two William Pitts, Henry Brougham, John Dryden, John Pym, Algernon Sydney, Robert Peel, Alexander Pope, Wal- ter Scott, Thomas Moore, Alfred Tennyson, Charles Dickens. On the other hand, many Illustrious or eminent persons have had double Christian names; but Mr. Bowditch has no right to count in Lydia Huntley Sigourney among these, for her second is really her maiden name, and, in England, if Miss Lydia Huntley had married Mr. Sigourney, her married sig-	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos suth gives his name to a hat, as Sir William Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington am Blucher to boots. A Golt and a Bowie repre- sent the revolver of one, and the knife of the other. The volume concludes with a Supplement and an index of surnames, which fills over 250 pages. The author's humor has pervade even this list of names. His last note, refer- ring to a child called Yeusvia, intimates the this Christian name was doubless given be cause the child had an eruption . It is sad to think that Mr. Bowditch did not live to witness the certain success of thi book. With little trouble, we could write dozen articles upen and out of it, without ex- hausting it. Let it remain, fittest monumer of the lamented author's ingenuity, learning industry, patience, talent, and bonhomit "Non omnis moriar,"—and Mr. Bowditch will long be remembered in Boston—out of it book by this work. Truly does Campbell say Butstrew his ashes to the wind, "Whose sword or voice has served markind—	<ul> <li>their passing through Baltimore would be avoided If the people would not permit them a transi thus remote from the city, they must select their own best routs, and, if need be, fight their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera sarnestly deprecated. The President expressed bis hearty concurrence in the desire to avoid collision, and said no troops should be ordered through Baltimore if they were permitted to g uninterrupted by either of the other routes sug gested. In this dispetition the Scoretary of Wa expressed his participation. Mayor Brown assured the President that the cit authorities would use all lawful means to prever their citizens from leaving Baltimore to attack the d troops in passing at a distance; but he urged, a the same time, the impossibility of their bein able to promise anything more than theff bein rest, he told the President; the paople of a classes were fully aroused, and it was impossibility for any one to answer for the consequences of the presence of Northern troops anywhere within or borders. He reminded the President also that the i jurisdiction of the city authorities was confined if the is own population, and that he could give r promises for the propic elsewhere, because 1 would be unable to keep them if given. The President frankly acknowledged this diff coulty, and saw that the Government could only as the city authorities to use their best efforts with respect to those under their jurisdiction. The interview tarminated with the distinct a surance on the part of the President that no mo troops would be sent through Baltimore values of with the understanding that the city authorities to structed in their transit in other directions, and with the understanding that the eity authorities, on with the understanding that the city authorities to structed in their transit in other directions, and with the understanding that the eity authorities, and with the understanding that the eity authorities to thoris the and the companyi</li></ul>	the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer was the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th acknowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God, an to show that trust by manfully doing our whol duty. To trust God merely, without making a effort, he held would be to tempt God; whilst of the other hand, to repair to work without trustin in Him, would be to deny God. The "prayer fa Peace " should now be the prayer of every hear one through privation and suffering, let us, at us, nevertheless to pray for peace. If it was come through privation and suffering, let us, is said, still pray that peace may soon reign throug as all the borders of our land. In short, the de the of its praying people. Every man and wom praying to God, wielded a power mightier the the sword. For this reason, it was said that ti destiny of a nation depended less upon the wisde the inter state and and the Bible as affordi the highest lessons of wisdom, yet we had in ad the into this the counsel of one whose words shor be regarded as a sauced authority, alluding the farewell address of Washington, which, said, ought to be written in letters of gold a instilled into the mind of every child. But abb
SUBTERRANEAN COAL OIL, Unequalled for Illuminating and LUBRICATING PURPOSES. This Oil as beautifully white, entirely free from any supleasant odor, is non-explorite, and burns with the beautiful bright and white flame. Warranted in all causes to give satisfaction. Manufactared and for faile by GEO, W. WOOTTEN, Manufactared and for faile by GEO, W. WOOTTEN, MARKET, and 416 COMMERCE STREET mbi-im	To which the attention of CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS IS PARTICULARLY INVITED. MAND-1m. SPRING GOODS, 1861. ABBOTT, JOHNES & OO. 527 MARKET STREET, AND 584 COMMERCE STREET, Eave now open their NEW IMPORTATION of SILKS AND FANOY DRY GOODS, To which they invite the attention of the trade. MAND 584 (1990) 1861	DYOTT & CO., No. 232 North SECOND Street, Phi- adelphis Arentz. mb33-5m JEWELRY, & C. FINE WATCH REPAIRING. DERSONS HAVING FINE WATCHES that have hitherto given no satisfaction to the warers, are invited to bring them to our store, where all defects can be remedied by thoroughly skilled and scientific workmen, and the watch warranted to give mantel Clocks, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete order. Mantel Clocks, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete order. BEST OHOICE YET OFFERED. NEW GOODS. NEW STORE. NEW GOODS. NEW STORE. NEW STORE. GREAT METROPOLITAN JE WELLRY DEPOT, FOUR THIRTY-TWO CHESTNUT STREET. GREAT SACRIFICE, TO INSURE QUICK SALES I have opened at the show store, one of the fineat and Fanoy Goods, ever before officied to the public. I will guaranty to give perfect saturation to every call and examine my stock and you will find a class of goods equal to any in the city. OBER THE DIG SALES.	<pre>the President Fermients, induced by publication of Dregonal Fermients, induced by the president of the gaid service. Accordingly, instruction in the same will be given atter the method printed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and mancuvers laid down in this system are positively forbidden. D. R. FOINSETT, Beoretary of Way. McCLELLAND'S BAYONET EXERCISES. Mannai of Bayonet Exercises, Prepared for the case of the Army of the United States. By GEOROGE B. MC. CLELLAN. Castain First Regiment Cavalry, U.S. A. Printed by order of the War Departures HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMT. Bir Hearwith have the honor to submit a system of Bayonet Exercise, translated from the French by Captain Geo. B. McClellan, Corps Engineers, U.S. Army. Istrongly recommend its being printed for distribu- tion to the Army ; and that to emade. y regulation, s part of the Bayone to the United States. I have the honor to be sir, with high respect. M. CONRAD, Secretary of War. Bir Herewith I have the honor to submit a system of Bayonet Exercise, translated from the French by Captain Geo. B. McClellan, Corps Engineers, U.S. Army. I strongly recommend its being printed for distribu- tion to the Army ; and the to be are, y regulation, s part of the System of Instruction." M. CONRAD, WINFIELD SCUTT. General, &amp;c., to show the Yate. Apy of the above works forwarded by mail free of postage to any part of the United States, on the receipt of the published price. Remittances can be made in sold dollars and portage transf. Mos. 20 and y4 North FUURTH Street, apl-8t WARTHER SOLDIERS11! SUPPLIED WITH</pre>	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English surnames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene- ral until two or three centuries later. Mr. Bowditch gives some curious and anu- sing specimens of Christian names. He men- tions that Lord Ceke declared more than one to be illegal, and mentions numerons great men who were satisfied with one. We could extend the list. George Washington, Israel Putnam, George Bancroft, Washington Irving, Benjamin Franklin, John Locke, John Hamp- den, Oliver Cromwell, John Churchill, (first Duke of Marlborough.) Arthur Wellesley, George Canning, the two William Pitts, Henry Brougham, John Dryden, John Pym, Algernon Sydney, Robert Peel, Alexander Pope, Wal- ter Scott, Thomas Moore, Alfred Tennyson, Charles Dickens. On the other hand, many Illustrious or eminent persons have had double Christian names; but Mr. Bowditch has no right to count in Lydia Huntley Sigourney among these, for her second is really her maldem name, and, in England, if Miss Lydia Huntley had married Mr. Sigourney.' would have ac-	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos suth gives his name to a hat, as Sir William Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington and Blucher to boots. A Colt and a Bowie repres sent the revolver of one, and the knife of the other. The volume concludes with a Supplement and an index of surnames, which fills over 250 pages. The author's humor has pervade even this list of names. His last note, refer ring to a child called Vensvia, intimates the this Christian name was doubtless given be cause the child had an eruption . It is sad to think that Mr. Bowditch did not live to witness the certain success of thi book. With little trouble, we could write dozen articles upen and out of it, without ex- not the lamented author's ingenuity, learning industry, patience, talent, and bonkomi will long be remembered in Boston—out of it toe, by this work. Truly does Campbell say But strew his ashes to the wind, Whose sword or voice has served mankind— And is he dead, whose glorious mind lifts thine of	<ul> <li>their passing through Baltimore would be avoided If the people would not permit them a transi thus remote from the city, they must select their own best routs, and, if need be, fight their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera sarnestly deprecated. The President expressed is hearly concurrence in the desire to avoid collision, and said no troops should be ordered through Baltimore if they were permitted to g uninterrupted by either of the other routes sug gested. In this dispesition the Scoretary of Wa expressed his participation. Mayor Brown assured the President that the cit authorities would use all lawful means to prever the troops in passing at a distance; but he urged, a the same time, the impossibility of their bein able to promise anything more than thefr bein able to promise anything more than the fit or any one to answer for the consequences of the presence of Northern troops anywhere within or borders. He reminded the President also that the indication of the city authorities was confined in the interview tarminated with the distinct as a city, and saw that the Government could only an the interview tarminated with the distinct as a surance on the part of the President into its a surance on the part of the President that on the interview tarminated with the distinct as a surance on the part of the President into a the city authorities to use their best efforts with a surance on the part of the President that on moder the interview tarminated with the distincts as a surance on the part of the President into a moder of sorders the the President into a moder the interview tarminated with the distincts of a surance on the part of the President into an on troops would be sent through Baltimore unless of the interview tarminated with the distincts of a structed in their transit in other directions, and with the understanding that the city authorities selves of the President's full discussion of the selves of the President's full discussion of the</li></ul>	the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer was the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th acknowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God, an to show that trust by manfully doing our whoid duty. To trust God merely, without making a to show that trust by manfully doing our whoid duty. To trust God merely, without making a effort, he held would be to tempt God; whilet d the other hand, to repair to work without trustin in Him, would be to deny God. The "prayer far Peace " should now be the prayer of every hear if that peace must come through war, it was for embrased the borders of our land. In short, the det the borders of our land. In short, the det iny of our land, he alleged, was now in the ham of its praying people. Every man and wome praying to God, wielded a power mighter the the sword. For this reason, it was said that the destiny of a nation depended less upon the wisds of its rulers than upon the morals of the people. The name and example of our illustrio the first praying the course of one whose words shor the first state as a said as the truth the highest lessons of wisdom, yet we had in ad ito to this the coursel of one whose words shor be regarded as a sauch authority, alluding the farewell address of Washington, which, said, ought to be written in letters of gold a instilled into the mind of every child. But abb
SUBTERRANEAN COAL OIL, Unequalised for Himminating and LUBRICATING PURPOSES. This Oil as beautifully white, entirely free from any supposent odor, is non-explosive, and burns with the beautiful bright and white flame. Warranted in all causes to give satisfaction. Manufactared and for Sale by GEO. W. WOOTTEN, Manufactared and for Sale by GEO. W. WOOTTEN, Manufactared and for Sale by GEO. W. WOOTTEN, MANUFACTION BECOND Street, Philadelphis. HARDWARE. MOORE, HENSZEY, & CO ABE NOW OFENING THEIR SPRING STOCK OF HARDWARE, "MARKET, and 416 COMMERCE STREET Mal-im GROCERIES.	To which the attention of CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS Is PARTICULARLY INVITED. mh#5-im. SPRING GOODS, 1861. ABBOTT, JOHNES & OO, 527 MARKET STREET, AND 584 COMMERCE STREET, Kave new open their NEW IMPORTATION ov SILKS AND FANOY DRY GOODS, To which they invite the attention of the trade. &SPRING, 1861 WURTS, AUSTIE, & MOVEIGH, IMPORTERS AND JOBBERS	DYOTT & CO., No. 239 North SECOND Street, Phi- adelphis Arentz. mb33-5m JEWELRY, & C. FINE WATCH REPAIRING. DERSONS HAVING FINE WATCHES that have hitherto given no satisfaction to the wearers, are invited to bring them to our store, where all defeats can be remedied by thoroughly skillel and scientific workness, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete orders. PARE & BROTHER, Importers of Watches, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete orders. PARE & BROTHER, Importers of Watches, Musical Boxes, & C., carefully put in complete order. PARE & BROTHER, Importers of Watches, Musical Boxes, & C., carefully put in complete order. PARE & BROTHER, Importers of Watches, Musical Boxes, Clock, & c., sp4-3m 324 CHESTNUT Street, below Fourth. BEST OHOICE YET OFFERED. NEW GOODS. NEW STORE. NEW STORE. GREAT METROPOLITAN JEW ELRY DEPOT, FOUR THIRTY-TWO CHESTNUT STREET. GREAT SACRIFICE, TO INSURE QUICK SALES I have opened, at the shows store, one of the finest and rest-assorted stocks of Jeweiry, Shiver plated watch. Twill guaranty to give perfect satisfaction to every purchaser. Call and examine my stocked you will find a class of some, and Onyx sets, for, Bodd St, unual price $3 Captumols Enameled do., Enamelied Thurk Branched & C., Enamelied Thurk Branched St.	<pre>the President Fermients, induced by publication of Dregonal Fermients, induced by the president of the gaid service. Accordingly, instruction in the same will be given atter the method printed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and mancuvers laid down in this system are positively forbidden. D. R. FOINSETT, Beoretary of Way. McCLELLAND'S BAYONET EXERCISES. Mannai of Bayonet Exercises, Prepared for the case of the Army of the United States. By GEOROGE B. MC. CLELLAN. Castain First Regiment Cavalry, U.S. A. Printed by order of the War Departures HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMT. Bir Hearwith have the honor to submit a system of Bayonet Exercise, translated from the French by Captain Geo. B. McClellan, Corps Engineers, U.S. Army. Istrongly recommend its being printed for distribu- tion to the Army ; and that to emade. y regulation, s part of the Bayone to the United States. I have the honor to be sir, with high respect. M. CONRAD, Secretary of War. Bir Herewith I have the honor to submit a system of Bayonet Exercise, translated from the French by Captain Geo. B. McClellan, Corps Engineers, U.S. Army. I strongly recommend its being printed for distribu- tion to the Army ; and the to be are, y regulation, s part of the System of Instruction." M. CONRAD, WINFIELD SCUTT. General, &amp;c., to show the Yate. Apy of the above works forwarded by mail free of postage to any part of the United States, on the receipt of the published price. Remittances can be made in sold dollars and portage transf. Mos. 20 and y4 North FUURTH Street, apl-8t WARTHER SOLDIERS11! SUPPLIED WITH</pre>	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English surnames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene- ral until two or three centuries later. Mr. Bowditch gives some curious and amu- sing specimens of Christian names. He men- tions that Lord Ceke declared more than one to be illegal, and mentions numerons great men who were satisfied with one. We could extend the list. George Washington, Israel Putnam, George Bancroft, Washington Irving, Benjamin Franklin, John Locke, John Hamp- den, Oliver Cromwell, John Churchill, (first Duke of Marlborough.) Arthur Wellesley, George Canning, the two William Pitts, Henry Brougham, John Dryden, John Pym, Algernon Sydney, Robert Peel, Alexander Pope, Wal- ter Scott, Thomas Moore, Alfred Tennyson, Charles Dickens. On the other hand, many Illustrious or eminent persons have had double Christian names; but Mr. Bowditch has no right to count in Lydia Huntley Sigourney among these, for her second is really her maidem name, and, in England, if Miss Lydia Huntley had married Mr. Sigourney, wend have ac- knowledged the total absorption of the maidem	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos such gives his name to a hat, as Sir William Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington and Blucher to boots. A Colt and a Bowie repres sent the revolver of one, and the knife of the other. The volume concludes with a Supplement and an index of surnames, which fills over 250 pages. The author's humor has pervade even this list of names. His last note, refer ring to a child called Venavia, intimates the this Christian name was doubtless given be cause the child had an eruption. It is sad to think that Mr. Bowditch did not live to witness the certain success of thi book. With little trouble, we could write dozen articles upen and out of it, without ez hausting it. Let it remain, fittest monumer of the lamented author's ingenuity, learning industry, patience, talent, and bonhomit "Non omnis moriar,"—and Mr. Bowditch will long be remembered in Boston—out of i toe, by this work. Truly does Campbell say Butstrew his ashes to the wind, "Whose sword or voice has served mankind— And is he dead, whose glorious mind lifts thine of high "Do the lawents we leave behaved,	<ul> <li>their passing through Baltimore would be avoided If the people would not permit them a transi thus remote from the city, they must select their own best routs, and, if need be, fight their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera sarnestly deprecated. The President expressed bis hearty concurrence in the desire to avoid collision, and said no troops should be ordered through Baltimore if they were permitted to g uninterrupted by either of the other routes sug gested. In this dispetition the Scoretary of Wa expressed his participation. Mayor Brown assured the President that the cit authorities would use all lawful means to prever their citizens from leaving Baltimore to attack the d troops in passing at a distance; but he urged, a the same time, the impossibility of their bein able to promise anything more than theff bein rest, he told the President; the paople of a classes were fully aroused, and it was impossibility for any one to answer for the consequences of the presence of Northern troops anywhere within or borders. He reminded the President also that the i jurisdiction of the city authorities was confined if the is own population, and that he could give r promises for the propic elsewhere, because 1 would be unable to keep them if given. The President frankly acknowledged this diff coulty, and saw that the Government could only as the city authorities to use their best efforts with respect to those under their jurisdiction. The interview tarminated with the distinct a surance on the part of the President that no mo troops would be sent through Baltimore values of with the understanding that the city authorities to structed in their transit in other directions, and with the understanding that the eity authorities, on with the understanding that the city authorities to structed in their transit in other directions, and with the understanding that the eity authorities, and with the understanding that the eity authorities to thoris the and the companyi</li></ul>	the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer was the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th acknowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God; an to show that trust by manfully doing our whol duty. To trust God merely, without making a effort, he held would be to tempt God; whilst d the other hand, to repair to work without trustin in Him, would be to deny God. The "prayer fa Peace" should now be the prayer of every hear If that peace must come through war, it was fa come through privation and suffering, let us, 1 said, still pray that peace may soon reign throug all the borders of our land. In short, the de tiny of our land, he alleged, was now in the han of its praying people. Every man and womin praying to God, wielded a power mightier the the sword. For this reason, it was said that the destiny of a nation depended less upon the wisde of its rulers than upon the morals of the people. The name and example of our illustrio Washington were next gracefully introduced. A though, he said, he regarded the Bible as afford it he lighest lessons of wisdom, yet we had in ad tion to this the counsel of one whose words shord the farewell address of Washington, which, said, ought to be written in letters of gold a instilled into the mind of every child. But abo this, he wished all to hearken to the words of H who gave us Washington : "The nation that m of serve Thechall perieb iven, these nation that instilled into the mind of every child. But abo
SUBTERRANEAN COAL OIL, Unequalled for Illuminating and LUBRICATING PURPOSES. This Oil is beautifully white, entirely free from any unpleasant odor, is non-explosive, and burns with beautiful bright and white flame. Warranted in all cases to give satisfaction. Manufactured and for Sale by GEO. W. WOOTTEN. Manufactured and for Sale by GEO. W. WOOTTEN. MARING 38 South SECOND Street, Philadelphia. MARING 38 South SECOND Street, Philadelphia. MARDWARE. MARDWARE. MARDWARE. MARRET, AND 416 COMMERCIE STREET Mil-im	To which the attention of CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS Is PARTICULARLY INVITED. mh#5-1m. SPRING GOODS, 1861. ABBOTT, JOHNES & OO. 527 MARKET STREET, AND 584 COMMERCE STREET, Mave new open their NEW IMPORTATION of SILKS AND FANOY DRY GOODS, To which they invite the attention of the trade. 1885-1m SPRING, 1861 WURTS, AUSTIE, & MCVEIGH, IMPORTERS AND JOBBERS DRY GOODS.	DYOTT & CO., No. 239 North SECOND Street, Phi- adelphis Arentz. mb33-5m JEWELRY, & C. FINE WATCH REPAIRING. DERSONS HAVING FINE WATCHES that have hitherto given no satisfaction to the wearers, are invited to bring them to our store, where all defeats can be remedied by thoroughly skillel and scientific workness, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete orders. PARE & BROTHER, Importers of Watches, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete orders. PARE & BROTHER, Importers of Watches, Musical Boxes, & C., carefully put in complete order. PARE & BROTHER, Importers of Watches, Musical Boxes, & C., carefully put in complete order. PARE & BROTHER, Importers of Watches, Musical Boxes, Clock, & c., sp4-3m 324 CHESTNUT Street, below Fourth. BEST OHOICE YET OFFERED. NEW GOODS. NEW STORE. NEW STORE. GREAT METROPOLITAN JEW ELRY DEPOT, FOUR THIRTY-TWO CHESTNUT STREET. GREAT SACRIFICE, TO INSURE QUICK SALES I have opened, at the shows store, one of the finest and rest-assorted stocks of Jeweiry, Shiver plated watch. Twill guaranty to give perfect satisfaction to every purchaser. Call and examine my stocked you will find a class of some, and Onyx sets, for, Bodd St, unual price $3 Captumols Enameled do., Enamelied Thurk Branched & C., Enamelied Thurk Branched St.	<pre>the Present of Dregonic Perments, in the level should be define the present of the gaid service. Accordingly, instruction in the same will be given atter the method printed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and minded of the grant of the gaid service.</pre>	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English sumames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene- ral until two or three centuries later. Mr. Bowditch gives some curious and amu- sing specimens of Christian names. He men- tions that Lord Ceke declared more than one to be illegal, and mentions numerous great men who were satisfied with one. We could extend the list. George Washington, Israel Putnam, George Bancroft, Washington Irving, Benjamin Franklin, John Locke, John Hamp- den, Oliver Gromwell, John Churchill, (first Duke of Marlborough.) Arthur Wellesley, George Canning, the two William Pitts, Henry Brougham, John Dryden, Joha Pym, Algernon Sydney, Robert Peel, Alexander Pope, Wal- ter Scott, Thomas Moore, Alfred Tennyson, Charles Dickens. On the other hand, many Illustrious or eminent persons have had double Christian names; but Mr. Bowditch has no right to count in Lydia Huntley Sigourney among these, for her second is really her maiden name, and, in England, if Miss Lydia Huntley had married Mr. Sigourney, would have ac- knowledged the total absorption of the maiden name. Thns, Harriet Beecher Stowe really is	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos suth gives his name to a hat, as Sir William Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington an Blucher to boots. A Colt and a Bowie repre- sent the revolver of one, and the knife of the other. The volume concludes with a Supplement and an index of surnames, which fills over 250 pages. The author's humor has pervade even this list of names. His last note, refer- ring to a child called Veusvia, intimates the this Christian name was doubtless given be cause the child had an eruption . It is sad to think that Mr. Bowditch did not live to witness the certain success of thi book. With little trouble, we could write dozen articles upen and out of it, without ex- hausting it. Let it remain, fittest monumer of the lamented author's ingenuity, learning industry, patience, talent, and bohomit will long be remembered in Boston—out of it toe, by this work. Truly does Campbell say Butstrew his ashes to the wind, Whose sword or voice has served mankind— And is he dead, whose glorious mind lifts thine of high ! To liss un hearts we leave behand, Is not to dite.	<ul> <li>their passing through Baltimore would be avoided If the people would not permit them a transi thus remote from the city, they must select their own best routs, and, if need be, fight their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera sarnestly deprecated. The President expressed bis hearty concurrence in the desire to avoid collision, and said no troops should be ordere through Baltimore if they were permitted to g minterrupted by either of the other routes sug gested. In this dispetition the Scoretary of Wa expressed his participation. Mayor Brown assured the President that the cit authorities would use all lawful means to prever their citizens from leaving Baltimore to attack the d troops in passing at a distance; but he urged, a the same time, the impossibility of their bein able to promise anything more than thefr bein the first in that direction. The excitement we great, he told the President; the paople of a classes were fully aroused, and it was impossibility to ray one to answer for the consequences of this presence of Northern troops anywhere within or borders. He reminded the President also that the sould be unable to keep them if given. The President frankly acknowledged this diff coulty, and saw that the Government could only an the city authorities to use their best efforts with respect to those under their pirisdiction. The interview terminated with the distincts a surance on the part of the President that no mot troops would be sent through Baltimore unless on with the understanding that the city authorities for any one to hose under their jurisdiction. The interview terminated with the distincts and the city authorities to restrain their own people fully, but in the most earnest manner, a course policy which would give peace to the country, and selves of the President's full discussion of the guestions of the day, to urge upon hin respect fully, but in the most earnest manner, a course policy which would give peace to the country, and selves</li></ul>	the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer was the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th acknowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God; an to show that trust by manfully doing our whol duty. To trust God merely, without making a effort, he held would be to tempt God; whillet d the other hand, to repair to work without trustin in Him, would be to deny God. The "prayer fa Peace " should now be the prayer of every hear if that peace must come through war, it was fa come through privation and suffering, let us, 1 said, still pray that peace may soon reign throug all the borders of our land. In short, the de the sword. For this reason, it was said that the destiny of a nation depended less upon the wisde of its rulers than upon the morals of the people. The name and example of our illustric Washington were next gracefully introduced. A though, he said, he regarded the Bible as affordin the highest lessons of wisdom, yet we had in ad iton to this the counsel of one whose words shord the farewell address of Washington, which, said, ought to be written in letters of gold a instilled into the mind of every child. But abo this, he wished all to haarken to the words of H words the said, to regarded the Sible as affordin the highest lessons of wisdom, yet we had in ad iton to this the counsel of one whose of shord the farewell address of Washington, which, said, ought to be written in letters of gold a instilled into the mind of every child. But abo this, he wished all to haarken to the words of H who gave us Washington : "The nation that a not serve Thee shall perieh ; yea, those nation that m of the utterly wasted. * * * * If they w
SUBTERRANEAN COAL OIL, Unequalised for Himminating and LUBRICATING PURPOSES. This Oil as beautifully white, entirely free from any supposent odor, is non-explosive, and burns with the beautiful bright and white flame. Warranted in all causes to give satisfaction. Manufactared and for Sale by GEO. W. WOOTTEN, Manufactared and for Sale by GEO. W. WOOTTEN, Manufactared and for Sale by GEO. W. WOOTTEN, MANUFACTION BECOND Street, Philadelphis. HARDWARE. MOORE, HENSZEY, & CO ABE NOW OFENING THEIR SPRING STOCK OF HARDWARE, "MARKET, and 416 COMMERCE STREET Mal-im GROCERIES.	To which the attention of CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS Is PARTICULARLY INVITED. mh#5-1m. SPRING GOODS, 1861. ABBOTT, JOHNES & OO. 527 MARKET STREET, AND 584 COMMERCE STREET. Have now open their NEW IMPORTATION of SHLKS AND FANOY DEY GOODS, To which they invite the attention of the trade. & SPRING. SPRING. SPRING. MURTS, AUSTIE, & MOVEIGH, IMPORTERS AND JOBBERS M DRY GOODS.	DYOTT & CO., No. 239 North SECOND Street, Phi- adelphis Arentz. mb33-5m JEWELRY, & C. FINE WATCH REPAIRING. DERSONS HAVING FINE WATCHES that have hitherto given no satisfaction to the wearers, are invited to bring them to our store, where all defeats can be remedied by thoroughly skillel and scientific workness, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete orders. PARE & BROTHER, Importers of Watches, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete orders. PARE & BROTHER, Importers of Watches, Musical Boxes, & C., carefully put in complete order. PARE & BROTHER, Importers of Watches, Musical Boxes, & C., carefully put in complete order. PARE & BROTHER, Importers of Watches, Musical Boxes, Clock, & c., sp4-3m 324 CHESTNUT Street, below Fourth. BEST OHOICE YET OFFERED. NEW GOODS. NEW STORE. NEW STORE. GREAT METROPOLITAN JEW ELRY DEPOT, FOUR THIRTY-TWO CHESTNUT STREET. GREAT SACRIFICE, TO INSURE QUICK SALES I have opened, at the shows store, one of the finest and rest-assorted stocks of Jeweiry, Shiver plated watch. Twill guaranty to give perfect satisfaction to every purchaser. Call and examine my stocked you will find a class of some, and Onyx sets, for, Bodd St, unual price $3 Captumols Enameled do., Enamelied Thurk Branched & C., Enamelied Thurk Branched St.	<pre>the Present of Dregonic Perments, Hashed States, is how published for the present of the said service. Accordingly, instruction in the same will be given atter the method printed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and inductors laid down in this system are possible for the set (). The present of the said service. Recordingly, instruction in the same will be given atter the method printed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and inductors laid down in this system are possible for the set (). The present of the united States. Manual of Bayonet Exercises. Prepared for the use of the Army of the United States. By GEORGE B. Mc- Club LiAN. Caybain of the Weylment Cavalry, U. S. A. Printed Draw of 1200 all 200 (Da vol. 200 (Da vol. 1200 all 200 (Da vol. 200 (Da vol.</pre>	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English sumames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene- ral until two or three centuries later. Mr. Bowditch gives some curious and amu- sing specimens of Christian names. He men- tions that Lord Coke declared more than one to be illegal, and mentions numerous great men who were satisfied with one. We could extend the list. George Washington, Israel Putnam, George Bancroft, Washington, Israel Putnam, George Canning, the two William Pitts, Henry Brougham, John Dryden, John Churchill, (first Duke of Marlborough.) Arthur Wellesley, George Canning, the two William Pitts, Henry Brougham, John Dryden, Joha Pym, Algernon Sydney, Robert Peel, Alexander Pope, Wal- ter Scott, Thomas Moore, Alfred Tennyson, Charles Dickens. On the other hand, many Illustrious or eminent persons have had double Christian names; but Mr. Bowditch has no right to count in Lydia Huntley Sigourney among these, for her second is really her maiden name, and, in England, if Miss Lydia Huntley had married Mr. Sigourney, her married sig- nature, "Lydia Sigourney," would have ac- knowledged the total absorption of the maiden name. Thns, Harriet Beecher Stowe really is only Harriet Stowe. American ladies, affect-	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos suth gives his name to a hat, as Sir William Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington an Blucher to boots. A Colt and a Bowie repre- sent the revolver of one, and the knife of the other. The volume concludes with a Supplement and an index of surnames, which fills over 250 pages. The author's humor has pervade even this list of names. His last note, refer- ring to a child called Vensvia, intimates the this Christian name was doubless given be cause the child had an eruption . It is sad to think that Mr. Bowditch did not live to witness the certain success of thi book. With little trouble, we could write dozen articles upen and out of it, without ex- hausting it. Let it remain, fittest monumer of the lamented author's ingenuity, learning industry, patience, talent, and bonhomi "Non omnis moriar,"—and Mr. Bowditch will long be remembered in Boston—out of it toe, by this work. Truly does Campbell say Butstrew his ashes to the wind, "Whose sword or voice has served mankind— And is he dead, whose glorious mind lifts thine of high! To live in hearts we leave behind, Is not to dite. "Patriotic Letter from a Lady to the	<ul> <li>their passing through Baltimore would be avoided if the people would not permit them a transit thus remote from the city, they must select their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera arnestly deprecated. The President expressed is hearty concurrence in the desire to avoid it collision, sad said no troops should be ordere through Baltimore if they were permitted to g gested. In this dispetition the Scoretary of We expressed his participation. Mayor Brown assured the President that the cit authorities would use all lawful means to prevent their oilizens from leaving Baltimore to attack the effect in participation. The excitement we great, he told the President; the people of a classes were fully aroused, and it was impossible for any one to answer for the consequences of the ordere. Hereident fraction, and that he could give n presence of Northern troops anywhere within or borders. He reminded the President also that the is jurisdiction, and that he could give n proving so that the Government could olly a the order to those under their jurisdiction. The excitement is incluse to proving the presence of the president fracting would be unable to keep them if given.</li> <li>The President fracting the distinct so it has the forer ment for its or the people elsewhere, because I would be unable to keep them if given.</li> <li>The President fracting that the distinct a strance on the part of the President that is on those under their jurisdiction.</li> <li>The Aread the President's full discussion of the oity authorities to use their best efforts with the understanding that the city authorities and the distinct any it would be withdrawal of all orders conter fully, but in the most earnest manner, a course policy which would give peace to the courty, all especially the withdrawal of all orders conter</li> </ul>	the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer way the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th acknowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God, an to show that trust by manfully doing our whol duty. To trust God merely, without making s effort, he held would be to tempt God; whilet of the other hand, to repair to work without trustin in Him, would be to deny God. The "prayer fa Peace" should now be the prayer of every hear one through privation and suffering, let us, 1 said, still pray that peace may soon reign throug all the borders of our land. In short, the de tiny of our land, he alleged, was now in the han of its praying people. Every man and wome praying to God, wielded a power mightier thi the sword. For this reason, it was said that the the sing of a nation depended less upon the wisds of its rulers than upon the morals of the people. The name and example of our illustrio washington were next gracefully introduced. f though, he said, he regarded the Bible as afford it to this the counsel of one whose words show be regarded as a sacred authority, alluding the farewell address of Washington, which, said, ough to be written in letters of gold a instilled into the mind of every child. But abo this, he wished all to hearken to the words of H who gave us Washington : "The nation that w not ever The shall perish; yea, those nation day be utterly wasted. * * * If they w not obey me, I will utterly pluck up and destri-
SUBTERRANEAN COAL OIL, Unequalled for Illuminating and LUBRICATING PURPOSES. This Oil is beautifully white, entirely free from any unpleasant odor, is non-explosive, and burns with beautiful bright and white flame. Warranted in all cases to give satisfaction. Manufactured and for Sale by GEO. W. WOOTTEN. Manufactured and for Sale by GEO. W. WOOTTEN. MARING 38 South SECOND Street, Philadelphia. MARING 38 South SECOND Street, Philadelphia. MARDWARE. MARDWARE. MARDWARE. MARRET, AND 416 COMMERCIE STREET Mil-im	To which the attention of CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS Is PARTICULARLY INVITED. mh#5-1m. SPRING GOODS, 1861. ABBOTT, JOHNES & OO. 527 MARKET STREET, AND 584 COMMERCE STREET. Have now open their NEW IMPORTATION of SHLKS AND FANOY DEY GOODS, To which they invite the attention of the trade. set-1m SPRING, 1861 WURTS, AUSTIE, & MOVEIGH, IMPORTERS AND JOBBERS IN DRY GOODS. No. 311 MARKET STREET, Above Third, PHILADELPHIA.	DYOTT & CO., No. 239 North SECOND Street, Phi- adelphis Arentz. mb33-5m JEWELRY, & C. FINE WATCH REPAIRING. DERSONS HAVING FINE WATCHES that have hitherto given no satisfaction to the wearers, are invited to bring them to our store, where all defects can be remedied by thoroughly skilled and scientific workmen, and the watch werranted to give mantel Clocks, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete order. Mantel Clocks, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete order. Mantel Clocks, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete order. Mantel Clocks, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete order. Mantel Clocks, Musical Boxes, Clock, & c., spi-3m 324 CHESTNUT Street, below Pourth. BEST OHOICE YET OFFERED. NEW GOODS. NEW STORE. NEW GOODS. NEW STORE. GREAT MET ROPOLITAN JE WELLRY DE POT, FOUR THIRTY-TWO CHESTNUT STREET. GREAT SACRIFICE, TO INSURE QUICK SALES I have opened, at the shows store, one of the fineat and Fanoy Goods, ever before officied to the public. I will guaranty to give perfect satusfaction to every urchaser. OBSERVE THE PRICES: Corsl. Enameled Cambo, Lava, Gold- stone, and Onyz sets, for anoise, Errascan do., Enamelied Rivy, Bouquet, & c., do. Hibbon Twist do. Battary d and Chased Gold Chaster, 2 do. 85 Engraved and Chased Gold Batd	<pre>the President Fermients, may been splitted for the president of the gaid service. Accordingly, instruction in the same will be given atter the method printed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and indent the area of the gaid service. We prove that the system are point of the method the Area of the gaid service. Method printed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and indent the Area of the gaid service. Method printed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and indent the Area of the gain of the service. Method of the system from the exercises of the method the Area of the other the service. Method the system first from the Area of the service of the Area of the other the service. Method the system of the Area of the Area of the One vol. 12mo &amp; 126 Method the service of the Area of the Area of the Area of the service of the Area of the of Bayonet Exercise of the Area of the Area of the Area of the the service of the Area of the of Bayonet Exercise the and the for distribu- ing to the Army in and the the method by Gain and the area of the for distribu- ing to the Army in the the server of the Inspector General, &amp; to, to show the value. I have the honor to be ain, with high respect. I have the honor to be a first of the Mark States on the reself of the guilanded price. Remittances can be made in sold dollars and poets of the United States, on the reself of the guilanded price. Remittances can be made in sold dollars and poets etamps. Not the Board of the States, on the reself of the guilanded price. New Hister Sold DIERS11! SUPPLIED WITH ACCUNTEER SOLDIERS1!! At sotual Cost Prices, by W. W. HARDING,</pre>	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English sumames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene- ral until two or three centuries later. Mr. Bowditch gives some curious and amu- sing specimens of Christian names. He men- tions that Lord Coke declared more than one to be illegal, and mentions numerous great men who were satisfied with one. We could extend the list. George Washington, Israel Putnam, George Bancroft, Washington Irving, Benjamin Franklin, John Locke, John Hamp- den, Oliver Cromwell, John Churchill, (first Duke of Marlborough.) Arthur Wellealey, George Canning, the two William Pitts, Henry Brougham, John Dryden, Joha Pym, Algernon Sydney, Robert Peel, Alexander Pope, Wal- ter Scott, Thomas Moore, Alfred Tennyson, Charles Dickens. On the other hand, many illustrious or eminent persons have had double Christian names; but Mr. Bowditch has no right to count in Lydia Huntley Sigourney among these, for her second is really her maiden name, and, in England, if Miss Lydia Huntley had married Mr. Sigourney, "would have ac- knowledged the total absorption of the maiden name. Thns, Harriet Beecher Stowe really is only Harriet Stowe. American ladies, affect- ing the French fashlon, frequently preserve	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos such gives his name to a hat, as Sir William Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington and Blucher to boots. A Golt and a Bowie repres sent the revolver of one, and the knife of the other. The volume concludes with a Supplement and an index of surnames, which fills over 250 pages. The author's humor has pervade even this list of names. His last note, refer ring to a child called Vensvia, intimates the this Christian name was doubtless given be cause the child had an eruption. It is sad to think that Mr. Bowditch did not live to witness the certain success of this book. With little trouble, we could write dozen articles upen and out of it, without ex- hausting it. Let it remain, fittest monumer of the lamented author's ingenuity, learning industry, patience, talent, and bonhomit "Non Omnis moriar,"—and Mr. Bowditch will long be remembered in Boston—out of if toe, by this work. Truly does Campbell say Butstrew his ashes to the wind, "Whose sword or voice has served mankind— And is he dead, whose glorious mind lifts thine of high? To live in hearts we leave behand, Is not to dite. Patriotic Letter from a Lady to the Secretary of War.	<ul> <li>their passing through Baltimore would be avoided if the people would not permit them a transit thus remote from the city, they must select their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera sareesity deprecated. The President expresses is hearly concurrence in the desire to avoid it is hearty concurrence in the desire to avoid it is hearty concurrence in the desire to avoid it is hearty concurrence in the desire to avoid it is hearty concurrence in the desire to avoid it is hearty concurrence in the desire to avoid it is hearty concurrence in the desire to avoid it is hearty concurrence in the desire to avoid it is hearty concurrence in the desire to avoid it is hearty concurrence in the desire to avoid it is hearty concurrence in the desire to avoid it is hearty concurrence in the desire to avoid it is hearty of their best through Baltimore is a distance; but he urged, at the same time, the impossibility of their bein able to promise anything more than their bein able to promise for the consequences of the president; the people of a classes were fully aroused, and it was impossiblify for any one to answer for the consequences of the president fash of the it would be unable to keep them if given. The President frankly acknowledged this diff. If a interview tarminated with the distinct a surance on the part of the President that on an troops would be sent through Baltimore unless of structed in their best forts wit and the interview tarminated with the distinct any awith the understanding that the city authorities to use their best efforts wit respect to those under their jurisdiction.</li> <li>The Interview tarminated with the distinct any avance of the President's fall discussion of the day, to urge upon him respect fully, but in the most earnest manner, a course policy which would give space to the country, and espected the course onter pisting the passeg of tr</li></ul>	the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer way the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th acknowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God, an to show that trust by manfully doing our whol duty. To trust God merely, without making a effort, he held would be to tempt God; whilst d the other hand, to repair to work without trustin in Him, would be to deny God. The "prayer fi Peace " should now be the prayer of every hear if that peace must come through war, it was for come through privation and suffering, let us, 1 said, still pray that peace may soon reign throug all the borders of our land. In short, the det they argying people. Every man and wom of its praying people. Every man and wom of its rulers than upon the morals of the people. The name and example of our illustrio the first the soons of wiedom, yet we had in ad- tion to this the counsel of our willustrio the first the said, he regarded the Bible as afford the highest lessons of wiedom, yet we had in ad- tion to this the counsel of one whose words shor be regarded as a sacred authority, alluding the farewell address of Washington, which, said, ought to be written in letters of gold a instilled into the mind of every child. But ab be utterly wasted. * * * * If they w not obey me, I will utterly pluck up and desti- that nation, saith the Lord." His conclusion was a pathetic appeal to those
SUBTERRANEAN COAL OIL, Unequalled for Illuminating and LUBRICATING PURPOSES. This Oil as beautifully white, entirely free from an unpresent odor, is non-explosive, and heres with beautiful bright and white flame. Warranted in all cases to give satisfaction. Manufactured and for Sale by GEO, W. WOOTTEN, MARIAN 38 South SECOND Street, Philadelphia. HARDWARE. MOORE, HENSZEY, & CO. ARE NOW OPENING THEAT SPRING STOCK OF HARDWARE. MARKET, and 416 COMMERCE STREET GROCERIES. EXCELSIOR HAMS. J. H. MICHENER & CO. GENERAL PROVISION DEALERS,	To which the attention of CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS Is PARTICULARLY INVITED. mh#5-1m. SPRING GOODS, 1861. ABBOTT, JOHNES & OO. 527 MARKET STREET, AND 584 COMMERCE STREET. Have now open their NEW IMPORTATION of SHLKS AND FANOY DEY GOODS, To which they invite the attention of the trade. set-1m SPRING, 1861 WURTS, AUSTIE, & MOVEIGH, IMPORTERS AND JOBBERS IN DRY GOODS. No. 311 MARKET STREET, Above Third, PHILADELPHIA.	DYOTT & CO., No. 239 North SECOND Street, Phi- adelphis Arentz. mb33-5m JEWELRY, & C. FINE WATCH REPAIRING. DERSONS HAVING FINE WATCHES that have hitherto given no satisfaction to the wearers, are invited to bring them to our store, where all defects can be remedied by thoroughly skilled and scientific workmen, and the watch warranted to give mantel Clocks, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete order. Mantel Clocks, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete order. Mantel Clocks, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete order. Mantel Clocks, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete order. Mantel Clocks, Musical Boxes, Clock, & c., spi-3m 324 CHESTNUT Street, below Pourth. BEST OHOICE YET OFFERED. NEW GOODS. NEW STORE. NEW GOODS. NEW STORE. GREAT MET ROPOLITAN JE WELLRY DE POT, FOUR THIRTY-TWO CHESTNUT STREET. GREAT SACRIFICE, TO INSURE QUICK SALES I have opened, at the shows store, one of the fineat and Fanoy Goods, ever before officied to the public. I will guaranty to give perfect satasfaction to every urchaser. OBSERVE THE PRICES: Corsl. Enameled Cambo, Lava, Gold- stone, and Onyz sets, for anoise, Errascan do. Mossio, Jet, Lava, Carbonnele, Tur- quoise, Errascan do. Hibbon Twist do. Band example, Gold Chaster, 2 do. 85 Engraved and Chassed Gold Band	<pre>the Present Provide Prime is a point of the present of the growth of the second environment of the said environment envir</pre>	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English surnames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene- ral until two or three centuries later. Mr. Bowditch gives some curious and amu- sing specimens of Christian names. He men- tions that Lord Ceke declared more than one to be illegal, and mentions numerous great men who were satisfied with one. We could extend the list. George Washington, Israel Putnam, George Bancroft, Washington Irving, Benjamin Franklin, John Locke, John Hamp- den, Oliver Cromwell, John Churchill, (first Duke of Mariborough.) Arthur Wellesley, George Canzing, the two William Pitts, Henry Brougham, John Dryden, Joha Pym, Algernon Sydney, Bobert Peel, Alexander Pope, Wal- ter Scott, Thomas Moore, Alfred Tennyson, Charles Dickens. On the other hand, many illustrious or eminent persons have had double Christian names; but Mr. Bowditch has no right to count in Lydia Huntley Sigourney among these, for her second is really her maiden name, and, in England, if Miss Lydia Huntley had married Mr. Sigourney, her married sig- nature, "Lydia Sigourney," would have ac- knowledged the total absorption of the maiden name. Thus, Harriet Beecher Stowe really is only Harriet Stowe. American ladies, affect- ing the French fashlon, frequently preserve their spinster before their marriage surnames.	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos suth gives his name to a hat, as Sir William Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington and Blucher to boots. A Colt and a Bowie repre- sent the revolver of one, and the knife of the other. The volume concludes with a Supplement and an index of surnames, which fills over 250 pages. The author's humor has pervade even this list of names. His last note, refer ring to a child called Vensvia, intimates the this Christian name was doubtless given be cause the child had an eruption . It is sad to think that Mr. Bowditch did not live to witness the certain success of thi book. With little trouble, we could write dozen articles upen and out of it, without ex hausting it. Let it remain, fittest monumer of the lamented author's ingenuity, learning industry, patience, talent, and bonkomit "Non omnis moriar,"—and Mr. Bowditch will long be remembered in Boston—out of it toe, by this work. Truly does Campbell say Butstrew his ashes to the wind, "Whose sword or voice has served mankind— And is he dead, whose glorious mind lifts thine of high ! To five tn hearts we leave behand, Is not to dite. Patriotic Letter from a Lady to th Secretary of War. NEW BEDFORD, April 18, 1861.	<ul> <li>their passing through Baltimore would be avoided if the people would not permit them a transit thus remote from the city, they must select their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera arnestly deprecated. The President expressed is hearty concurrence in the desire to avoid it collision, sad said no troops should be ordere through Baltimore if they were permitted to g gested. In this dispetition the Scoretary of We expressed his participation. Mayor Brown assured the President that the cit authorities would use all lawful means to prevent their oilizens from leaving Baltimore to attack the effect in participation. The scoretary of the other rough sature the President that the cit authorities would use all lawful means to prevent their oilizens from leaving Baltimore to attack the assume time, the impossibility of their bein able to promise anything more than their bein able to promise anything more than their bein able to promise anything more than their bein a borders. He reminded the President is in that direction. The excitement we great, he told the President is was impossible for any one to answer for the consequences of the borders. He reminded the President also that the indicates the pople of a their own population, and that he could give not borders. He reminded the Government could only a the city authorities to use their best efforts with a fine tories to those under their jurisdiction. The president frankly acknowledged this difficunt, and saw that the Government could only a the city authorities to urse their best efforts with the understanding that the city authorities head to be avoided at the indication of the day, to urge upon hin respect to those under their jurisdiction.</li> <li>The President's full discussion of the set of the president that no no troops would be sent through Baltimore unless of the set of the president is a their own people to the day to urge upon hin respect to those under their jurisdiction.</li> <li>The Mayor and his companions availed the selves of th</li></ul>	the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer way the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th schnowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God, an to show that trust by manfully doing our whol duty. To trust God merely, without making s effort, he held would be to tempt God; whilst of the other hand, to repair to work without trustin in Him, would be to deny God. The "prayer fa Peace " should now be the prayer of every hear if that peace must come through war, it was fa us, nevertheless to pray for peace. If it was come through privation and suffering, let us, 1 said, still pray that peace may soon reign throug all the borders of our land. In short, the de tiny of our land, he alleged, was now in the han of its praying people. Every man and wome praying to God, wielded a power mightier thi the sword. For this reason, it was said that th destiny of a nation depended less upon the wisde of its rulers than upon the morals of the people. The name and example of our illustrio to the highest lessons of wisdom, yet we had in ad tion to this the counsel of one whose words show be regarded as a saured authority, alluding the farewell address of Washington, which, said, ough to be written in letters of gold a instilled into the mind of every child. But abo this, he wished all to hearken to the words of H who gave us Washington : "The nation that m not serve The shall perish; yea, those nations the be utterly wasted. * * * * If they w not obey me, I will utterly pluck up and destr that nation, saith the Lord." His conclusion was a pathetic appeal to those the home who ware cone to be called upon to
SUBTERRANEAN COAL OIL, Unequalised for Himminating and LUBRICATING PURPOSES. This Oil as beautifully white, entirely free from any supposent odor, is non-explosive, and burns with beautiful bright and white flame. Warranted in all causes to give satisfaction. Manufactared and for Sale by GEO, W. WOOTTEN, Manufactared and for Sale by GEO, W. WOOTTEN, MANUFACT, Sale by GEO, W. WOOTTEN, MARGER, HENSZEY, & CO, ABE NOW OFENING THEIR SP RING STOCK OF HARDWARE, MARKET, and 416 COMMERCIE STREET Maintern GROCERIES, COCELSIOR HAMS.	To which the attention of CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS Is PARTICULARLY INVITED. mh#5-1m. SPRING GOODS, 1861. ABBOTT, JOHNES & OO. 527 MARKET STREET, AND 584 COMMERCE STREET. Have now open their NEW IMPORTATION of SHLKS AND FANOY DEY GOODS, To which they invite the attention of the trade. & SPRING. SPRING. SPRING. MURTS, AUSTIE, & MOVEIGH, IMPORTERS AND JOBBERS M DRY GOODS.	DYOTT & CO., No. 239 North SECOND Street, Phi- adelphis Arentz. mb33-5m JEWELRY, & C. FINE WATCH REPAIRING. DERSONS HAVING FINE WATCHES that have hitherto given no satisfaction to the wearers, are invited to bring them to our store, where all defects can be remedied by thoroughly skilled and scientific workmen, and the watch warranted to give mantel Clocks, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete order. Mantel Clocks, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete order. Mantel Clocks, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete order. Mantel Clocks, Musical Boxes, & c., carefully put in complete order. Mantel Clocks, Musical Boxes, Clock, & c., spi-3m 324 CHESTNUT Street, below Pourth. BEST OHOICE YET OFFERED. NEW GOODS. NEW STORE. NEW GOODS. NEW STORE. GREAT MET ROPOLITAN JE WELLRY DE POT, FOUR THIRTY-TWO CHESTNUT STREET. GREAT SACRIFICE, TO INSURE QUICK SALES I have opened, at the shows store, one of the fineat and Fanoy Goods, ever before officied to the public. I will guaranty to give perfect satasfaction to every urchaser. OBSERVE THE PRICES: Corsl. Enameled Cambo, Lava, Gold- stone, and Onyz sets, for anoise, Errascan do. Mossio, Jet, Lava, Carbonnele, Tur- quoise, Errascan do. Hibbon Twist do. Band example, Gold Chaster, 2 do. 85 Engraved and Chassed Gold Band	<pre>the President Fermients, may been splitted for the president of the gaid service. Accordingly, instruction in the same will be given atter the method printed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and indent the area of the gaid service. We prove that the system are point of the method the Area of the gaid service. Method printed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and indent the Area of the gaid service. Method printed out therein; and all additions to, or departures from the exercises and indent the Area of the gain of the service. Method of the system from the exercises of the method the Area of the other the service. Method the system first from the Area of the service of the Area of the other the service. Method the system of the Area of the Area of the One vol. 12mo &amp; 126 Method the service of the Area of the Area of the Area of the service of the Area of the of Bayonet Exercise of the Area of the Area of the Area of the the service of the Area of the of Bayonet Exercise the and the for distribu- ing to the Army in and the the method by Gain and the area of the for distribu- ing to the Army in the the server of the Inspector General, &amp; to, to show the value. I have the honor to be ain, with high respect. I have the honor to be a first of the Mark States on the reself of the guilanded price. Remittances can be made in sold dollars and poets of the United States, on the reself of the guilanded price. Remittances can be made in sold dollars and poets etamps. Not the Board of the States, on the reself of the guilanded price. New Hister Sold DIERS11! SUPPLIED WITH ACCUNTEER SOLDIERS1!! At sotual Cost Prices, by W. W. HARDING,</pre>	he dwelt—by enemies as well as by friends." John Smith, or Thomas Taylor, or Stephen Butcher, or Hugh Carpenter can easily be traced back to artisanship, trade, or calling. English sumames sparsely existed before the Norman Conquest, but did not become gene- ral until two or three centuries later. Mr. Bowditch gives some curious and amu- sing specimens of Christian names. He men- tions that Lord Ceke declared more than one to be illegal, and mentions numerous great men who were satisfied with one. We could extend the list. George Washington, Israel Putnam, George Bancroft, Washington, Israel Putnam, George Bancroft, Washington Irving, Benjamin Franklin, John Locke, John Hamp- den, Oliver Cromwell, John Churchill, (first Duke of Marlborough.) Arthur Wellesley, George Canning, the two William Pitts, Henry Brougham, John Dryden, Joha Pym, Algernon Sydney, Robert Peel, Alexander Pope, Wal- ter Scott, Thomas Moore, Alfred Tennyson, Charles Dickens. On the other hand, many illustrious or eminent persons have had double Christian names; but Mr. Bowditch has no right to count in Lydia Huntley Sigourney among these, for her second is really her maiden name, and, in England, if Miss Lydia Huntley had married Mr. Sigourney, 'w wold have ac- knowledged the total absorption of the maiden name. Thns, Harriet Beecher Stowe really is only Harriet Stowe. American ladies, affect- ing the French fashion, frequently preserve their spinster before their marriage surnames. It is equivalent to Julie de Romana née Julis	thusian comes from Malthus, and expresses the inhuman doctrine which his "Philoso phy" taught. We have the Spenserian stanza the Byronic schoel of poetry, and so on. Kos suth gives his name to a hat, as Sir William Congreve did to rockets, and Wellington and Blucher to boots. A Colt and a Bowie repre- sent the revolver of one, and the knife of the other. The volume concludes with a Supplement and an index of surnames, which fills over 250 pages. The author's humor has pervade even this list of names. His last note, refer ring to a child called Vensvia, intimates the this Christian name was doubtless given be cause the child had an eruption . It is sad to think that Mr. Bowditch did not live to witness the certain success of thi book. With little trouble, we could write dozen articles upen and out of it, without ex hausting it. Let it remain, fittest monumer of the lamented author's ingenuity, learning industry, patience, talent, and bonkomit "Non omnis moriar,"—and Mr. Bowditch will long be remembered in Boston—out of it toe, by this work. Truly does Campbell say Butstrew his ashes to the wind, "Whose sword or voice has served mankind— And is he dead, whose glorious mind lifts thine of high ! To five tn hearts we leave behand, Is not to dite. Patriotic Letter from a Lady to th Secretary of War. NEW BEDFORD, April 18, 1861.	<ul> <li>their passing through Baltimore would be avoided if the people would not permit them a transit thus remote from the city, they must select their way through Baltimore, a result which the Genera sarnesity deprecated. The President expressed is hearty concurrence in the desire to avoid it collision, sad said no troops should be ordere through Baltimore if they were permitted to g gested. In this dispesition the Scoretary of We expressed his participation.</li> <li>Mayor Brown assure the President that the cit authorities would use all lawful means to preven their citizens from leaving Baltimore to attack the autorities would use all lawful means to preven their citizens from leaving Baltimore to attack the site as same time, the impossibility of their bein able to promise anything more than thef set efforts in that direction. The excitement we great, he told the President; the people of a disasses were fully aroused, and it was impossible for any one to answer for the consequences of the president frankly acknowledged this diff oulty, and saw that the Government could dive a premises for the zonsequences of the interview tarminated with the distints at the city authorities to use their best efforts with a president frankly acknowledged this diff oulty, and saw that the Government could only a the city authorities to use their best efforts with the understanding that the city authorities to restrain their own peoplation. The Mayor and his companions availed their should be unable to restrain the irrow peoplation. The Mayor and his companions availed their should be their the additions at the city authorities to use their best efforts with the understanding that the city authorities to restrain the irrow peoplation. The Mayor and his companions availed their should be their best to restrain the count pair and the source and the selves of the President's full discussion of the questions of the outy authorities to use their best efforts without avait the distinct a surance on the part of the president the di</li></ul>	the exercise of plety towards God. Prayer way the only religious exercise expressed in the text but it embraced also the exercise of faith, and th acknowledgment of God's sovereignty. Now more than ever, it became us to trust in God, an to show that trust by manfully doing our whol duty. To trust God merely, without making s effort, he held would be to tempt God; whilst of the other hand, to repair to work without trustin in Him, would be to deny God. The "prayer fa reace" should now be the prayer of every hear if that peace must come through war, it was f us, nevertheless to pray for peace. If it was come through privation and suffering, let us, said, still pray that peace may soon reign throug all the borders of our land. In short, the de tiny of our land, he alleged, was now in the han of its praying people. Every man and wome praying to God, wielded a power mightier th the aword. For this reason, it was said that th destiny of a nation depended less upon the wisde of its rulers than upon the morals of the people. The name and example of our illustrio Washington were next gracefully introduced. A though, he said, he regarded the Bible as afford the highest lessons of wisdom, yet we had in ad iton to this the counsel of one whose words show be regarded as a sacred authority, alluding the farewell address of Washington, which, said, ought to be written in letters of gold s instilled into the mind of every child. But ab this, he wished all to hasrken to the words of H who gave us Washington : "The nation that m not serve Theé shall perieh ; yea, those nations th be utterly wasted. * * * * If they w not obey me, I will utterly pluck up and dest that nation, saith the Lord." His conclusion was a pathetic appeal to those

progene a special train, about his if pair areas averaged by the special bar of the special special bar of the spe

Maryland. On returning to the cars, and just about to leave, about 2 P. M., the Mayor received a despatch from Mr. Garrett announcing the approach of troops to Gookeysville, and the excitement consequent upon for them to make upon the sitar of their country.

CELEBRATED	BANKING.	Misses' Necklaces, great variety$1 do. $3 Do. do. with Medallion$1 do. $3 Medallions, great variety$1 do. $3 Do. with Double Sides$1 do. $3 Do. with Double Sides$1 do. $3	PORTRAIT OF MAJOR ANDERSON TWENTY-FIVE CENTS. NOW READY.	Two Christian names, so general in Ameri-	i country, and import in the sphere appointed me	Gockeysville, and the excitement consequent upon it in the city. Mr. Brown and his companions re-	The base 1 start them mould do forth Palming upon
"EXCELSIOR"	A UGUST BELMONT & CO.,	Sets of Studs and Sieeve Buttons,	A PORTRAIT OF MAJOR ANDERSON, spiendidly	ca, are comparatively rare in "the old coun- try." The duplication is comparatively mo-	I offer my services to the Military and Naval		God. They were not going against a hereditary foe, but against a foe which, in by gone days, has
BUGAR-CURED HAMS, Nos, 142 AND 144 NORTH FRONT STREET		Sets of Studs and Sieeve Battons, Car-	50 cents, and Indis paper proofs $1. A Carte de Visite Portrait. Price 25 cents. Either of the above sent free by mail on receipt of	dern. Nearly all the great men of our Revo-		gave the President great surprise. He immedi-	stood shoulder to shoulder with us in earning the
(Between Arch and Race Streets,)	BANKERS,	buncie, Enamened, 30. 32. 40. 44. 40. 45. 40. 45. 40. 45. 45. 45. 45. 45. 45. 45. 45. 45. 45	price.	lution had only the single Christian name. Out of our seventeen Presidents, only three	might be assigned me.	Scott, who soon appeared, with other members of	mon country. They were going forth, however,
PHILADELPHIA.		Ladies' Earrings	A inderst discount to use a PPLETON & CO., Bp22-St 443 and 445 BROADWAY.	had two Christian names, viz : John Quincy	As to my qualifications, I am a true New Eng- land woman, practically acquainted with house	The despatch was submitted. The Drestlant at i	with God's blessing upon them, to defend the right, and it should nerve them for the contest to remem-
The justly-celebrated Excelsion Hams are cured by J. H. M. & Co. (in a style peculiar to themselves), ex- pressly for Jamesity wss.; are of delucious flavor, free from the unless-startic transformer of the starting of the	50 WALL STREET, NEW YORK,	Do. Sieeve Buttons, 60c to $1. usual price $1.60 to $3 Gents' do. do. 500 to $1, do. $1.50 to $3 Also Gold Paras and Parajis. Tooth Picks. Watch	BOOKS, LAW AND MISCELLANEOUS,	Adams, William H. Harrison, and James Knox	hold management and economy, and all pertaining	once, in the most decided way, urged the recall of the troops, saying that he had no idea they would the unpleasant tas e of sait, and are pronoficed by epi- cures superior to any now offered for sale. api3 3m		Genus do. do. bus to si, dot lo si do da Also, Gold Pens and Pencils, Tooth Picks, Watch Keys, Belt Slides, Chain Pins, Grosses, a. , a. I have a small lot of FINE GOLD AND SILVER	PHILADELPHIA-BANK BOOK STORE, No. 410 CHESTNUT Street, Libraries at a distance purchased	Polk. Mr. Bowditch, on noticing double names, overlooked the fact that the Romans		be there to-day; and lest there should be the slightest suspicion of bad faith on his part in sum-	"Thrice armed is he who bath his guarrel just."
NEW BURLINGTON HERRING.	Issue etters of credit to travellers, available in al	Goods sant by Mail or Everage to all parts of the	These having Books to sell, if at a distance, will state their names, sizes, bindings, dates, editions, prices	. I COMPANY MILITY MILITY MILITY AND A COMPANY	and though kind, yet I am courageous and prompt.	moning the Mayor to Washington, and allowing	In every conflict, he warned them to be true to their country, their religion, and their God; and parts of Europe, through the Measurs. Rothschild of Pa-	United States and Canada free of cost. WM. S. MUSTIN, Agent, ap2-mwf3m fp 432 CHESTNUT Street.	and consitions, WANTED-Books printed by Benja- min Franklin, as well as early Books printed in and noon America. Autograph Letters and Portraits pur-	the words into one of his plays thus:	T. D. Elliot, member of Congress from our district.	desired that the troops should, if it were practica-	they might be cheered with the reflection that
FIRST OF THE SEASON.	ris, London, Frankfort, Maples, Vienna, and their cor-	CLOTHING.	onased. Pamphiet Laws of Pennsylvania for sale. Cata- logues, in press, sent free. Libraries appraised by four ti	Tun' trium literarum homo	I should esteem it a great happiness to be called to the performance of any labor for which I am	General Scott adopted the President's views warm-	prayer would be offered day and night for their
ALBERT C. ROBERTS,	respondents.			Me vituperas? Fur. In a note to "The Fudge Family in Paris,"	compatent.	Lightenant General to that affect, and forwarded	asfety, and that the day might speedily come when
DEALER IN FINE GROCERIES.	FLOOR 'OIL-CLOTHS.	FASHIONABLE TAILOBING ESTA	PLEURO-PNEUMONIA, OR CATTLE	Thomas Moore records that Lord Clare, for-		the Mayor to this city.	experience and happy termination of this incident
	AUSTIN BROWN.	325 CRESTN UT Street, below Fourth, south side Respectfully informa his numerous customers and the	CATTLE DISEASE, CATTLE DISEASE,	merly Lord Chancellor of Ireland, "had a curious theory about names. He held that	RUTH RUSSELL.	The troops at Cookeysville, the mayor was as-	in the history of our nation.
ADIS CORNER ELEVENTH AND VINE.	WHOLESALE DEALER IN	Respectfully informs his numerous customers and the public in general that he has just received his Sprin Styles, which he will be pleased to soil on the most seasonable terms for each. mb22-fmw im	CATTLE DISEASE, CATTLE DISEASE,		FINALLY COMMITTEDYesterday after-		A GOOD EXAMPLE. A number of artisans
R. SHOEMAKER & Co.	FLOOR OIL-CLOTHS,	CHAMPAGNEVe. Oliquot, Lallemand	applying to Dr. H. CLOK, NO. 407 VINE Street	His instances in Ireland were numerous viz	: noon, Richard Bowers, charged with burglary, in entering the awelling at the southwest corner of		any the military sension The Lineares
CLASS, PAINTS,	The largest stock by three times in Philadelphias			R. Arcuitata Hamilton Kowan, Theopaid Wond	Tenth and Pearl streets, had a final hearing before	e Patterson may direct.	their employers gave them a full outfit of srms
OILS, AND VARNISHES,	PRICES LOW. At No. 164 North THIRD STREET. (19 stairs.)	YOU and 204 South FRUNT Street.	OURE WARRANTED, OR MOREY REPUNDED	<ul> <li>Suffolk Surnames. By N. I. Bowditch, Third edi</li> <li>tion, S vo., pp. 757. London: Trabner &amp; Co. Boston</li> <li>Ticknor &amp; Fields.</li> </ul>	Police Magistrate Beitler, and was committed to	This statement is made by the authority of the Mayor, and Messrs. George W. Dobbin, John C.	and revolvers, and keep their situations open for them.
dels the	mhill fm.	N. B. Orders for the uncually attended to.	ist win Win the second s	enerui e Liside.
				방법, 영양, 영양, 방송, 영영, 영송, 영송, 영송, 영송, 영송, 영송, 영송, 영송, 영	11월 2월 2일 1일 - 11일 - 11일 - 11일 - 12일 - 12일 - 12일 고객에서 11일 - 12일
	an air an tha ann an tha an tha an tha tha tha tha an tha an tha	n land all search na suit d'han th' d'han an a' s		en Mariana a taki wekazi mili kekaza ya Milano keci mili ta	Angelo on general generategel generate internet en le la service de la service de la service de la service de La service de la service de	a dharan a shekara a	19月1日 - 19月1日 	$\sum_{i=1}^{N} q_i \frac{\partial P_i}{\partial q_i} = 1 + 1 + 1$