

There breathes the foe but falls before us With Freedom's soil beneath our feet And Freedom's banner waving o'er us!

FORNEY'S CALIFORNIA PRESS Will be ready To MORROW, at 2 P. M. Price Six CENTS per copy in strong wrappers, and This paper is published expressly for CALIFORNIA CIRCULATION

And contains a complete summary of what has transpired in our City, State, and the Atlantic States, since the departure of the last steamer for California.

In our columns this morning will be found the latest, fullest, and most reliable information from Washington, brought to us by

The Message of Governor Hicks. The message of Governor Hicks, of Marywhich convened on Friday, is a document ral Government which arose out of them. There is a strong undercurrent of Union sentiment pervading it, while many parts are eloquent and touching. The narrative, as a general thing, has been anticipated, but coming in an official form, it enables us to understand more clearly than we have been able to do befere, what has been the position of the Administration during the past few weeks. We find that from the beginning of this contest the Administration has been acting with firmness and caution. We can see nothing in the story of Governor Hicks to justify the fierce invectives of sensation New York journalists, who quell revolutions in an editorial and plan successful campaigns in a newspaper paragraph. Governor Hicks tells us that, in reply to his most urgent entreaties, he was informed "that the military necessity of the cruel, unmerited, and heartless attacks that intended to steal our ships and the navy yard, Canada to Furnish Arms and Provisions for the United States, if Required. wild and malignant mob of Baltimore outraged frigate Cumberland would not have been rescued every sentiment of law and order, by murder- from the Disunionists. became the instrument of the very men who were seeking to drag Maryland out of the Union, and to raise a strange flag over the shores immortalized by the grand anthem of burg, Pennsylvania. At last accounts these routes

The conclusion to which the Governor arrives is, that the only position of Maryland land and Virginia by the temporary success of task and complete it. Maryland has been a blunder, if not the crime, they have committed, in

Since the process between the process and the control of the process and the proce

The Authors for the season of the season of the content of the season of the content of the cont

Without the plea of ungratified ambition, at that period of life when honor and office are supposed to have lost their attraction, we can only account for this "sudden, utter, and inglorious defection" by the aband the madness of the mob.

OUR CITIZENS will be glad to hear that the quota of troops asked from Pennsylvania has been increased by an additional requisition from the War Department for twenty-one additional four will, it is thought, be taken blishes the reserve camp of ten thousand, the could be raised to a hundred thousand in less han a fortnight.

several messengers overland through Mary- to-day, will be a State paper of great importance. The Executive says boldly that Pennsylvania will open a route from the North to Washington, as a necessity of trade and transit, and that whether Maryland stays in land, to the special session of the Legislature, the Union or goes out of it, no hostile soil shall be permitted between the loyal States which we have read with a deep interest. It and the national capital. He entirely accords ryland down. It is the alternative of the is in a great part a mere narrative of the with the positions assumed by the President recent deplorable occurrences at Baltimore, in his proclamation, and declares that rebeltogether with the negotiations with the Gene- lion must be crushed out and the nation restored to its entirety. He recommends an appropriation of three million dollars for military purposes, and advises the establishment of a reserve camp of ten thousand men. abject to the call of the General Governmen

FROM WASHINGTON.

By Overland Special Express.—From "Occasional." ce of The Press.]

WASHINGTON, April 25, 1861. than it was on Monday and Tuesday. A large number of families having left town in anticipation of war, and the rowdy element having retired for paragraph. Governor Hicks tells us that, fear of arrest and punishment, our streets are quiet fearing the passage of troops over the soil of and our hotels even more deserted than at the date Maryland would lead to a collision, he labored of my last letter. There is less apprehension of a there by the Federal Government not only ships earnestly with the President to induce him to scarcity of food, and less of an attack from the of-war, but all the needed munitions of war for the forego his purpose—that he called on him conspirators. I hope these auspicious signs may personally and begged his Cabinet—but that, not fade away before the close of the day. There is much anxiety for the arrival of reincase rendered it impossible for the Govern- quired here, but lest they may have been surprised or defeated by the enemies of the country. ment to abandon its plans, much as it desired The barbarism of tearing up railroads, destroying to avoid the dangers of a collision." He tells telegraph batteries and wires, burning bridges, us that he refused General Burler permission sinking ships, and capturing steamboats, not only to land his troops, but they were landed not-withstanding; that he protested against the our families and friends, or of writing to or visiting occupation of the soil of Maryland by his them, for the last six days, but throws numerou possession of the Annapolis and Elk Ridge Railroad and forwarding his troops to Washington, and he is now satisfied "that the War Department has concluded to make Annapolis Department has concluded to make Annapolis giments of middle Pennsylvania—what is done in the point for landing troops, and has resolved the Northwest—we are as completely ignorant of as to open the communication between that place of the doings of the inhabitants of another planet.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT NEWS. Union, the Constitution, and the fisg. He has to open the communication between that place of the doings of the inhabitants of another planet. to open the communication between that place of the doings of the inhabitants of another planet. We are disposed to regard Governor HICES | York and the Fifth Regiment of Massachusetts are as a man in whose breast there is a conflict between strong convictions of duty, and the influences of an insane and ungovernable many impediments. The expedition upon Norfolk, in command of Commodore Paulding, which you will of course have detailed to you in the mob. We know that his position since November has been harassing and painful. We sympathize with him when he tells us of the lesson that they cannot forget. Conscious that they have been made upon his integrity," and yet we cannot but regard him as one who has not been equal to the occasion. Considering their leaders, the Government directed its agents been equal to the occasion. Considering to destroy all this property, to prevent it from that occasion brought; considering that falling into their hands. It was done completely the Governor has been under the most terri- and bravely. It is supposed that property equal ble influences, and that his life has been many to over seven millions of dollars was thus lost to the times in imminent peril, this criticism must | United States, in order that it might not be apprenot be regarded as too harsh a censure. Had priated by the Disunionists. In this affair the Governor Letcher shown half the firmness of Governor Ficks, the Star-Spangled Banner would be floating to-day ever the Richmond House of Delegates. The Governor tells us that he gave the Massachusetts soldiers all that he gave the Massachusetts soldiers all ties as a steamer and sailer, that he unfurled his the protection in his power. So far he was broad pennant from her mast-head. It is not doing his duty. But he tells us that when the doubted that but for the Keystone State the noble

ing the soldiers of the Republic as they passed over her highway, he yielded to their imprecations, and covered their lawless acts with the shield of his high authority. Powerless in the hands of Rebels, the Governer was to the disappointed. The Passes, Reystone State, Pocahontas, and other vessels, every intent and purpose a Rebel. With the have passed to the Navy Yard without material words of Union on his mouth, and, we be- interruption, and I think General Scott has suc. lieve, with the love of Union in his heart, he ceeded in establishing such a water police as became the instrument of the very men who will keep that river clear to the flag of the Union.

were comparatively safe. The misery that has been inflicted upon Mary. should be a neutral one. This will never do. | their leaders and their mob, is incalculable. All We want no neutral ground around the heart | that I have ever predicted, as to the fate of of the Republic. Maryland must be main- these two fine States, will be more than fulfilled. tained in the Union. If Governor Hicks has The capital of the United States will never be that it was one of the best volunteer companies he failed in his efforts to preserve her loyalty, matter what these States may do; and in pro- under admirable drill. Capt. McKnight receives yielded, but will be held here at all hazards, no had ever seen. It has clean quarters, and is portion as they grow weaker, and realize the his due meed of praise.

and determined policy on the part of the rolins, Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana, Texas, Flo-miny which will settle upon the character of Ma- not only from his own but from the War Dopartryland will be worse than that which taints the haretofore good name of several of the Southern States. Maryland has enjoyed, in an uncommon degree, the benefits of the Federal Government. Her very neighborhood to the capital of the counsence of that moral courage which would dare try has conferred upon her rare advantages. to do right, in the face of treasons and conspi- An immense number of her sons have held, racies, the misrepresentation of demagogues, and still hold, high Federal positions. Yet, if she follow the lead of Baltimore, she will place herself in the attitude of assisting to destroy the city of Washington, and of refusing to allow the citizens of eighteen free States to visit the Capitol of the American Republic. The mob. many of whom doubtless were well disciplined in robbery and murder, who obstructed the progress regiments. Twenty are to be in the infantry of the Pennsylvania and Massachusetts troops last service, and one in the cavalry. So eager is week, might be excused upon the ground that such the desire to enlist in the service of the Re- assemblages in great cities are apt to be carried public, that this contingent, with the exception public, that this contingent, with the exception of four regiments, has been already filled. These people of the counties of Maryland refuse to allow the citizens and soldiers of the United States additional four will, it is thought, be taken from this city. If the Legislature adopts the advance to the defence of Washington, and even reject permission to those who have recommendation of the Governor, and estahere, then it is time to arouse the mighty whole number of Pennsylvanians in arms will energies of the Government; and, while taking care be forty thousand! We are proud of the posi- that the Government shall be strengthened and is cheerful, hopeful, and determined to do his duty tion which our noble State has assumed in the | maintained upon the territory purchased by the | at every risk. crisis of the Republic. So enthusiastic is the money of the people from Virginia and Maryfeeling among our people, that this number land, at the same time subdue, conquer, and,

Ind, at the same time subdue, conquer, and in necessary, annihilate, all those who stand in her way. For if Maryland is determined to resist the Government, and to aid those who are trying to starve the people located in Washington, she authorities, and intent upon a savage and remore less crusade upon persons and property, forfei their lives the moment they are captured. Eithe e municipality of Maryland must permit the Government of the United States to exercise i functions to protect itself from spoliation and invasion, or else the Government must put Ma-COMMON LAW OF NATIONS.

There is, it is true, another humiliating esca from our present dilemms, and that is to surre der the capital of the United States to the consp rators, and to allow Maryland and Virginia t come here, seize upon the public buildings, appro priate to themselves the public treasure, destro the public archives, and locate the headquarters o onspiracy where now are to be found the constituted Federal authorities legally chosen at the last November Presidential election. But what American citizen is ready to submit to this frightful and unexampled humiliation? Who would not rather see Maryland and Virginia obliterated from our map, than that this capital should be surrendered to the banditti which seem to have control of both?

Baltimore just now, however, seems to awaking to the terrible reality which, in censequence of her mob action, awaits her. Annapolis letermined upon as the depot for United States troops and stores, will greatly take away from the trade of Baltimore. There will be concentrated defence of the capital. In fact, it may soon turn out that Annapolis will rival, and far surpass the city of Baltimore as a commercial city. If it be orcements, not only because they may be re- so, then the authorities of Baltimore and Mary Foundries, ship yards, manufactories of all manner of goods, and large population must soon charac terize what is now the decayed and almost deserted old town of Annapolis. OCCASIONAL

> LATEST NEWS By Telegraph to The Press. FROM WASHINGTON.

By Overland Express to "The Press.' Great Britain and France Take Active

Measures against the Slave-State Rebellion.

300,000 ARMS ON THE WAY.

WASHINGTON, April 26, 1861. It is stated, by the best authority, that Lord Lyons, the British minister, sent a special mess ger to detain the steamer Persia at New York un-til full despatches could be forwarded by him to the Home Government. Lord Lyons is advised, I understand, to proffer to the United States Government, for the suppression of the Slave-State rebel lion, arms and ammunition, and troops from England and Canada. By the Persia he sent on orders for three hundred thousand stand of the improved Minie musket, and for a vast number of the celebrated rifled cannon. Orders in future are not to be filled in England for the Rebel Go vernment for arms, or ammunition, or ships of It is believed that an English and French fleet will be sent to the Southern ports at an early day, mitted to lie between the national capital and the to co-operate with the United States fleet in the blockade of Secession ports. Louis Napoleon has joined with Victoria to suppress the Slave-State rebellion. It is stated that his offers of service to President Lincoln are now on their way to Washington.

It is hoped here that Yanczy and his confed rate traitors will be seized by France and England and sent to the United States to be tried and hung under the extradition treaties. Orders have been issued, it is reported, to the Governor-General of Canada to offer to the United States men and arms.

Pennsylvania Volunteers in Washing-WASHINGTON, April 27, 1861. The Ringgold Artillery, of Reading, Pa., has won golden opinions from the United States authorities here. Major McDowall publicly stated department business, and on his arrival there Kilburn, and others were also serenaded, and re-Administration, and he feels that the duty of rida, and all the followers of traitors Davis, Cobb, bravely enlisted in Capt. CLAY's company of sponded thereto.

every good citizen is to give that policy his Toombs, Slidell, and company. Indeed, the igno- Strangers' Guard. He has won golden opinion The Condition of Washington. As much apprehension exists in regard to Wash. ngton, I will, in brief, state its condition. On Friday morning, with the arrival of the Seventh New York Regiment and the Massachusetts troops | ington mail.

inder General Butler, and some other forces, there were 24,000 men in the city, stationed at the her down trip, but failed to bring her to. On the Capitol, the Treasury Department, the Soldiers' up trip the same bark was brought to, and found Home, the Navy Yard, the Arsenal, and at other points. The National Rifles, under Captain A general parade, in which 1,100 troops joined, SMEAD, of the Regular Army, besides seizing the was had at 10 o'clock this morning, but a heavy points. The National Rifles, under Captain steamer St. Nucholas, with arms and provisions, sterm stopped the operations. The weather has has for weeks held possession for the Government een tempestuous all day. of the telegraph offices at Washington and Anna. polis. Officers are preparing, notwithstanding the alleged sale of Arlington Heights, in Virginia, to phia, to be there released. Sovernor LETCHER, by Colonel LEE, late of the Pennsylvania Camps. U. S. Army, for the erection of earthworks and batteries upon the highlands opposite the Capitol for the defence of Washington. Secretary Cameron.

Troops in Washington. bacon, hogsheads of molasses, and tierces of rice.

Understanding between the Governors of New York, Pennsylvania. Ohio, and Indiana. 25.000 More Troops to be Raised 11

NEW CAMPS IN THE STATE.

HARRISBURG, April 28, 1861 Your express messenger arrived this morning ed forwarded his despatches for The Press Governor Currin, in his message on Tuesday the extra session of the Legislature, will take high ground in reference to the outrage perpetrated upon the Massachusetts volunteers in Baltimore An understanding has been entered into between the Governors of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohie and Indians, by which those States shall not in conjunction to throw troops and provisions int Washington, or elsewhere South, upon the orde of the War Department.

PERRYVILLE, April 28 .- The steamer Marylan left at 3 o'clock this afternoon, taking the Madison Guards of Pottstown, Norristown Rifles, and Company B, Fourth Pennsylvania Regiment. The steamer Commerce arrived this evening, bringing a few passengers and a very large Wash

The Commerce fired into a suspicious bark or to be all right. She was out of Baltimore harbor. The North Carolinian who was arrested vesterday for suspicious conduct was sent to Philadel-

HARRISBURG, April 28.—There is general re-joicing here over the new requisition, the re-jected volunteers being exacedingly glad.

A heavy rain to-day made Camp Curtin very disagreeable, but the soldiers bear it well. It will rejoice the friends of the Secretary of War to learn that he is in the best of health, and acting in concert with Lieut. General Scott. He is cheerful beneful and literature of the scott has been supported by the s strictest discipline.

Commissary-General Irwin will leave for Pittsburg to-night, to establish a military camp.

Troops will be collected there to protect the fron-

THE MESSAGE OF GOVERNOR CURTIN to the Legislature, which assembles at Harrisburg to-day, will be a State paper of great import-

QUEEEC, April 27.—Agents of the Federal Government, and others said to be in connection with John Irwien, W. N. Allen.

Sailmaker George Thomas.
Commander Livingston.
Surgeon Ruddenstein.
Lieutenant Colonel Edelin, U. S. M. C.
Lieutenant Boyd Edelin, U. S. A.

LATE SOUTHERN NEWS. From Files of Papers brought on by our Sp offered their services to the Government, and been accepted.

A special train left last night for Chambersburg, loaded with ammunition; also a York county company, carrying blankets, arms and tents.

A number of special messengers are here on their way to Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois, with despatches.

The war enthusiasm continues as great as ever. Clearfield county, containing 4,000 voters, has 400 men ready to march, and offers a whole regiment.

One thousand regulars are at Carlisle barracks. Six hundred horses have been already purchased to mount cavalry formerly of Texas. They will move during the coming week.

The Fourteenth regiment will be organized tomorrow.

Agency of the Particular of $5,000 on and raising of $5,000 additional volunteers for do stid defence, as well as for Federal service. Comment, which were unconditionally refused. I will need from the properticular of $5,000 on and raising of $5,000 additional volunteers for do stid defence, as well as for Federal service. Comment, which were unconditionally refused. I was present the properticular of the comment of the positions of the form of the properticular of the positions of the form of the properticular of the positions of the properticular of the properticular of the positions of the properticular of the properticular of the positions of the properticular of the positions of the properticular of th position nearly opposite the seized steamers. About 5 o'clock a tow boat, with several schooners

It may be necessary to explain the topography of this locality, for the better understanding of our position here. Warrington navy yard is about eight miles from Pensacola. It is about two miles from Fort Pickens, which is on the southern point of Sauta Rosa Island. This island, which is about forty miles long, and an average of a mile wide, to equal any other in use, and bear a well-deserved forty miles long, and an average of a mile wide, to equal any other in use, and bear a well-deserved forty miles long, and an average of a mile wide, is about one mile wide. It lies between the south end of Sauta Rosa Island, on which stands Fort Pickens, and a landspit of the main land, just opposite, on which stands Fort McRae. Fort Pickens is 500 yards from the end of the island, and Fort McRae is so near the water that its base is washed by every wave that breaks upon the beach.

Will refleve nanarous from theend the popography is about two miles, which attend "hard times," when change is serce, and brokers inexorable.

A consignment of Enfield rifles reached here on Satureday morning from Petersburg, for the Life Guards, of this city. The Enfield rifles are said to equal any other in use, and bear a well-deserved for the quality morning from Petersburg, for the Life Guards, of this city. The Enfield rifles reached here on Satureday morning from Petersburg, for the Life Guards, of this city. The Enfield rifles reached here on Satureday morning from Petersburg, and brokers inexorable.

A consignment of Enfield rifles reached here on Satureday morning from Petersburg, and brokers inexorable.

Life of the Guards, of this city. The Enfield rifles reached to be used there on Satureday morning from Petersburg, and brokers inexorable.

Life of the Guards, of this city. The Enfield rifles reached to be used there on Satureday morning from Petersburg, of the Batterian was a sent a lose of the Guards, of this city. The Enfield rifles reached to equal any other in use, and bear a well-deserved for equal any other in use, and bear The Governor of Ohio is moving two regiments on Wheeling, one on Parkesburg, and one at Guyandotte and Point Plessant, to protect the Union of western Virginia.

Senators Penney, Irish, Connell, Schindel, Hiestand, Finney, and McClure are already here; also a number of members of the House, and assveral officers of both bodies are present, getting the chambers ready for the extra session of the Legislature, to commence on Tuesday.

Attempted Purchase of Steamers and Arms in Canada.

Ourses Arms in Canada.

of the dr., is sensible. It is sensible to be the ware of the common property from a country, which it has better ware of the common property from a country, which it has better ware of the common property from a country of the cou

the second company are not qui mmand devolves upon Car The Commonwealth Artiliery, Captain J gomery, has been sent down to Fort Dela The first detachment left on Wednesday nic

IMPLE SUGGATERS PROPER OF THE STORY PROPERTY OF THE STORY PROPERTY

of the cona.

If rebellion, invoked by fell treason, appear,
Human righ's to invade, and our nation to sever.

Let the might, which the world's hostile aimies now foar, coar, The whole regiment and spectators joined hear tily in the chorus. The scope was most impressive A beautiful flag was raised on Saturday after. noon on the city depot of the Cold Spring Ice Company, Lombard and Twenty-fifth streets, amidst the cheers of the persons assembled. On Friday afternoon a very large and handsoms flag was raised in an appropriate manuer, on Si Malachi's Catholic Church, Eleventh street, abor Master, after which the choir sang the Star Span. gled Banner, loud and clear. On Saturday morning a handsome flag was raised on the building of the Philadelphia Library, in Fifth street, below Chestnut.

A large flag, bearing the motto "Gud and our Country," was also raised in front of the M. E. Union Church, Fourth street, below Arch.

Another was also raised on the steeple of the Passyunk Lutheran Church. Spirited addresses were made by a number of clergymen. and a Barraots. Dest Kort San Garlos de Barsa ranoas. Inext the lighthouse, and last, for a ranoas provided the lighthouse and last, for the military in the first point of any of this semistic is not exceeding two miles from Fort Fickman. On thousand yards in the rear of Fort Barraosas as and Barraosas Redoubt. These are all the discussions of the same and the discussion of the semistic of the field of operations which have "a local designation and a name." I have give not been reference by your readers. It will greatly assist them in understanding the left of operations for fature reference by your readers.

I will not be propagable to propagable the server of the field of operations for the reference by your readers. It will greatly assist them in understanding the left will be a standard the propose of the samp. The sample of the given will be greatly assist them in understanding the left will be a standard the propose of the sample and the greatly assist them in understanding the left will be a standard the propose of the sample and the greatly assist them in understanding the left will be a standard the propose of the sample and the greatly assist them in understanding the left will be a standard the propose of the sample and the greatly assist them in understanding the left will be a standard the propose of the sample and the greatly assist them in understanding the left will be a standard the propose of the sample and the greatly assist them in the sample and the greatly assist them in the sample and the played the national airs, and the company sang the Star-Spangled Banner, and the whole scene was characterized by great enthusiasm on the part of everybedy present WM. M'MULLIN'S BANGERS The sudden departure of the steam-tug Hero. Thursday afternoon, with a party of McMullin's Rangers on board, has been explained by the shipping, and the assemblages on the opposite shore, rendered the spectacle most animated and ploturesque. Two Manchester companies marched the first of which is full. They are command election of field and company officers was held.