UNLOOKED-FOR APPLAUSE.—A passage in "Hamlet" was greated with applause at the Howard Athensum on Monday evening, which has never before choiced such a demonstration. In the advice given to Lacries by Polonius are the following words: following words:

Beware of entrance to a quarrel; but, being in,
Boar's, that in' opposed may beware of thee.

When Mr. Glibert recited these lines the applause was general in all parts of the theatre, and the incident revealed what an all-exclusive prominence in men's minds the state of the country new cocupies.
