

THE MERRIMAN CASE.

DECISION OF CHIEF JUSTICE TANEY.

Before the Chief Justice of the United States, in the case of John Merriman, et al., against the United States, et al. The application in this case for a writ of Habeas Corpus is made to the Chief Justice of the United States, in the case of John Merriman, et al., against the United States, et al. The application in this case for a writ of Habeas Corpus is made to the Chief Justice of the United States, in the case of John Merriman, et al., against the United States, et al.

the office as it appeared in the history, or would have changed him immediately, if there was not sufficient evidence to support a statement of the commission of an offense. The resistance to the action of the authorities, and therefore no reason, whatever for the suspension of the writ of Habeas Corpus, is shown by the facts of the case. The suspension of the writ of Habeas Corpus is made to the Chief Justice of the United States, in the case of John Merriman, et al., against the United States, et al.
