Atlantic Monthly for July. Circumstances sometimes give advantages to various papers. We thought that the monthly of the New York Seventh, given in the June number of the Atlantic Monthly, but look with a far different feeling upon the conclusion of the month in the present number.

Major Winthrop writes an interesting and valuable article on the subject of the Zouaves under the muzzles of the enemy's guns. This gives an account of interest and value far above its literary merits.

Major Winthrop describes the splendid chamber, in the Capitol, wherein the Representatives of the people met on the 22d of February, 1861, for the purpose of organizing the new Government.
