SUMMER RESORTS.

Congress Hail. Atlantic City. N. J. Light House Cottago, Atlantic City, N. J. Sea Side House ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. "The Clarendon," ATLANTIC CITT, N. J. Tammany House, Atlantic City, N. J. Ashland House Atlantic City, N J. W-shington House. ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. Mentucky House, ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. Central House, ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. Franklin House, Atlantic City, N. J. Constitutional House Athantic City, N. J. Columbia House, Atlantic City, N. J. Star Hotel. ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. Mansies Heuse, M unt Carson, Pa. Madison Bouse, Porrstown, PA. National Hall Gaps ISLAND, N. J. United States Hotel, ATLANTIC CITY. N. J. Burf House, , TLANTIC CITY, NEW JERSEY. Congress Hall, Cape Is: and, New Jersey. Columbia House, CAPE ISLAND, NEW JERSEY, Tontine Hotel. NEW HAVEN. CONNECTICUT. Suchem's Head Hotel, Stilford, Connecticu Cresson Springs, CAMBRIA COUNTY, PA. Howland's Hotel, Long Rrance, New Jersey E phrata Mountain Springs, Lancastar Co . Pa Bedford Springs, PENNST VANIA.

DOUBLING GAP, CUMBERLAND COUNTY, PA.

White Sulphur and Chal beate Springs, 1

Forever flest that standard sheet? Myele pleather the lee put toils pelede si And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

The Way to Re-establish Peace. The disposition to embarrass the Adminis tration in its management of the war is growing more rapidly than the public will readily believe, if they do not carefully scrutinize the movements and intrigues of the desperate politicians who secretly sympathize with the

The long forbearance of the North, and the great anxiety which the loyal portions of the Union displayed for the peaceful adjustment of all our difficulties, were doubtless caused in ments to military pursuits. But these very difficulties, dangers, and eminjurious to the people of all sections of the party, must be closely watched.

to them shall be commensurate with the enormity of their offences.

It is rumored that they are now ready to their own terms. They are beginning to see the tearful retribution that awaits them, and, anxious to escape it, are insiting their friends throughout the country to plead their unholv cause. "Ne rogue c'er felt the balter draw, with good opinion of the law," and they are as much opposed to an infliction of the punishment they have deserved as any other villains who have disturbed the good order of society and wronged their fellow-men.

The only true way to gain a nermanent and substantial peace is to teach those who have ninried the black bapper of treason so grave and terrible a lesson that for centuries to come none will dare to imitate their pernicions example. And those among us who are ever ready to cavil, to condemn, to criticise, and to weaken the Government, for the sake of indirectly benefiting the Secession cause, are, in basis, and by the complete reassertion of the authority of the whole people of our country over its whole territory. War exists new only because a desperate attack has been made upon institutions which honor and patriotism compel us to consider sacred, and which self respect and self preservation urge us to defend and maintain at every dealers, and the latter are victimized to an hazard, with our last dollar of treasure and

The misguided men who have been induced enticed them into their present difficulties. for upon this depends how many lives must ply taking the oath of allegiance, and we ask netarious transaction being divulged. of the people of the South nothing more than that they should obey the laws and Constitu every respect, are in exact accordance books, with their wishes. So long as they dety our Government, and remain in arms against it, a patriot army of overproperly enlightened, they would see that they that their future welfare, like our own, impeable outbreaks. Let all those, therefore, who desire peace, seek it in the proper way, any one, let them be directed to those who which await her confederates. A despatch was of this class. Andrew Johnson, a Southern Government;) General Cook, (Vice President of fill the ranks of the traitor armies, and to the from Washington says: excited and deluded people who have sent them forth on their rebellious errand. The completely triumph. He who impedes it only that the No rthern hordes contemplate an invasion encourages and aids, to the extent of his in- of the sacred soil of South Carolina, via Charles and the worst toes of our whole country.

The Proclamation of Gov Letcher. JOHE LETCHER has issued a proclamation to the citizens of Northwestern Virginia, apple, as hereatofore; to rally to the standard of the citizens of the South with Interpolated proposed and the political Paradise, and by poisoning the did political Paradise, and by poisoning the did political Paradise, and by poisoning the did political Paradise, and by poisoning the political Paradise, and by poisoning t by a "majority of nearly one hundred thou. other sins, and, after making Virginia the sand qualified voters;" and that the State has great battle ground of the contest, refuse to equalized taxation by a majority of fifty-nine extend to her traitors the aid which they had thousand. The argument is very plausible, a right to expect from Palmettodom. Still, to the large assortment of French, German, Italian, but it reads very strange in the proclamation with all the men they keep at home, we shall and India dry goods, embracing 334 lots of staple of a Secession Governor. "You, as well as not be surprised if, before this war is fairly and fancy articles, to be peremptorily sold, by the rest of the State," says Gov. LETCHER, over, the assault upon Sumpter will be fear- catalogue, for cash, commencing this morning at "have cast your vote fairly, and the majority fully avenged. is against you. It is the duty of good citizens to yield to the will of the State. The majority thus declared, therefore, have a right duty of good citizens of the United States to ! deld to the will of the people as expressed at Ferritories, while there is no constitutional into Republics.

The position of Western Virginia, however is not that of a State dividing itself against by deposing those who had been guilty of treason. To this end they assembled as a Convention in Wheeling, and established a government of good citizens, who have sworn allegiance to our common Government, and are now, therefore, the only lawful authorities of loyal Virginia.

The people of Western Virginia, however,

The people of Western Virginia, however have counted the cost of their course. They are devoted to this Union, and are ready to attest their devotion by their blood. No menace of an eleventh-hour traitor like John in the event of my election as your representative in Gonzaeve. LETCHER can terrify them, no inducement can nre them. They have taken their destimy as State into their own hands, and in every onorable effort to pursue it they will be stained by the General Government. An Arrangement in Kentucky. The telegraph gives us an account of an ar ngement which has been entered into he ween General McClullan, of the Western Military Department, and Governor MACOFFIN of Kentucky. It is virtually a compact, in which the United States Government, as resented by General McCLELLAN, agrees to recognize the neutrality of the State of Kentucky in the present crisis. Kentucky promises to remove Southern armies it they occupy her soil, and if unable to do so she will invoke the aid of the United States. Governor Harris, of Tennessee, assures Kentucky that no Tennessee troops will be allowed to occupy her territory, and he has given orders to his forces to that effect.

We can hardly see what the effect of thi a great measure by the keen appreciation arrangement will be. General McClellan is which was felt of the evils of a bloody and too a gacious a man to permit himself to be protracted conflict. All rational men. of overreached in such a matter. We have no course, must know that serious calamities of confidence in Governor Magorrin, for he has many kinds are inseparable from the shock of shown himself to be as much of a Secessionist arms, and from the transfer of the energies of | as Mr. Baroningings of Mr. Morrhead. He a mighty people from quiet industrial employ- has been deeply in the confidence of the Montgomery traitors. He permitted Blanton Duncan and his battalion to leave Kentucky barrassments only increase the guilt of the in. openly to assail our Government. He has famous traitors, who on slight and frivolous urged secession upon the Legislature of his pretexts, and for trifling causes, senght to de. State, and we believe he is now as anxious to stroy forever our noble Government, and to precipitate Kentucky into open treason as any inaugurate a contest which they knew would Southern conspirator could possibly be. Any necessarily prove in many respects terribly arrangement, therefore, to which he is a be lost upon the politicians and managers in

We do, at best, not like this idea of enter-Since they have thus forced a war upon us by committing every robbery, outrage, and indignity that they could invent and execute; by proclaiming their unalterable devotion to a gacious than Jackson, he is no less a foc to the Tujon and a testor to the Constitution. Government that could command respect, and one. He who is not for us is against us; and by threatening to capture our capital, and to he who will not openly defend the Union is as degrade us forever in the eyes of the whole civilized world, wisdom and justice alike relike to have seen this rule applied in Kenlike to have seen th perience of General Harnay before him, has doubtless good reasons for taking his present made the following reply: "That they duly appreciated the spirit by which our Republican trends and hanor of the Government are course, and in his hands we feel that the intalk or posco, but only of a peace made on terests and henor of the Government are > Trouble Among the Policy Vendors. The old adage, "That when requestall out nonest men get their dues," is always applicable; not so, however the equally common one of "Honor among thieves," for occasionally this class of gentlemen rob each other by way of keeping their hands in. Our citizens are perhaps not aware that an extensive traffic is carried on in this city in what is called the policy business, (i.e. the insurance wealthy, and, of course, sternly respectable people are concerned.

The proprietors of the several lotteries are naturally opposed to this infringement or their business, because weak and deluded reality, the foes of peace, as they are the foes | people, who dream of numbers being drawn of the country; because peace can only be re- on certain days, purchase these fancy numeestablished on a just, enduring, and honorable rals of the policy brokers instead of buying lottery tickets; and in order to punish the latter, the lottery proprietors every now and states brig Perry, the officers and erew of which and justice must prevail, while the stars and day; they then indicate to their confidents what numbers to purchase of the policy immense extent. case of this description occurred a few by bold, bad leaders to defy the Federal what is commonly termed either " the wash-Government, to punish fidelity to the erwoman's" or "nigger's gig," was set for to this barbarse and savage custom. What Union as the most heinous of crimes, that particular morning, and came out to the to levy war upon their constitutional horror and depletion of the policy vendors, rulers, to make our fair land the who lost several thousand dollars on the theatre of fraternal strife, have only to break event. Some of the sharpest among the fraup their treasonable organizations, return to ternity, smelling a rat, went to work to ascertheir neglected homes, and act the part of tain by whem they had been fleeced, and after she eagerly joined in the denunciation of prive law abiding citizens, to secure a speedy a tedious investigation discovered that the teering as piracy, and in the solumn declaration restoration of peace, order, and prosperity. principal buyer of these numbers in this city that it should be so regarded by all the civilized If they fail to do this, they must and will be was an English convict, recently from San forcibly dispersed. The same end, peace, Francisco, where he had been under the ob- principle of public law as well settled and to be as will eventually be gained and it only re- servation of the Vigilance Committee. It mains for them to decide with what degree of seems that this worthy obtained the informaconstancy they will adhere to the desperate tion from a party in the secrets of the lottery fortunes of the treasonable knaves who have men, on the cendition of dividing the profits with his informant, and after purchasing the give it as their judgment that these privateer indicated numbers pocketed the funds, and ought to be hung, but that they should first have be secrificed, and how much treasure ex. then reported to his friend that he had not a trial by jury. One such example as this would pended. Even prisoners caught in arms been able to purchase for any amount; hence against us have secured their release by sim. a quarrel, and as a result, the secret of this

We commend to the police authorities the propriety of hunting up these policy dealers, tion which they have been largely instru- and bringing to condign punishment not only mental in forming, and which, in almost them, but the wealthy knaves who back their

The Attitude of South (arolina. The great hot-bed of treason in this country whelming force will be kept in the field to has always been South Carolina. Had she not subdue and punish them. If their minds were | set the example of adopting a "Secession" ordinance, it is doubtful whether any other are as deeply interested in the preservation of State would have madly sought to break up the our noble fabric of freedom as we are, and Confederacy. Men trained in her treasonable school of politics have been the prime movers ratively required the suppression of treason- in all the important ramifications of the monstrous conspiracy which has been organized. But now that she has involved the whole counby the re-establishment of order and legiti- try in war, she is the first to shrink from an mate authority. If appeals are to be made to active participation in the trials and defeats

" Governor Pickens has issued a proclamation them forth on their rebellious errand. The forbidding any more South Carolina troops from national cause must, and will, proudly and leaving Palmettodom. He expresses the belief fluence, the traitorous authors of this war, ton, and says that the first duty of South Caro-

No people more richly deserve severe punishment than the South Carolina traitors, and it is perhaps a wise instinct that leads them to the perhaps a wise instinct that leads them to the perhaps a wise instinct that leads them to the perhaps a wise instinct that leads them to the perhaps a wise instinct that leads them to the perhaps a wise instinct that leads them to the perhaps a wise instinct that leads them to the perhaps a wise instinct that leads them to the perhaps a wise instinct that leads them to the perhaps a wise instinct that leads them to the perhaps a wise instinct that leads them to the perhaps a wise instinct that leads them to the perhaps a wise instinct that leads them to the perhaps a wise instinct that leads them to the perhaps a wise instinct that leads them to the perhaps a wise instinct that leads them to the perhaps a wise instinct that leads them to the perhaps a wise instinct that leads them to the perhaps a wise instinct that leads them to the perhaps a wine in the perhaps a wise instinct that leads them to the perhaps a wise instinct that leads them to the perhaps a wise instinct that leads them to the perhaps a wise instinct that leads them to the perhaps a wise instinct that leads them to the perhaps a wine per ng to them " to remain together one peo tion. They are the serpents who have entered To morrow evening, at Odd

The Indiana Regiment.

Our State authorities deserve credit for the Shooting Affair at Camp Washington.

Hon. Hendrick B. Wright. This distinguished gentleman is running as he ballot-box. The majority have declared the Union candidate for Congress, to fill the favor of Mr. Lincoln, and therefore Mr. vacancy occasioned by the death of the la Lincoln has a right to govern." The reason- mented Greege W. Schanton. The district ing in one case is as forcible as it is in the is composed of the countles of Luzerne, Coother-although we think we have the best of lumbia, Montour, and Wyoming. The cirit, for it is perfectly constitutional for States | cumstances under which the nomination was to be divided into States, or into States and conferred upon Mr. Weight, and his acceptance thereof, are exceedingly creditable to power to permit the Republic to divide itself his patriotism. The Democratic Convention having assembled and placed him in nomination, on the 11th inst., he responded in is not that of a State dividing itself against itself, as intimated in the proclamation of Governor Letcher. A large portion of the citizens of Virginia, including its Governor and State officers, performed an act of deliberate treason against the Government to which they had all sworn allegiance. They sought to array all good citizens living in the Commonwealth in a scheme of treachery and perjury. In doing this wicked act they became pale of citizenship. Those who still romained loyal were compelled to assert their loyalty by deposing those who had been guilty of etter, of which the following is an extract:

ve must not as one people, and we should be move my action in the event of my election as your representative in Gongress.

I cannot admit that any State has a right to secede without the consent of all the others. As the compact of Usion was the agreement of all, so its dissolution requires the consent of all. Secession, therefore, backed up by force, is downright robot lion—it is treason to the Government, and all those engaged in it deserve the penalties which this great arise in early imposes.

engaged in it deserve the penalties which this great orime justly imposes.

To put down the rebellion which is now arrayed against the Government, if in Congress, I would vote for any reasonable amount of money out of the Federal Treasury—and, if necessary, put a half million of men in the field. Nor would I, without the bapress will of the people of this district, canction the ensetment of any law or treaty which would acknowledge the independence of the confederated, secosing States. There is not room enough on this continent, broad as it is, for the existence of twe republies. One country and one flag is the inheritance from our fathers, and we should be reckless of the mighty legacy if we permitted this to be dishonored, or that divided.

There must not be a divided and dismembered republic. It we permitthis, we would be faise to our trust, and leave our children an endless heri our trust, and leave our children an endless heri tage of wee We most certainly have the power to preserve this Government, and it is our solomn duty to do it—and it matters not at what cost of

On the 13th of June, the Republican Conference of the same district offered him their

Resolved. That we hereby tender to Hon. H. B. Wright the nomination of this Republican Conference as a Union candidate, for whom the people may east their votes in the full confidence that he will vigorously sustain the policy of the General Government in this crisis, and do all in his power to uphold and maintain our nationality, to put down rebellien, and will resist and oppose to the utermost the establishment and recognition of the Confederate states Government.

In reply to this offer he wrote a letter of nomination of the Republicans, and is thus before the district as the candidate of the entire people. We trust this example will not the Second Congressional district. We give an extract from his last letter:

ties, for the Congressional vacancy occasioned by the death of the late lamented Col. Scranton—that partisan strife should be hushed, and the Union-loying men of this district be united in supporting mination, therefore, tendered me by you, spectfully accept, as I do the one tendered me by the Democratic conferees.

These views and opinions, expressed by both of the political partice of the form counties comprising this Congressional district, meet my muce hearty approval, and in the event of my election, it shall be my aim and object to carry them out honestly and fearlessly. Our brethren are in arms, exposed to the toils, privations, and hardships of the camp. They are moving steadily on in the distinarge of the great duty they have voluntarily assumed would be as quiet as a lamb if the old man Jack. of numbers drawn in the various lotteries of the great duty they have voluntarily assumed other States,) in which traffic a number of the Republic, united as a band of brothers in the

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE.

Letter from "Occasional," Correspondence of The Press.

WASHINGTON, June 23, 1861.

A great question is now presented in regard to then lay a trap for them, and give them a good are now held in New York, awaiting the action of "shaking up," by arranging beforehand that the law. The Charleston Mercury announces, in certain numbers shall be drawn on a specific one of its last issues, that if these pirates are hung then, on the principle of lex talionis, the Southern Confederacy will exact an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, and a life for a life. In other words, that if these men who started out to slaughter intocent persons, and to sink peaceful vessels, are days since, when the numbers 4, 11, 44, or regarded as heretofore, but will be shot in cold what is commonly termed either "the wash-blood. The United States never will submit ever our own relation to the question of private ing may have been, foreign nations should recolsot that the war made upon our Government at this time almost puts the traitors beyond the pale of international customs; and England herself should not forget that, in the Paris Conference, rigidly enforced as all others that a privateer was a pirate Four of the leading juriets of the United States—three of them renowned practitioners be fore the Supreme Court, and at least two cotemporaneous with Marshail, Story, Webster, and Clayput an effectual stop to privateering, at least so lar as the Southern Confederacy is concerned Another question-What is to be done with the chief traitors upon the land when they are captured? According to the 6 h article of the amendments to the Constitution of the United States they must be tried in the State and district where the treason was committed. What chance would there be of a conviction of these traitors at Richmond, Virginia? Why not, then, recommend to the forthcoming Congress a law changing the places of holding the district courts, say in Virgi> fair trial could be had and the proper punishment meted out? What a rebuke Andrew Johnson administered to all men in the free States calling themselves Democrats, who continue to cavil at the Administration. complain of its exercise of power for the safety of Administration imitate this glorious example. Public Amusements.

if he had done less, he would have deserved the halter. Let those in the North who cavil at the and Brigadier General Runyon. It is said that

The musical entertainment, with tableau vi-

LARGE BALE OF DRY GOODS, &c., THIS MORNING. -The early attention of purchasers is requested 10 o'clock, and continued without intermission, by 234 Market street.

Unr State anthorities deserve creat for the govern."

Shooting Affair at Camp Washington. It is a bad argument that will not apply everywhere. If the argument of the Govern is good for anything in Virginia, it is equally effective out of Virginia. We might to the relief of Colonel Wallace at Cumbersay to his State: "You, as well as the rest of the United States, have cast your vote fairly, and the majority is against you. It is the state any necessary of the state any necessary created for the govern."

Shooting Affair at Camp Washington. Easy of the Camp Washington, in the neighborhood of her wharves. Let those who think I am writing a panic despatch recal the State Reserve force, under the command of Colonel Simmons, were in Camp Washington, was about last night by Lieutenant Porter outside of the camp It was said that Texier and another solder attacked Lieutenant Porter, and the lieutenant despatched by way of Hopewell and Bedford, and the revolver and fired at one of them, and the field. There is some danger that he may be hemmed in by an overwhelming force, but we that the may be the majority is against you. It is the state authorities deserve creat tor the promptness with which two regiments of our Gamp Washington. Eastern Pa. James Texier, a private Volmar, a German, one of the who think I am writing a panic despatch recal the scenes which have plunged Missouri into a bloody into necise commend of the Comp Washington. A Batarn's visit to Montgomery, Als Lieutenant Porter, and the lieutenant revolver and fired at one of them, and set them remember the disarming of the Union men by Governor Burrow, of Delaware, and let them look around them in Philadelphia, and see the secret of the mansion of the traitor, General Law. A Visit to Fortress Monroe.

By Telegraph to The Press. FROM WASHINGTON.

Special Despatches to "The Press."

Washington, June 23. Marching Orders for the Twenty-fifth Pennsylvania Regiment. The Twenty fifth, or advance Regiment of Pennplvania volunteers, Colonel H. L. CARE com.

To-morrow, by permission of the War Departnent, a number of the families of the different

Andrew Johnson, of Ten-Arrival of This distinguished patriot reached Washington the band of the Twenty-fifth, or advance Pennpeople, after having been introduced by Hon Jao. B Haskin, of New York, he made a powerful speech. He said that Mr. Lincoln had done no more than his duty, and that if he had done less, be preserved: f our Chief Magistrate; which was done honestly and fairly.

Southern States by its brutal assault on Fort much bitterness among the officers of the army on Sumpter, thus causing blood to flow and the can- account of his restoration and promotion nons to reverberate over the South, until every Southerner should be filled with the spirit of war. He showed that the doctrine of secession would nomination for Congress in the following utterly abandon the idea of ever constructing another Republic, because its tendency was to destroy and not to inaugurate any system of equality among men, and destroy that principle which enables men to govern themselves. Hence, to acknowledge the doctrine of secession would be to invite despotism and anarchy. And shall we permit it? [Cries of "No! No! Never!!"]

The line of march has already begun on Washington, the capital of our nation, founded by the father of our country Grones Washington; and, great eloquence and power, accepting the my friends, let me tell you that anarchy and destruction are treading closer upon your heels than you are aware, if you allow this principle or its advecates to gain a foothold upon the soil of American freedom.

> This man BEAUREGARD, or no regard, (ories of blackguard,) as some call him, fired upon our gal lant Andreson when he was informed that he and lant Anderson when he was informed that the bear point no movement will be made by a convened, unless it is brought on by a convened, unless it is brought on by a convened, unless it is brought on by a plied with provisions. Payon was there, and desired that the cannon's roar should be heard by Virginia, as that State was then wavering tions, and they are suffering for wholesome water the point of senession, and he desired to make her decide in favor of "protection of the rights of the South." Hence, the war upon a little band of the most gallaut, though starving, men in the service.

He referred to the historical records of the past to prove the spirit of anarchy among bad men, and proved the present Southern movement to college "What principles have we lost by the continuance of this Union? [Cries of "none."] Then stand by it! ["We will," "we will."] Compromise! Where can compromise be found but in the Constitution of the United States? I look upon it as under the terms and arrangements of the foregoing correspondence and embracing substantially the views and opinious of both conferences, as to the course I should pursue if elected to Congress, I respectfully accept, as I do the one tendered me by which was sustained by Jackson : which was > would be as quiet as a lamb if the old man Jack son had been at the head of the nation last fall and could Char and WERSTER respond to their cries for compromise, it would be as it often has been, in the language of ANDREW JACKSON: "The Federal Union—it must and shall be preserved." They may burn our fields; destroy our pro-party; nay, our best blood may and will be sacribut East Tennessee cannot be converted into a land of slaves! They may confiscate my little property I own in Tennessee. My life may be required to lay upon the alter of my country, but let

Mr. Johnson closed amid great and enthusiastic Appointment of William Sergeant, Esq , in the Regular Army. Your excellent fellow-citizen, WE SERGEART. well known straight Bouglas Democrat, has been appointed a captain in Col Franklin's regiment summarily executed, prisoners of war will not be of infantry. He left to report for duty at Fort

Hamilton, New York. Intense Anxiety in the City. The movements of the rival armies on the other ide of the river excite painful interest all over Washington, as it is certain we shall hear the firing should a battle take place, and the explosion of every gun is supposed to be the commencement the conflict. There is every reason to apprehend mediate hostilities The Three-Months Volunteers. anticipate the dishanding of that already welldrilled corps d'armés by bringing forward, with great rapidity, all regiments that are ready to months men will have a fine opportunity to disin the respective divisions of McDowells. Store, and probably decisive battle will take place before in the respective divisions of McDowells. Store, and probably decisive battle will take place before the great a number of the cavalry, resigned at St. In

The greatened of the cavalry, resigned at St. In

The greatened of the cavalry, resigned at St. In

The greatened of the cavalry, resigned at St. In

The greatened of the cavalry, resigned at St. In

The greatened of the cavalry, resigned at St. In

The greatened of the cavalry, resigned at St. In

The greatened of the cavalry, resigned at St. In

The greatened of the cavalry, resigned at St. In

The greatened of the cavalry, resigned at St. In

The greatened of the cavalry, resigned at St. In

The greatened of the cavalry, resigned at St. In

The greatened of the cavalry, resigned at St. In

The greatened of the cavalry, resigned at St. In

The greatened of the cavalry, resigned at St. In

The greatened of the cavalry, resigned at St. In

The greatened of the cavalry, resigned at St. In

The greatened of the cavalry, resigned at St. In

The greatened of the cavalry, resigned at St. In

The greatened of the cavalry one of lecture of the Great of the Great of the Great of the Great of the Suth, have been asked at Jeffer coville.

The same paper say sherre is a great probability of the Great of the Gounth, have been asked at Jeffer coville.

The same paper say sherre is a great probability of the Great of the Market Two the outline for the South, have been asked at Jeffer coville.

The same paper say sherre is a great probability of the Greatened of the outline for the South, have been asked at Jeffer coville.

The same paper say sherre is a great probability of the South, have been asked at Jeffer coville.

The same paper say there is a great of the sum in seat at the cou and PATERSON. It is now certain a very great and probably decisive battle will take place before the expiration of their time. Many will, no doubt, return to their homes; but as inducements are being offered by the President to all gallant men in the lations with foreign Powers are satisfactory and MoNeill, recently stationed at Fort Stanton, have ranks, and as a soldier's life is by no means dis- cordial. agreeable, with all its privations, to such men, a very large percentage will remain to enlist in the recent additions to the regular army. Very few f the officers of the Pennsylvania regiments, except such as have business at home, will return. Indeed, Colon-1 Lawis, of the Eighteenth Pennsylvania Regiment, was yesterday in this city, ask-ils, Missouri, Kentucky, &s , to districts where a ling, in the name of his officers and men, to be accopted for the whole campaign, and I should not Solomons, of Washington surprised if this example were followed by other regiments. The New Jersey Brigade. Quite a contest is going on for the Brigadier Generalship of the New Jersey three-year regine country, and clamor for peace, so as to relieve | ments, now in camp at Trenton, to take the place the Southern traitors from the fate they so richly of the three-months brigade on the other side of merit. I persoive that even in Fennsylvania men | the Potomac, under Brigadier General Runron are to be found ready to help Jeff Davis by com- The candidates are Mejor PRIL KRARNEY, (who laining of Lincoln. The attack of the Albany lost his arm in Mexico and resigned after the war, A: gus and Atlas on General Cameron's last speech | and has just returned to offer his services to the Demorrat, living in a slave State, not only approves | the Camden and Amboy Railroad, an old West all that President Lincoln has done, but says that Pointer;) Robr. F. Stockton, Jr., (son of the

Commodore, and Adjutant General of New Jersey,)

General Scott prefers KRARNRY. The Secessionists in Delaware. The Bayards are getting up what they call a Peace Convention, to be held at Dover, on the 27th inst. This insult to the laws, cloaked in the guise concentrate their resources for home protection. They are the servents who have entered the servents who have entered to morrow evening, at Odd Fellows' Hall, Philadelphia, I wonder that the people of that for inaugurating in Delaware the sanguinary civil war that now rages in Missouri. I understand Arlington Heights this morning to Camp Tyler, inthat these Delaware Secessionists have induced the tending to make an ascension this evening, but the Delaware Railroad Company to furnish them with | wind was too high. twelve care to take their peace men from Wilming ton to Dover, on the 27th. If the General Govern ment does not rend men to crush out this includent treason, let Philadelphia send the men to do the work; because, if the Bayards can control Delawork; because the Succession of the instatement in a New Yorke pathod of the former, while the latter is unconfirmed Experience has preven military predictions of the the samination of the observent manders of the Sporter on the Conflict Internation, and who have departed for more proposed to the Superbord of the water train from the camps on the Loudon Railword represent exceeding quies, with the sprovent pathod of the maintenance of an attack abating.

A BATARD' twelve care to take their peace men from Wilming Myers, Clashorn, & Co., anotioneers, Nos. 232 and work; because, if the Bayards can control Dela-dered all the assistance possible, but his instru-

LATEST NEWS Rumored Hanging of Col. Bowman, of the Regular Army. We have a painful rumor here, on the authority it a correspondent of the Baltimore American that Gol Bowham, of the Engineer Gorps & S. A., captured outside of his pickets, in Gen. Parranson's division, several days ago, was hung as a spy on Thursday last. I do not believe the story. f captured, the facts are clear that he was sim ily engaged in the line of his profession in making military reconnoissance, and not at all acting as a spy. The Col Bownan I allude to is a brother of the Right Rev SANUEL BOWMAN, Bishop of the piscopal Church of Pennsylvania, and an officer f rare and distinguished merit. eached here this evening. [We are glad to learn, by a despatch received ast night from Baltimore, that the rumor referred oridge. c above is not true] Northern Chivalry.

We are extremely gratified to learn from good uthority, that Mrs. Gen. Lun, wife of the late commander of the Virginia forces; has written a letter to Gen. McDowald, thanking him, in the kindest manner, for the preservation of the property at "Arlington," his headquarters. This estate fermerly belonged to G. W. Park Custus, her father, and she very naturally feels a deep ern chivalry.

A Horrible Threat.

The traitors in the South cause it to be announced ment, a number of the families of the different years of age. This is a sad comment upon their foreign legations in this city will visit Fortress boast that their slaves will be found faithful to them under all circumstances.

thisers of the traitors were ready to offer terms of sion. The batteries have consequently been on Friday last, and was serenaded last night by peace to the Administration. Whenever they are moved from their former position. The rebels are wil ing to yield to the Constitution and the laws not safe within four miles of this terrible projecsylvania regiment. In response to the call of the their repontance will be accepted, but never until tile. Many pieces of ordnance in the fortress are

The Restoration of Major Emory. The restoration of Major Enoug is attacked with great bitterness in certain quarters. It is right to he would have deserved the halter himself. He said he stood by the President in all his acts, and dent and entire Cabinet, after a full investigation called upon all good citizens everywhere to do the of all the facts involved, and hearing all the argusame. Let millions of money be expended, let our ments pro and con. The main reason for restoring mest precious blood be poured out; but above and him was, that he was ready to resign only in anbefore all things, let the Union and Constitution | ticipation of a peaceful separation, which he opposed, and that, when war become imminent, he The speaker showed clearly that the war was not | sout two messengers to recall his conditional rebrought about by the North, but in the fulfilment signation. Being then upon the Indian frontier, of every citizen's greatest privilege—the election and in the neighborhood of revolting Texas, he fought his way through, and brought his whole force, 1 100 strong, to the aid of the Government. There arese in the South a few dishonest politi-cians, who were bound to broak up the Union and army, and I am told is ready to lead any forlorn the Government. Then was practically inaugu- hope in defence of the flag, to wipe out all recolrated the principle of secession. South Carolina lections of his proposed resignation, and to satisfy guard house. must first make friends with the hydra headed those who continue to object to him as not having monster, and thrust its acquaintance upon the other | been loyal to the Union. There is, nevertheless

> Military Movements. Your express rider went over the river early this morning, and visited the lines along General McDowell's division of the army. Nothing occurred during the night, and the troops were quiet. He visited the advance pickets near Vienna, and desired to go beyond them, but was prement cannot be interfered with or demoralized by pleasure seekers merely. The Government and the strength of the way of the way of the March March 1988. Your express-rider went over the river early vented by our pickets, who informed him that scouts from the Ohio and Connecticut regiments were out, and he was as liable to he shot by them as by those of the enemy, they not being able to recognize him. The camps of the enemy could be seen on an elevation in the distance, and collisions were occurring, especially during the night, he > tween the pickets and scouting parties of the opposing columns. BRAUREGARD is at Manassas Junction, and had visited the village at Fairfax Court House on Friday. There was no more indication of a collision, owever, than has existed during the last fortycight hours. It is quite probable that at this movement on the other side. The Confederate Advance of Federal Troops on Harper's troops are reported to be badly supplied with is > -a want, however, which they medy by sinking wells. The military movements were more active to day than for several past Sundays. The New of General Patterson's columns had passed through Hampshire Second, and the Seventeenth New Greencastle, going in the same direction. No York regiments have arrived, making, with those doubt was entertained in the vicinity that Harthat have reached here during the past week, an per's Ferry would be occupied to-day by Federal aggregate of over 13,000 men. The above named

At? o'clock this evening the Third Conr egiment broke camp and marched into Virginia, taking with them thirty heavily loaded wagons. The Fourteenth Brooklyn regiment is under orders for the same direction.

The New York Twelfth regiment will be paid one of the best compromises that ever could be off to-morrow, the funds having arrived for that The Highland Regiment were temporarily sta o regiments have gone into camp.

tioned at the Arsenal last night. The Connectiout Regiment while on their way to the Virginia side, through the city, manifest much onthusissm, and were cheered by a large crowd of citizens, who lined the streets. Samp life, and are impatient for active service an my country to saved! She is right, and right | mause or one recomman, tas consume using to supply, and justice must prevail, while the stars and strines continue to float over us.

The Highland Regiment.

This regiment marched to the Arsenal this morning, and changed their old flint muskets altered for the musket of 1851. Col. Camenon rode on his proud charger at the head of one of the finest proud charger at the head of the finest proud charger at the head of the finest proud charge for the musket of 1851. Col. Camenon rode on his

The Three-Months Volunteers.

In about thirty days the time of most of the troops which have been enlisted will have expired, but the Administration has taken care to anticipate the disbanding of that already well-drilled corps d'armés by bringing forward, with great rapidity, all regiments that are ready to

The Hon. WE D KELLEY visited the advance regiment, (the Twenty fifth Pennsylvania.) Col CARS, at the Arsenal, yesterday. His arrival wa the signal of applause, as it is everywhere among the troops, and the soldiers, drawing up in a line. gave him three hearty cheers, and called for speech. The Judge responded in a few pertinent remarks, delivered in a happy strain.

FROM ALEXANDRIA

Abduction of a Connecticut Captain, Professor Lowe's Balloon.

ALEXANDRIA, June 23 -A captain of one of the Professor Lowe brought his balloon inflated from Col. McCook, of the 1st Ohio regiment, desires a

From Western Virginia. IENERAL M'CLELLAN AT GRAFTON.

MOVEMBNTS OF TROOPS. THE REBELS AT ROMNET.

GRAPTON, June 23.—Major Gen. McCiellan arrived here early this morning, accompanied by rived here early this morning, accompanied by Lieut. Mack's company I of the 4th U.S. artillery them is position to command respect from any irregular bodies which, in a moment of excitement, might assail them. The steamer Great Eastern conveys the troops.

The 9th Ohlo regiment is encamped at Webster Gen. C. W. Hill, of Ohio, and staff, arrived yesterday, to take command of the Ohio brigade. Of the State troops it is not known what movenent is contemplated. A deserter from the rebel camp at

FORTERS MORROS, June 22 -The propeller

forth their number to be 3 500. From Fortress Monrof. RESTRICTION OF PLEASURE SERVERS-HOVEMENTS

Fanny started for Norfolk this morning with a flag of truce, but was not permitted to proceed bey ni Sewell's Point, where she was met by a rebel thet, in the event of a rising of their slaves, they steamer and the passengers conveyed to their def-will out the throat of every male negro over five tination. Among these was a lady having sugs in both the Federal and rebel armics. It is now known that the fory first shet from Sawyer's rifled cannon struck the corner of the re-Propositions of Peace from the Traitors. | bel magazine. It southered the rebele like a bolt More than two weeks ago, some of the sympa. from Heaven and came near producing an explo-

States uniforms.

being rifled, and the "Union" gun is also being The Roads swarm with shipping, and immense storchouses are in process of erection for the Goyernment supplies. Quartermaster Tallmadge will, in a few days, receive 500 additional horses for the use of the army, and complete camp and garrison quipage for 10,000 men. The worthless garments of the New York volunfeers will soon be exchanged for substantial United

Several wharves and a short railroad are being onstructed, and altogether Old Point presents a pated] ively appearance. Lest evening there was a brilliant reception on There was another flag of truce from Great Bethel o-day, requesting the exchange of a prisoner nemed Reuben Parker for one Carter, now in our

Gen. Butler has just handed me the following : HEADQUARTERS OF THE DEP'T OF VIRGINIA. &C No person will be permitted to land at Fortress Monroe, er visit the camps, through motives of cu-mosity; neither will any person not having his home or business within this department be per post is for the use of the Government, and not a line for pleasure travel. By command of May Gam Burtles. Col. Butler goes to New York this evening, with important Government desnatches. ADDITIONAL PROM OLD POINT.

The propeller Fanny has just returned. vas permitted to go as far as Craney Island. Gen. Suger sent a despatch to Gen. Butler, the conents of which have not been publicly disclosed. A steamer will bring a large number of fugitives from Norfolk on Wednesday. Crancy Island and the adjacent main land bristles with cancon. The rebels are fast throwing up entrenched batteries at the extremity of Sewell's Point, and als on Willoughby Point, opposite the Rip Raps.

Ferry. Baltimons, June 23 - A gentleman, just from vance guard of Colonel Stone's column was at Point of Rocks, moving towards Harper's Ferry, and one doubt was entertained in the vicinity that Harper's Ferry would be occupied to-day by Federal troops. The Government has possession of the transmitted relative to the movements of troops in that witcomes. The many permits nothing to be transmitted relative to the movements of troops in that witcomes. The correspondents of the Way down.

St. Louis, June 23.—The steamer J C. Sudan for their riders, and two horses gallored over to our lines. The correspondents of the Sw York and Hard and St. Louis Democrate antered the battery but way down.

Colonel Blair arrived on the Swan, and will these runsway at each vicinity. Our informant also learned that the report of the hanging of Col. Bowman and Mr. Chase, at Martinsburg, was current there yesterday morning, but was ascertained to be incorrect.

Position of Gen. Patterson's Column. Haganstows, June 23 -The precise position of the troops in this neighborhood is as follows: Scott legion, and the Seventh, Righth, and Tenth Pennsylvania Regiments are in camp about one mile east of Williamsport : Major Dombleday's hattery of heavy artillery, and having one gun in position, ere on the Williamsport bluffs; Captain Perkins, Righth Artillery, battery of six pieces, are botween this point and Williamsport, on the Fair grounds;
Cot. Dare's. Col. Nagle's, Col. Ballian's, and Col.
Rowley's regiments are located two miles from proud charger at the head of one of the finest bodies of man yet called to the defence of our comismon county.

Miscellaneous.

The Secretary of State gave a dinner yesterday evening to the foreign ministers, at which were present Baron General, and the Misses Genout, of the secretary of State gave a dinner yesterday before Gen. Lyon, who is understood to be in waiting at Booneville for reinforcements, can present Baron General, and the Misses Genout, of

of the atteck.

Gov. Jackson, with about 600 men, passed Cole Camp on the 20th, pushing southward, probably The State troops have evacuated Lexington and marched towards Arkansas, about 5 000 strong. Gen. P.i.e, it is said, is at their head, but other reports say he resigned provious to the battle of Booneville, and still others that he is very sick at Lexington.

Ben. McCulloch is reported to be at Maysville.

Arkshuse, with 15,000 men and considerable ar-

FURTHER FROM EUROPE. ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER BREMEN.

Naw York, June 23 -The steamer Bremen from Bremen via Southampton, with dates to the 13th inst., has arrived.

onveys the troops. The Paris Monitour publishes the declaration The Paris Monsteau published the declaration that the Amperor Napoleon intends to maintain the atrictest neutrality in the American war, on joining all Frenchiston not to violate that neutrality by engaging in privateurs or enrolling in the army on either side at the risk of forfetting all irmy on either aide at il. claim on his Government. The reported treaty between France and Spain, securing the possession of the Antilles, is officially denied The new Italian Ministry has been established. Baron Ricasoli has assumed the presidency of the Baron Kicssoli has assumed the presidency of the Council and Foreign Affairs.

The Pope's health is entirely re-established. The Porte has consented to complete the Union of the Principalities. The International Conference will shortly assemble at Paris for a satisfactory settlement of the question.

The Turks had extorted the signatures of Bulgalant to addresses a two subject to the axisting state of rians to addresses favorable to the existing state of things under threats of death. Some districts were sgitated. Omer Pasha has taken measures to prevent The International Conference of Constantinople The International Conference of Constantinople resolved that the Governor of Lebianon should be appointed for three years, and should not be dis missed without a previous understanding between the Ports and the great Powers. At the capitation of three years, the Forts is to come to a fresh and derstanding with the Powers. The Conference resolved that the Governor may be chosen from the Christian subjects of the Sultanta any province of the empire.

Pince of the smplre.

Dorvich Pasha was marching with 4 000 fround against the insurgents by whom his vanguard had proclamation, as being opposed to the Koran.

The English and French embassies have been established at Pekin.

The Chiusse Government has resolved to establish an English rebool at Pekin.

Five Days Later from Europe. ST JOHNS, N. F., June 22 — The steamship Anglo Saxon, from Liverpool on the 13th, via Load dinderry on the 14th lastant, was signalled off Cape Race at six o'clock this evening, an reute to

Quebec
The steamship Etna arrived at Queenstown on the 11th, and the Saxona on the 12th.
The dates per the Anglo Saxon are five days later than those already received.
The political ness is unimportant.
The political ness is unimportant.
The permanent of the Eastern was to leave for Quebec, with troops, on the 2th inst., and the Golden Fleece was to leave Dublin on the 4th of July, on the same errand.
The Correspondence, of Madrid, referring to a despatch statung that Pleetident Lincoln had declared that if Spain occupied San Domingo she would do it at the own risk and petil, says that The next shell was directed upon the equits of the next shell was directed upon the equits to the fence where the enemy were at first posted.

The battailon frem the enemy were at first posted.

The battailon frem the enemy were at first posted.

The battailon frem the enemy were at first posted.

The battailon frem the enemy were at first posted.

The battailon frem the enemy were at first posted.

Captain: Maurice'e, Burke's, and Ystes', compaopposed the same time doing good wo, ton tor common. Spir to Turrentine cull at 45 Sagar the right; and in twenty minutes from the h, us ton right; and in twenty minutes from the h, us to say, to five du l. Pot Ashes quiet at Saga and Captain Totten fired the first shell the rabels we. acavy. A fi-e on l. Pot Ashes quiet at 315 fd, and University of the first and our men occupying the line first loss well and the first had been completely riddled by the enemy. The house on the right had declined Sugar duil, at a hight decline upon all qualities are completely riddled by the last shots from the LONDON MONEY MARKET, June 13.—Consols closed at 23%2530% for money, and 30%2530% for account liliuoia. Central Railroad stock 33% discount; Eric Railroad stock 21%; ew York Central Railroad 67.

| Been completely riddled by the last shots from the battery, and one shell burst in the very cette due building, at a time when it was full of soldier:

| Been completely riddled by the last shots from the battery, and one shell burst in the very cette due to building, at a time when it was full of soldier:

| Been completely riddled by the last shots from the battery, and one shell burst in the very cetter of the battery, and one shell burst in the very cetter of the battery, and one shell burst in the very cetter of the battery, and one shell burst in the very cetter of the battery, and one shell burst in the very cetter of the battery, and one shell burst in the very cetter of the battery, and one shell burst in the very cetter of the battery, and one shell burst in the very cetter of the battery, and one shell burst in the very cetter of the battery, and one shell burst in the very cetter of the battery, and one shell burst in the very cetter of the battery, and one shell burst in the very cetter of the battery, and one shell burst in the very cetter of the battery, and one shell burst in the very cetter of the battery, and one shell burst in the very cetter of the battery, and one shell burst in the very cetter of the battery. From St. Louis.

the way down.

Colonel Blair arrived on the Swan, and will proceed to Washington to-morrow, via Cincinnati. He states that the number of State troops killed at Bouneville was not less than forty, and he thinks at Bouneville was not less than forty, and he thinks to Camp Vest the rebels made a brief stad, but the company to the state was much more. at Booneville was not less than forty, and he thinks there was much more.

About 5 000 United States troops are now concentrated at Booneville, embracing the lows troops, under Col. Gales; the Konsas troops, under Col. Speines; and Gen. Lyons command, consisting of United States regulars and Missouri volunteers.

From the Southwest we learn that Col Siegler's regiment was within three days' march of Springfeld, and Col. Solomon's one day behind. Col. Brown's regiment left Rolla this morning for the same destination, and Col. MeNell's regiment left here this morning for Rolla.

The latest heard from Gov. Jackson was that he was joined at Warsaw by the State troops that the command of the latest heard from Gov. Jackson was that he was goined at Warsaw by the State troops that was womand on its part to repeat the case of the direction

Captain Prince took possession of the town, and the expression as a perfect trump, a decided captained the principal Secessionists, including Gen. Morau. All took the coath of allegiance, and were released, except Gon. Moran, who remains a prisoner. The Home Guards were then organized and armed.

Mr. Bernarti, the Italian minister, Mr. Van the Limburg, the Duich minister, and Mr. Hurrado, the new Granadian minister, are absent from the out.

The contract for the supply of stationery to the House of Representatives has been awarded.

The contract for the supply of stationery to the principal successful bidders are Price & Co. Philadelphis; L. Allen, of New York, and Philp &
Solomons, of Washington

Revenue and Protection.

Dr. Wr. Elden has been appointed by Secretary Chase to a position in the Tressury, with special reference to the revenue and protection department, for which he is possible of the Supply and a negro table of the Supply to the test troops have evacuated Legislan, headed by a German.

The contract for the supply of stationery to the House of Representatives has been awarded.

The principal successful bidders are Price & Co. Philadelphis; L. Allen, of New York, and Philp &
Solomons, of Washington

Revenue and Protections.

Dr. Wr. Elden has been appointed by Secretary Chase to a position in the Tressury, with special reference to the revenue and protection department, for which he is possible of the Supply unch attention in years past.

The Rom. Wr D Kenney variance.

The Rom. Wr D Kenney at the Arsenal.

The Rom. Wr D Kenney at the Arsenal.

The Rom Wr D Kenney at the Arsenal.

The Rom

Burning of Steamboats. CINCIANATI, Jude 23—The steamer Lehigh, laid up at Fulton, three miles above this city, was burned by incendiaries this morning. The hull is still after, but the upper works were destroyed. She was insured at Pittsburg for $7,000 to $8 000 The steamer J. W. Cheeseman was also damaged.

Latest Movements of the Enemy. Arkansas, with 15,000 men and considerable artillery.

The Second Regiment of Iowa volunteers, under Col. Bates, joined Gen. Lyons' command at Booneville, yesterday.

The steamer J C. Sizen reached here this afternoon, bringing the volunteers wounded at Booneville. Colonel Blair also came down. The steamer of State troops killed at Beoneville is not yet known, but fifty is probably a high estimate.

The steamer J Sizen reached here this afternoon, bringing the volunteers wounded at Booneville. Colonel Blair also came down. The probably a high estimate. The steamer of State troops killed at Beoneville is not thinks's Point, opposite Port Tobacco, a battery is being made to plant batteries along the Virginia side of the Potomac, as as to haras, if not entirely ent off, all cemmunication with Washington by water. At Mathias's Point, opposite Port Tobacco, a battery is being created in your paper of this morning which does great to which does great to yet the hour last that twenty-five car loade daily is the utmost copy of this route for the transportation of troops, and also, that New York and New York and New York and New York and New York in this property of this route for the transportation of troops, and also, that New York and New York in this property of the troops of the other also of the twenty-five oar loade daily is the utmost that twenty-five oar loade daily is the utmost that twenty-five oar loade daily is the utmost that twenty-five oar loade daily is the utmost twenty-five oar loade daily is the utmost that twenty-five oar loade daily is the utmost that twenty-five oar loade daily is the utmost to the time of the property of this route for the transportation of troops, and also, that New York and New York and New York and New York and New York oar loaded at the rate of twenty-five oar loaded at the rate of the oar load [From the Washington Chronicle,]

IMPORTANT FROM MISSOUR THE BATTLE OF BOONEVILLE

THE DETAILS OF THE FIGHT 4,000 Rebels Routed and the Field Occupied in Twenty Minutes.

Correspondence of New York Herald.

BOOKEVILLE, Copper co., June 18, 1861.

The boats moved up to a landing eight miles below Boener lie, on the south side of the fiver were debarked. A farmer at work in a field near the landing stated that the enemy were loaned a half miles from that goot, or three half which half which half wiles half. tended up the river, until it terminated who bluff but it gradually narrowed a tended up the river, until it terminated who bluff came to the water's edge, two miles? hundred feet in height, which are separated by ravines, some of them with qu to precipit an aid the order of proceeding was as follows: Two mounted men, the only cavalry in the expedition in the second regiment, were thrown out for him mile on the left, and to the river on the right General Lyon's company of regulars, led by Segeant Griffin, and Company B. Seneral Dyon's Company of Fegulars, 1841; Seneral Griffin, and Company D. 18d by decond regiment, commanded by C. plain Scholts, artillery, and his company of regulars, the late by Colonel Blair's (First) regiment; the raw by Colonel Blair's (First) regiment; the raw by Colonel Blair's (First) regiment; the raw stein's regiment, led by Lieutenant Colonel Born-Schaffer. On board 128 best was Capitals I where the company D, First regiment was company D, First regiment. Sonaffer. On board Lise cost was Capitale Not ardeon, with Company D, First regiment, and Capitale Roatep, with twenty men and a siege (eight-inch) however minutes before seven A M. on Anne 17, the original was given to move The morning was sloudy, with consionally a few dropt of rain, but before the battle was over the can those and bright as ever. As the columns rain, but before the battle was over the cus home out clear and bright accver. As the column seconded the binf, the bickets of the column second driver in.

After an advance of the se four he of a mile, one of the advanced guard 192, hastily back to the head of the column, and his. The General Lips that the whole body of the Mail, troops was dignificant a few hundred verite in from Converting Japan was defet.

Japan was defet.

The war in New Zealand terminated March 19th, by the unconditional surrender of the natives.

[The commercial news by this steamer is anticities and the commercial news by the steamer is anticities and the commercial news by the steamer is anticities.

The chemical news by this steamer is anticities and the commercial news by this steamer is anticities.

The chemical news were drawn no short in the commercial news in the front to occupy the road. the front to occupy the road.

The onemy were drawn up about three h. udred yards in advance. In the crest of a hill, or ra bee a long swell or ridge, over which the road pass, at the highest point. The road was occupied by Colonel Marm sduke, with a small but of horsemen and a battalion of infentry. Immediately on his left was a brick house dilied with rebel troops, and back of this, towards the river, was a narrow lane, where his I fe wing was posted.

The Correspondences, of Madrid, referring to a despatch stating that President Lincoln had declared that if Spain occupied San Domingo she would do it at her own risk and peril, says that the Government has received no official notice of any such declaration, but it is prepared to defend the integrity of the territory which it has annexed to Spain.

The Porte has recognized the kingdom of Italy.

Commercial intelligence.

Liverpool, June 13.—The sales of Cotton for three days have been 20 000 be as, including 6 000 for speculation and export. The market closes dull, but unchanged.

State of Trade—The Manchester advices are unfavorable. In market for Goods and Yams was quiet, but sleady.

Bar destruction and declined dety sales at 26.0228 sd. Wheat very cuil and holders pressed as a cotter to our men. Cyptain Stone, says me forced sales were me deal a decline of 6.00 feed to find the ridges was full of scattered case, and there are declined to the ridge, creeping up the latter and fing when opportunity occurred, taking for their mutta that of an Irizhman at Dounyhook Fair, When. Says me forced sales were me de at a decline of 6.00 feed to find the ridges was full of scattered case, and there are declared to the ridge, creeping up the latter and fing when opportunity occurred, taking for their mutta that declined the substances of the ridge, creeping up the latter and fing when opportunity occurred, taking for their mutta that declined the substances of the ridge, creeping up the latter and fing when opportunity occurred, taking for their mutta that declined the substances of the ridge, creeping up the latter and fing when opportunity occurred, taking for their mutta that declined the substances of the ridge, creeping up the latter and fing when opportunity occurred, taking for their mutta that declined the substances of the ridge, creeping up the latter and fing when opportunity occurred, taking for their mutta at declined the substances.

The regulars advanced in the common the substance of the ridge, creeping the wheat field near the lane, showing that on fire had been effective. In fact, at the first voller when His and are impatible for solver streams and the property of the please are not towers. The foreign with which military affairs are now sendented that nothing is positively movements of the troops.

But is the contine with which military affairs in the public of the property in the public of the publ

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

QUARTER SESSIONS-Judge Allison.-A ha 221 of May, while in a scuille with Hac Icssiy among them
The correspondent of the Memphis Appeal says there is only one Union men in the Legislature of Tomessee, and no representatives from East Tensessee, and no representatives from East Tensessee.

> dismissed.
> Snyder vs. Kelly. Rule for a rew trial discharged, and judgment for defendant in the point reserved.
> Harlan vs. Spregue. Exceptions to Auditor's PHILA., WIL. AND BALTIMORP R. R. CO., Palladelphia, June 21, 1861. TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS.—Dear Sir.

sets anown, but fifty is probably a high estimate. The stars and stripes now wave from a staff near the Gubernatorial mansion, where a Secession first recently hung.

From Alexandria.

Alexandria, June 22—At the close of three weeks constant watchfulness, with expectation continually strong on remore of attacks and advances, the report of "all quiet" is again to be repeated. The crection of a new battery at some point below on the Potomac, the stoppage of coal boats from going down the river, the rearrest of Captain Ball, late of the Secession cavalry, released on his oath of allegiance, are among the rumons to-day, but inquiry at the coal yard central dies the former, while the latter is unconfirmed

Experience has preven military predictions

Norwaw Espara — Vesterday morns

Section of their way. I dem portance in the some of great income on the property of the rend of their way. I dem to dispose them until they have been exerted the major to the former, with Bean regard in sommand. At Germantown, troops are consentrated; and a battery has been exceed at Powell's, between Falls Church and Fairfax Court Philadelphia and Baltimore.

We find no fault with the Government of any in the continual properties of the contract of the section of a new battery at some point below on the Potomac, the stoppage of coal boats from going down the river, the rearrest of Captain Ball, late of the Section cavalry, released on his oath of allegiance, are among the rumon mansion. They have been erected within a week.

Experience has preven military predictions.

Norwaw Espara — Vesterday morns.

Norwaw Espara — Yours truly, Pres't P. W. & B. A. B.

> GLORIOUS WAR.—The MARDIDOODS mechanics moving panorama of Russian War, which has been delighting our citizens at Assembly Buildings for the past four weeks, will continue one wask more The present time is a good one to visit this exhi bition, and see the glories and borrors of war. The Fifth Maine Regiment on the Waf Bosron, June 22.—The Fifth Maine Regiment of the War.
>
> Bosron, June 22.—The Fifth Maine Regiment Jeaves Portiand on Wednesday, and goes honce to Rew York by the river route.