I suppose you are already acquainted with the result of the military election recently held here; and as rumors have got abroad that Col. De Korponay was prevented from receiving a command by unfair means, it is my duty to correct them. General McCall, previously to the election, stated that if any ten companies voluntarily formed themselves into a regiment, their organization would be re-cognized, otherwise they would be formed into regiments according to the date of their arrival on the ground. Up to the time of the election, no ten companies associated themselves, and on that day three regiments were Colonels Mann, March, and Sickles, Col. De

GENERAL BUCKNER TO GOVERNOR MAGOFFIL

HEADQUARTERS KY. STATE GUARDS, LOUISVILLE, June 10, 1861. Sin: On the St instant, at Cincismenti, Ohio, I entered into an arrangement with Major General G. B. McClellan, commander of the United States troops in the State north of the Ohio river, to the following effect:

The authorities of the States of Kentucky are to protect the United States property within the limits of the State, to enforce the lewe of the United States in exceeding with the interpretations of the owners under the sway of their rebel states. limits of the State, to entorce the laws of the United States in accordance with the interpretations of the United States courts, as far as those laws may be applicable to Kentucky, and to enforce, with all the power of the State, our obligations of neutrality as against the Southern States, as long as the position we have assumed shall be respected by the United States.

position we have assumed shall be respected by the United States.

Gen. McClellan stipulates that the territory of Kentucky shall be respected on the part of the United States, even though the Southern States should cocupy it; but in the latter case he will call upon the authorities of Kentucky to ramews the Southern forces from our territory. Should Kentucky fail to accomplish this object in a reasonable time, Gen. McClellan claims the same right of company given to the Southern forces. adopt towards Kontucky.

GENERAL BUCKNER TO GOVERNOR MAGOFFIX. HEADQUARTERS KY. STATE GUARD, PADUCAH, June 15, 1861.

SIR: On the 11th inst. I advised Governor fiarris, of Tennessee, of the agreement which has been entered into with General McOlellan, and of the purpose of Kentucky to carry out with the force at her disposal the neutral position which her Legislature and her people have assumed. He gave me every assurance that the territory of Kentucky would be respected by Tennessee and the Southern States; and that only in the event of an evident necessity, after the neutrality of Kentucky had been first violated by the United States forces, would any attempt be made to occupy any portion of her territory. His orders to the commanders of the Tennessee forces are peremptory.

You will station these companies for the present in the vicinity of Columbus, Ky. Amongst these companies it is desirable that the company of Capt. Lyon be included, and if practicable, the company at Columbus. You will assume the command of this force in person.

Its general object will be to carry out the obligation of neutrality which the State has arsumed in the contest now impending on our borders.

Your attention will be specially directed towards restraining our own citizens from acts of lawless aggression; and, with this view, you will hold yourself under the direction of the judicial officers of the district. You will also give protection to all citizens who may claim it, and who may be threatened in their persons, property, or enjoyment of their civil rights.

You will direct Captain Lyon to proceed at ones to Columbus, to make the necessary preparations for the recoption of the force. Camp equipage will be sent from Louisyille.

The Northern tendency of the Southern families is confirmed by the following extracts:

The Memphis Appeal says:

"A great many Southerners are sending their families North for the summer, and as the beats en the river are mostly laid up on account of the blockade, this travel is taking the rail."

The St. Louis Democrat, referring to this travel, says:

Let all men, Gol. Anderson is the man for such a command. A native Kentuckian, an experienced officer and courageous soldier, if there is a Secessionist to be found or a traitor to be hung, he is the one to do it!

In the reply of "Chestant Street," a few days ago, he approves of the retailer selling for cash only, and of the shortening of torms by the package house to four months, and the jobber to three months. He objects, however, to the discount of four per cent. accompanying the four months, and of three per cent. accompanying the fiver months and three months.

The reason for attaching the discount is, that the charge be less violent, as they make the new terms equivalent to the old. The customers of almost every house have their ideas of prices, based upon six months; and so, in discounting the four some so almost every house have their ideas of prices, based upon six months; and them and their fine battery, for in the state were are pecifing, they would do great ideas of prices, based upon six months; and so, in discounting their follows will be given the good of the section, and so were in ideas of prices, based upon six months; and the mast the order came to pitch tents, and so were to in the follows will to give the good of the section of the price of the p
