ARRIVAL OF THE THIRD NEW JEBSEY REGIMENT. The Third Regiment of New Jersey reached Washington street at nine o'clock last evening. The names of the leading officers are given above. The men are a likely party of soldiers, and appear ancious to go forward to Virginis at once. They gethered under the trees in Washington street, near Front, and, company after company, they proceeded into the free restaurant and en-ioyed the facilities extended to them by the people of Sonthwark. They left the oity at nine c'clock hered immensely.

THE THIRTIBTH NEW YORK REGIMENT

THE THERTER NEW YORK REGIMENT were expected to go through the city last night at a late howr. They are samed with United States muckets of the old pattern, which, however, are to be exchanged for Eufeld rifes upon their arrival in Washington. Their uniform is of the regular pattern, according to the United States smy regulation. The regiment are wholly composed of a stoat and hardy class of men, who present a fine, sol-diefy appearance; and they look in every way capable of doing their part in any contest with armies in rebellion against the Government The following is a list of the officers: The following is a list of the officers: The following is a list of the officers: The following is a list of the officers:
