We have pickets stationed for miles along the river, so that the sum y cannot do much without being detected. Company D. Capt. Sinex, arrived here night before last, making four companies of our regiment, and a portion of the West Point, battery here ist present. It is a most important point. Nothing is allowed to navigate on the Potomac or canal. The place is very dull, and nothing can be bought for 'love or money,' except from the darkies, who visit us occasionally. We have (I mean the N. H. and N. Y. regiments) got possession of the Potomac for a distance of fifteen miles, and our pickets meet them at night. Your friend, Gro. D. M.	Yon Copies, one year	HENRY C.
