The Press.

TUESDAY, JULY 9, 1861.

Physiology of Jobbing. England is emphatically a country of Jobs, though John Bull hates such trickery.

Lord Campbell, for having sat twenty-four hours in the Irish Court of Chancery. The most curious part of the matter is this: The same man, or rather the same name, "all honorable men."

The Explosive Properties of Kerosene. (For the Press.) The fatal accident at Stratton, Pennsylvania, occasioned by the explosion of kerosene, as reported in today's Press, resulting in the death of two persons, has confirmed an idea, long since entertained, of the explosibility of that article.

Letter from Col. Ranston's Regiment. (Correspondence of the Press.) KALAMAZOO HILLS, Mich., July 7, 1861. Our regiment is still encamped at Kalamazoo Hills, but how long we will remain here is very uncertain, as we are now expecting to be ordered to the front.

Governor Curtin in West Chester. Was on Friday, July 5, 1861, to the Borough of West Chester, Pa. On Thursday last (Sunday) the people of Chester County, and more especially the citizens of West Chester, expressed their warm affection for Governor Curtin, Major General Mead, and Messrs. McKean and Schaeffer.

ARMY INTELLIGENCE. The West Point Graduates in the War Department. The following names of graduates of the Military Academy at West Point, Pa., who were promoted to the rank of second lieutenant, are published for the information of the public.

Military Mismanagement. "The Hon. General" (Drayton) is reported to have been very much displeased with the military organization connected with the Impending day of the 4th of July.

From Washington to the Schuylkill Mountains. (Correspondence of the Press.) There is something interestingly beautiful in the view of a lovely summer morning, just as the sun is rising over the hills.

From Washington to the Schuylkill Mountains. (Continued.) The view of a lovely summer morning, just as the sun is rising over the hills, is indeed a most beautiful sight.

Union. Looking out from my window I see plenty of evidences in the display of stars and stripes from almost every house-top; and which I gaze upon their beautiful folds unfurled to the breeze, cannot help but say in my heart that the stars and stripes of the Union of the free and the home of the brave."
