Je24 8m ELJAS CLEAVER, Proprietor. We heard of a number of cases where weak and aged citizens fell half lifeless at the first intimation, and many were taken to their beds, under circumstances of almost hopeless recovery. Throughout the town, in all public and private places, citizens were assembled di cussing the character of affairs. As the day were away, the trepidation yielded to submissiveness, and finally hope again revived, and the dark brows of the people grew darker wet with the determination to see the rehels. one-price gift establishment of Granville Ptokes, 623 Chest ut street. MILITARY CLOTHING — The subject of military clothing absorbed much attention in England and France during the Crimean and Italian wars and very many jumprovements were made. This important department of military supplies has caused more comment than any other during the present war, and great reforms have been made. The well-kn win firm of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 633 and 608 Chestnut street, above Sixtn, have devoted much attention to the manufacture of military clothing, and they now have a regiment of cutters and sewers engaged in filling large contracts for army uniforms. The firm avail themselves of all the improvements that have been made in their line, and the somfort of the soldier is enhanced, and his appearance is improved thereby.
