Gov. Olden, of New Jersey, received, on Mon-day, from the Department of State, at Washing-ton, per express, a curiously-shaped box, which, upon opening, was found to contain the original patent granted by George III. of England to Wm. Franklin, the first Governor of New Jersey. It is written on three sheets of parchment, about two feet by two feet seven inches in size, with the lar-ger portion of a seal of solid wax attached, which measures about six inches in diameter by a half inch thick. On each side of the seal are English davices. The closing sentence of the patent reads as follows: as follows : "Witness ourself at Westminster, the ninth day
