Process. The Colorado was the only other vessel at the anchorage. At about half past one on the morning of the lat, an alarm was sounded that an expedition in boats from Pickens was approaching the town. The garrison of Pensecola was in arms in a moment to give the enemy a warm reception. The whole town was wide awake, and great and entertaining was the excitement. In fitteen minutes from the first sounding of the alarm a force of over one thousand artillery, da valry, and infantry wore drawn up ready to dis pute the landing of an enemy, and, besides this, all the militia of the oity were on hand with their arms. The Mobile State Artillery, the Georgia Battery, and the Prattville Dragoons were partique larly prompt. The soldiers formed like magio, with less confusion than usual among regulars. The alarm was false, of course. Billy Wilson's Zouves have no idea of trusting themssives across the bay in boats unless with a prospect of cheaper plunder then is now held out, notwithstanding they have been informed that all the waiches in Pensoola will be hung up on the trees in the public quare, and not a shot will be fired until they make the landing, if they will come and try to take them. THEACHERY DISCOVERED. The Charleston Courser says : It has been reported that General Beauragard has detected and promptly punished several traitors and pretended friends, who had been giving information to the eneary. It is to be hoped this process of retribution and justice will be down that of y a fact which explains in great part the severe and peristion at a stock and concentration by the enemy on the Hampton Legion. His first letters—many of which we published— with all their vagueness and ambiguity evinced a decided leaning to the side of the South. To such an extent was this the case that the imprecations of Abolition wrath were poured upon his devoted head without regard to the feelings of the unfile time to return to America, and be read in the south before his advent among us, presented the whose intention it was to mete out sheer justice to the character of the cause in which we are strug-gling.
