DARING ROBBERY .- A few days since, a house No 725 Green street, was entered by thieves during the absence of the residents, who had taken a trip to the country. An entrance was made by the bur, lars by prying off one of the back shutters and climbing into the window, and as there was no person about, they had ample time to do whatever perion sound they are they chose. The rohbery was discovered by a lady, named Davis, who had received a note from the lady of the house to give it an siring prior to her arrival the house to give it an airing prior to her arrival home On Mrs D wis proceeding to the house she dis-covered that the gas was burning in nearly every room, at it that the furniture had been scattered promised, usly about the rooms She at once ob-tained the services of a gentleman who accompa-nied her through the bours. In one of the rooms they found a set of silver ware packed up, ready for removal, with two of Colt's revolving pistols laying alorgeide. In every room clothing, &..., was scattered about the fibor, and some money, and other articles of value, to the amount of about $40 were missing. It is evident that the thieves ware in some way frightened off without securing their prospective booty. heir prospective booty.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDES. -- Yesterday morning between seven and eight o'clock, an elderly woman of very respectable appearance, dressed in black, was seen to divest herself of a portion of her cloth-ing, at Arch street wharf, and jump into the Schuy:kill. A lame toy who witk-eised the set, sprang into the water and succeeded in rescuing her when both were very nearly erbausted. The woman was taken to the inth ward station house where she is still detained. She gives ber name as Mary Brown, and states that she is firm Barks county She is unwilling to furnish any informa-tion as to where her 'riends are to be found.
