

SEA BATHING. PROPOSALS FOR ARMY BAGGAGE WAGONS.

PROPOSALS FOR ARMY BAGGAGE WAGONS. QUARTERMASTER GENERAL'S OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C., August 21, 1861. Proposals are invited for the furnishing of Army Baggage Wagons for the use of the Army of the Potomac. The wagons should be of the following description: To carry one hundred and fifty pounds of baggage, and to be drawn by one mule or horse. The wagons should be of the following description: To carry one hundred and fifty pounds of baggage, and to be drawn by one mule or horse. The wagons should be of the following description: To carry one hundred and fifty pounds of baggage, and to be drawn by one mule or horse.

EDUCATIONAL. REV. J. J. HILL WILL REOPEN THE COLLEGE OF ST. JAMES.

REV. J. J. HILL WILL REOPEN THE COLLEGE OF ST. JAMES. WASHINGTON COUNTY, MARYLAND. The Rev. J. J. Hill, of the same denomination, will open the College of St. James, in Washington County, Maryland, on the 1st of September. The college is situated on the banks of the Potomac, and is one of the best in the State. It has a large number of students, and is well equipped with books and apparatus. The Rev. J. J. Hill is a distinguished scholar, and has spent many years in the study of the classics. He is a native of Maryland, and has a deep interest in the education of his countrymen.

THE PRESS. THE FALL OF A GREAT HOUSE.

THE FALL OF A GREAT HOUSE. The late Duke of Buckingham and Chandos, who possessed a dukedom, two Marquises, two Earldoms, one Viscountcy, and one Baroncy, and died in an obscure lodging in London, on the 29th July, under the alias of "Mr. Johnson," succeeded to the titles and estates worth $1,000,000 a year, on the death of his father, in 1819. He died almost a pauper, disgraced and degraded. Related to Queen Victoria in blood, (actually belonging to the elder Tudor branch, whereas she reigns through her descent from the Scottish Stuarts,) a Knight of the Order of the Garter, and a Peer of the Realm, was unceremoniously cast aside. Worse than all, his own misconduct caused the ruin of fortune and fame. His father was a Duke, and his mother a Duke's sole daughter and heiress. He was born in 1779, married in 1809, got into bad luck in 1810, succeeded to the dukedom in 1821, and in 1829, when he was in the height of his power, he was suddenly cast aside.

TWO CENTS. THE MONEY MARKET.

TWO CENTS. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, August 22, 1861. The money market is in the same condition reported yesterday. The investment securities have their prices gradually with reference to the new Treasury bonds, and speculative shares are firm but dull of sale. The stock market is in the same condition reported yesterday. The investment securities have their prices gradually with reference to the new Treasury bonds, and speculative shares are firm but dull of sale.

SEA BATHING. ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. ATLANTIC CITY is now considered to be one of the most delightful Sea-Resorts in the world. Its bathing is unsurpassed; its beautiful unbroken beach (also called in length) is unequalled by any on the continent, and that of Galveston; its air is remarkable for its purity, its salubrity, and its perfect healthfulness. It is situated on the shore of Newport or Saratoga, while its avenue and walks are cleaner and broader than those of any Sea-Bathing place in the country.

EDUCATIONAL. THE COLLEGE OF ST. JAMES.

THE COLLEGE OF ST. JAMES. WASHINGTON COUNTY, MARYLAND. The Rev. J. J. Hill, of the same denomination, will open the College of St. James, in Washington County, Maryland, on the 1st of September. The college is situated on the banks of the Potomac, and is one of the best in the State. It has a large number of students, and is well equipped with books and apparatus. The Rev. J. J. Hill is a distinguished scholar, and has spent many years in the study of the classics. He is a native of Maryland, and has a deep interest in the education of his countrymen.

THE PRESS. THE FALL OF A GREAT HOUSE.

THE FALL OF A GREAT HOUSE. The late Duke of Buckingham and Chandos, who possessed a dukedom, two Marquises, two Earldoms, one Viscountcy, and one Baroncy, and died in an obscure lodging in London, on the 29th July, under the alias of "Mr. Johnson," succeeded to the titles and estates worth $1,000,000 a year, on the death of his father, in 1819. He died almost a pauper, disgraced and degraded. Related to Queen Victoria in blood, (actually belonging to the elder Tudor branch, whereas she reigns through her descent from the Scottish Stuarts,) a Knight of the Order of the Garter, and a Peer of the Realm, was unceremoniously cast aside. Worse than all, his own misconduct caused the ruin of fortune and fame. His father was a Duke, and his mother a Duke's sole daughter and heiress. He was born in 1779, married in 1809, got into bad luck in 1810, succeeded to the dukedom in 1821, and in 1829, when he was in the height of his power, he was suddenly cast aside.

TWO CENTS. THE MONEY MARKET.

TWO CENTS. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, August 22, 1861. The money market is in the same condition reported yesterday. The investment securities have their prices gradually with reference to the new Treasury bonds, and speculative shares are firm but dull of sale. The stock market is in the same condition reported yesterday. The investment securities have their prices gradually with reference to the new Treasury bonds, and speculative shares are firm but dull of sale.

SEA BATHING. ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. ATLANTIC CITY is now considered to be one of the most delightful Sea-Resorts in the world. Its bathing is unsurpassed; its beautiful unbroken beach (also called in length) is unequalled by any on the continent, and that of Galveston; its air is remarkable for its purity, its salubrity, and its perfect healthfulness. It is situated on the shore of Newport or Saratoga, while its avenue and walks are cleaner and broader than those of any Sea-Bathing place in the country.

EDUCATIONAL. THE COLLEGE OF ST. JAMES.

THE COLLEGE OF ST. JAMES. WASHINGTON COUNTY, MARYLAND. The Rev. J. J. Hill, of the same denomination, will open the College of St. James, in Washington County, Maryland, on the 1st of September. The college is situated on the banks of the Potomac, and is one of the best in the State. It has a large number of students, and is well equipped with books and apparatus. The Rev. J. J. Hill is a distinguished scholar, and has spent many years in the study of the classics. He is a native of Maryland, and has a deep interest in the education of his countrymen.

THE PRESS. THE FALL OF A GREAT HOUSE.

THE FALL OF A GREAT HOUSE. The late Duke of Buckingham and Chandos, who possessed a dukedom, two Marquises, two Earldoms, one Viscountcy, and one Baroncy, and died in an obscure lodging in London, on the 29th July, under the alias of "Mr. Johnson," succeeded to the titles and estates worth $1,000,000 a year, on the death of his father, in 1819. He died almost a pauper, disgraced and degraded. Related to Queen Victoria in blood, (actually belonging to the elder Tudor branch, whereas she reigns through her descent from the Scottish Stuarts,) a Knight of the Order of the Garter, and a Peer of the Realm, was unceremoniously cast aside. Worse than all, his own misconduct caused the ruin of fortune and fame. His father was a Duke, and his mother a Duke's sole daughter and heiress. He was born in 1779, married in 1809, got into bad luck in 1810, succeeded to the dukedom in 1821, and in 1829, when he was in the height of his power, he was suddenly cast aside.

TWO CENTS. THE MONEY MARKET.

TWO CENTS. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, August 22, 1861. The money market is in the same condition reported yesterday. The investment securities have their prices gradually with reference to the new Treasury bonds, and speculative shares are firm but dull of sale. The stock market is in the same condition reported yesterday. The investment securities have their prices gradually with reference to the new Treasury bonds, and speculative shares are firm but dull of sale.

SEA BATHING. ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. ATLANTIC CITY is now considered to be one of the most delightful Sea-Resorts in the world. Its bathing is unsurpassed; its beautiful unbroken beach (also called in length) is unequalled by any on the continent, and that of Galveston; its air is remarkable for its purity, its salubrity, and its perfect healthfulness. It is situated on the shore of Newport or Saratoga, while its avenue and walks are cleaner and broader than those of any Sea-Bathing place in the country.

EDUCATIONAL. THE COLLEGE OF ST. JAMES.

THE COLLEGE OF ST. JAMES. WASHINGTON COUNTY, MARYLAND. The Rev. J. J. Hill, of the same denomination, will open the College of St. James, in Washington County, Maryland, on the 1st of September. The college is situated on the banks of the Potomac, and is one of the best in the State. It has a large number of students, and is well equipped with books and apparatus. The Rev. J. J. Hill is a distinguished scholar, and has spent many years in the study of the classics. He is a native of Maryland, and has a deep interest in the education of his countrymen.

THE PRESS. THE FALL OF A GREAT HOUSE.

THE FALL OF A GREAT HOUSE. The late Duke of Buckingham and Chandos, who possessed a dukedom, two Marquises, two Earldoms, one Viscountcy, and one Baroncy, and died in an obscure lodging in London, on the 29th July, under the alias of "Mr. Johnson," succeeded to the titles and estates worth $1,000,000 a year, on the death of his father, in 1819. He died almost a pauper, disgraced and degraded. Related to Queen Victoria in blood, (actually belonging to the elder Tudor branch, whereas she reigns through her descent from the Scottish Stuarts,) a Knight of the Order of the Garter, and a Peer of the Realm, was unceremoniously cast aside. Worse than all, his own misconduct caused the ruin of fortune and fame. His father was a Duke, and his mother a Duke's sole daughter and heiress. He was born in 1779, married in 1809, got into bad luck in 1810, succeeded to the dukedom in 1821, and in 1829, when he was in the height of his power, he was suddenly cast aside.

TWO CENTS. THE MONEY MARKET.

TWO CENTS. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, August 22, 1861. The money market is in the same condition reported yesterday. The investment securities have their prices gradually with reference to the new Treasury bonds, and speculative shares are firm but dull of sale. The stock market is in the same condition reported yesterday. The investment securities have their prices gradually with reference to the new Treasury bonds, and speculative shares are firm but dull of sale.

SEA BATHING. ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. ATLANTIC CITY is now considered to be one of the most delightful Sea-Resorts in the world. Its bathing is unsurpassed; its beautiful unbroken beach (also called in length) is unequalled by any on the continent, and that of Galveston; its air is remarkable for its purity, its salubrity, and its perfect healthfulness. It is situated on the shore of Newport or Saratoga, while its avenue and walks are cleaner and broader than those of any Sea-Bathing place in the country.

EDUCATIONAL. THE COLLEGE OF ST. JAMES.

THE COLLEGE OF ST. JAMES. WASHINGTON COUNTY, MARYLAND. The Rev. J. J. Hill, of the same denomination, will open the College of St. James, in Washington County, Maryland, on the 1st of September. The college is situated on the banks of the Potomac, and is one of the best in the State. It has a large number of students, and is well equipped with books and apparatus. The Rev. J. J. Hill is a distinguished scholar, and has spent many years in the study of the classics. He is a native of Maryland, and has a deep interest in the education of his countrymen.

THE PRESS. THE FALL OF A GREAT HOUSE.

THE FALL OF A GREAT HOUSE. The late Duke of Buckingham and Chandos, who possessed a dukedom, two Marquises, two Earldoms, one Viscountcy, and one Baroncy, and died in an obscure lodging in London, on the 29th July, under the alias of "Mr. Johnson," succeeded to the titles and estates worth $1,000,000 a year, on the death of his father, in 1819. He died almost a pauper, disgraced and degraded. Related to Queen Victoria in blood, (actually belonging to the elder Tudor branch, whereas she reigns through her descent from the Scottish Stuarts,) a Knight of the Order of the Garter, and a Peer of the Realm, was unceremoniously cast aside. Worse than all, his own misconduct caused the ruin of fortune and fame. His father was a Duke, and his mother a Duke's sole daughter and heiress. He was born in 1779, married in 1809, got into bad luck in 1810, succeeded to the dukedom in 1821, and in 1829, when he was in the height of his power, he was suddenly cast aside.

TWO CENTS. THE MONEY MARKET.

TWO CENTS. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, August 22, 1861. The money market is in the same condition reported yesterday. The investment securities have their prices gradually with reference to the new Treasury bonds, and speculative shares are firm but dull of sale. The stock market is in the same condition reported yesterday. The investment securities have their prices gradually with reference to the new Treasury bonds, and speculative shares are firm but dull of sale.

SEA BATHING. ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. ATLANTIC CITY is now considered to be one of the most delightful Sea-Resorts in the world. Its bathing is unsurpassed; its beautiful unbroken beach (also called in length) is unequalled by any on the continent, and that of Galveston; its air is remarkable for its purity, its salubrity, and its perfect healthfulness. It is situated on the shore of Newport or Saratoga, while its avenue and walks are cleaner and broader than those of any Sea-Bathing place in the country.

EDUCATIONAL. THE COLLEGE OF ST. JAMES.

THE COLLEGE OF ST. JAMES. WASHINGTON COUNTY, MARYLAND. The Rev. J. J. Hill, of the same denomination, will open the College of St. James, in Washington County, Maryland, on the 1st of September. The college is situated on the banks of the Potomac, and is one of the best in the State. It has a large number of students, and is well equipped with books and apparatus. The Rev. J. J. Hill is a distinguished scholar, and has spent many years in the study of the classics. He is a native of Maryland, and has a deep interest in the education of his countrymen.

THE PRESS. THE FALL OF A GREAT HOUSE.

THE FALL OF A GREAT HOUSE. The late Duke of Buckingham and Chandos, who possessed a dukedom, two Marquises, two Earldoms, one Viscountcy, and one Baroncy, and died in an obscure lodging in London, on the 29th July, under the alias of "Mr. Johnson," succeeded to the titles and estates worth $1,000,000 a year, on the death of his father, in 1819. He died almost a pauper, disgraced and degraded. Related to Queen Victoria in blood, (actually belonging to the elder Tudor branch, whereas she reigns through her descent from the Scottish Stuarts,) a Knight of the Order of the Garter, and a Peer of the Realm, was unceremoniously cast aside. Worse than all, his own misconduct caused the ruin of fortune and fame. His father was a Duke, and his mother a Duke's sole daughter and heiress. He was born in 1779, married in 1809, got into bad luck in 1810, succeeded to the dukedom in 1821, and in 1829, when he was in the height of his power, he was suddenly cast aside.

TWO CENTS. THE MONEY MARKET.

TWO CENTS. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, August 22, 1861. The money market is in the same condition reported yesterday. The investment securities have their prices gradually with reference to the new Treasury bonds, and speculative shares are firm but dull of sale. The stock market is in the same condition reported yesterday. The investment securities have their prices gradually with reference to the new Treasury bonds, and speculative shares are firm but dull of sale.

SEA BATHING. ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. ATLANTIC CITY is now considered to be one of the most delightful Sea-Resorts in the world. Its bathing is unsurpassed; its beautiful unbroken beach (also called in length) is unequalled by any on the continent, and that of Galveston; its air is remarkable for its purity, its salubrity, and its perfect healthfulness. It is situated on the shore of Newport or Saratoga, while its avenue and walks are cleaner and broader than those of any Sea-Bathing place in the country.

EDUCATIONAL. THE COLLEGE OF ST. JAMES.

THE COLLEGE OF ST. JAMES. WASHINGTON COUNTY, MARYLAND. The Rev. J. J. Hill, of the same denomination, will open the College of St. James, in Washington County, Maryland, on the 1st of September. The college is situated on the banks of the Potomac, and is one of the best in the State. It has a large number of students, and is well equipped with books and apparatus. The Rev. J. J. Hill is a distinguished scholar, and has spent many years in the study of the classics. He is a native of Maryland, and has a deep interest in the education of his countrymen.

THE PRESS. THE FALL OF A GREAT HOUSE.

THE FALL OF A GREAT HOUSE. The late Duke of Buckingham and Chandos, who possessed a dukedom, two Marquises, two Earldoms, one Viscountcy, and one Baroncy, and died in an obscure lodging in London, on the 29th July, under the alias of "Mr. Johnson," succeeded to the titles and estates worth $1,000,000 a year, on the death of his father, in 1819. He died almost a pauper, disgraced and degraded. Related to Queen Victoria in blood, (actually belonging to the elder Tudor branch, whereas she reigns through her descent from the Scottish Stuarts,) a Knight of the Order of the Garter, and a Peer of the Realm, was unceremoniously cast aside. Worse than all, his own misconduct caused the ruin of fortune and fame. His father was a Duke, and his mother a Duke's sole daughter and heiress. He was born in 1779, married in 1809, got into bad luck in 1810, succeeded to the dukedom in 1821, and in 1829, when he was in the height of his power, he was suddenly cast aside.

TWO CENTS. THE MONEY MARKET.

TWO CENTS. THE MONEY MARKET. PHILADELPHIA, August 22, 1861. The money market is in the same condition reported yesterday. The investment securities have their prices gradually with reference to the new Treasury bonds, and speculative shares are firm but dull of sale. The stock market is in the same condition reported yesterday. The investment securities have their prices gradually with reference to the new Treasury bonds, and speculative shares are firm but dull of sale.