Saturday afternoon, Mr. John Denier, the ropewalker, accomplished a feat that completely eclipsed all his previous performances, in crossing the Schuylkill river upon a tight-rope, with his head enveloped in a sack!

The crowd that had assembled to witness his accomplished a feat that completely dating was immense, and completely blocked up Wire Bridge, which the police twice cleared in vain. Mr. Denier effected the transit with firm but neasured pace, while the gaping multitude held its preath and strained its eyes to follow him. Once, only once, he was seen to stumble, and then to tremble violently as though he were about to fall, and many turned pale with the horror of that "middle passage."

When, however, that horror was passed in safety; when the fearless pedestrian, who hung like a speck from the spider's thread against the sky, succeeded in crossing from "pole to pole," "At once there rose so wild a yell
As all the fiends from heaven that fell,
Had raised the banner-cry of hell,"

And the pallid with fear went home not a whit the better or wiser, and they that had been incredulous, went away ashamed of their incredulity. DEATH FROM INTEMPERANCE AND EXPOSURE.

-Yesterday morning, a woman named Mary Ann Ray was found dead in a house in Cumberland Kay was found cold in a nouse in Cumbertain street, above Front, Nineteenth ward. The neighbors, when they became engineers of the fact, at once circulated the report that the woman had been foully dealt with. The coroner was informed, and proceeded to hold an inquest. Upon the arrival of the coroner, a large crowd, mostly females, congregated in front of the building, and serious threats were made against a German who lived with the deceased. He was accused of murdering the woman. The coroner's jury made a strict examination, and were soon satisfied that the death of the woman was caused by intemperance and exposure. The body of the deceased lay in the second story on the floor, with an old shaul thrown over it. The house only contained a few chairs, a stove, and several articles of ciothing.

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT .- Mrs. Margaret Willis, residing at No. 327 German street, while attempting to fill a fluid lamp, on Friday night, while the wick was still ignited, fire was accidentally communicated to the can which she held in her hand. This latter burst, as did the lamp, scalding her face and bosom in a shocking manner, and setting fire to her clothing and the articles in the room. Mrs. Willis jumped out of the window in hope of being rescued from the flames, but the current of air caused by this set only added to the fury of the devouring element. Mrs. Willis was burned almost to a crisp, and so seriously injured that her family physician entertains no hope of her recovery what-

The mules were owned by Mr. Joseph Kime, who has the contract for hauling Adams' Express cars to the depot. The animals were valued at $400.

TROOPS PASSING THROUGH.—It may be interesting to some persons in this city, who cannot be made to believe that no soldiers are forthcoming, that nearly 4,000 soldiers passed through on Saturday southward. This is on but one road.

ARRESTED.—Three boys, named George, Francis, and Thomas Kelley, were arrested yester-day afternoon on the charge of bathing in front of Fairmount Park, and taken to the station-house to CAPTAIN COLLIS' ZOUAVES D'AFRIQUE Pro-

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT—Judge Cadwalader.—James Perry was put on trial, charged with making and passing counterfeit coin. The evidence against him was the discovery, in his possession, some time ago, by the United States Marshal, of a large amount of counterfeit gold and silver coin, in various stages of preparation; some of the gold coin had been completely finished, but the far greater, tortion was in an unfinished state the far greater portion was in an unfinished state. There was no evidence of any passing by the defendant, and the dury were instructed that on the counts charging that offence a verdict of not guilty must be rendered.

As to the offence of making, they were told that the offence was complete, if, in their belief, the de-tendant was engaged in making or assisting in any var in the making, or in the transportation of the citerom one counterfeiter to another. The law reonized no degree of guilt, and, under the act of Orgess, the defendant, whether concerned in the Planty stages of the counterfeiting or in the minisht of it, was equally guilty of the offence charge. The Galena road was finished in 1855, at a cost of nearly eight and a half millions. That year it carned $1,252,042 net, and divided 22 per cent. among its stockholders. CITY ITEMS.

PHILADELPHIA AHEAD .- On Saturday the first of the seven sloops-of-war, ordered to be built at the yard. It is altogether probable that this sloop will be at sea before those now building at the other cities are launched. This shows that Philadelphia is far ahead of her sister cities. We have another excellent proof of this fact in the superior and splendid garments manufactured at the Gift Clothing Store of Granville Stokes, 609 Chestnut street. This is the only establishment where gifts are presented to purchasers. Union Soldiers.—It has seemed to us like that contradiction that Union soldiers should find it a difficult task to preserve the Union between their bodies and breeches; that the component parts of coats would not remain united, and that it was an easier task for them (the soldiers) to invest a rebel town than to invest themselves in decent uniforms. This difficulty has vanished since Rockhill & Wilson have established a grand military clothing depot at their Brown Stone Clothing Hall, Nos. 606 and 605 Chestout stract above Sixth. It durability, taste, and good workmanshin,

The June Rumber commenced the Twenty-Third Volume of HARPER'S!NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE. The object of the Publishers, as stated in the first Number, issued in June, 1850, was to present a periodical "which no one who had the slightest relish for miscellaneous reading, or the slightest wish to keep himself informed of the progress and results of the literary gentus of his own age, would willingly be without. And thuy intend to publish it at so low a rate, and to give it a value so much beyond its price, that it shall make its way into the hands of the family circle of every intelligent citizes of the United States." Its unparalleled circulation from month to month, and constant demand for back Numbers and complete Sets. body of American readers. No change will therefore be made in its general character. The Magazine contains monthlies. It is therefore enabled to present the best formishing a larger amount of original matter than is evince that the Magazine meets the wants of the great at least twice the amount of matter of the leading English productions of European Novelists and Essayists, besides given in any other Magazine of the day. Each number contains an amount of reading equal to that in an ordi-· nary octavo volume, with abundant Pictorial Illustrations of every subject in which the Artist can aid the Writer. More than Seven Thousand Illustrations have already appeared in the Magazine. The want which the Magazine was established to meet still exists, and the Publishers, while guaranteeing that the periodical shall maintain its high character, confidently rely upon a continuance of the liberal support which it has received for eleven years.

The Publishers of HARPER'S MAGAZINE, aware of its permanent value, have electrotyped every page. They can, therefore, supply any Number from the beginning, upon the following terms : Any Number will be sent by Mail, post-paid, for the above rate. Twenty-two Volumes, bound uniformly, extending from June, 1850, to June, 1851, are now ready.
