BAXTER'S FIRE ZOUAVES .- A meeting of delegates from the various companies in the Fire Department, will be held at the Hope Hose house, this evening, to make arrangements for procuring a suit of colors for Baxter's regiment of Fire Zouaves The completed companies of the regiment went into camp at the Bull's Head, West Philadelphia, yesterday morning.

WATER RENTS .- To-day is the last oppor tunity offered to delinquents for the payment of their water rents. If the bill is not paid the proporties will be deprived of water. When the water is cut off two dollars is added to the amount of the bill in addition to the penalties which were WINDMILL ISLAND .- The improvement of Windmill Island is progressing very rapidly, nearly the whole area having been wharfed in, and on the northern end derricks for loading and unloading coal have already been erected, and some coal deposited on the wharf near the canal. An effort is about to be made, we understand, to precere Point Airr event to include that it the invergence. Airy, so as to include that in the improvement.

A Serious Loss .- A colored man, named Jerry Williams, who was out with McMullin's Ran-gers, as a servant, cut off the nose of another color-ed man, of whom he was jealous, at a house in the Nineteenth ward, on Thursday night. Jerry was arrested, and his victim was taken to the Hospital.

PHILADELPHIA ZOUAVE CADETS.—An independent company of Zouaves, to act as skirmishers, is rapidly being filled up, under the auspices of D. F. Gillen, late of the National Guards. It will attached to Sickles' Brigade. They are quar tored at Eighth and Sansom streets, and expect to receive their uniforms in a few days SLIGHT FIRE.—Yesterday morning, about 10 o'clook, a slight fire occurred in a house in Ann street, below Richmond, caused by some bedding taking fire. Damage trifling.

Accident .- About & o'clock yesterday aftermoon, a boy named Daniel Hagerty, aged 9 years.
while playing upon a board pile at Poptar-street wharf, fell to the ground and broke his thigh. He was taken to the hospital.

RUN OVER.—A small colored boy was run over, at Fourth and South streets, last night, by a railroad car, and had his foot badly injured. He was taken to the Hospital. FIFTH LEGISLATIVE DISTRICT .- The Demooratic Legislative ticket has been completed by the nomination of Mr. Joseph E. Devitt, in the Fifth LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT-Judge Cadwalader.—This court was in session for a short time yesterday, but adjourned without transacting any important business. QUARTER SESSIONS-Judge Ludlow.-Mary Alone and Margaret Fogy, two girls of about four-teen years of age, pleaded guilty to a charge of picking pockets. Although young, the defendants are quite export in the business. They patronized the passenger cars to such an extent as to become known to the conductors. On the day of the arrest they relieved an old lady of fourteen dollars. They were followed, and upon searching their persons over forty dollars was found. They were sent to e House of Refuge. Note.—In the report of the trial of F. M. Read, for pilfering a money letter from the post office, an error was made in stating that the whole plan was arranged by Mr. Ireland. The plot was devised by Mr. Walborn and his chief clerk Mr. Booth.

"JAMESTOWN, Russell county, Ky, August 16, 1861. }
"Dear Sin: I arrived at this point to-day, in company with about two hundred and forty men from Morgan, Roane, Scott, Fentress, and Overton counties. We have just decided to proceed to Camp Robinsen, near Languster. We are out of money and travelling on the generosity and hospitality of our Union friends of Kentucky. We left our homes by different routes, and are together at homes by different routes, and are together at this point, as it were by chance.

"You may rest assured that the state of things in East Tennessee is indescribable. Many of our peo-ple, upon bare suspicion, are arrested and taken camps, there to be disposed of as the rebel mob thinks proper. Squads of cavalry and infantry are continually scouring over the country, offering our people, male and female, every indignity that these ruffian bands are capable of : destroying our crops and substance without regard to the condition or of commissions of the persons; pasturing their horses in our corn fields, wasting our hay-stacks, taking provisions of every description without regard to quantity, not even asking the price or tendering an equivalent therefor in any shape what-The violaters of law, of order, and the Constitution are upon us in the name of 'Secession.' I may say to you, in fact, that the destroyer is upon us. We still have hope, and look to the Government of our fathers for protection and support against usurpation and our ruthless invaders. May against usurpation and our ruthless invaders. May God and the Government come to our aid and rescue us from the hands and destruction of the vandals now upon us! The heart and the feelings of the people of Tennessee are still for the Union, and will so continue as long as there is one gleam of hope left to an oppressed and down-trodden people. Let us have arms and the munitions of war, and we will drive these invaders of human rights beyond the borders of our State, or the last man will perish in the attempt.

"The East Tennesseans are trying to get into Kentucky, for the purpose of arming and organizing companies, buttalions, regiments, and brigades, or in such force, with whatever aid we can receive ome since.
"I cannot write all. We need help from the Government, and must have it, or we are lost.

"Your friend, &c.,
"Hon. Andrew Johnson."

Dan. Rice's Rhinoceros at Large. (From the La Crosse (Wis.) Democrat, Aug. 27.]

It will be receilected that on the 19th instant, the steamer Kry City, bound down, collided with the steamer Luzerne, having on board Dan Rice's circus troupe, trained animals, etc. The cage containing the trained rhinoceros, weighing over four thousand peunds, which was on a barge alongside, was knocked into the river. The door of the cage was open, the animal being tied to the front end of it by a chain which was fastened to a ring in the ster's nose. When morning came no signs of him could be seen.

Sunday afternoon, Charles Wrightson, F. W. Brown, and Robert Eggleston, while roasting green corn, on the bank of the slough, five miles below here, were half scared to death by hearing a heavy tramp, and in a few moments the rhinoceros, as he appeared here on the occasion of his first visit, in July, minus the blanket and chain in his nose, rushed upon them with a terrible bellow, catching Eggleston on his smout, and throwing him, as he says, at least fifty feet over and back of him, breaking one arm and two ribs in the fall. The monster plunged into the river, and the other two persons, badly scared, but not hurt, procured a buggy, took plunged into the river, and the other two persons, badly scared, but not hurt, procured a buggy, took the seat out. filled the box with grass and a blanket, and brought Eggleston to his home in this city, where he is now under the eare of Dr. Cameron. The ribs were evidently broken by the snout of the animal, as the flesh was badly torn.

The "slough" in which the animal doubtless is at present, is about five miles below here, very doep, with the same and though it is just such as ith muddy bottom, and, though it is just such a ace as he was captured from in the East, there is telling how long he may remain quiet without search of better fare. This forenoon several of our sportsmen went down to the spot to make arrangements for his capture, when, if successful, they can start a show of their own.

SOUTHERN ITEMS.

KENTUCKY'S NEUTRALITY. The Kentucky Statesman, of the 27th, in an able article denouncing the neutrality of that State as impolitic and untenable, holds the following language:

"Kentucky is not less responsible for the com plications of the hour than the other slaveholding members of the Federation. No State has clamored more incessantly for her constitutional guarantees, none has given more signs of rebellion against their invesion or denial, and none seemed to hold her slave interests higher above all other political conderations But we believe that the action of the State up to this time has been the result of opular deception—and entertain an earnest hope that the future action of the people may redeem the folly and absurdity of the past."

ARREST OF A PEDERAL OFFICER IN LOUISIANA. ARREST OF A FEDERAL OFFICER IN LOUISIANA.

Mr. Patrick Henry Donegan, who was employed by the Washington Government in making tidal observations at Calcasieu, was arrested on Thursday last by order of General Twiggs. The charge against him is that of being a spy. In his possession was found a draft on the United States Treasury for $80, dated in April last, and endorsed by himself. His papers will be examined by the Governor and General Twiggs.—Lauksville Taurnal vernor and General Twiggs .- Louisville Journal, says: Last Saturday a company of Tennessee troops got on the train and came up thirty miles this side of Russellville, in order to search a train for arms, which they did not find. They refused to pay fare, and behaved with the usual insolence of armed Secessionists. They took back three deserters, one of whom was shot in several places, and badly wounded. The mob at Franklin tore up part of the road, and one locomotive, we learn, is actained at Franklin. THE MEMPHIS GIRLS ON A "STRIKE."

There are nearly a hundred young women and girls employed at the laboratory at Memphis making cartridges. Lately a fine-looking young man, who was employed as foreman, was dismissed the service. Whereupon the young women "struck," and refused to go to work until their favorite was reinsted.

BRITISH SCHOONER VIOLATES THE BLOCKADE. [Correspondence of The Press.] New York, Aug. 30, 1861. The Union meeting held at Newtown, Long Island, last evening, might have been justly characterized as an enthusiastic uprising of the people, and it will cortainly go far towards crushing out any Secession tendencies that may have taken root in that locality.

Speaking of monster gatherings of the people, Jones' Woods were densely thronged yesterday afternoon by the friends of the "gallant Sixty-Ninth." Feasting, music, and dancing, to say nothing of the speech of Col. Meagher, made up the festive programme. Dr. Russell, it is said, re ceived a complimentary invitation to be present! Captain Stillwell, of the New Jersey schooner James Steel, has made himself famous in a small way. On the 10th instant he picked up an infernal machine, somewhere between Sewell's Point and Newport News. It consists simply of a barrel containing about one hundred and sixty pounds of very coarse grained powder, and rigged with a

The authorities are making every effort to prevent the sympathizers with Secession, in this city, from affording aid and comfort to the rebels at the South. Harrold, the Georgian, who was arrested on Wednesday and discharged yesterday morning, on Wednesday and discharged yesterday morning, has been again arrested, as circumstances render it probable that he is a rebel captain, and was actually in service at the battle of Stone Bridge. He was sent to Fort Lafayette to-day. A man named John Sleight, who has been engaged in making purchases for Hendley & Company, of Galveston, Texas, was arrested yesterday, and afterwards discharged. detective policemen and brought before the Superintendent Herman Francisco | H.D. Stover, New York Mr. William Patrick was also arrested by two intendent. He was found to be in extensive operations with spies and Secessionists, and was sent accordingly to Fort Lafayette. He denied Mr. Kennedy's authority to detain him, as he was a British subject.

About 2 o'clock this morning, Mrs. Mary Brennan, residing at No. 100 Bayard street, was found lying in the basement of the house, dangerously injured and insensible. Suspicions of foul play were excited, and her husband, Thomas Brennan, was arrested on the supposition that he had thrown her from the second-story window. He was held for

A camp-meeting of the Methodists has been in progress during the week at Sing Sing-or rather n a cool and shady grove a mile or so back of the village. Yesterday it was visited by Col. Perry, whilem paster of one of the Brooklyn churches, who delivered an address to the faithful. En passant, two of the colonel's sons were in the battle of Stone Bridge; one of them has returned—the other has "never been heard from." The result of the Democratic Convention last evening has been very clearly set forth in one of the newspaper captions, as follows: "Tammany refuses to unite with Mozart—a union to be effected with the Independent German Democrats." Need I say more? The mail steamship Matanzas arrived here today from Matanzas, Cuba, bringing dates to August 25th. The city and harbor of Matanzas were entirely free from sickness. Purser Huertas reports two violations of the embargo of the Southern ports, as follows: The British schooner Aighburth, Captain Gage, ran the blockade off Newbern, N. C., and arrived at Matanzas on the 12th, sailing again for Charleston on the 25th. The sloop Noank ran the blockade off Charleston, and arrived at Matanzas on the 21st with a Seces sion flag.

The Paris Press on American Affairs. [From the Paris Siecle of August 12th.] Already—better prepared than the North, of a blood more ardent, combating for its very existence, which is founded upon slavery—the South has just acquired the grand advantage at Manassas—of two things one. Perhaps it will follow up its successes, which will only stop at New York. In that case maintain slavery upon the continent of America, but it is evident that, puffed up with success, all its corsairs will soon change themselves into slavers. Europe will find itself forced to interfere. That will be a struggle in detail, in which an immense injury will be done, at the same time to the commerce of civilized nations and to the morale of humerce of civilized nations and to the morale of hu-manity. Let us add, that there will be something profoundly sorrowful in this triumph of the South! in this victory of slavery over liberty, which, in the same way that the emancipation of the United States has been the signal for the grand European emancipation, may, in its turn, be the signal for the destruction of liberal ideas.

CITY ITEMS. PREACHING ON THE PROPHECIES .- On last Sunday afternoon the Rev. Nathaniel G. West, D. D., preached a sermon at Mechanics' Hall, corner of Fourth and George streets, on The Prophecies, with special reference to their applicability to the present state of the world in general and our own country in particular. The discourse was marked with Dr. West's characteristic ability, and afforded great satisfaction to the large congregation in attendance. We understand that, by special request, this subject will be continued by this eminent divine at the same place to-morrow afternoon.

Their various sugar preparations, in the shape of bon-bons; exquisite chocolate proparations; rich, fresh burnt almonds, etc., are tempting in the extreme, and we do not wonder that every one of the hundreds of visitors who daily throng their store is sure to make a purchase before leaving. A CHEERING SUBJECT.—It is pleasant in these times of general depression to have a cheering subbest artificial means the world affords for supplying this invaluable agent is the celebrated Kenosene Oil Lamp sanufactured and sold by Messrs. Witters & Co., at their Light Emporium, No. 35 North Eighth street, corner of Filbert. This lamp is unquestionably the safest and most efficient portable light of the age. CLOTHING FOR THE ARMY.—It is now generally conceded that the most elegant military suits for have been manufactured at the new Oak Hall Clothing

Bazaar of Messrs. Wanamaker & Brown, Southeast corner of Market and Sixth streets. Their stock of lothing for citizens is also one of the finest in the city, and their work made to order is unequalled. ESHLEMAN'S GREAT CENTRAL CRAVAT STORE. -The selebrated G. P. E. ACTIVITY IN MILITARY MATTERS .- There is less stir upon the surface of military affairs than there was a few months since; but there is a deep undercurrent, which proves the carnestness with which the war is to be prosecuted. It is only necessary to visit the military clothing establishment of Rockhill & Wilson. Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth, to discover that great activity prevails in respect to army supplies. A company of cutters and a regiment of sowers are constantly employed in making up uniforms, and military garments are turned out there by the wholesale. Every uniform made by this firm is unimpeachable in respect to cut, finish and workmanship, and material. The London Times, in a recent editorial, in which it shows conclusively that England can do without Southern cotton, says: "They hold that we must have cotton, which is true exough; but they forget that the people of Great Britain can purchase their clothing, endy-made, at the renowned Gift Clothing Emporium of Granville Stokes, 609 Chestnut street." The Times further states that the best and cheapest clothing in the United States is sold at this establishment, and a handsome gift also accompanies each sale. REMOVAL .- E. W. PROF. E. D. SAUNDERS AND GORTLAND SAUNDERS, A. M., PRINCIPALS.

A School for the Physical, Moral, Social, and Intellectual Training of Boys and Young Men.
Several acros of playgrounds are attached to the Semimry, and healthy physical development, especially in deficate boys, receives great attention. Abstinance from vicious habits, kindliness and purity of intercourse among the pupils are insured by the constant presence of teachers, encouraging them both in their sports and their studies. Latin, Grock, and Mathematics, together with the English branches, and French, are thoroughly taught. In short, every effort is made to give the pupils a fourfold and complete education.
