Sequestration of Property in the Rebel States.

States. The Richmond Examiner gives an abstract of a very important bill passed by Congress shortly before the adjournment, for the sequestration of all Northern property found in the South. The fol-lowing is the principal clause : Be it enacted by the Congress of the Confede-rate States, That all and every, the lands, tene-ments, hereditaments, goods and chattels, rights and credits within these Confederate States, and every right and interest therein held, owned, pos-sessed, or enjoyed, by or for any alien enemy, since the 21st day of May, 1861, except such debts due to an alien enemy as may have been paid into the treasury of any of the Confederate States prior to the passage of this law, be and the same are hereby sequestrated by the Confederate States of America, and shall be held for the full indemnity of any true and loyal citizen, a resident of America, and shall be held for the full indemnity of any true and loyal citizen, a resident of these Confederate States, or other person aiding said Confederate States in prosecution of the present war between said Confederate States aiding said Confederate States in prosecution of the present war between said Confederate States and the United States of America, and for which he may suffer any loss or injury under the act of the United States to which this act is re-taliatory, or under any other act of the United States, or of any State thereof, authorizing the sei-zure or confiscation of the property of citizens or residents of the Confederate States, or other persons aiding said Confederate States, or other persons aiding said Confederate States, or other persons at confederate States, or other persons at the seized and disposed of as provided for in this act: Provided, however, when the estate, proper-ty, or rights to be affected by this act were or are within some State of this Confederacy, which has become such since said twenty-first day of May, then this act shall operate upon and as to such es-tate, property, or rights, and all persons claiming the same from and after the day such State became a member of this Confederacy, held or owned by an alien enemy, or to any debt, obligation, or sum due from the States, to such alien enemy. And Sprovided, also, That the provisions of this act shall not embrace the property of citizens or residents of either of the States of Delaware, Mary-land, Kentucky, Missoni, or of the District of Co-lumbia, or the Territories of New Mesrico, Arizona. residents of either of the States of Delaware, Mary-land, Kentucky, Missouri, or of the District of Co-lumbia, or the Territories of New Mexico, Arizona, or the Indian Territory south of Kansas, except such of said citizens or residents as shall commit actual hostilities against the Confederate States, or aid or assist the United States in the existing war against the Confederate States. Sections 2 to 13 provide for the appointment of receivers in each county, and impose a penalty of $2,000 on all who may endeavor to conceal the ownership of property belonging to alien enemies. Section 14 provides for the appointment of three commissioners to take charge of the sequestration fund, and to hear and decide on all claims against it.

What a New York Business Man Says, [From the Albany Evening Journal.]

[From the Albany Evening Journal.] There are many good speakers who are zealously working to uphold the Government, who need no-thiag more than a hint like that contained in the following letter from one of the most observing and thoughtful business men in the city of New York, to set themselves at work in a manner that would tell directly, and in an important degree, upon enlistments. To their attention, particularly, we commend the letter :

upon enlistments. To their attention, particularly, we commend the letter : "Naw Yonk, August 28, 1361. "RESPECTED SIR: Having returned from a trip through a portion of our own and the Eastern States, I thought possibly the result of my ob-servations and inquiry might give you some idea of the cause of se few men enlisting, compared with the early stage of the war.

the cause of se few men enlisting, compared with the early stage of the war. "A that time every village and hamlet had its speaker, depicting the necessity for immediate action of our young men. "Many who were brought to see their young friends off were imbued with the desire, and joined their comrades; but during the three weeks I was absent I saw no notice or heard of no public gather-ing to arouse the masses to further action."

absent I saw no notice or heard of no public gather-ing to arouse the masses to further action. "If our public speakers would organize to stump the State, or the committees of our different dis-tricts would arrange for mass or town meetings, and have the young farmers and those outside of the present beat of recruiting officers, and to see how necessary it is for them to act, there would be no difficulty in making up not only the twenty-five thousand promised by this State, but double that BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Dec. 21, 1858. PROF. WOOD: Thee wilt please accept a line to in-form thee that the hair on ny head all fell off over twenty years ago, caused by a complicated thronic dis-ease, attended with an eruption on the head. A con-tinual course of suffering through life having reduced me to a state of dependence. I have not been able to obtain stuff for eage, neither have I heen able to do them up, in consequence of which my head has suffered extremely from cold. This induced me to pay Briggs & Hodges almost the last cent I had on earth for a two-dollar bottle of thy Hair Restorative about the first of August last. I have faitfully followed the directions, and the bald spot is now covered with hair, thick and black, though short; it is also coming in all over my head. Feeling confident that another large bottle would restore in its use, and heing destitute of means to pur-chase any more, I would ask thee if theo woulds not be willing to send me an order on thine agouts for a bottle, and receive to thyself the Scripture declaration—4 The reward is to those that are kind to the widow and the fatherless."
