FORT MONROE, Sept. 8.—The correspondent of the New York Times says: It is understood that a fleet of gun-boats will, within a few days, be placed in Pamlico Sound, and that there will be a land force in the neighbor-hood to meet emergencies. The country should not, however, expect too much for the present. The season, in fact, is not far enough advanced to commence land operations in the South. The rebels appear to have given up all intention, at least for the present, of attacking Newport News, though they stand in constant dread at Nor-folk of the bombardment. THE REBEL ARMY ON THE POTOMAC. The Richmond correspondent of the Savannah Neuro says, under date of Aug. 27: Much criticism has been passed upon Gen. Beau-regard and those who are believed to direct the movements of the army, more particularly respect-ing his failure to occupy or destroy Alexandria and Washington city. Congress called for information on this point, and the President referred the in-quiry to Gen. Beauregard, who, in his answer, placed the blame where it really belonged. Weekly Review of the Philadeiphia Markets, PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 13, 1861.

The business circles show evident signs of improvement, and there is a more confident tone mong the mercantile community generally, with a better demand for most of the leading articles of Produce. Bark is wanted at the advance. In Breadstuffs prices rather favor the buyers since the late news from abroad. Coal-there is less activity. Cotton-the stock continues very light. Coffee is firm but quiet. Sugar and Molasses come forward slowly. Fish are unsettled. In Domestic Fruit there is a large trade doing. The Iron market is quiet. Lead is firm. Naval Stores are quiet, and prices have reacted: Oils are steady. In Provisions there is a limited business doing at about previous prices. Rice is held firmly. In Salt very little doing. Cloverseed is scarce. Tallow, Teas and Tobacco are held with more firmness. Freights are firmer, both to foreign and coastwise ports. In Dry Goods the sales have been to a fair extent this week, and the prices of both Woolen and Cotton fabrics are on the advance. The BREADSTUFFS market has been inactive, and for Flour prices are unsettled, and 12/a25c per bbl lower, with but little demand, either for shipment or home use at the decline, and a small business to note, mostly to supply the home trade, at $4.50a 4.75 for recently-made and fresh-ground superfine, $4.75a5.25 for extras, $5a5.75 for extra family, and $6a0.75 for fancy brands, as in quality. The re-ceipts and stocks are moderate. There is very lit-tle doing in Ryc Flour or Corn Meal; the former is selling at $2.75 per bbl and the latter at $2.811. A sale of 300 bbls Brandywine Meal was made on terms kept secret. fabrics are on the advance.
