PEOPLE'S CITY CONVENTION .- This Convention met en Saturday afternoon, at three o'clock, urguant to adjournmen Mr. E. A. Morrick, of the First ward, stated to the Convention that he would offer the following resolutions for its consideration, that they might enter the canvass as the People's loyal party, and that the citizens of Philadelphia might know, when they cast their votes for the nominees of this Convention, that they were giving a moral support to the Government Resolved, That we, the members and representatives of the People's party of the city of Philadelphia, having, by our own exertions, elevated the present Chief Magistrate to the Presidency of the United States and the present Chief Magistrate to the Presidency of the Chief Chi

United States, refer with pride to him and his constitutional advisors in their untiring endeavors to preserve us and our posterity, this, the best of Go-Vernments.

Resolved, That we will support the Administration in the suppression of the rebellion, in the language of the immortal Webster, "with the full power of the Republic;" that we are opposed to any compromise with traitors, and that we will support the Administration unqualifiedly in all its acts tending to the preservation of the Union.

The resolutions were adopted unanimously

The resolutions were adopted unanimously The Convention then proceeded to ballot for Re gister of Wills.
On the 19th ballot, Mr. Lloyd having received a majority of all the votes cast, was declared the nominee of the Convention. A committee of five was appointed to wait on Mr. Lloyd, and invite was appointed to wait on Mr. Lloyd, and invite him to enter the room.

Mr. Lloyd was introduced, and said: Gentlemen of the Convention, it is difficult for me to express how grateful I feel for this mark of your confidence. I am proud to belong to the People's party, because it has never among its members shown a single traitor. The People's party never had a President to stand by while traitors were seizing the property of the Government. It has always been a loyal party, and no member of it has ever been faithless to his country's flag. I am for those who placed the present Government in power—I am opposed to those who are secretly adding the anamies of the Government. I will take issue with a gentleman, who, when a candidate for the highest office in the gift of the country depended on the success of the Democratic party." I thank you again cordially for my nomination, promising to give you every satisfaction in the discharge of the duties of my office.

After a recess of ten minutes the Convention preceded to ballot for Clerk of the Orphans' Court, ceeded to ballot for Clerk of the Orphans' Court, having first suspended the rules, and agreeing to drop the lowest candidate after the third ballot.

The following is the result of the three ballot the Convention adjourning about 11 o'clock to meet again this afternoon: 1st Ballot. 2d Ballot. 3d Ballo W. S. Helverson.....15 M. Batturs......26 F. is meeting with the most gratifying success in raising a first-class regiment for immediate active service. A large number of respectable young men have already enrolled themselves in the ranks, and others are preparing to follow their example. The captain proposes to hold another public meeting, concerning the subject, in the early part of the coming week. ming week.
On Saturday evening, a handsome sword, sash, On Saturday evening, a handsome sword, sasn, belt and gloves were presented to Captain Cook, of Company I, Baxter's Fire Zouaves. The gift was a testimonial from the Hibernia Fire Company to an old member, and the ceremony of presentation was performed at the house of that company. Excellent speeches were made by Cols. James Page and Philip S. White, and by the recipient of the testimonial.

The men of Col. Lyle's regiment of National Guards will be mustered into service at their armory, in Race street, below Sixth, this morning. armory, in fine street, below sixth, this morning. This is a fine regiment.

A merchant of our city, many years connected with the Weccacoe Fire Engine Company, on Saturday afternoon presented, through Joseph R. Lyndall, Esq., to each member of the Weccacoe Fire Zouaves, (Company B.) a gum blanket, towol, soap, comb, thread, needles, &c., very useful articles in comp life. sonp, comb, thrend, needles, &c., very useful arti-cles in camp life.

The Fire Department will present a set of colors to Colonei Baxter's Regiment of Fire Zouaves to-morrow, at 2 o'clock P. M. The coremony will take place in front of the La Pierre House on Broad street. Mayor Henry will be present, and Hon. Richard Vaux will probably receive the colors on behalf of the Zouaves.

on behalf of the Zouares.

Francis Ashton, a young Philadelphian, died in the military hospital at Quinoy, Illinois, on the 13th instant. His disease was typhoid fever, contracted while serving his country in Missouri. When the war broke out, young Ashton suspended his news-paper at Dallas, locked up $2,000 of printing ma-terial, and was among the first to volunteer to sus-tain his country's flag. The last exploit in which he was engaged was the capture of McAfee, the he was engaged was rebel Speaker of the Missouri House of Representa-tives. The exertion of that night's march brought on the fever of which he died. on the fever of which he died.

The vote at the recent election for brigadicr general of the Reserve Brigade stood as follows:
Colonel F. C. Patterson, 904 and Captain Peter Fritz 161. The election of staff officers of the Fourth Regiment resulted in the choice of W. H. Yeaton as colonel; B. F. Van Dyke, licutenant colonel: D. Rodney King, major of infantry battalion; and E. D. Van Horn, major of Zouave battalion.

A Union meeting of the Philadelphia Home Guards will be held this evening, in the field adjoining the armory of the Mantua company. The Guards will make a dress parade at five o'clock, and the meeting will organize at seven. THE CELEBRATION OF THE SEVENTEENTH OF AH. CLLEBRATION OF THE SEVENTEENTH OF SEPTEMBER.—The joint committee of Councils ap-pointed to make arrangements for a proper cele-bration of the 17th day of September reassombled on Saturday afternoon, when Professor Jackson submitted a proposition for fireworks; Mr. King a proposition for a balloon ascension; and a young gentleman named Richardson was anxious to be algentleman named Richardson was anxious to be allowed to recite Drake's Odo to the American Flag. He gave the committee a specimen of his talent at recitation; but it was searcely appreciated. None of these propositions were accepted.

General Pleasonton was present, and was called upon for a plan of the military display.

The General proposed to form the military on Twelfth street, right resting on Callowhill street, and the route to be as follows: Up Callowhill street to Fifteenth, down Fifteenth to Walnut street dewn Walnut street to the house of Hon. street to street to the house of HonGeorge M. Dallas, where the orator, the Mayor, presidents of Councils, and invited guests will be received and escorted down Walnut street to Third, up Third to Chestnut street, and to Independence Hall, where the distinguished party will be left, while the military will resume the line of march up Chestnut street to Ninth, up Ninth to Arch street, up Arch street to Twelfth, and thence to Callowhill street, and there dismiss.

This plan occasioned some discussion as to the inability of the military to take part in the civic portion of the exercises in the Square, as the proposed route carried the soldiers away from the spot, while a large portion of the Home Guards desired to be present at the time of the delivery of the oration.

It was finally decided that the programme suggested by General Pleasonton should be adopted, and after the dismissal of the parade the individual members of the companies could use their own pleasure in regard to attending at the Square.

It was decided to extend an invitation to appear on the platform to Commodore Dupont, commandant of the Philadelphia Navy Yard, the officers of the event and provin the circ Commodore Stewthe army and navy in the city, Commodore Stewart, Governor Curtin and Cabinet, the Judges of the Supreme Court of the United States, of the Supreme Court of the United States, of the Supreme Court of the United States, of the Supreme Court of Parameters of the Supreme Court the Supreme Court of the United States, of the Su-preme Court of Pennsylvania, and the judges of the city courts.

It was also resolved that Captain Dupont be re-quested to cause a salute of thirty-four guns to be fired at noon from the Navy Yard.

Mayor Henry will preside on the occasion, sup-ported by thirty-four vice presidents. The com-mittee adjourned to meet again to-day.

HOSPITAL ITEMS .- Six of the young ladies who were burned at the Continental Theatre have died. Miss McBride died at six o'clock yesterday morning, Miss Phillips at one in the afternoon, Miss Anna Gale at three, Miss Herman at four, Miss Anna Gale at three, Miss Herman at four, Miss Addie Gale at half past eight. He lived in Managunk

Another man named Lawrence Gallagher was also admitted with a severe scalpwound, caused by falling from the box of the Lapierre House coach. THE CASE OF PERKINS AND BOLTON.—The THE CASE OF PERKINS AND BOLTON.—The persons named above, who were charged before United States Commissioner Heazlitt with manufacturing munitions of war for the Southern Confederacy, were discharged by the Commissioner on Saturday afternoon. The ground of the discharge was that the fact of complicity with Hitchcock was not sufficiently proved, and it was moreover in evidence that after the fall of Sumpter the defendants had refused to fill an order for cannon primers for the South at a time when they had the articles on the South, at a time when they had the articles on long time previous. PHILADELPHIA HAY MARKET .- The demand PHILADELPHIA HAY MARKET.—1 he demand for hay has greatly decreased during the past week, and, as a consequence, the prices have fallen off considerably. CITY ITEMS.

THE CELEBRATION OF THE 17TH OF SEC-EMBER.—The joint special committee of Councils have made extensive arrangements for the celebration of the 17th day of September—the anniversary of the signing of the Federal Constitution. Among other things agreed pon, it is said that all those who appear upon the stage in Independence Square, at the time of the delivery of the oration by Hon. Geo. M. Dallas, will be clothed in garments procured at the Fashionable Gift Clothing Temple f Granville Stokes, 609 Chestnut street. This of itself will be quite a feature, and shows the judgment and good ense of the committee having the matter in charge. To all the purchasers a handsome and useful gift will be

THE PAST AND THE PRESENT.-In ancient imes, during the Wars of the Roses, Richard III., in a fit of vanity, talked about employing "a score or two of tailors to study fashions to adorn his body." Times have changed, for instead of a score or two of tailors devoting themseives to the adornment of a single individual, two skilful persons organize an establishment where many hundreds of civilians are furnished with ambitions Glo'ster ever donned; while scores of thousands of better warriors than those sent forward "by sladlow Richmond," are fitted out with elegant uniforms by the military branch of the concern. We refer, of course, in this connection to the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestunt street, above Sixth.

SPECIAL NOTICES. HAVE YOU A COUGH!

Then use Dr. D. JAYNE'S ENPECTORANT. Do not allow your cold to take its own course. Two-thirds of the victims of consumption owe their afflictions to the fatal mistake of "waiting for a cough to get well of itself." Do not fall into this error, but avail yourself at once of a remedy which thirty years' experience has demonstrated to be an infallible cure for coughs, colds, and all diseases of the Pulmonary Organs. Prepared only at 242 Chestnut street, and for sale by agents everywhere. sel4.8t
