BELPHIA, F. RATCHFORD STAIRS, AGENT,

September 24, 1861.

DEAR SIR: The depressed state of the times naturally leads persons to examine minutely into the present condition of the moneyed institutions in which they are interested. This especially should be the case in regard to Life Insurance Companies, owing to the peculiar nature of the trust reposed in thom.

With, comparatively few exceptions, life policies are taken out for the benefit of the family of the insured, and, in the majority of cases, prove their only means of support. MERCHANTS' HOTEL-Fourth Street, below Arch MERCHAN'S HOTEL—Fourth Street, octow Arch.

L L Areas William and As an insurer in this Company, you will be pleased to As an insurer in this Company, you will be pleased to learn that it is in a most prosperous condition.

There was an increase of $424,931 06 in the cash assets of the Company during the six months ending 1st ult., after deducting claims by death, expenses, and $142,187.85 paid for the surrender of policies, mostly from the Southern States. For soveral years past the Company has been withdrawing its business from that section of the country, owing to the high rate of mortality. The probable gain to the company upon the voicies thus surrendered greatly exceeds the amount paid for their cancellation. Results thus far fully justify the very liberal and patriotic course adopted by the Company in granting war permits to those insured prior to the 1st May last. On the 1st ult, there were one hundred and eighteen such policies in force, insuring $9275,$00, and, were they all to become chains, it would not materially affect the dividend to be declared on 1st February, 1863.

The gress assets of the Company amount to nearly seven and three-quarter millions of dollars, and the investments are in mortgages and United States stocks— John Herron, Ohio

John W Hoyry, Lebanon seven and three-quarter millions of dollars, and the investments are in mortgages and United States stocks—securities of the safest possible character least likely to be affected by fluctuations in trade. The mortgages (amounting to 80,677,461.66) are all first liens on improved real estate in the cities and towns, and on productive farms throughout the State of New York, and a frequent and careful exmination is made, so as to keep them within one-half the value of the property.

It is an important feature in the Company that its transactions are confined exclusively to Life Insurance, thereby avoiding dangers into which offices not thus guarded are liable to fall, particularly at such times as the present. Other advantages offered by this Company are explained in the enclosed circular, which I will feel obliged by your handing to some friend woon you think ought to insure. Should you succeed in inducing any to take out policies, you will render their families essential service, and contribute to the success of this truly "Mutual" Company. Should you be willing to hand circulars or pamphlets to other friends, I will furnish you with any number you may desire.

Many who in their prosperity did not realize the importance of Life Insurance, are now taking out policies for their families. The "dullness of the times" is an argument in fayor of, not against, insuring in a thoroughly sound, cash office. Life Insurance is the best guarantee a man can give his family, and one that every man should avail himself of according to his ability.

Notwithstanding the pressure upon our money market, only thirteen policies, out of about six hundred in force at this agency, have been sold to the Company since the 1st of January last.

The examples given in the enclosed Circular clearly preves the superiority of this fompany over those doing business upon the note system. As all the profits of this J B Wiggin, St Joseph, Mo
