CITY ITEMS.

THE THREE REFORMED DUTCH CHURCHES OF this city will unite to-day for special services appropriate to the occasion. In the Third Church, a sermon will be preached by the Rev. Dr. Taylor in the morning, and in the afternoon a meeting for addresses and devotiona exercises will be held in the First Church, corner of Sewenth and Spring Cardon streets.

OUR ARMY AND NAVY .--- Large numbers of the officers attached to our army and navy are arriving in the city daily, and among other places of interest which they invariably visit is the mammoth Military Clothing epot of Granville Stokes, 609 Chestnut street, where they procure for themselves new and complete uniforms. The cheap and weil-made uniforms sold to many of our army and navy officers at this emporium has won for it a golden name. These who purchase immediately communicate to their friends, who avail themselves of the same opportunity as soon as they arrive in town. All are invited to call and examine this superior stock of military clothing. TREASON VS. LOYALTY .- We have already no tired the arrest and the sending to Fort Lafarette of several persons engaged in business in this city, who have been sending supplies to the rebels. There are others engaged in the same infamous work, but the authorities have their eyes upon them. In view of the meanness of these mercenaries, how refreshing it is to turn to such bright examples of loyal faithfulness as is exhibited at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill and Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth, where troops of skilfal workmen are employed in getting up clegant, confortable, and substantial uniforms for the soldiers of the Union!
