We can raise an equal sum with a similar system, and a larger one—as labor, which pays the reve-nues of both countries, is vastly more productive in the United States than that country. That our people will not teadily submit to any burdens necessary to put down the rebellion is a most unwarrantable assumption. The economic working of their institutions, with the marrellous material progress under them, has caused them to be regarded by an affection which people of other countries cannot appreciate. noticed the arrest and the sending to Fort Lafayette of several persons engaged in iusiness in this city, who have been sending supplies to the rebels. There are others engaged in the same infamous work, but the au-therities have their eyes upon them. In view of the meanies of these mercenaries, how refreshing it is to turn to such bright examples of loyal faithfulness as is exhibited at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above ace footing.

CLOTHING FOR THE SOUTH .--- An extensive stock of army and navy garments are now being manu-factured at the palatial Clothing Emporium of Granville Stokes, 609 Chestnut street, all of which, we are informed from good authority, is to be sent South—on the backs of our volunteers who have enrolled themselves nder the old stars and stripes. Every garment made at this establishment is of the best material, and calculated to stand well the climate for which it is intended.

A great reduction in prices has recently taken place at this Marmoth Emporium, No. 609 Chestnut street. ARRIVALS AT THE HOTELS
