Tippon is lieutenant colonel and E. R. Biles major. The rest of the staff has not yet been appointed. The camp is at Harris-burg. This is one of the fourteen regiments se-lected by the Governor under the late requisition of the President. Five of these regiments are now in the field.

I have just learned the particulars of two inter-views which took place on Sunday last between some members of Colonel Hayes's Eighth Pennsyl-vania Regiment and the Virginia Forty-third (rebel), stationed on the opposite banks of the Poto-mac at Great Falls. The river is here not more then a bundled words wide and the nickets on both the field. than a hundred yards wide, and the pickets on both sides have occasionally haited each other. On Sun-day the rebels invited some of our men across, This regiment, now at the seat of war, is being increased to 1,500 men. The regiment is encamped at Camp Lincoln, on King's Hill, about one mile from the capital. Recruiting is now going on in this eity, in order to increase the regiment The following are the staff officers: Colonel, Romaine Lucience Licettenet colonal Asher S. He was helped up the rocks by a Virginia captain, who gave him his overcoat to wear, and proposed that he should take a drink of whisky. "If I drink," said the soldier, "it must be to Our Country." "Very good," said the robel officer, "I will join you: Here's to our coun-try!" And the men on both sides of the river joined in a hearty cheer. The man remained an hour or two, and then swam back, a little nebulous from the many healths he had been obliged to drink. In the afternoon several of the rebols returned In the afternoon several of the rebels returned the visit. They were courteously entertained, and exchanged buttons with our men, as souvenirs of the interview. "We don't care anything about the war," said they, "and don't want to fight, but we can't help it. You Pennsylvanians are like friends and brothers, and we wish we had those d-----d South Carelinians greenet up instead of war." One and brothers, and we wish we had those d——d South Carolinians against us instead of you." One of the Virginia officers took off his gold sleeve but-tons, having no other disposable gift at hand, and received a quarter eagle in retura. "Good Lord," said he, "it's been a long time since I've scon such a piece of money." They were all anxious to know the popular sentimont of Pennsylvania and the other Border States in relation to the war, and seemed a good deal depressed at learning the truth. They appeared to be tolerably well clothed and fed, and did not complain of their condition. Two of the soldiers exchanged letters from their This regiment, under Col. William B. Mann, has now about five hundred men at the seat of war. The regiment at one time was complete, but a portion of the men, for no justifiable reason, re-turned home. Recruiting is now progressing in this city for the purpose of filling up the regiment. The Scotch Rifles, Capt. Finnic, whose headquar-ters are at No. 728 Race street, are to be attached to this regiment.

Two of the solicies exchanged letters from their sweethearts. Various exchanges of newspapers, &c., were also made, and in the act our men received a letter from a sister of one of the rebels, without the owner's knowledge. I had an oppor-tunity of reading the letter this morning, and give you an interesting extract therefrom: "Take care funity of reading the letter this morning, and give you an interesting extract therefrom: "Take care of your clothes [the writer snys] for I don't believe there is a yard of stuff for shirts or clothing in the whole county. There is not in the whole county a pound of coffee or a pound of sugar. Mrs. uses honey in her tea. Send some of your money home when you get it."

COL. WALLACE'S REGIMENT. The headquarters of this regiment are at the Government buildings, in Chestnut street, below Fifth. Col. Wallace has selected Camp Edwards, on Islington lane, opposite the Odd Fellows Ceme-tery, where the men are sent as soon as mustered in. The grounds are beautifully situated, and well adapted for drill. The staff of this regiment is not yet completed. The colonel, Ed. E Wallace, and lieut. colonel, Geo. W. Todd, are both old and experienced military officers, having served with distinction in the Mexican war, and also were away in the three months service. The regiment is rapidly filling up, and will be among the number to leave first for the seat of war. RECRUITING FOR THE REGULAR SERVICE. uses noney in her ten. Send some of your money home when you get it." It appears, from other parts of the letter, that the country has been entiroly stripped of cloth, shoes, coffee, and sugar, in order that the army may be supplied. With the present enormous prices of all those articles in the South, it is difficult to see how those supplies can be kept up much longer.

The Late Fatal Blunders.
