RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

Fruits of Dr. Tyng's Ministry.

The Rev. Stephen H. Tyng, D. D., rector of St. George's Church, New York, and editor of the Protestant Churchman, has recently preached and printed a discourse containing some interesting reminiscences of his life. Of the forty years of his ministry, sixteen have been spent in the pastorate of his present charge, the previous sixteen in ) Philadelphia-at St. Paul's and the Epiphany-and the earlier eight were divided between two churches in Virginia. He states that under his ministry fourteen hundred and seventeen persons have been confirmed, an average of thirty-five a year; also that sixteen hundred and twenty-seven persons have been received by him to the Lord's table for their first communion. Of his ministry in this city, Dr. Tyng says: "My sixteen years in Philadelphia were years of continued religious prosperity and advance in the two churches there

The financial results of his labors, for religious objects, are extraordinary. The amount collected by him in four and a half years at St. Paul's, in this city, was $18,000, and the contributions of eleven years in the Church of the Epiphany amounted to over $70,000, the total amount of pecuniary benefactions to the various calls of need and suffering which have passed through his hands being stated at $314,121.69, an average of $7,853.05 a year. The collections of the past year alone, in the church of which he is now rector, amounted to $36,073.44. All this has been exclusive of the money paid for building three churches-which cost in the aggregate $350,000-and the amounts paid by the congregations in these forty years for the support of the Gospel among themselves, which are set down at $240,000, making the total proceeds of his forty years' labor, for promoting the Gospel $1.218.242.

Mory than three hundred Sabbath School scholars have united with the Church under his ministry, his schools of St. George's numbering at the present time 143 teachers, and 1.865 scholars,

INAUGURATION OF PROFESSOR BERG .- The Rev. Dr. J. F. Berg, late of this city, was inaugurated in his new position, the chair of Polemical and Didactic Theology in the Seminary of the Reformed Dutch Church at New Brunswick, recently made vacant by the death of Roy. Dr. Van Vranken. last week ; the sermon on the occasion having been preached by the Rev. Dr. A. B. Van Zandt, of New York, and the charge to the professor elect given by the Rev. Dr. Demarest, of New Jersey. Several of Dr. Berg's former parishioners in this city, who were present, describe his inaugural discourse as able and impressive. The exercises were conducted by the Rev. Cornelius Van Cleef, of Hackensack, president of the General Synod.

THE NAPOLEON FETE AT JERUSALEM .-- There has been much lately to interest speculators upon prophecy in the Emperor Napoleon's attitude. respecting Jerusalem. That his I. H. does occupy a relation to the Holy City altogether peculiar is unquestionable. This may be significant. The fete of the Emperor was lately celebrated in Jerusalem with great solemnity, advices from there stating that all the civil, military, and religious authorities waited upon the French consul. to offer their congratulations. The heads of the Christian clergy expressed their gratitude for the late protection given to Syria, and the Latin Catholic clergy also begged the consul to convey to the Emperor their gratitude for some magnificent sacerdotal ornaments, which he had sent to them, the elegance and richness of which are said to be the admiration of all Jerusalem.

THE EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE, which met in Geneva last month, appears to have met with considerable local opposition from those who were formerly strongly Calvinistic in their faith, no less than twenty-two ministers of the Church at Geneva having united in an inflammatory address to the people of that city, calling upon them to oppose any interference with their rationalism that might be attempted by the Conference. Despite this opposition, however, the Alliance met and held its sessions, and denominational journals most interested are of the opinion that their fruits will be beneficial. The doctrinal basis of the Alliance has not been changed.

THE FAST-DAY SERVICES seem to have been very general and solemn throughout the loyal States. In the city of New York the following clergymen discoursed upon the subjects named : Mr. Isaacs (Jew), on the Efficacy of Prayer : Dr. Vinton, on the Fallacy of State Sovereignty; Dr. J. P. Thompson, on Emancipation ; Dr. Adams, on Repentence for National Sins; Dr. Hitchcock, on No Compromises; Dr. Bellows, on the Rise, Progress, and End of the Rebellion : Dr. Weston. on Government a Divine Ordinance; Rev. Asa D. Smith, on the Pleasure of God; Dr. Stevens, on Our Times Comparable to those of the Reign of William and Mary; Rev. Mr. Crawford on Punishment and Discipline (said to have been a strong anti-slavery discourse); Rev. Mr. Fox, on the Prosecution and Success of the War; Dr. Foster, on Forgetfulness of God; and Dr. Cheever, on Our National Sins. At Newark, N. J., an officiating Episcopal cler-gyman, Rev. Mr. Stearns, had the bad taste to justify the cause of the South and denounce the North. The consequence was, a general hiss and stampede of his hearers. His manuscript has since been obtained and laid before the United States District Attorney. CONTRABAND COMMUNICANTS .- In the office of the Reformed Dutch Church for the administration of the Lord's Supper, " all persons who are given to raise discord, sects, and mutiny in Church or State " are warned from the table. The Christian Intelligencer, commenting upon this, thinks that, as the Southern rebellion is an atrocious case of mutiny and discord in the State, those professed Christians who defend or apologize for this movement, or covertly assail the measures taken to put it down, or who withhold their support from the Government, fairly bring themselves under the ban of this clause, and urges its enforcement. CENTENARY OF A DISTINGUISHED DIVINE .- The centenary of the birth of Dr. Carey-the founder of the Baptist Missionary Society, and translator of the Bible into forty Eastern languages-was observed by a meeting recently held in Spurgeon's Tabernacle, London, at which a thousand people had tea in the school-rooms, and five thousand subsequently assembled in the chapel to hear an oration on Carey's life, and addresses by Spurgeon and others.

OVATIONS TO THE POPE .- The Giornale di Roma says, the Pope has visited the shrine of Santa Maria, and that an immense crowd cheered him on his way; also, that his return took nlace amid the waving of flags and still more enthusiastic ovations.

"CLERICAL SOLDIERS."-Under this head the current number of The Presbyterian devotes an article to "Ministers of Peace" laving aside their clerical office for the trappings of war, concluding as follows: "We cannot, without a revulsion of feeling, and that not of a sickly and sentimental kind, see ministers of the Gospel marching to the field of blood with any other motive than the promotion of "peace on earth and good will to men." THE REVIVAL IN SCOTLAND still continues. Openair and in-door meetings, largely attended by anxious inquirers, are being held in Glasgow under the direction of the Daily Union Prayer Meetings and Central Revival Committees.

Weekly Review of the Philadelphia Markets.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4, 1861. There are no material changes to note in the market for any of the leading articles, and the operations of the past week have been moderate for the season. Quercitron Bark is less active, and rather lower. Breadstuffs continue in good request, and for most kinds prices are better, Coal and Iron remain unchanged. Cotton has been active. In Groceries, owing to the reduced state of the stock, the transactions have been limited and prices firm. Provisions move off as wanted, at rather higher ates. Fish and Fruit are firmer and more active. Naval Stores are also rather better. Oils are inactive. Rice is held for higher prices. Salt and Seeds are unchanged, and the latter quiet. Teas, Tobacco, and Wool continue in demand, and on the advance. Whisky is scarce, and tending unwards. The Dry Goods trade continues fair. with a continued firmness in most of the leading articles

Convinced of the correctness of these views, JAXINF'S SANATIVE PILLS Are recommended with the greatest confidence, ex-perience having demonstrated them to be far superior to any other in use, being more mild, prompt, safe, and uniform in their operation. While using them no par-ticular care is required, and patients may eat and drink as usual. Age will not impair them, as they are so com-bined as to always readily dissolve in the stomach.
