Rev. Dr. Stevens and the Assistant Bishopric.

[For The Press.] MR. EDITOR: A correspondent, in a late number of your paper, adverting to the election of a successor of the late Bishop Bowman, urged the elevation of no one questionable as to amor patria. The suggestion is one as timely as valuable, and should be acted on by every cleric and laic having a vote in the Convention to be assembled on the 23d of this month. A gentleman combining with this essential many others, pre-eminently qualifying him for the sacred position, I believe to be the Rev. Dr. Stevens, of Philadelphia. His name is brought before the public through your paper, as it is felt that The Press will carry it to many of the laity in the State who, perhaps, soldom dip into a professedly religious paper Though living long at the South, and there highly esteemed, the rector of St. Andrew's is a native of Boston, and is devotedly attached to the theory, as well as the working, of the Constitution under which he was born. His own utterances on this subject have not been few nor unemphatic, and in this particular he will be found not a whit behind many who make a more noisy display of patriotism. And in other particulars the laity of the Church may be assured that he will be found equal to all may be assured that he will be found equal to all the calls of the lofty station to which they may aid in electing him. Widely known for elequence, his suarity of manuer, dignity of character and reading are no less prominent. And from an intimate personal acquaintance in years that are past, I can sincerely testify that I have known but few, if any, septlement more ready with symmetry for their gentlequen more ready with sympathy for their brethren of the ministry, none more willing to oblige, none more free from taint of ritualistic formalism; with him, indeed, the spirit is seldom absent from the letter. And with the services of Dr. Stevens joined to those of Dr. Potter, the diocese will enjoy such wise measures as will set it in the van, and win to the Church the respect of Let there, then, be no party issues, but let clergy and laity unite, without hesitation, on one who is a Christian patriet, and worthy, in every sense, of

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8, 1861. The stock market to-day was steady as to prices, with little business doing. State and city loans were unchanged, excepting that sales of the old issue of city bonds were made at 82. Kentucky bank shares sold at 70, the same as the last quota-

The city banks have made another specie accession of $147,000, which increases the total to $6,888,100. Note negetiations continue quite limited, in the absence of the right grades of paper in the open market; consequently, the banks are doing nearly all the business. Sterling and francs are considerably below specie points, while the condition of foreign trade, in regard to imports and exports, is such as to draw further supplies of gold from abroad. New York funds are in plentiful supply at the par of ex-The commercial editor of the Daily Advertiser thus speaks of the effects of the present state of our public affairs: The war seems to be introducing a system of economy into the country which, it is to be hoped, will continue after quiet shall have been restored. The decline in imports for the year will probably exceed $175.000,000, and the exports will show a large increase, exclusive of cotton. The heavy in the people, in the present state of affairs, are very willing to dispense with, being composed largely of articles of luxury, manufactured cotton and woollen goods, silks, &c., &c., to the exclusion of much home manufactures. We are importing very little besides the necessaries of life, and such as cannot be produced in the United States. and they having been slack for a week or two, the market is run close. The demand for exchange proceeds from the ready pay remittances it is necessary to make East, mostly for manufactured articles fer army use, and the cash policy being adopted pretty generally in Eastern cities, of course a large amount of exchange is needed. The demand for gold appears to be entirely local, and grows out of a want of confidence in Missouri The branch of the "Bank of the State of Indi-

A pretty large proportion of this was taken by people in very moderate circumstances, but who have the satisfaction of feeling that they have done what they could to sustain their Government and bring the country back to peace and prosperity, unity and security.

The Chicago Tribune says:

We learn that one of our leading railways has arranged to pay off all its monthly bills for September in these notes. Whenever the people can get hold of them, we hope they will keep them, for they are better than any other money they can get hold of. They are even better than gold, and this is really the only weak point about them, for brokers will be sure to pick them up and send them to New York to make exchange. But as far as possible let the people put these bills in their pockets, and keep them there. If every one keeps his reserve funds in these bills, a very large amount of them will be kept out, and the Government will be proportionably benefited. Having now no currency of our own in Illinois, let our people adopt these Government bills, which always must be good. We hope that by some means all our railways will make arrangements to pay off in these bills, and thus get them aftoat among the people. They are emphatically the people's money.

CITY ITEMS.

Ordination and Installation of Mr. P. H. Mowry as Pastor of the Fourth Pres-byterian Church. There was a large congregation assembled in the Fourth Presbyterian (Old School) Church, corner of Lombard and Twelfth streets, last evening, to witness the ordination of Mr. Philip H. Mowry to the work of the Gospel Ministry, and his installation as pastor of this church, formerly in charge of the Rev. Dr. Cheeseman. This church edifice has recently been renovated and much improved in appearance, and the congregation is said to be in a very prosperous condition.

The presiding clergyman for the occasion was the Rev.

Mr. Crowell, of the Penn Square Church, the ceremonies being opened with prayer, and an anthem, " How Beautiful in Zion," sung with pleasing effect by a voluntary choir, under the leadership of Mr. Joseph Culbert. Prayer was next offered by the Rev. Dr. Junkin, a renerable-looking gentleman, who has the distinction of having been driven from the "sacred soil" of Virginia in April last, under the most aggravated circumsinness, on account of his Union sentiments. Dr. Junkin ordered a rebel fing to be hauled down, for which he was obliged, the next day, to pay the penalty of fleeing from his home and family in order to save his life. He is a thorough Union man, and, it is said, had every particle of Secession mud washed from his carriage as soon as he reached the Pennsylvania line!

DR. JUNKINS' SERMON. The ordination sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. unkins, selecting for his text Christ's commission to the apostles to go forth and preach the Gospel. The introduction to his theme was of a highly motaphysical character. One great aim of his discourse was o prove the necessity of organization. This applied to the formation and success of every institution, and pre-eminently to the visible Church. The various gradations and successive changes of the Church, which the preachtecost, as is commonly held) were briefly referred to.

er said dated its origin back to the "call of Abraham" (not to the descent of the Holy Spirit on the day of Pen-Dr. Junkins then read portions of Matthew x, Mark iii, and Luke vi, containing our Lord's charge to the twelve apostles, after which he proceeded to specify the several heads of his subsequent remarks, having special reference to the apostolic and evangelic offices. The first point presented was, that Christ himself had not lived under the New Testament dispensation, having en a minister of the circumcision, and closed his labo before the evangelie commission went in force, Second: Christ had spent the whole night previous t the ordination of the apostles in prayer to God—an evidence of the awful solemnity attaching to this ceremony. Third: This election and ordination had occurred near the commencement of our Savour's ministry, having taken place soon after the conversion of Peter, Andrew, James, and John

Then, also, there were a number of special consideraions growing out of the propositions dwelt upon for example, that the miraculous powers of the apostles were set forth more prominently than their preaching functions: that the special use of those powers was to prove the divinity of their office; that seeing Christ before and after his death had been a necessary qualification to the apostleship; that the preaching which they were sent forth to engage in was a simple matter—morely declaring "the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand" i.e., that the time was near when Christ would assume the government of his kingdom; that their returning with the exclamation "Even the devils are subject to us," was but a confession of the prominence given to miraculous power, already His conclusion was a logical and compact elucidation of the high responsibilities of the ministerial office.

At the close of the sermon, the choir sang the anthem! "Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God!"

THE ORDINATION.

The Rev. Mr. Crowell then, after a few introductory remarks, proceeded with the ordination and installation ceremonies. Mr. Mowry, who is a young man of about twenty-five, he said was the child of Christian parents, and, for many generations, the blessings of the covenan had rested upon his family. Mr. Mowry is a graduate of the Western Theological Seminary at Allegheny city, having left that institution last spring, soon after which he was invited to preach, on trial, for this church, in which his efforts were so acceptable that they extended to him a unanimous call. The candidate rose while responding to the questions propounded, and the congregation expressed their assent by lifting the right hand. The dedicatory prayer, delivered during the laying on of hands by the Presbytery, was also offered by Rev. Mr. Crowell. The right hand of fellowship was then formally extended to Mr. Mowry, and the Rev. Mr. Watts proceeded to deliver a solemn charge to the newly-made minister and nastor. The charge to the people was delivered b the Rev. Mr. Breed; after which, and a closing anthom, "Great is the Lord and Greatly to be Praised," the congregation were dismissed with a benediction, pronounced by the now Reverend Mr. Mowry. WAUGH'S ITALIA.—There was a very fine Assembly Buildings, to witness the superb exhibition of Waugh's Italia, illustrated by A. W. Fenno, the popular all that is grand and lovely in the sunny land of art and Deauty.

As the season is limited that they will remain here, our citizens should embrace an early opportunity of sveing LOR'S LIQUID HAIR DYE INSTANTLY produces a these delightful paintings, as they will soon leave for a tour of Europe.

THE ELECTION YESTERDAY. - Everything rassed off quietly yesterday. The vote polled will not reach as high a figure, however, as many supposed, yet it will be perfectly sufficient to show that our citizens still maintain that the best garments can be procured at the Fashionable Clothing Emporium of Granville Stokes 609 Chestnut street. At this popular clothing depot a superior stock of army and navy uniforms are kept constantly on hand and sold at greatly reduced prices. Announcing the Vote.—The new system of announcing the vote hourly was put into operation vesterday for the first time. Upon the stroke of the clock the Return Inspector called out from the polls the condition of the vote, and in some instances they assured the listening multitude that, in their opinion, the most elegant garments for civilians, and the most tasteful and substantial uniforms for soldiers, were those made at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth.
