with several of our wincipal merchants in the department of China and Queensware, we learn that a fair trade is now doing in that line. In this branch Philadelphia has long excelled, mainly on account of her suerior stocks, Messrs, Boyd & Strond, No. 32 North Fourth street, one of the leading firms here, have brought out their usual large and elegant assortment this season, chiefly of their own importation : and being largely engaged in the Pennsylvania and near trade, their ware rooms, at the present time, indicate more activity than uses generally, either in this branch or any other. Merchants visiting the city now will find here an immense stock to select from, and at prices considerably below those charged by houses possessing fewer advantages than the old and respectable firm here referred to. Something for the Ladies .- As shopping for articles of dress for fall and winter, cloaks especially. is now in season, our lady readers will thank us for in forming them of a splendid new stock of cloaks to be opened this morning, at No. 1320 Chestnut street. This is a new store, and a new stock, and from an examination of the contents, yesterday, we may say that they embrace every movely—all got up in superior style. Their assortment of black and colored cloaks is varied and complete, and the choice additions which are daily to be made to it, will render this new establishment one of e most attractive points for ladies in want of cloaks to visit. We hope they will turn out en masse at the Hopening" to day.

A-Camp.-The subscriber takes this method 16th irst, for Philadelphi of informing his patrons that he has procured a choice brand of Family Flour, manufactured exclusively to his order. Having received many compliments from those who have made trial of this brand, he feels confident that in recommending it as a superior article to any offered to the public, he is only doing justice to the manufacturer and himself. All are thereby treated alike.

NEVER SATISFIED .- Give a man the necesries of life, and he wants the conveniences, and he craves for the luxuries, and he sighs for the elegancies Let him have the elegancies and he yearns for the follies. Give him all together, and he complains that he has been cheated both in price and quality of the article. No man er complained of this who had the good sense to pur chase his clothing at the Gift Establishment of Cranville Stokes, 609 Chestnut street, where every purchaser is presented with a valuable and useful gift. Army and many equipments made to order at the shortest notice, and at the lowest cash prices.

THE NATIONAL LOAN .- The subscribers to the new fifty-million loan are now obtaining their treasury notes. The bills of the denomination of one dred dollars are embellished with a life-like portrait of General Scott in full uniform. The Hero of Lundy's Lane and Mexico looks every inch a soldier in the garments which, it is said, he obtained (for the purpose of having his portrait taken) at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth. The firm named manufacture aniforms for every rank, from the lieutenant general to a full private, and their establishment is now generally recognized as the great Military Clothing Depot of the country.
