CITY ITEMS IMPORTANT TO HOUSEKEEPERS. We have already directed attention to the splendid stock of Stoves at the warerooms of Mr. John S. Clark, No. 1008 Market street, and refer to it now for the purpose of saying that our opinion respecting the popularity of two of his celebrated stoyes has been fully realized; we altude to his gus-consuming cook stove, (which has the extraordinary economical distinction of consuming but one ton of coal in six months,) and his admirable new Air-tight Silver's Gas-consuming Parlor Stove, with Clark's patent arrangement for removing the ashes without raking, or causing the escape of one particle of dust. These two stoves are well worthy MOUNT VERNON HOUSE S H Reynolds, Narrowsburg Thad Flanagan, New York G H Hawk, Hancock, N Y A E Burd, New York W Robinson, Boston attention of all who are in want of stoves, either for cooking or for parlor, chamber, or office use. The high morit which Mr. Clark claims for them is acworded by all who try them; and, besides this, every stove that leaves his premises is sold with a guaran tee that it will do as represented, or the money stores must increase as they become generally known, and very soon the demand for them, we believe, will exceed the capacity of the largest manufactory in the city to supply them. We may also state, that Mr. Clark's general stock of Stoves and Ranges, including every size, price, and description, is one of the largest and most complete ever offered to the public. BEAUTIFUL DISPLAY OF MILLINERY GOODS .-Among the various attractive displays of goods now being made by our first-class stores on Chestnut street, there is none more beautiful than that presented at the large Millinery Goods establishment of Messys, Kennedy & Brother, No. 729 Chestnut street. These gentlemen have long had the reputation of keeping the most exquisite as-sortment of goods in that line to be found in this country, having had many years' experience, being their own importers, and commanding, as they do, facilities that are not surpassed by any other house. Their present line of fine French Flowers and Feathers is especially worthy of notice, and in this branch they have long been pre eminent-so much so, that among the trade their house has been designated "The Flower Emporium of Philadelphia." We must not omit to mention also, that their assortment of Bridal Wreaths, and Hats and Bonnets for children, is rich and complete. A more attractive point for the ladies our city does not afford. They have just completed a very fine improvement to their store.

THE CLOAK-BUYING SEASON. - "Where shall we buy our Clouks?" is just now a popular question among the ladies. A little attention, therefore, to this query on our part just now, may not be out of place. A very popular establishment of this class is the well-known house of Mr. Ivens, No. 23 South Ninth street. This is one of the most extensive cloak manufacfories in the city, and the large and well-filled sales rooms of it generally present an air of greater activity than most others in the trade. The present stock of this house is rich and varied, and hundreds of gratified customers daily attest this by making their selections therefrom The new Cloak Store, at No. 29 South Ninth street, has also great attractions for ladies of taste and fashion, the stock being got up with special reference to the wants of the best class of trade. The Cloaks we examfined there, a day or two since, were really beautiful. Messrs. Hough & Co., at the new store, No. 25 South Tenth street, also offer a stock of Ladies' Cloaks, of rare excellence. Their garments are made in the best style, of every variety of fashionable materials, and are sold at remarkably low prices, for the quality, which, by these times, is no mean consideration. We shall proba-bly have some more points to refer to under this head at

WHAT LAMP DO YOU USE?-This question we intend for general application. Everybody, whether living in a dwelling supplied with gas, or not, is obliged to have a portable light of some kind. The wrong selection of these is frequently attended with sad consequences; in view of which, we advise all our readers, who have not yet done so, to supply themselves at once with the Witter's Lamp for burning Kerosene Oil, maured, in endless variety, at the popular Light Emporium of Messrs. Witters & Co., No. 35 North Eighth

E. G. Tis said or sung, that, in our clime, Autumn is a delightful time; Autumn is a delightful time; And so it is, beyond a doubt, If all is right, inside and out. Autumn is pleasant, if your food Is ample, seasonable, good; And if no bilious symptoms make Your limbs with frightful agues shake. Autumn is pleasant, if your mind Is calm and soberly inclined; f scheming avarice and pride

If scheming avariee and prinde
Have left you not dissatisfied:
If you to conscience can appeal
And self-approved and happy feel,
And if your clothes are fit to wear
When Antumn's breezes thill the air.
Then, in the fine month of October,
Be prudent, diligent, and sober,
And if the season you would relish
Your outside man you must embellish.
To Tower Hail at once proceed,
And Autumn then may prove indeed,
As if to poets doth appear,
"The happiest season of the year."

OFFICE OF THE FIRE ASSOCIATION, OCTUBER 17, 1861.—At a meeting of the Board of Trustees, held this day, the following preamble and resolutions were manimously adopted:

Whereas, It has pleased Him in whom we live, and move, and have our being, to terminate the earthly life of our late esteemed associate, HENRY F. ANNERS; and acherees, it is proper that the Board of Trustees of the Fire Association, of which he was a member, should give expression to their respect for his memory and character, as well as their appreciation of the service which he rendered the Association during his continuance as a member of this Board; therefore,

Resolved, That it is with deep regret that the Board have learned of the death of HENRY F. ANNERS, which event deprived it of one of its most efficient and honorable members. Mind event represent in one on a most ement and honorable members.

Resolved, That the Board will not cease to remember the integrity of character and urbanity of disposition which marked the course of the deceased whilst a member thereof; nor that to these qualifications for duty, were added business capacities of a superior order, which, with his constant efforts to advance the interests of the Acceptation, our chair fortries as a Thursteests. of the Association, gave to ms server common value.

Resolved, That we offer to his bereaved family our warmest sympathics.

Resolved, That a copy of the above preamble and resolutions be presented to the family of the deceased, and that the Board attend his funeral.

PENNSYLVANIA ANTI-SLAYERY

GOILETY.—The Twenty-faueth Annual Masting of the Pennsylvania Anti-Slavery Society will be held in Horticultural Hall, Wost Chester, commencing on THURSDAY, the 24th inst., at 10 o'clock A. M.

The altered circumstances under which we are to assemble, and the changed position of the National Government toward the slaveholding States, invest the approaching meeting with peculiar interest. Questions will present themselves for consideration which have never before claimed the attention of the Society.

Some friends of the cause incline to the opinion that the mission of Abolitionists, as a separate body, is at an end, and that their work must honeeforth pass into naw hands. Others believe that the Anti-Slavery movement is only assuming a new phase, and that its continued existence, and the faithful cohesion of its friends are highly important to its final success.

That the course of Abolitionists, as individuals and as a body, should undergo some modification to suit the axigencies of the times, is a matter so obvious that it has already been assumed and acted upon. To what extent this modification should be carried, and what precise form it should take, are questions which it will be proper to settle at the approaching meeting.

That the Federal Government, as between it and the seculing States, in the confest now pending is altogether in the right, and entitled to the sympathy and support of all good people, are points not mooted among American Abolitionists; but in what manner this support should be given by people, bound by conscience and their professions to use none but "peaceful and righteons means," are questions on which it will be proper for the Pennsylvania Anti-Slavery Society to make some official decicaration.

A full attendance of the members of the Society is earnestly requested; and an invitation is hereby ex-tended to all who are alike friends of the Anti-Slaver cause and of our common country, now in perit, to be present and share with us in our deliberations. JAMES MOTT, President.

Brig Henry Leeds, Smith, for Hewett's Isle, to load for Phiadelphia, sailed from Rockland 14th inst.

Schr Mary Ann Magee, Magee, cleared at Boston 17th inst. for Philadelphia.

Schr New Jersey, Vanneman, cleared at Bath 16th inst. for Cape May.

Schr Ann, Blake, hence, arrived at Portland 16th inst.

This Bemedy is a safe and simple preparation from the receipt of the late distinguished Professor Mutter, with whom it was a fuvorite prescription. That he used it in his extensive practice, insures to the timid a certain proof of its pure and innoxious elements, and to those who know his character for skill and careful attention, to prescribe only such remedial agents as should secure restoration without producing subsequent evil, it will be welcomed as a real good. Under the guidance of a Physician (to whom its combination will unhesitatingly he made known), it will always be found very beneficial, and in cases where a medical adviser is not at hand, it may be used with safety, according to the directions, in all cases of short or long duration. GEO. W. ELLIOTT, No 29 WALKER Street, NEW YORK, Hiss just published "NATIONAL HYMNS," How they are written and kow they are not written.
BY RICHARD GRANT WHITE.
None of these received the prize of $500 offered by the National Hymn Committee." "National Hymn Committee."

One volume, octavo, elegantly printed on tinted paper, with embellishments. Price, handsomely bound in cloth,

The New York Express says, in speaking of this lite. ray curiosity:

"It will contain selections from the best and from the worst of the 1,200 contributions. The worst will doubtless be the most entertaining. They will be given verbatim et literatim, in all their grammatical and rhetorical effugency. Specimens of the music will also be included in this unique volume. It is to be edited by Richard Grant White, who was one of the Committee, and has furnished an essay on National Hymns. The most popular of European national hymns are added, to furnish a contrast with the efforts of the patriotic muse in Angles." Agents wanted for Philadelphia, and for every import-

AMUSEMENTS. MERICAN ACADEMY OF A M E AV L - L MUSIC. COMPLIMENTARY BENEFITS TO B. ULLMAN, WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY, October 23d and 24th. THESE TWO PERFORMANCES will be THE ONLY ONES until the arrival of the new artists in January, as most until the arrival of the new artists in January, as most of those now in the country leave early in November for Havans and Europe, to fulfil their engagements, which they have found it advisable to accept in view of the disturbed state of the Union.

ADMISSION ONE DOLLAR

TO ALL PARTS OF THE ACADEMY.

Reserved Seats, 50 cents extra. The sale of salis for the two performances will commence

ON MONDAY, October 21st,

At the Box Office of the Academy, Gould's Music Store, No. 632 Chestant street, and Risley's Bookstore, at the Continental Hotel.

NOTICE—Those of the stockholders, personal friends, and pattons of the Opera, who, from a view of giving their aid to the present enterprise, have bought, or will buy, $1 tickets, to admit to either of the two performances, can buy checks for reserved seats (50 cents each) at the Box Office of the Academy.

To THE PUBLIC.

Since I have undertaken the management of the Opera for the senson now about to commence, war has broken out, which has tenfold increased the risk of that at all times difficult enterprise, and, in the opinion of many, precludes even the possibility of an attempt; yet I am determined to make this attempt, and am confident of being able to fulfill my obligations, provided some Encouragement will be held out to me.

I am now partively engaged in making extensive proparations to be gin the regular season in January, when some additional artists will arrive from Europe, and from the Italian Opera Company now performing in Mexica with Max Maretzek. By that time some decisive battles must have occurred, and the public mind feet more inmust have occurred, and the public mind feet more in-clined to enjoy rational amusements than during the next exciting months.

To enable me to do so, I have determined to give two performances in each city, the progress of which will be employed by me in carrying on the winter season.

I am happy to stall not that from present appearances, my appear will meet with an enthrinstic response. Stockhoulers, the most fashiomable families, some of the most inducatial clubs, the good hely of professors of music, and the entire press, without a single exception, have assured me of their heartiest co-operation, and given me already substantial proofs of their kindly intentions. given me already substantial proofs of their annuly intentions.

I appeal now to the great public, who owe to me the satisfaction of having heard Sontag, Piccolomini, Angri, Lagrange, Gazzaniga, Adelina Patti, Laborde, Formss, Thatberg, Sivori, Henri Herz, Vieuxtenns, and various other mapical celobrities, and to whom I have given the sphendid spectacles of a "Juire," the "Vespers," the "Huguenots," &c Generosity and liberality form one of the leading traits of the national character, and I have no doubt that I shall meet with extensive support, if not in acknowledgment of long and faithful services, to avoid the bad moral effect the closing of the opera for un entire season would produce in the South and Europe.
