The New York Express says, in speaking of this lite-The New York Express says, in speaking of this lite-rary curiosity: "It will contain selections from the best and from the worst of the 1,200 contributions. The worst will doubt-less be the most entertaining. They will be given ver-batim et literatim, in all their grammatical and rhetori-cal effuigency. Specimens of the music will also be included in this unique volume. It is to be edited by Richard Grant White, who was one of the Committee, and has furnished an essay on National Hymns. The most popular of European national hymns are added, to furnish a contrast with the efforts of the patriotic muse in America." Agents wanted for Philadelphia, and for every important town throughout the country. As an impression prevails to some extent that there are to be two different books on the above subject, Mr. Elliott desires to say that such is not the case, but that he has an arrangement with Messrs. Budd & Carleton, the owners of the plates, by which he alone is to be known, for a specified time, as publisher. ocl9-3t FOREIGN READING BOOMS, 1923 CHESTNUT STREET, Corner of Juniper, below the U.
