CITY ITEMS.

The Season and its Wants. The seasonable depression in the mercury within the last few days has given a decided impetus to trade, and in no department more than that of Stores. The various stablishments in this line, if we may judge from what we saw at one of them-the celebrated house of Mr ohn S. Clark, No. 1008 Market street-were thronged with buyers throughout yesterday. There is, however, a special reason for the rush of customers at Mr. Clark's warerooms. The great Stoves which he has lately in-troduced to the public, already by its referred to, are sounding his name wherever stoves are used. His Cook Stove, we find, is giving the most cutire satisfaction to all who try it, and so rapidly are the people beginning to appreciate its merits as a great economizer of fuel, that the demand for them is daily increasing. It is a re-markable fact, that in the hundreds of instances in which they have been used used there has not yet been a single complaint made against them. This is the more strange, as ed to be as represented or the money to be refunded to the purchaser. This is the Cook Stove, it will be remembered, which has the distinction of burning but one ton of coal in sie months! The capacity of the stove is quite equal to the wants of the largest family. Mr. Clark's splendid new Parlor and Office Stove, with his new Improved Grate, requiring no raking, has also attained an enormous sale. In fact, the demand for this dmirable stove alone has become so important, that Mr. Clark has been obliged to employ an extra number of hands in the manufacture of them in order to meet the pressure which has literally been created to obtain them. One reason for this is, that whatever Mr. Clark says with regard to his stoves the public may rely upon. We may state, in conclusion, that the stock of this house is so extensive and well got up, that for anything in the stove line, those wishing to purchase cannot pos-Bibly go amiss in it. No. 1008 Market street is certainly a great Stove Emporium. LAYING OF A CORNER-STONE .- The cornerstone of the new edifice for St. Paul's Church, Chestnut Mill, will be laid by the Right Rev. Bishop Potter, this afternoon, at 3% o'clock. Persons wishing to attend, can do so by the train which leaves Ninth and Green streets at 2 o'clock P. M. FIRE OOLONG TEAS.—Persons who enjoy a really good article of Tea will find the finest Octore, and other varieties, at the Fine Family Grocery Store of Mr. C. H. Mattson, Arch and Tenth streets. He keeps the purest and best teas, and, as we can say from experience, sells them at reasonable prices. THANKSGIVING DAY.—Governor Curtin has fixed the 28th proximo for Thanksgiving Day. The occasion will, of course, be generally observed, business will be suspended, and people will promenade the streets In holiday attire. This circumstance is suggestive of the fact that elegant garments for civilians, and tasteful, substantial, and comfortable uniforms for soldiers, are turned out in quantities to meet the public wants, at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth.

WONDERFULLY MADE. -- Man has, in maturity and health, sixty bones in his head; sixty in his legs and feet: sixty-two in his arms and hands; and sixty-seven in his trunk or body. He has, also, four hundred and thirty-four nuscles in the structure of his body; the whole of which present a very attractive appearance, when clothed in one of the elegant fall or winter garments from the Fashionable Clothing Emporium of Granville Stokes, 609 Chestnut street. Prices reduced to suit the times.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET.

PHILADELPHIA, October 24, 1861. There was little done at the Stock Board to-day, and prices exhibited the tendency to a decline noted rester-day. Pennsylvania State coupon sixes—the war loan sold at 96. State fives were dull, and City sixes in very limited demand. Reading Railroad shares sold at 17%. Pennsylvania Railroad shares were firm at yesterday

In the money market there is rather an indisposition to operate, excepting in call loans, or loans on very short , owing to the expectation, generally entertained that a decisive buttle will soon be had on the Potomac. The New York Post of this evening says: The New 10th Post of this evening says:

Stocks are better to-day, but not active. Operators still evince much caution, and no large transactions have taken place this week. Pending the conflict in Virginia, there is a general disposition to stand aloof, and the commission houses have but few orders. In the absence of a free supply of stocks, prices gradually improve, the purchases for daily delivery from the "short" interest alone being sufficient to advance the market *\mathbb{\mathscr{n}} \mathbb{\mathscr{n}} \mathbb{\mathscr{n}} \mathbb{e} \text{ cnt.}

The banks of New York are paying into the Sub-Treasury to-day $3.500,000, being the final instalment on the first fifty millions of the National loan. The Assistant Treasurer reimburses them in a further sum of $560,000 on account of sales. According to the agreement of August 19th with the Secretary of the Treasury, the banks are now absolute owners of that portion of the first branch of the loan unsold, but they, of course, sarefer for the present that the Government continue to refer for the present that the Government continue t

BY THEODORE WINTHROP, Late Major in the United States Army, and Author of "The March of the New York Seventh Regiment," and "Washington as a Camp," in the Atlantic Monthly. WITH A BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF THE By GEO. WILLIAM CURTIS.

Ready This Day, in One Volume, 12mo. CECIL DREEME is a sparkling novel of American Socicty, the scene of which is laid in well-known localities in New York. The author will be remembered as the gallant young officer who fell at Great Bethel, last June. mourned by the whole North. In the novels he prepared and left behind him, his mind seems brimming with the results of observation, and his fancy is always alert and inventive. His genuine qualities as a graphic writer were admirably indicated in his capital contributions to the Atlantic Monthly. TICKNOR & FIELDS, PUBLISHERS. 135 WASHINGTON STREET, BOSTON. FOREIGN READING ROOMS.
