Charles Oakford & from Wilmington, Del. Schr A S Simpson, Churn, hence, arrived at Boston 5th inst. Sons' magnificent establishment, under The Continental, there are among other special departments, those for the 6th inst. Schrs John B Austin, Davis, and Daniel E Wolfe, Heover, cleared at Boston fith inst. for Philadelphia. Schr Sallie T Chartre, Chartre, of Caudon, NJ, from Philadelphia for Lynn, with a cargo of coal, put into Newport 4th inst, having split sails, lost boat, &c, in the gale of Saturduy. Between Fire Island and Sandy Hook was boarded by a sea, which swept the decks, stove bul-warks on the port side, and carried away boat, bosides doing other triffing damage. Mr. Matison, we may also here take and renth streets, and, accessing we may also nere take the liberty to state, stands at the head in his department, and all who consume the best quality of groceries should therefore make the acquaintance of his store.

THE GREAT NAVAL EXPEDITION. -The fleet has turned up at Bull's Bay, near Charleston, S. C. General Beauregard and Jeff Davis will now have something to occupy their attention besides shooting loval pickets along the line of the Potomac. The great Armada goes prepared for mighty achievements, and if the soldiers are compelled to spend the winter on the Palactto coast, they can do so, comfortably supplied, as they are, with a full stock of garments from the military ranch of the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth. AN OLD PROVERB .--- An old Spanish proerb says: "What a fool does in the end a wise man doe
