

THE PRESS

When the importance of the cotton manufacturing industry is considered, no one need wonder at the inconvenience, to say the least, of having a great check put to the importation of the raw material from this country.

EXTRACT FROM THE LAST SPEECH OF STEPHEN A. DOUGLASS.

There can be but two sides to the controversy. Every man must be on the side of the Union, or he is a traitor. There can be no neutrals in this war.

THE GOOD NEWS CONFIRMED.

Our midnight despatches confirm the rumored intelligence which encouraged the true friends of the country yesterday afternoon. The Federal army has taken possession of Beaufort, South Carolina.
