CITY ITEMS.

Thanksgiving Day and its Associations. As Thanksgiving Day is approaching, which our re-cent inroads upon the rebels will this year invest with a double interest, a few words respecting the gustatory phase of its observance will not be unseasonable. In the first place, we have authority nearer home than New England for promising that a roast turkey, or some member of the poultry tribe of a lesser sort, will be indispenpable, cooked, as we would suggest, by all means, in one of Mr. Spear's celebrated "Anti-dust" Gas-burning Cooking Stoves-an article, by the way, which, if it has not set the world on fire, is, at least, at this moment warming many a kitchen, and ministering to the comfort of scores of well-regulated families. We cannot help think ing, and saying, in this connection, that Mr. James Spear deserves a first-class place in the calendar of all good housekeepers, for the substantial benefits he has conferred upon so many of them by his numerous invaluable inventions in his department of trade and manufactures. Hundreds who read this article will cheerfully endorse this assertion. As a natural consequence, his Stove Warerooms, No. 1116 Market street, above Eleventh, are the chief shopping centre, in this line, in Philadel-phia. His popular new Cooking Stove, or rather his admirable Gas-burning Cook Stove with his recent great Anti-dust improvement, is, beyond a doubt, the most perfect article, in that line, ever given to the public. Its economical qualities have been demonstrated to be superior to any rival stove, and, in point of efficiency and convenience for baking and cooking, in all its departments, there is no stove comparable to it in the market. With Mr. Spear's large manufacturing force, he has found it almost impossible to meet the demand created for them, and we doubt not that, as this stove becomes more generally known, it will take the place of

The same high encomiums passed upon his "Antidust Cook," are equally applicable to his beautiful new Anti-dust Gas burning Parlor Stove, of which he offers no less than 31 (thirty-one) different patterns. Of the peculiar merits of this Parlor Stove we have already spoken, and need only now add, that all that its inventor claims for it is being fully realized. By its ne not one particle of dust can escape into the room; The old and unpleasant mode of raking is entirely Superseded, and its heating capacity is greater according to the size of the stove than any other factured, while the quantity of coal required to keep it is operation is fabutously small. His demand for them here, in the city, is enormous, and, in proof of their opularity elsewhere, we were shown a large package of letters from wholesale dealers, containing orders for them; but we are authorized to state, for the information of the public, that Mr. Spear has not offered them for his Warerooms, No. 1116 Market street. Without exaggerating, Mr. Spear's assortment of Stoves, of every description, is undoubtedly one of, if not the best in the United States. And his prices are remarkably low. Purchasers should bear this in mind. CONCERT ON THANKSGIVING EVENING .- The choir of the Green-street Methodist Episcopal Church. above Tenth, (which we bear willing testimony is one of the very best in this city.) announce that they intend on Thursday evening next-Thanksgiving evening. We Yenture to promise a very pleasing entertainment to all who may attend. The concert will be given under the conductorship of Professor H Priem.

DISCOURSE REPEATED.—Rev. Alexander T McGill, D. D., of Princeton, N. J., formerly of Pitfsburg, Pa., will repeat the discourse lately delivered by him, in the Union M E. Church, Fourth street, near Arch, to row (Sunday) evening. The discourse was prepared at the request of the Pennsylvania Colonization Society and their great enterprise is presented in it in an able manner. A large audience may be anticipated. .

Notice to Charlains, Chaplains, or missionaries laboring in the Pennsylvania regiments. desiring assistance in the way of Religious Books and Hymn Books, will meet with prompt attention by addressing the Army Committee, Association Rooms, 1011 Chestnut street. Chaplains who have received contributions are expected to acknowledge their receipt.

THE MERCHANT TAILORING BUSINESS in Philadelphia has attained a first-class position. Mr. E. O. Thompson, corner of Walnut and Seventh streets, who Occupies a leading position in this department, has the reputation of getting up a more elegantly-fitting suit fained in any other city in the Union; and the fact tha so many gentlemen of taste and wealth, in passing through Philadelphia, on their way to Washington, make it a point to order a suit at his establishment, would seem to indicate as much. In our judgment, Mr. Thompson is unrivalled in his profession. He displays no less Laste in the selection of his goods than he does in making An Inviting Establishment.-One of, i mot the most attractive point on Chestnut street to pedes trians is the magnificent new store of Mr. A. L. Van sant, second door below Ninth, under the Continent The interior arrangements are superb, and the display of choice fruits and confectionery is the most artistic we with hot air, avoiding the intrusion of dust, and he uses Only the purest loaf sugars in manufacturing. LADIES' FURS .- As this is the season for Furs, we take the liberty of informing our fair readers hat the stock of these graceful, and we may almost say andispensable articles, at Hessrs. Charles Oakford & Sons', under the Continental Hotel, is unsurpassed. The wariety in prices and style is almost endless, as may be inferred from their offering complete sets from the exfremely low price of five dollars to the most elegan Furs imported. Their other departments also presen have ever seen. Mr. Vansant's drying rooms are heated

CHRISTMAS CONFECTIONERY.—MOSSIS. E. G. Whitman & Co., with their usual good taste, are now bringing out their elegant heliday confectionery. There Ss but one opinion about the goods manufactured and Bold by this firm, and that is, that they are the finest richest, and purest made. Their store is thronged with customers all the year round, and their present preparazions for Thanksgiving Day, and the feative season render their place more attractive than ever. They use only the finest materials in manufacturing, and sell a

MESSRS. WITTERS & Co.'s KEROSENE OIL Retail warerooms, No. 35 North Eighth street, corner of Filbert, are unquestionably the most perfect article, in That line, yet invented, and should be used by all prudent persons, in preference to any others. They have then every possible variety of size, form, and material, and at prices to suit the times. CANDLES .- At this season of the year, when long evenings make a special demand for Candles, we may inform our readers that all the different varieties, of The best quality-some made from coal oil, the "adamantine" made from the solid portions of lard, sperm candles, et cetera- are always kept on hand, by Mr. C. H. Mattson, dealer in fine family groceries, Arch and Tenth streets; also, all the best articles for the table in SOMETHING NEW UNDER THE SUN .- Mr. J. A. Eshleman, the well-known proprietor of the Cravat Store, eventh and Chestnut streets, has recently added to his superb line of articles for the Neck several new style Crawats and Ties, of various kinds, the taste and neatness of which will be admitted by all who see them. His stock of general Gents' Furnishing Goods is also very superior.

LETTERS FROM PORT ROYAL .- That the " infornal Yankees" are a letter-writing people is evidenced by the fact that fifteen thousand letters have already been sent North, from Port Royal, by the soldiers and sailors accompanying the expedition. It is a remarkable the make complimes tory allusion to the excellence and Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Dhestnut street, above Sixth, in this city. Since the breaking out of the war, this famous establishment has won for itself as high a reputation for getting up Military Clothing as it had before for making suits for civilians. CONDITION OF THE SOUTHERN CONFEDERA-Ov .- From all accounts, the condition of things in the Bouthern Confederacy is most deplorable. Busix perfectly prostrated, provisions are at starvation prices, and clothing cannot be obtained at all—at least, none equal to the fine and curable garments manufactured at 2he Fashionable Clothing Depot of Granville Stokes, 609 Chestnut street. At this mammoth emporium, Falt and Winter garments, of the latest styles and best quality, Bre being disposed of a sacrificing rates.

At a subsequent meeting of the Board of Managers,
Mr. JOHN HICKS was reuppointed Agent, and Messrs.
S. C. COOPER and THOMAS EVANS Collectors.
It is well known that this Society is not a mere almsgiving agency, but a moral-suasion institution as well, which strives to remove pauperism by leading the poor to habits of industry and good morals. In pursuing this work, its visitors necessarily meet with poverty in every condition, and especially among such of the poor as do not begupon the streets. In view of the suffering to be apprehended the coming winter, the Society asks attention to the requests of the Collectors, who are now making their annual calls.

The Managers have made arrangements for a larger their annual calls.

The Managers have made arrangements for a larger supply of fuel than usual, upon terms more favorable than at any previous season, and must look to the public to contribute liberally to enable them to supply the extra demand which is likely to arise. Persons preferring to contribute directly can hand subscriptions to the Agent, at the office, Northwest corner of SEVERTH and SANSOM, or to EDMUND WILCOX, Esq., Treasurer, No. 404 OHESTNUT Street.
