duty. During the last quarter he had visited numerous localities in this city where the Bible was distributed. He found one family who had not had a Bible in their house for four years. Numerous other cases of a similar character were cited. Large numbers of Ribles have been distributed on board the receiving ship Princeton. The society this year have employed two women to sell and distribute Bibles. They have now been engaged eight months. During the last year there have been distributed 26,338 Bibles and Testaments, making the total number distributed since the organization of the socie'y 104,343 Bibles and 181,000 Testaments. Rey. John F. Chaplain then addressed the meeting. He said there were tests to driscriminate Christians. True Christians will communicate the good they have to their destitute brethren. No man can have the love of God in him who does not love his brother. Every one who possesses a Bible has a treasure, which should be as much cherished and loved as at the time when these books were few and not possessed by many. The Bible gives him spiritual food. It is the light of the world. Now, we have this light, and if we are true Christians how can we keep it from those around us? We should go still more earnestly to work, for, as the Saviour says, "It is more blessed to give than to receive." After singing the hymn,

"Great God of nations, now to thee Our hymn of gratitude we raise; With humble heart and bending kne

We offer Thee our song of praise," Rev. George H. Fisher was introduced. He was plwave rendy to speak a word in favor of the Bible and the Master. Why is it that we can, at this day, meet together and read this blessed book without being molested? It is from the liberty guarantied to us by our noble Constitution. Go to the Southern portion of our own land and we would not he allowed to thus distribute the Word of God. Not many years since, the sacred Seriptures were prohibited to those in lower stations of life for fear it might do them an injury. Now, all are allowed to enjoy that blessing. The spreading of the Bible must produce its effects. Therefore, we should do our duty, and scatter abroad this precious work. Hon. James Pollock was introduced. It had now been almost a quarter of a century since the institution of the Philadelphia Bible Society. He would ask, during what period of the world's history science and art had been so rapidly advanced as during the last twenty-five years? And why all this? Does accident accomplish it? It was brought about by the distribution of the truth of God. Look at the present unhappy state of our country, and why is it? Has the Bible been read and sent to all points of it? No. The author of that Book is the God of freedom and liberty, and it has been excluded. He believed that when this controversy had passed away, the precious fruit of the free Bible would be given to all the inhabitants of the land. Let us unite as agents for its circulation. and we will receive our reward. Another hymn was then sung by the audience, during which a collection was taken up.

Rev. Richard A. Carden was the last speaker. after which the Doxology was sung and benediction pronounced. The audience were then dismissed. TIMON SERVICES AT THE FIRST REFORMED DUTCH According to their time-honored custom, the three Reformed Dutch Churches of this city held their Thanksgiving jointly yesterday, in the church at the corner of Seventh and Spring Garden streets, the sermonion this occasion having been preached by Rev. Dr. Taylor, pastor of the Third Church of that denomination, at Tenth and Filbert streets. Dr. Taylor was assisted in the services by the Rev. Dr. Fisher, of Utica, who is now temporarily officiating in the pulpit of the Second Reformed Dutch Church of this city, recently made vacant by the resignation of Rev. Dr. Berg. Recent Fires in Philadelphia.

Fire Marshal Blackburn has issued a partial report, making mention of a number of fires subsequent to the latter part of October. A majority of the fires referred to were of a triffing character, but some few were highly destructive, and of these the Marshal has made prominent mention. On the 20th of October the most destructive and disastrous single conflagration that has occurred in the city since the date of the appointment of the fire marshal-a period of four yours and five months—happened at a large manufacturing establishment on the corner of Twelfth street and Washington avenue, known as Craig's Mills. The buildings-some of them five and six stories high—occupied an area of ground nearly a quarter of a square in extent, and they were filled with an immense amount of valuable machinery, besides a heavy stock of material and finished goods. The works were turning out flannel cloth, shirts, drawers, haversacks, and knapsacks for the army, and between two and three hundred hands were employed on these Government contracts. The total damage does not fall much short of $100.000. less than one-half of which sum was covered by insurance, thus leaving a clear loss of more than $50,000 to say nothing of the temporary stoppage of work on articles so urgently demanded at this time by the soldiers of the Union cause, and, what is still more sad, the throwing out of employment of so many needy operatives just at the commencement of winter. The sufferers by this conflagration were the heirs of the estate of Seth Craig, deceased; John Frazier, John and Wilson Watt, William Dunlap, Joseph M. Davis, Edward McClean, Cary & Barr, Mills & Booth, Myers Ackley, and George Campbell. The insurance companies which sustained losses were the State of Pennsylvania. Philadelphia Fire and Life, Girard. Commonwealth, Manufacturers', and one or two others in this city; and the Royal of Liverpool, Fulton. Lorrillard and Manhattan of New York, Æina of Hariford, Conn., and the Springfield, Mass. No one of these companies, however, had a larger risk than $5,000. A thorough investigation into the origin of the Loss about $12,000; insured for $7,500 in the Mutual Insurance Company of Germantown. Rumor attributed this fire to some rebel incendiary, but an examination by the fire marshal satisfied him that there was no evidence whatever of design. On the contrary, all the circumstances went to establish the fact that the cause of the conflagration was

On the morning of the 5th of November, the extablishment of H. Pughe, manufacturer of leather for the linings of military hats and caps, in Miller street. Second ward, was burned out. The buildings occupied belonged to the Search estate. There is a total loss, by the fire, of about $2,500. The eai estate was not insured. Mr. Pughe had a policy on his stock, machinery, and fixtures, in the ommonwealth. Loss to that company, $1,000. The mishap was a case of sudden ignition in a drying-room, the result of hurry and the neglect of are in the regulation of the fires. The Fire Marshal, in the course of late investins, has been convinced that haversacks and sacks, made of duck or muslin, or any kind of en or cotton fabric, when coated with paint, comof lampblack and linseed oil, hastily and sely mixed, and then glazed with varnish, in ch benzine is an ingredient, when packed tightly fire from spontaneous combustion. The recent frequent burning of manufacturing The recent frequent burning of manufacturing establishments, where Government erders were being filled, in different parts of the loyal section of the Union, has created some alarm in the public mind. Many people have had misgivings of treachery being at work, and certain sensation newspaper paragraphs have induced the belief that rebel in cendiaries were applying the torch. The Fire Marshal cannot speak for other cities and towns, but as far as Philadelphia is concerned, he is gratified to state that out of about one dozon business places doing Government work, that have been either destroyed or damaged by fire, since last spring, there was not a particle of testimony obtained to prove that a solitary concern was designedly fired.

STABBING AFFAIR .- Yesterday afternoon an altercation took place between a party of colored nen, in a low den at Seventh and Baker streets, during which one of them, named Kulan, was severely stabled in the right breast. He was taken to the hospital. A man, who had also been stabled, was arrested upon the charge of cutting Kulan.

CHARGED WITH SWINDLING .- A man who for many years, was an importer of wines and liquors, on Front street, was arrested on Wednesday, by Detective Taggart, on the charge of swindling. His method of operation was as follows: A short time ago he opened an account in the Manufacturers and Mechanics' Bank, under a false name. In a few days he deposited a check on the Kensington Bank for $200, and then drew against it to the amount of $130 or thereabouts. His check was signed with his real name. The check, on being presented at the Kensington Bank, was pronounced worthless, he having no account in that institution. The prisener was committed, in default of $1,000, ARREST OF COLORED PICKPOCKETS .- YAS-ARREST OF COLORED PICKPOCKETS.—Yesterday afternoon, four well-known colored theves—Joe Kirby, Pete Keys, Josh Deal, and Luke Sullivan—were arrested, at Eighth and Chestnut, by Detectives Carlin and Henderson The prisoners were all engaged around one woman, in trying to pick her pocket. It is supposed that Kirby is the same individual who served a term of imprisonment in the penitentiary, about four years since, for a similar offence. This is the only case, since then, in which colored pickpockets have figured. The prisoners will have a henring to-day.

DISEASE Among Hogs.—The disease known as the "hog cholcra" is now prevailing among the porkers in our adjoining counties to an extent never before known. It is singularly fatal in its effects, very few animals surviving its attacks. What makes the disease the more destructive is the fact of its being infectious; so that when one of a lot of hogs is attacked, all the rest are almost certain to contract it unless speedily removed to another pen. | ARRIVALS AT THE HOTELS

"The undersigned committee, appointed to examine the flax cotton offered for premium at the fair held in this city, on the 11th day of September last, respectfully represent that they have carefully inspected all the samples that were contributed on that occasion, and having in view the terms on which the premiums were offered—viz:

'Fit for use on cotton machinery,' and 'accompanied with a statement of its culture, production, and preparation, including the cost of the various processes,' they are of opinion that none of the contributors are entitled to the premiums so offered.

"Feeling a warm interest in the substitution of fax for cotton, they have investigated the subject more thoroughly than was required, simply to discharge the duties for which they were selected, and are led to believe that the encouragements for ultimate success are too strong to allow the investigation to rest here.
