take is the Iwenty-forth warm to the characteristic at the extensive coal oil-manufactory of Messrs. Rowley, Ashburner, & Co., at Maylandville, Twenty-fourth ward. The flames originated needdent-disc, canned by the suddon sgnition of a quantity of benzine gas, which was followed by a loud explosion. The upper portion of the main building was destroyed and considerable damage was done to the fixtures and apparatus. There was very little oil in the building at the time, only some three or four barrels be 1g burned. The total loss is estimated at between three and four hundred dollars, upon which there is no language. The flames flashed over the whole department so quickly that several working a were slightly burned helots effecting their escape. The fire burned itself out. The working prevented the flames from extending to the other buildings. This establishment was burned out a year or buildings. Since then the building has been made nearly The flames flashed over the whole department so quickly windings. This establishment was burned out a year or two ago. Since then the building has been made nearly fire-proof. The furnaces have been placed on the outside of the building, and the oil as tast as ready is stored in the out-buildings. Every precaution has been used to guard against fire, and hereafter the tanks are to be made of iron. PARADE OF THE REGIMENT OF LANCERS.-

PARADE OF THE REGIMENT OF LANCERS.—
This regiment is now under orders for Washington, and is only waiting transportation by the Phitadelphia, Wilnington, and Baltimore Railroad to leave. The great amount of business on that road has caused the dulay in the therling of the regiment. In consequence of these unexpected delays, Colonel Rush has, at the request of many of our citizens, ordered a parade of the regiment in the city to-day, to give all an opportunity to see a full regiment of lancers. They will leave Caum Meigs at 10 o'clock A. M., and will remer the city by North Broad street, and thence proceed down Broad to Arch, up Arch to Eighteenth, down Krighteenth to Spruce, down Spruce to Broad, up Broad to Chestnut, down Chestnut to Ninth, up Ninti to Filbert, up Filbert to Tweifth, up Twelfth 10 Spring Garden to Broad, and out Broad to camp. The regiment will be armed with their new lance, and will be accompanied by their mounted had. The finest display may be expected on North Broad street, where the width of the street will enable the regiment to march with a widt fresh.

POLICE CASES.—Yesterday morning a man named John Dougherty was held in $1,000 bail, by Al-derman Beitler, to answer the charge of having passed one of the counterfait $5 bills of the Farmers' and Mo-clapile. Bank come transmissions of a restaurant one of the counterfait 25 bills of the Farmers and Mochanics Bank, some two weeks since, at a restaurant on Chestaut street. Riza Harrison, residing at Marcher street and Girard avenue, and Mary Young, a rosident of Second and George streets, were committed yesterday morning for keeping disorderly houses. Several parties were also held to bail for being frequenters of the place. On Sunday John Draper and Caroline White, both colored residents of St. Mary street, got into a fight, and each used a razor quite freely. John was out in the side and Caroline in the arm. A considerable quantity of blood was spilled, but the wounds are not considered serious. The combatants were arrested and committed MINCE PIES FOR CHRISTMAS.—Among the Mince Ples for Christmas.—Among the indispensable requisites for the gentatory celebration of the Christmas holidays are good mince pies, the materials for making which, we are happy to inform our readers, they will find in profusion and greatest excellence at the store of Mr. Albert C. Roberts, dealer in line groceries, at the corner of Eleventh and Vine streets. Of the Eleventh of the Eleventh and layer raisins, Sultana and seedless raisins, citrops, currants, spices, sweet cider, wines, et cetera. In addition to these, Mr. Roberts' stock embraces every fresh delicacy and substantial in the grocery line. He is largely patronized by the first families of this city, and all who deal with him once become permanent customers.

ARMY CLOTHS .- A number of Philadelphia ARMY CLOTHS.—A number of Finiadelphia firms have forwarded proposals for sumplying the Government with army cloth. The following bids have been accepted, from this city: Sky-blue kersey, 27 inches wide, 11 ounces to the yard, 350,000 yards at $1 and $1.02½ per yard. Sky-blue kersey 54 inches wide, 22 ounces to the yard, 200,000 yards at $2 per yard. Dark blue cloth, for army pants, 52 inches wide, 21 ounces to the yard, 100,000 yards, at $2.70 per yard. The manufacture of this cloth will keep our factories have all through the winter, and furnish employment to busy all through the winter, and furnish employment to FUNERALS OF YOLUNTEERS .- This afternoon the functal of George W. Weaver, of Company F, Sewenty-first Regiment P. V., who died at Camp Observation, will take place, from the residence of his mother, No. 434 Jefferson street. No. 431 deferson street.

The fill-érâl of Licatemant Connelly took place on Sunday afternoon, from his late residence, in Haines street, Germantown. It was attended by two companies of Home Guards.

David DicCloud, of Company G, Third Regiment P, R, C,, was also buried on Sunday, with military unnors, to was a resident of Mount Airy, in the Twenty-second

THE NEW BRIDGE OVER THE SCHUYLKILL .-The New Bridge over the Schuylkill.—
The shuthents and piets of the new iron bridge now being butt over the Schuylkill, opposite the arsenal, have been finished, and at the western end the superstructure is already in its place. Upon both sites of the river the line of the extension of the road has been graded and the work of laying the ralls is going forward rapidly. The bridge, when completed, will be entirely fire-proof, and in this respect will be far superior to the old bridge over the Schuylkill at Market-street wharf.

Drowning Case. An unknown man, while DROWNING CASE.—An unknown man, while untoxicated, fell off the steamboat Edwin Forrest on Sunday evening, about half past 8 o'clock, into the Delaware, and was drowned. He had been sitting on the railing of the boat, and was observed to full into the water, but had disappeared before assistances could be rendered. The hat of the man was found upon the Forrest, and may lead to his identification. It is a black round-crewned Kosseuth hat, nearly new, with the words—"The Union Forever," upon a blue striped lining. The hat is at the Sixth ward stationshouse.

DESCENT-ON A POLICY OFFICE.-Yesterday A FOLICY OFFICE.—Y esterday afternoon, Detectives Henderson and Carlin made a descent on a policy office in Elder street, between Tenth and Elvertith and took into sustedy the writer, John Morris, and seized all the books and papers. At the time the officers went into the building, the place was filled with a number of poor and half-naked persons, who were purchasing tickets. Morris was arraigned before Police Ragisirate Beitler, and committed to answer. FLAG PRESENTATION.—The friends of Col.

Gregory's Regiment, at Camp Chase, will present them with a leastiful flag, at their camp grounds, Darby youd, formerrow glernood, at 2 o'clock. The occasion will doubtless attract a large attendance of the friends of this

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET.

PRIMADELPHIA, December 9, 1861.

The business of the Stock Board continues light, notwithstanding the favorable construction put upon the foreign news and the steady improvement witnessed in trade circles. -Reading Bailroad phares gained &, closing at 17 % to 17. $1-100. In the money market there is no change. Credit is still dear, no names selling freely excepting those of undoubled strongth; but for such there is a ready market at low rates.

CITY ITEMS,

OUR WESTERN ARMIES.-The Young Men's Christian Association are doing a good work among our armies in the West, and, from accounts, much ren ains yet to be done. We observe, by our Chicago exchanges, that the Association of that city convened the largest meeting of the season, in Bryan Hall, on Wednesday evening, to listen to an address from our townsman, Mr. George H. Stuart, on the necessity for increased religious ministrations to the soldiers. Mr. Stuart spoke on this subject for an hour and a half in his usual carnest style, interrupted by repeated rounds of applause, and concluded by a solemn exhortation to the young men present to devote themselves to God and their country.

At the close of the address Dr. Pratt proposed a collection, and $120 were immediately contributed. The churches in that city and visining have, within the last first weeks, contributed one hundred and fifty boxes of hospital bedding, clothing, and cordials, for the sick and wounded in Miscouri; who, through the neglect of the proper autherities, are said to be in a wretched state, many of them lying for over three weeks in the clothes in which they fell, without any covering but felt blankets. Ladiesjust returned from Rolls, say the sick men there absolutely refuse to leave their regiments. The dotachment of the returning army, with which these ladies fever, for want of anything class.

travelled, buried one every day. The nurses were feeding boiled rice to men in the lowest stages of typhoid "A JUST WAR." The next lecture of the "People's" course will be delivered at Concert Hall on Thursday evening next, by the Rev. R. S. Storrs, D D., of Brooklyn. Dr. Storrs' lecture here last season was one of the most polished and scholarly of the season. In his style of speaking and mode of thought he resembles Curtis, though he has more animation. The subject he has selected for Thursday evening-"A Just War and its Relation to the higher development of a Nation "-is admirably adapted to his peculiar genius, and he will doubtless bring a vast amount of scholarthip and research to its discussion. IMPORTANT SALE OF CARPETS .- By an anconcernent elsewhere it will be seen that Mr. Samuel L. Baily, surviving partner of the late firm of Baily & Brother, No. 920 Chestnut street, in order to close up their business, will offer for sale at anction, through Thomas Birch & Sor, their large and attractive stock of Carpets, Oil Cloths, et cetera, in lots to suit purclassers, on to-morrow (Wednesday) morning, sale to commence at ten o'clock. The goods are now arranged Chestnut street, where the public will have the privilogaof examining them up to the hour of sale. We regard this sale as offering the most favorable opportunity for purchasing good carpetings, at a great sacrifice, that has ever been presented to our citizens To Philadelphians we need not say that the stock of the firm has maintained, up to the present time, the highest reputation for its quality, variety, and general excellence; and now that it is to be closed out without reserve, in lots to suit purhasers—whether few yards or many—the opportunity to buy at figures greatly below the market prices will no doubt be largely embraced. We may state, also, that every article offered will be represented to be exactly what it is, though this much will be inferred from the reutation and character of this old and respectable house. A GREAT CLOAK EMPORIUM.—One of the most thoroughly alive business establishments in this elty is the popular Clock Emporium of Mr. Henry Ivens, No. 23 South Ninth street. During several months of the year he keeps constantly employed nearly two hun-dred girls in manufacturing, and the quantity of cloth out up sometimes in a single day exceeds a thousand yards. He sends more cloaks, either by wholesale or retail, to all parts of the country, than any other firm in the Union, and, operating on the largest scale, he is imports extensively, thus affording the most extended variety for his customers to select from. Buying and selling for each Only, and having abundant facilities at his command for taking advantage of circumstances, he has been enabled this season, for obvious reasons, to present to his patrons the best cloaks, of all the most exquisite and fashionable materials, at unusually low prices. This accounts in a measure for his enormous trade, although another secret of his success is doubtless found in the fact that he employs none but competent and obliging clerks, so that, whether suited or not, customora always leave his salesroom with a favorable im. pression. All our lady readers should make the acquaintance of this handsome and extensive establish-LECTURE By the Rev. R. A. CARDEN.-A lecture is to be delivered in the Church of the Evangelists, Catharine street, above Seventh, in aid of the Poor of the Parish, on Thursday evening, the 12th instant, by the Rev. R. A. Carden, rector of the Church of the zen, and we trust it will be generously sustained by the community. The Hospital is under the management of Miss Anna Ross, to whose charge the committee have wisely committed the establishment. Through her exertions, quite a number of acceptable contributions have been obtained. We are requested on her part to acknow-. The Cincinnati Gazette says: "The subscription to ledge the following donations, for which she returns her sincere thanks to her friends and donors for their kind and patriotic generosity in assisting her to de up, and carry on the Hospital. GROCERIES AND PROVISIONS.—There is no change to note in either, and very little movement in the market.

SEEDS.—There is a fair demand for Cloverseed; about $297 00 Hospital purposes, and also to the young misses of the aiding the Comer Shop Hospital in useful articles of clothing, jellies, &c., &c., through Miss Anna Ross. SPRING GARDEN FRUIT AND PRODUCE STORE .- We invite attention to the sulvertisement of Mr. S. Z. Gottwals, in another column. He has lately removed his Fruit and Provision Store to No. 812 Spring Garden street, where he is better prepared than over to accommodate his patrons with everything in the way of apples, potatoes, sweet potatoes, cranberries, nuts, dried fruits (both foreign and domestic), butter, eggs, poultry extra family flour, buckwheat flour, corn meal, &c., al of which he is selling as low as they can be bought in the city. His establishment is a great convenience to the citizens in that section of the city, and deserves a libera

> REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE TREA SURY.—The report of the Secretary of the Treasury was yesterday submitted to Congress. It is an able document, and cannot fail to meet with the approbation of all good, loyal citizens. The report contains all of interest; but in it we notice ope reculiar fact—that no allusion whatever is made to the handsome and durable styles o winter garments manufactured at the Mamnoth Clothing Emporium of Granville Stokes, 609 Chestnut street. The exceedingly low prices at which Clothing is disposed of at this fashionable depot attracts the attention of share of their patronage.

SNUBBING ROYALTY .- A plucky little British middy recently slapped the august ears of his Roya Highness Prince Alfred, who, thereupon, indignantly reported to the officer in command. An investigation showed that the indignity was the result of princely imrtinence, and all the satisfaction his Highness go therefor was a piece of advice to the effect that, in future, he had better keep a civil tongue in his head. The Prince's offensive remark was, that he had no great opinion of the suits for soldiers and civilians made at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chesinut street, above Sixth. The middy served him right to box his long cars.
