TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS : My attention To the EDITOR OF THE PRESS: My attention has been called to a leading article in the New York Herald of the 9th, headed "An Abolition Bible," in which the writer refers to Cassell's Illustrated Family Bible now publishing. He says he finds in this edition, in the ninth chapter of Exodus, and the thirty second verse, the word "rice," which word (he says) does not occur in the chapter at all in any correct capy of the Bible. The writer further says that there will be abundance of time to make any further interrolations in matters relating to South-KENNEDY'S del1-2: Colonel Twenty-third Beg't, P. V. I quote the verse referred to from Cassell's edi-tion, Exodus iz., 32. "But the wheat and the ric were not smitten, for they were not grown up." As the word "rice" does not appear in this verse, nor in any part of the chapter, it follows that the only charge the Herald brings against this beauti-ful edition of the Bible is non THER. After hearing Mr Howe's statument, an ordinance on the subject was read, which was prepared by the City So-licitor at the instance of the committee. It provides for the exchange of old bonds of the city for new bonds of like amount, bearing four per cent. interest, payable semi-annually, irredeemable, except at the pleasure of the city otherwise than by the operation of a siking fund. To create this sinking fund, a tax is to be levied annually, sufficient to meet the annual interest on the new bonds of four per cent, and provide an additional amount of four per cent, and provide an additional amount of four per cent, and provide an additional amount of four per cent, and provide an additional amount of four thousand dollars as a fund for the gra-dual and ultimate extinction of the deot,—the amount raised in this manner to be kept separate from other city funds, sun applied to payment of call interest, the surplus heing interest in bonds as often as once in every two years. The bonds which the ordinance proposes to ex-change are those issued by the city to the Ohio and Pennsylumina Bailread, and amount to $400,000, which, at four per cent, will require an annual at of $16,000 to muct the interest. The ordinance was discussed at length. and, after some little opposition, was adopted autho-rizing the Finance Committee to apply to the Legislature for such legislation as may he necessfue by a decision vote. A resolution was also adopted autho-rizing the finance into effect. This is practi-cally the first more towards a compromise that has been yet talk a here, and no doubt these who desire to see the vexed one-tion amicably settied will hall the movement as a step in the right direction.—"Pittishurf Erepting C J Picot, Peansylvania G D Chencweth, Cavijalo J D Baldwin, Pittsburg Wm Dobins, Lancaster co F A Meddaugh, Bingha OFFICIAL NOTIOE.
