MILITARY MATTERS-RECRUITING, &c .- The work of recruiting still continues rather dull. Most of e regiments in process of formation, however, are nearly complete. The National Guard Regiment is still encamped at Oxf.rd Park. A number of recruiting stations are open in this city and throughout the State. The nt will soon be full. The Twenty-fifth Regiment, Colonal Rimay's Zougyas, now at the even of war, are in want of a number of men to fill up the ranks. Lieutenants Moylan and Bailie are in town for this purpose. Captain Thomas J. Quigg, of the Irish Dragoons, is recruiting men to be attached to the Brigade, also at the seat of war.

The Ruff Zouaves and the Curtin Light Guard Regiments are both occupying the Government buildings, Chestnut street, below Fifth. Names are slowly being

Colonel Wistar, of the Seventy-first Regiment, (lateColonel Baker's "California,") is in town after a number of men to fill vacancies in the organization.

Men are being recruited for the Naval Artillery Corps, which is a select branch of the service, and none but the best volunteers are accepted.

Col. Cregory's regiment is ready, and will soon leave for Washington. It is not yet quite full. "Ol. Gregory

Col. Angeroth's regiment of heavy artillery is now on-camped at the Diamond Cottage, Camden. The regiment is supplied with the sibley tents, each of which contains a Sibley stove, by means of which the men are made-comfortable in the coldest weather. The regiment is to be used for fortifications. They will receive ten pleces of artillery, for practice, for which the race-course offers peculiar facilities. The field and staff officers are: Co-donal Charles Angeroth: Heutenant colonel, J. H. Oberlonel, Charles Angeroth: lieutenant colonel, J. H. Oberteuffer; major, William Candidus; quartermaster, A. P. Captain Chapman Biddle's Flying Artillery will drill this afternoon on Islington lane, just above the Ridge Avenue Railread depot. They will start from their armory, Broad and Race streets, at 1½ P. M. The full battery will be in service.

Captain Jos. H. Sinex, of Company D, Ninety-first Regiment P. V., in behalf of his command, returns thanks to Mrs. Jas. Lefevre and other ladies, and A. M. Spangler, Esq., for donation of mittens for the company.

NAVAL MATTERS .- Judging from the brisk ness with which all work at our navy yard is being pushed forward, we are led to believe that the Govern ment intends soon to strike another terrible blow with our navy. At present about 2,500 men are employed a the yard, some of whom are working day and night, and even on Sundays.

The United States steamer Miami has been removed from the ecctional dock, her coppering and painting having been finished. She will receive her machinery immediately, and he got ready for sea as speedily as possible. The sloop-of-war Brooklyn has received her entire armament on board. It consists of twenty-six guns in broadside, and an extra rifled pivot-gun, fore and aft. She will go into co amission in a day or two.

The steam sloop-of war Junitud has been planked and canliked, and received her first coat of paint yesterday. It is expected that she will be launched next week. It is expected that she will be launched next week Yesterday, a number of officers from this and other States [reported themselves at the navy yard to active duty. They will be consigned to the different vessels that are fitting out. One-fourth of the prize-ship Marathon has been sold One-fourth of the prize-ship Marathon has been sold by the United States Marshal. The share was bought for the sum of of $3,200 by Mr. James Helms.
Commodore Strilling, of the United States mays, arrived in this city on Wednesday evening. Commodore S. is a native of the South, and is one of the few Southern officers who have not deserted their country in the time of her greatest need. He was in command of the East India Squadron at the cultivark of the bresent troubles, and, upon receipt of the news of the tall of Fort Sumpter, issued a very patriotic address to the officers and men under him.

CHARGED WITH SWINDLING.—Through the young man or respectance connections, named Attory Armstrong Neal, was artested, on Tuesday evening, upon the charge of swindling some of our city merchants out of goods, at various t mes, within the past year. One of his most recent operations, which led to his arrest, was the swindling of a firm on Jestinut street, who are engaged in the furnishing goods business. The accused, at various times, succeeded in getting articles until her an up a bill of over a hundred dollars. When pressed for the payment of his debt, he expressed his inability to settle sith the firm in cash, but said he was willing to remainerate them, if they would take groceries of parties who owed him for some whisky of a particular brand, which he represented that he had sold to them. This was proved false. As the firm subsequently learned. Neal also gwindled a jewelry firm by presenting a bogus check for goods which he had purchased. The accused has been arrested before upon a similar charge. He was held, by Alderman Beitler, for a further hearing.

DEATH OF HORN R. KNEASS, Eso.-Horn R DEATH OF HORN R. KNEASS, Esq.—Horn R. Kneass, a well-known member of the Philadelphia bir, died at his residence, in West Philadelphia, at four o'clock yestercay morning. Mr. Kneass was an active politician, and his connected with the Democratic party. He is best known, popularly, from his connection with the office of District Attorney, having held that position until the decision of the Court of Common Pleas accorded the office to Mr. William B. Reed, after a long and spirited contest. Mr. Kneass was also a candidate for the same office in 1859, when Mr. Mann was chosen. The deceased was a prominent member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, having at one time ueld the office of Grand Diaster of the order in Pennsylvania. Mr. Knoass was also Crand Size of the Order throughout the Union. In private life, the deceased was esteemed as an amiable and kind-hearted gentleman.

PASSING COUNTERFEIT MONEY:—Two young, were before I herman Patchel, yesterilay morning, on the charge of having passed counterfeit five-dollar notes, purporting to be the issue of the Unadilla Bank. The offence was committed about two weeks since. On Wednesday, Lleutenent Faulin received an anonymous note, giving the names and residences of the women, a description of the begus bills, and the location of stores where they had been passed. Mr. Paulin called at the latter, ascertained that the notes had really been passed, and then arrested the Battles a.c.iiis.d. The defendants were taken to the stores and identified by the proprietors. After the hearing, they were committed to answer at court.

A PROMINENT PHILADELPHIAN DECEASED.— Many of the readers of The Press will hear with sincere tegret of the denise of Mr. James B. Billings, of this tegret of the denise of Mr. James B. Bhings, of this ity. The sad event fook place in Strafford, Coun., on Monday last, the 9th inst. The deceased, as one of the 1rm of Mangra Probabury, Billinge, & Do., was for many years proprietor of the Girard House, and in such capacity enjoyed the confidence and esteem of the entire community. He was in the 37th year of his age. We have not been acquainted with the cause of his death, which was unexpected to his many friends.

CONSUL TO BAYONNE .- Wm. Moran, Esq. CONSULTO DAYONNE.—WILL MOTAIN, ESG1, recently appointed consult to Bayonne, France, yesterday filed his bonds and entered his securities before Recorder Encu. The new consul proceeded to Washington last ovening, to receive official instructions. He will probably take passage for Europe by the next steamer. In parting, his many friends in this city wish him health, prosperity, and encess in the discharge of his official duties.

writing under date of December 3, says : Notwithstanding numberless newspaper reports to the contrary, it is evident no forward movement of importance will take place from here for a couple of weeks, at least. The Union commanders are not ready to commence successful offensive movements and of magnitude sufficient to gain, should they be successful, any really important result. Petty demonstrations, resulting in the loss of hundreds of lives, have, it is hoped, been forever disparded, and the time arrived when we can meet the enemy with at least event numbers and Collowan are with at least equal numbers, and follow up any victory gained with crushing effect. The rebel serpent has hissed and stung here in the West, from behind defences and in impenetrable swamps, until Union volunteers look forward to his punishment with intense longing, and nobly will they vindicate the trust of their country when an emportuality offers. The Secondary nobly will they vindicate the trust of their country when an opportunity offers. The Scarosian traders on the Mississippi, fully aware of this threatening storm, are using every means to be prepared when it bursts. At Columbus they have exhausted military science in defences, and as now doing the same at New Madrid, just below. To the latter works, "bushwhacking Jeff," the gerrior Thompson, whose name is spelt with a "p," isdevoting his whole attention. Finding military lies much pleasanter in romance than reality, half-staved and with his parity-clothed guerillas wincing under the sharp blasts of approaching sinter, he has wisely concluded to coop himself up it New Madrid, where adjacent swamps, imponer than which where adjacent swamps, imponer than the will be speedily obliged to value his new-found quarters, along with his later. That he will be speedily obliged to value his new-found quarters, along with his reat. That he will be speedily obliged to vaste his new-found quarters, along with his rethren at Columbus, is more than probable. At the atter place, there are now about eighty guns in losition, the adjacent forest has been felled sufficiently to obstruct considerably our progress, and arge reinforcements have been added to the garrips. The new gunbuats, however, will be more than qual, apparently, to the task before them, and an ivance against Columbus will not, I think, be long tayed. Perhaps, however, it may be decided to foid the fortified places entirely, and strike around all beyond them at exposed spots in the enemy's contry. For instance, Memphis could be taken wha quarter the loss of life and trouble that wild be required at Columbus. Two of the new globats from St. Louis are now lying at the levee he, but are not yet entirely finished. Those bedding at Mound City will require two weeks or mre of labor.

City passenger railway stocks are equally duli of sale.

A few shares of Arch-street were sold at 11%, and a nundred shares of Spruce and Pine-streets at 8 %. The favorite investment securities show little fluctua-tion. Pennsylvania Railroad stock sold at 37%; Camden and Amboy Railroad 1183; Harrisburg Railroad 52; and city sixes, railroad issue, 84, interest off. There is no movement in the money market. The substitution of cash sales for the credit heretofore so universally given has become quite general. As merchants discriminate more in giving credit the character of the bills ade improves, while the quantity diminishes, and there is good reason to anticipate a scarcity of good paper for discount during all the spring months.

44 44 Philadelphia Markets. DECEMBER 12-Evening.

The Flour market is more active to-day, and holders at the close are firmer in their views; sales include about 600 bbls Western and Pennsylvania extra at $5.75, and 3,000 bbls family, mostly Western, at S6 學 bbl. Sales to the retailers and bakers range at 85.37% 成5.50 for auper $5.52% @6.12% for extra and extra family, and from $6.25 to $7 for fancy lots, as to quality. Rye Flour and Corn Meal are quiet. The former sells in a small way at $2; and Pennsylvania Meal is steady at $2.87%

Wheat.—The receipts and sales are fair, and the demand active at a further advance; about 15,000 bus have been taken mostly for sbipment at $3.380.140 for Pennsylvania and Southern red, chiefly at the latter 1816, in store and affoat, and $1.4502.06 for white. Rye is storally, but rather cult to-day at 76c for Pennsylvania. Corn comes in slowly, and old yellow is scarce and wanted at 56c; new is selling at 53056, as to condition. Oats are firm, with further sales of 6,000 bus at 40c for Delawars and 41c for Pennsylvania, atheat. Barley is scarces and in demand at 75c, but Barley Matt is dull.

BARK.—There is very little Quercitron offering, and 1st No. 1 is wanted at $28.50 $p$ ton.

Cotton.—The market is buoyant and fair, and a small business only to note in the way of sales.

GROCHIES.—Stocks of all kinds are very much reduced, and the high views of holders limits operations.

PROVISIONS.—The market continues dull and unsettled, and no large sales have been made public.

Spens.—There is a steady demand for Clover, with sales at $4.5004.75 $p$ bus for common to prime quality. Timothy is quiet and Flaxseed scarce at $1,9502 $p$ bu.

Whiskey is unchanged; 250 bbls sold at 20021c, and drudge at 19% 220c $p$ gallon.

CITY ITEMS.

THE MERCHANT OF VENICE READ AND ANA-LYZED, -To-night, at Concert Hall, Mr. S. M. Cleveland will give the second of his five intellectual entertainments, which we are glad to find are being appreciated and commended by the very first people of our city. great play, "The Merchant of Venice." We may say, with regard to these entertainments, that persons who are averse to visiting theatres, and yet have a taste for the highest style of dramatic reading, will find in these analytical tectures, if we may so call them, a treat which they can ill afford to forego, As these readings' by Mr. Cleveland progress, we expect to see Concert Hall filled to overflowing.

LADIES SHOPPING AT OAKFORDS' .- OUT lady readers now shopping for Presents, either for Gentlemen, for Children, or for their lady friends, will find the most elegant stock to select from at Messrs. Charles Oultford & Sons!, under the Continental Hotel. Their Furnishing Goods are choice and varied, embracing everything that is good, pretty, and desirable for pregants, while in Pancy Furs their stock is unsurpassed, and is selling at very mederate prices. New goods are daily being added in all their departments. HOT BUCKWHEAT AND COFFEE,-What a delicious combination for a clear frosty-morning breakfast! To get these up in best style our readers should use the fine old Government Java Coifee of Mr. C. H. Mattson, dealer in fine Groceries, Arch and Tenth Flour, now admitted to be the finest in the market.

THE REIGN OF TERROR IN THE NORTH .- The rebels in Secessia delude themselves into the belief that a suade themselves that grass is sprouting in the streets of and that the laboring classes in Boston are helping them. "solid men" of the modern Athens. We would like promenade along Chestnut street one of these fine winter wemen and brave men, the latter, of course, dressed in elegant and comfortable suits from the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605

Chestnut street, above Sixth. IRON-PLATED WAR STEAMERS .- Last year the French Government built an iron-plated steamer, the La Gloire, and the advantages it promised were so great that the British Government immediately laid the keels of two similar vessels, only much larger—the Warrior and Black Prince. Our Government has ordered three of these vessels, with the armor three-fourths of an inch thicker than either of the foreign ones, However ex citing the preparations of war may be for the time, how much more joyful are the triumphs of peace! Some new spinning-jenny or loom, by which the necessaries of life may be cheapened to the million, forms a much pleasanter subject of thought. Such an establishment as Chas. Stokes' "One-Price" Clothing Store, under the 'Continental," dispensing both good and cheap clothing to the world, is a more cheerful picture than arsenuls und STRANGE, BUT TRUE .- No English sovereign, f the thirty-three that have reigned since William the English monarchs. As strange as this may seem, it is not as much so as the unprecedented low price at which the fashionable and well-much stock of winter clothing is being sold by Granville Stokes, the Fashioner and FAHNESTOOK & CO. and DYOTT & CO., Philadel. Clothier, No. 609 Chestnut street. That the cheapest and best-made clothing, of all styles, is sold at this establishment is a fact that no one can deny. READ the advertisement of Professor Bolles. MEN."—At a special meeting of the BOARD OF TRUSTEES, held on the 11th inst., the following pre-TRUSTEES, held on the 11th inst., the following pre-amble and resolutions were adopted:

In the sudden and unexpected decease of our late treasurer, Mr. JACOB ESHER, which has been an-nounced to us this evening, the Board feel particularly called upon to express the feelings of profound sorrow and regret which the occasion is calculated to inspire. It is but a few evenings since our friend and fellow-trustee met with us in our meeting, buoyant in health and spliks, and his feelings keenly slive to the object for and upliffs, and his feelings lessily slive to the object for which our association was instituted.

Our friend being one of the founders, and one of the first trustees of our association, and having been its treasurer for the last fifteen years, this Board do

Resolve, That in the sudden death of our late felsed,
Mr. JACOB ESHER, this Board has sustained a loss of the severest kind. His proverbial kindness of heart, his suffable and agreeable manners, and his universal benevolence, particularly to the widow and fatherless, has so ownessed, him to use that now who has hear and all of the control of olence, particularly to the whole and nameriess, has so diefeared him to us that now when he has been called pon by a righteous Judge, and his spirit taken from us, e can only record our testimony to his many and noble maltice as a friend and/companion. Resolved, That the Board will, out of respect to his Mesolved, That the Board will, out of respect to his memory, attend the funeral in a body.

Resolved, That the secretary be directed to record the above on the minutes of the Board of Trustees, in memorial of our deceased member.

Resolved, That we offer to the family of the deceased (and more especially to the widow), our sentiments of profound sympathy, in this her hour of affiction.

A Treatise on the Legal and Equitable Rights of Ma ried Women, as well in respect to their property and persons as to their children; with an Appendix of the recent American Statutes, and the Decisions under them, by WILLIAM H. CORD, Esq.

Messes. KAY & BROTHER—

Entitemen.* I have examined Mr. Cord's work. A good book upon that subject is needed by the profession, in consequence of the great changes which modern legislation has made in most of the United States. So far as I have been able to examine Mr. Cord's book, I am of opinion that he has done his work with industry, system, and judgment. I think his book will supply a real need.

Yours, Very Respectfully,

W. STRONG. (FROM HIS HONOR JUDGE WOODWARD.)

contemen: Of taking up air. Corts some, I was struck with the comprehensiveness of the author's plan. To state fully the doctrines of the common law touching the marriage relation, and to exhibit the modifications of the common law which have been made by the slatutes and judicial decisions of the several States of the Union, was a large undertaking. I think Mr. Cord has performed it well; he has collected and arranged the Pennsylvin statutes and decisions with singular fidulity. The ed it well; he has collected and arranged the Pennsylvania statutes and decisions with singular fidelity. The very latest of our decisions with singular fidelity in 18 motes to the statutes. The points decided are briefly but accurately stated. If his notes on the statutes of other States are as full and accurate as they are on those of Pennsylvania, this part of the work will be found secondary valuable and convenient. * * * Mr. Cord deserves the thanks of the profession and the public, for the very satisfactory manner in which he has brought before us both the common and statute law of the mattai relation. I cordially recommend his hook to the patronage of the profession.

The work is brought out in a style that is highly creditable to your house.
