There was little done in Government stocks, and prices are quite mominal. The 5s of 1574 sold at 80, the regis-tered 6s at 87 and 88. The component stocks, and prices prices, it will be seen, are from 2% to 3 per cent bidow Saturday's, which is more favorable than might have hear expire very firmly maintained. It is difficult to say at the present writing what effect the English news may have on the money marrier. That measiness already prevails it to be expected. The raui-fications of the sudden fall in stocks, and the rise in fo-reign exchange, are so wide-spread and parplexing, that it is not every for calculate what course the market will take at a juncture when calm and doliberate judgment is in the highest degree destable. Some encouragement may be drawn, however, from the fact that the delegation of bank efficers in Washington will be net by Mr. Chase in a spirit of deference and accommonation, in order the wants of the English advices is very marked on foreign exchange, and early in the day it was impossible to find a rate for bills on London.
