Orella Manufacturing Establishment in this comutry. We refer to the house of Messrs. William A. Drown & Co., No. 246 Market street. These gentleme ave this season prepared an elegant stock of well-made and tastefully-finished Umbrellas, with special reference to presents. For a gift, either for a gentleman, a lady, a tad, or a miss, the stock of Messrs. Drown & Co. offers real attractions.

GRAND DISPLAY AT OAKFORDS'.---MCSSTS. Charles Cakford & Sone, under the Continental Hotel, have now open, expressly adapted for holiday sales, Ludies' Furs of every description—superior dark Siberian Squittel Sable, Mink Sable, and others-which they the solider at extraordinarily low prices. They have sets at the low prices of $5, $6, $7, and $8. Their magnificent stock of Paris-made Ladies' Shoes, the est to be found in this city, they are now closing out belaw cost. Present purchasers should remember this fact. To-morrow they will open their new style of Hats for the approaching holidays, which, we have reason to believe, will surpass any other offered in the city. In Scents' Furnishing Goods-such as Dressing Robes, hawls, Merino and Silk Shirts and Drawers, Hosiery, Gloves, Ties, el celera-their stock is unequalled. They also give notice to officers of the Army and Navy that they have a fine assortment of Regulation Hais and Caps Embroideries of every description; fine Swords, Belts, and Sword Knots, Sashes, and Military Goods of every description.

BROWN STOUT FOR INVALIDS .- Mr. C. H. Matteon, dealer in fine groceries, Arch and Tenth streets, has just received a fresh supply of superior Brown Stout for invalids. This article is of Mr. Mattson's own importation, and may be relied upon as genuine, having been analyzed by a competent chemist, to Mr. M.'s own order, and found perfectly pure. FOOLS pretend to foretell what will be the issue of things, and are laughed at for their awkward conjectures. Wise men, being aware of the uncertainty of human affairs, and having observed how small a matter often produces a great change, are modest in their conjectures. Be wise, therefore, and purchase all your garments at the Mammoth Clothing Bazaar of Gran-ville Stakes, 609 Chestnut street, where clothing is selling at sacrificing prices, and is warranted in fit, fabric, and fashion.

WARS AND RUMORS OF WARS From the South and the Southwest, from Canada, and from across he big pond, we hear of nothing but war, either present or impending. John Bull is evidently gotting " on his muscle," and itching to give us a sockdologer under the sifth rib Well, let 'em come on ! We are getting a navy very rapidly, and we already have the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestaut street, above Sixth, where apiales can be uniformed on short notice, and where legions of civilians can procure elegant garments at moderate prices.
