SELECT BRANCH. Communications were acceived as follows: One asking for the passage of an ordinance to prevent the driving of horned cattle through the built-up por-tions of the city; from John M. Read, calling attention to the defenceless condition of Philadelphin; one in ro-ference to the purchase of a lot in the Twenty-second section, for school purposes; from Col. John H. Ober-teuffer, in reference to security for the safety of ten brass sux-pounders; from the City Solicitor, in answer to n resolution, giving the opinion that Councils have uo right to regulate the fare, or the number of passengers to be carried in each car: also, that passenger railroad cars have a right to remain upon the track a reasonable length of time, and that ho passenger railroad san carry freight. The Solicitor also stated that the Pennsylvania Railroad had, under their charter, the privilege of alter-freight. The Solicitor also stated that the Pennsylvania Railroad had, under their churter, the privilege of alter-ing the grade of Swansen street, &c. The bill providing for the election of the heads of de-partments was taken up and discussed in Committee of the Whole, Mr. JONES in the chair. Mr. NEAL offered an amendment to the bill that the present heads of departments hold over until the suc-cessors are elected, provided the term be not extended beyond the first stated meeting in March. Mr. MCISTYNE moved to strike out the proviso. Mr. OUTLEN spoke in favor of the amendment, and contended that if the proviso we e stricken out it would give the power to one branch of Councils to prevent the election of the heads of departments if it saw fit to go

THE RAILROAD ON MASTER STREET.—The following resolutions were adopted at a meeting of the ro-sidents of Master street opposed to the laaying of a railroad track upon that illoroughfare : Whereas, The North Fransylvania Bailroad Company have assumed the right to construct a railroad for the transportation of coal on Master street, one of the princi-pal thoroughfares in the city of Philadelphia, and thereby mining the property of citizons residing in said street; and it being a matter of pecuniary interest to the said railroad company, witheut any advantage to any other portion of the citizens of Philadelphia; and the said street being too narrow to admit of any obstruction except for the purpose of ordinary travel, the street being but fifty feet wide: therefore, Resolved, That we will oppose, by all legal means, the construction of a railroad on Master street, as by its con-struction the value of property would be depreciated at least fifty per cent. Resolved, That we no less than three public achools lo-cated on the portion of Master street intended for said railroad, thereby endangering the lives of thousands of children of citizens residing in that vicinity. commitments for 1861 will, therefore, be over 16,000. MILITARY ITEMS.—A Boston paper publishes rather an apocryblal story of a young girl having been arrested at the Pennsylvania Bailroad depot, in this city, some few days since, attired in military uniform, and concludes by stating that she was conveyed to the unided District? station-house. The affair, if i really did come of, must have been "spiritual." A novelty in the art of swindling has come to light within the past two days. A man dressed in the uniform of a pitväte of the Pennsylvania Voluntaers, called at the residence of several persons whoses sons are in the regi-ment of Col. Davia, and, representing their sons had died in camp, and that he was in chargo of the bodies, re-quested money to pay the expenses incurred. In order to carry out the deception, he had covered his cap with be called, and no money was given him. The attempted wide reaching the eare of the police, he was arrested, and had a hearing before Aiderman Flankinton. Upon the testimony submitted he was bound over to answer. When arrested he had on his person a furlough for John Hennings, of the 104th Regiment, P. Y. He refused to give any neceunt of himself, but it is believed that he represents the name on the furloughi, though it is not the name he gave to those whom he attempted to swindle. A question has been raised as to the payment of those whow to have been killed at the buttle of Ball's Blaff, a number were still unaccounted for, and were supposed to have been left deaul, unrecognized, your the field of strift, or to have meet a watery grave. Does their pay ccase from the date of the battle, supposing their fate should never be left deaul, unrecognized, and cheat exist? Flag Presentation.

REMARKS OF MCN. MR. WRIGHT, MADE ON THE FLAG PRE-SENTATION TO COLONEL BIRNEY'S REGIMENT PENNSTL-VANIA VOLUNTEERS, IN CAMP, ON SATURDAY LAST, IN PRESENTING A SWORD TO CAPTAIN DILLY, OF SAID RE-GIMENT.

GIMENT. CAPTAIN DILLY: It was no part of the programme in this day's business that I sh uld be the organ of your command, in presenting to you, in their name, this beau-tiful textimonial of their affection and regard for you. I am at a loss what to say, without a moment's notice. But, Captain Dilly, when I cast my eyes around me, and be-hold every hill top, in this vicinity, crowned with fortifi-cations, mounted with heavy guns; every valley whiten-ed with the tents of loyal and brave soldiers, engaged in the offence of our country; surrounded as I am by your the octance of our country; surrounded as I am by your gallant colonel and his fifteen hundred men, and, above all, with the beauty of the metropolis before me, these shall negite my thoughts, and I should regard myself a dull man, indeed, if I could not, though in an imperfect nur, direburen the during metric metric and the state of the state and the state of the st way, discharge the duties which have thus devolved them.

clves upon me. Capt. Dilly, you come from my own State, my own Capt. Dilly, you come from my own State, my own county, my own town-may, you are my nearest neigh-bor-and how gratifying it is for me to speak your praises, here, in the presence of your own associates in arms, and in the presence of this multitude of people. Were you not entitled to this superb sword, which your fellow-soldiers have put in my hands to present you with, these ceremonies would not have marked a period in the history of your life, upon which you may look back with gratitude to their kenerösity and satisfaction in the thought that you were the especial object of their ad-miration. (Equin Dilly, the same in which miration. Captain Dilly, the cause in which you are called upon to draw this tword is one which creates the most loyal and patriotic feelings. It is to put down that insurrec-tion and rebellion which menaces the existence of the American Union; and which, if not subdued, will destroy and annihilate those principles of liberty and free govern-ment which it was your privilere and mine to inherit. Afterican choos and when a no snorace, which are con-and amhilate those principles of liberts and free govern-ment which it was your privilege and nine to inherit, and which we should surrender only with our heart's blocd. The war, if it may be so called, (and the time has passed to question this,) is a war not to subjugate the prople of any State; bot to reb them of a single constitu-tional right; not to interfere with the rights of personal property—but to put down a wicked insurrection, and a rebellion, originated without cause, which are shaking the American Republic from its centre—a black cloud that almost obscures the nation's flag, and almost para-tyzen its armed power. It is a war for the restoration of the Government as it was, and with no other view. And so long as the war shall be conducted upon the principles which insusurated it, and which were fully and frankly the forvernment ds at was, and with no other view. And so long as the war shall be conducted upon the principles which inaugurated it, and which were fully and frankly proclaimed in the executive proclamation issued in A pril last, it shall and will be a triumph; but wore to the na-tion and its destiny, when the object shall be changed to a war of acgro emacipation i. I cannot forctell the dan-gers and troubles which would surround the nation in such a deplorable event. Who can ? It would present a divided North, a united South, a demoralized army! When the President sent forth his appeal to the people for men to quell rebellion, and, assuring loyal citizens everywhere, that they should be guarantied in the eg-joynent of all their political rights, how nolby did they respond ? In a period of less than six months, six hun-that brave army are now ready to light the battles of re-publican liberty, but not of negre emancipation. Three, Gaptain Dilly, I conceive to be the objects of the war, and it is in this cause you are to draw this sword; and may you give it that ionown, which these who present it to you have a right to expect at your Trade of the city would inkewise be increased. Mir, CRESSWELL thought it questionable policy to place within the reach of the southern section of the city railroad facilities not extended to the northern section. Mr. Qu'ux denied that the city would be benefited one dollar by this movement. He doubted the policy of giving away your house to get rid of paying the taxes. Mr. MrcARGEE said that the city now held $5,000,000 in the Pennsylvania Railroad, and $2,500,000 in the Single n the remustivania hadroad, and S2,500,000 in the Sun-oury road, and their interest and progress were identified with her own.

with her own. Mr. A. MILLER inquired: Whence do we derive the right to lease the rullroad on Market street to the Penn-sylsania Rallecad! I trust that no attempt to give a monopoly of any kind to any company will be made by this body. That which cost the city $20,000, and brings that body. nto its treasury $10,000 annually, is to be given to the Pennsylvania Railread for a dollar a year! Mr. MEGARGEE said that with regard to our giving the Mr. MEGARGEE BRIG that with a solution of the rig. to the committee then recurred. A vote being taken, it

The original ordinance was then taken up. Mr. LXCHAM opposed the measure. Mr. CASIN inquired whether he had understood cor-rectly that the branch railroad on Third street would be discontinued if this lease was granted. Mr. MECARCEE stated, upon the authority of the pre-sident and directors, that such was the fact. Mr. STERN moved that $1 be stricken out from the ordinance, and, as an amendment, $1,400 be inserted. Mr. FREEMAN favored the ordinance. Dir. BLYNN could not see, as gentlemen had urged, that by this measure the Fennsylvania Bailtoal would be contributing $24,400 to the cir treasury. The amendment of Mr. Sterr was withdrawn. A motion was then offered to postpone the further con-sideration of the subject, and was carried by a vote of 25 to 28.

25 to 23. Mr. Southworth then moved to amend the term of he lease to 20 years. It was further moved to amend the term 80 as to make it 3 years. Mr. KERR gave the following statement of the receipts and exponditures of the line of the road for the past five years:

A provide was then put and carried, that efficie party may terminate the lease at one year's notice. Mr. A. MILLER moved that the yearly ront to be paid by the Pennsylvania Railroad be equal to the yearly profits of the city road, which, by the above statement, has averaged $6,000 for the last five years. Mr. QUINN moved that the rontal be determined by two competent persons, one to be chosen by the Mayor and the other by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. Not accred to

A LIBEL SUIT.—Yesterday, in the Court of Quarter Sessions, Judge Allison, the libet case against Lane Schofield, arising out of the publication of an ar-ticle attacking Junes M. Gibson, in his managoment of the Highway Department in 1858 and 1850, was re-sumed. There was a large representation of con-tractore, commissioners of highways, clerks, &c., in the court, as the case is one of considerable interest, the de-fendant proposing to prove the various charges made in the alleged libelous article of mismanagement in that de-partment of the highway, under the control of James M. Gibson, assistant commissioner of highways, in 1558 and 1859. One of the allegations in the article, published 1859. One of the allegations in the article, published over the signature of Lane Schofield, was as follows:

1859. One of the allegations in the article, published over the signature of Lane Schofield, was as follows: "Why did he persuade George Shaffer, who proposed to clean the First district for $200 less, to draw down and give it to Mr. Thompson at $200 higher !" In regard to this, Geo. Shaffer, two proposed to clean the First district for $200 higher !" In regard to this, Geo. Shaffer testified that he did make proposals for cleaning the First and Second wards (First District). His bid, in 1858, for the First ward was higher than that of William Thompson, but in the Second wards the bid was lower than that of Mr. Thompson, id not know how much lower; from $100 to $200, Mr. Gibson induced him to: "draw dlown," in favor of Thompson, and he was, in return, to get something better; did not get any thing better, The proposals by Mr. Shaffer was in writing. Mr. Green, a clerk in the Highway Department, brought to the court the ninute-book of the Commissioners and the minute-book of the Commissioners and the minute-book of the Gommittee on Highways; and, after an examination, he testified that he was unable to discern any minutes, other in 1868 or 1859, of any proposals by Mr. Shaffer or Mr. Thompson for the First district. Mr. Green testified in relation to the way of doing business in the office; that before he entered upon his stuties it had not heave usual to kap the original proposals for cleansing the streets. The witness has introduced a new system, and he files all the proposals come before the commissioners, and are opened, a minute is minde of the context bedder, and of no other. There was no record made by which the lowest bidder can be ascertained, the mere fact of such a person being the lowest bidder, without reference to the others, being recorded.

MEETING IN REFERENCE TO THE ENGLISH TROUBLE.—A rather intemperate call has been circu-lated for a town meeting to consider our difficulties with Englan 1. The effort had been made once before, bu failed. The call states that the undersigned, desirous o named. The call states that the undersigned, desirous of eliciting some public expression of opinion, call upon tho Trish citizens of Fhiladelphin, without respect to creed or party, to unito in town meeting in expression of their ab-horrence of Great Britain's conduct, and their faith that the United States Government will never relinquish the ambassadors of the rebel Government,

A FLOURISHING ORGANIZATION .- The Penn-A FLOURISHING ORGANIZATION. —The Penn-sylvania Horticultural Society have leased a room at the southwest corner of Broad and Walnut streets, for the purpose of holding their monthly exhibitions of fruits and flowers. The library of the society is valuable, and contains namy rare works on Horticulture and kindred subjects. Heretofore it has been almost inaccessible to the menchers, besides being subject to injury from damp-ness. The room will probably be opened for the use of mombers every Tuesday evening.

PERSONAL._Colonel J. G. Wistar, the gal-PERSONAL.—COIONEI J. G. Wistär, the gal-lant commander of the California Regiment (now the Se-venty-first Pennsylvania), has arrived in this city. He is fast recovering from the effects of his painful wounds received at Ball's B-uff. He is cager to get back to the command of his noble regiment. His present mission in the city is to open a recruiting office for his regiment, which lost so heavily at Ball's Bluff.

COMING TO PHILADELPHIA.—The great show-man is about to open an exhibition in this city for the holidays. He has secured a location in Chestnut street, near Tenth, and on Monday next he expects to open with a collection of living curiostices, among which are the "What is it?" a sea lion from the Pacific, which has a most extraordinary appetite for fish, and a family of Mudagascar Albinocs.

SUGAR MILLS FOR CUBA .- Messrs. Matthews & Moore, the extensive iron founders, yesterday shipped for Cuba, by the schooner B. Martin, two immense sugar pans, together with a quantity of iron castings for a su-gar refinery. This firm, we understand, have supplied the necessary machinery of this description for five Caban plantations within the last two years.

GLUTEN CAPSULES PURE COD-LIVER OIL.

The repugnauce of most patients to COD-LIVER OIL, and the inability of many to take it at all, has in-duced various forms of disguise for its administration that are familiar to the Medical Profession. Some of them answer in special rasce, but more often the vehicle neutralizes the usual effect of the Oil, proving quite as unpalatable and of leas therapeutic value. The repug-nance, nausea, &c., to invalids, induced by disgust of the Oil, is entirely obviated by the use of our CAPSULES. COD-LIVER OIL CAPSULES haro been much used lately in Europe, the experience there of the good re-sults from their use in both hospital and private practice, aside from the naturally suggested advantages, are suf-ficient to warrant our claining the virtues we do for them, feeting assured their use will result in benefit and
