DEATH OF AN AGED MAN-AN OLD COUPLE. -Michael Commins, a resident of the Twentieth ward, died on Wednesday afternoon, having reached the advanced age of 105 years. Mr. Com-mins had been so feeble for the past two years as to be confined to his bed. Mrs. Commins survives her aged partner. Although upwards of one hun-dred years of age, also is yet quite active. Some of the children of the aged couple are now bo-tween fifty and sixty years old.

ENTIFIED TO THESE PAY.-Some time ago the sailors employed on board the ships Parkhill and Meacco, captured while attempting to run the blockade, slied their claim to wages. Yesterday morning Judge Calwalsder decided that the mari-ners were satilled to their pay, as they shipped without any knowledge of the intention on the part of the master to run the blockade.

Look to In .- The chimney of the building lately destroyed by fre, at the corner of Harmeny court and Hudson's alley, is in a fair way of coming down, at an early date, upon the cranium of some unfortunate passer-by. Bricks are continually fall-ing from the relic, and, inasmuch as hundreds of printers frequent this alley, it is likely that if the denser courts more than one remem will be initial
