BRATHE .- The Schuylkill, above Fairmannis, is from every fold. The ice is about five inches in thickness. Some of the ice-dealers on the west side have already commenced laying in their stock. During the last few days a large num-ber of persons have been indulging in the exhila-rating exercise of skating. The Wisschickon creek is also in good condition, and is a favorite place of many fits of the lower of the size of the ideal resort for the lovers of the fine sport. The different possis in the visibility of Frankford, Germantown, ponds in the visinity of Frankford, Germantown, and Manayani, are daily resorted to by residents of these phases, to gilde about upon the smooth surface. The Almakouse meadows, and other por-tions of the Twenty-fourth, ward, also furnish good fields for alasting purposes. The akating on the Schuylkill is very fine, and on Exturday thousands of persons were on the ise. During the aftermout a bumber of persons broke through this the water, and were rescard by the unsubers of the Philadelphia Shating Club and Hu-manne Society.

"There are various kinds of skates in use, and shout shids of fastening; the irons of some are grooved, others fast, others with a cloat, and others with curved lines called rockers. In our bathard ware abops all these varieties are to be found, and also, we believe, the regular old fashioned "Hol-land" article, keen, massive, and strong. An ordi-mary pair of boys' states can be purchased for fire shillings. The price upwards is "it disoretion." The grooved of furth akats is dojoted to by the most eccomplished practitioners, because it is easily duil-ed, and cuts up the ice. The simplest form of strap-ping is that of a double strap at the toos, and one from the hed, running forward dignonally across the instep. THE NEW PERMETLYANIA RAILROAD BRIDGE. —This beautiful and substantial structure is about finished, and in the course of another week or ten days the centern terminus of the great railway will be finished. Then the city railway will not be required for the passage of froight cars, to so great an extent as at the present time. The travel on the Richmond, Race and Yine, Second and Third-streets passenger railways will be free from blockading by the freight cars. There will be no more hair breadt easagee of smitshes, or hores or mules killed, as have been the case to frequently of late. The Pennsylvania Railroad lizeli f is wide extent of Country. Business down town will increase a hundred fold because of the terminus of the road being located on Washington avonue. The ALLEGED FOR OFFICE KONPERT, --- The two young men who were charged with fraudulent-ly obtaining a letter containing a draft from the post officed were finally disposed of by the United States commissioner on Saturday. The commissioner stated that, in consequence of the doubt and un-certainty which surrounded the Jase, he would hold the defendants in merely nominal bail to answer. They were ordered to erter bail in the sum of $500 each.

THE CARDEN POST OFFICE. ---Postmaster An-drews has determined to remove the post office to Federal street, above Third, as a more central loca-tion. This will be very acceptable to those living in the southern part of the city, and in this, as in many other respect, Mr. Andrews has showed a determination to consult the convenience of the people. We learn that, since he has had charge of the office, the business has largely increased.

PASSING COUNTERFEIT NOTES .--- John Mc-ASSING COUNTERFEIT NOTES.—John Mc-Pherson was committed on Saturday morning in do-fault of $1,000 bail, by Alderman Hibbard, to an-ever the charge of passing counterfeit money. Ho is alleged to have passed two bogus ten-dollar bills, one on the Waterbury Bank, of Connectiont, and the other of the Commercial Bank, of Bristol, R. I., on Friday night, at a place on Chestnut street, above Twelfth.

DEATH OF A PHILADELFHIAN IN CALIFORNIA. —Cornelius McCaullay, formerly of this city, and a brother of Mr. John E. McCaullay, died in San Francisco, on the 17th of November last. The de-cessed was well known in Philadolphia. In 1840, he was one of the principal movers in the Irish Re-peal Association, and he was noted for hissicady ad-herence to his countrymen.

AN ABSCONDING BOARDER, hamed Ida Mitchell, was before Alderman Beitler, on Satur-day morning, upon the charge of Isrceny. It is al-leged that she engaged boarding at the house of Mrs. Milner, No. 321 North Sixth street, on the afternoon of the 16th uit, and decamped in the evening with a lot of wearing apparel and several articles of jewelry which had been left in her room. Ids was committed to answer.

PERSONAL.—The present rector of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, lately destroyed by fire in Charleston, South Carolina, is the Rev. Mr. Pron-ties. He was formerly of the Church of the Epi-phany, in this eity. The other Episcopal church in Obsriction consumed by the same configgration was St. Michael's, one of the earliest churches in America. The late edifice was built before 1750, from a design by Sir Christopher Wren.

Astronomical.—For some two weeks past, the describing laster of Vonus in the western sky has been a broad on cloudless evenings. Her brillant aspect at this time has lod some to think that he had obsages in some remarkable way from what the was in former times when she held the same re-lation to the sun. But this apparent increase in lustre is due to the absence of large stars in her pathway. The other brilliant planets are now marring stars. Bhe attains her greatest brillianoy in about two weather from new after which also will rapidly decrease in splendor until she again be-ounces a morning star, and the others will take her place in the symp sky.
