The Pennsylvania Bible Society, which carries on operations in this State, has, directly or through its numerous branches, furnished over 60,000 Testaments gratuitously to the troops, which includes 21,000 supplied by their auxiliary, the Philadelphia Bible Society, to those going from this city. The Bible Societies of Europe, Asia, and America, since the organization of the first one in 1804, have issued over sixty-teven millions of copies in 160 languages, and comprising 190 versions; of these, 140 are translation nover before printed. The number of versions now in real use, and more or less circulating, is 147. It is impossible to arrive at a correct estimate of the millions Total.......8,492 09 59,850 11 68,313 00 corresponding period last year...8,891 07 59,496 11 68,337 18 upon millions issued by other sources; but when it is re-membered that the Bible is and always has been the leading book with the publisher and tradesman, the number must appear enormous; and it is incomprehensible that there stould be one person whose curlosity, if nothing better, would not prompt him to examine with care of book that enlists such remarkable zeal for its circulation Over thirty-four millions of dollars have been disbursed by the two Bible Societies of England and the United States; a large proportion of which was paid for tran-lations in other languages; and in countries where there was no written language, the laborious and tedious work of making one was performed solely that they might know the contents of this one great Book. The Pennsylvania Bible Society has a system of local auxiliaries extending through the State, by which they distribute Bibles judiciously, and to the extent of means furmished them. About thirty years ago they gave $10,000 to send Bibles to the Sandwich Islands, and continue to give large sums for aiding distribution in foreign lands. The Bible house, Seventh and Walnut, was built fands. The Bible house, seventh and value, was only for them seven years ago by some citizens of Philadel-phia, and here different Bible Associations meet, and all matters connected with Bible operations are attended to; whilst the Depository attached is the distributing reservolus for the State.

The Philadelphia Bible Society confines its operations to the city, and supplies all our public institutions, hotels, and shipping with Bibles or Testaments. The United States ressals, before leaving port, are visited by their colporteurs, and all that is wanted in that way furnished. After supplying this home demand, they give what they can to the State Society for destitute parts of this and other countries. THE WESTERN SOUP SOCIETY .- This beneof the southwestern section of the city, on Monday last, ince which time they have relieved the plaching wants of a large number of applicants. The demand upon them for assistance in this way has been large, and it is desirable that every facility should be furnished to meet it. Doble that every mentry should be definised to meet it. Bo-nations for this object, we are authorized to state, can be either sent in-provisions or money to Samuel L. Bally, secretary, No. 220 Chestaut street; George Vanx, trea-surer, No. 46 North Seventeenth street; James Whitall, No. 412 Bace street; Richard Richardson, No. 522 Arch treet; Charles L Warner, No. 1614 Spruce street; or Joseph Potts, No. 109 North Tenth street. Annual Election of Officers .- The annual meeting of the Sunday School Society, for the election of officers, will be held at No. 1122 Chestnut street, at 4

ELEGANT GOODS AT OARFORDS' SELLING OF CHEAP.—Since the first instant, Measus. Charles Oakford & Sons, under the Continental Hotel, have been surprising their patrons with the cheapters of the magnificent-goods which they are now selling in their various Balance in Treasury Sept. 30, 1861..... $634,623 78 departments. We may safely say that in all kinds of fine departments. We may such as that man arms of the goods, in either of the following branches, our reades will save a large per centage in making their selections from this superb stock NOW: Gents' hats and caps, ladies' Paris-made shoes, hats for misses and children, gents' furnishing goods, ladies' fancy furs, and fine military goods for army and navy officers. A CHARMING ESTABLISHMENT.—The magnificent new Fruit and Confectionery Store of Mr. A. L. Vansant, Chestnut street, two doors below Ninth, is be yond question one of the chief attractions of our city. It is unique in design, and certainly contains the most tempting display of delicious and tasteful articles for the palate to be found in any single establishment in this country. His goods are all of the choicest, purest, and most delicious quality.

FINE GROCERIES .- Mr. C. H. Mattson, corper of Arch and Tenth streets, has constantly on hand the largest assortment of every article embraced in his department of trade, to which he is daily making fresh additions to suit the tastes, and meet the wants of his customers, among whom, by the way, are a large number of the first families in the city. Goods bought at his store are delivered in any part of the city, or neatly packed and sent to any of the depots free of charge. Signor Blitz is admitted to be a great Necromancer and a Ventriloquist of the highest order. This afternoon and evening he will amuse ladies and children at the Temple of Wonders, commencing at three and half past seven. There is not a more popular performer on this continent than the samired Signor.

The weakest of the rullroad shares was Cleveland and Toledo. It opened at 3 and auddenly fell to 33%, but afterwards better, selling at 33%.

After the Board New York Central dropped off to 81%; Erie to 38, a reaction of $\omega_{ Doubles .- Revolutionary Paris had its conflicting Conventions; England had her Long Parliament; the Democratic party had its double headed Convention in 1800; Penusylvania had her double Assembly, and her Buckshot War; the United States now has two Con gresses, and two Presidents, (one of them so-called;) and the city of Philadelphia, on Monday, imitated these memorable examples by having two Common Councils in ses sion at the same time. All these governmental things may be duplicated; but we will never find a second for the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilso Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth, where peerless suits for soldiers and civilians may be procured. Con. Why ought the soldiers at Fortress Monroe be convicted for counterfeiting?

Ans. Because they are making wooden "quarters"

A SHORT WAR .- General McClellan, the Commander-in-Chief of the Union forces, is said to have repeated, recently, a former declaration, "that the war would be short, though it probably might be desperate, and that he saw the way clearly through to success in conjuering the rebellion." In the meantime, however, the well-known Fashioner and Clothier, Granville Stokes, 600 Ckestnut street, wil continue to sell, at war prices his extensive stock of well-made winter garments, which are superior in fit, fabric, and fashion to those manufac tured elsewhere
