THE WAR IN KENTUCKY.

A Louisville correspondent of the New York Tribune says:

There is a general feeling of gloom and despondency in the minds of the people of this State. The rebels have been successful in their operations in the West, and the Union army has been driven back to Bowling Green. The people are weary of the war, and are looking for a speedy termination of the conflict. The Government has been slow in its movements, and the people are impatient for a more vigorous prosecution of the war.

Speech of Hon. Chas. Sumner on the Trent Affair.

Mr. Sumner, Mr. President, every principle of international law is violated by the seizure of the Trent. The United States has no right to interfere with the commerce of other nations. The seizure of the Trent is a violation of the rights of Great Britain and France. It is a violation of the rights of all nations. It is a violation of the rights of humanity. It is a violation of the rights of justice. It is a violation of the rights of peace. It is a violation of the rights of civilization. It is a violation of the rights of the human race.
