PATRIONO. LADINS.—In Clinton county. Ohio, there is a certain township, Richland, which has not raised a way large or por patriotic young men, we should judge from the proceedings of a meeting of irate families held there last week. It was stated that, not more than two volunteers had been furnished by the township, and the resolutions adopted and the speeches made at the meeting re-ferred to not only called the patriotism but the coursige of the men of Richland in question. So stung were the female population by the disgrace-ful and unmasculine split manifested by the young men, specially, that seven young ladies—Miss Ra-chel Howe, Miss Harry Bernard, Miss Hissbeth Fristo, Miss Jennie Rowe, Miss Marry C. Clement, Miss Joilie Creden, Miss Hansah McKinow-step-ped forward and requested to have their names en-rolled as volunteers in defence of their country and their rights, and said, as soon as they could be furnished with uniforms, they would leave their clothing to the young men who lacked the maili-mess to defend the fag of their country when it was assailed.

THE ART OF PRINTING.---Adrian Junius swards the honor of the invention of printing to Lau-renze John Costar, of Haerlen, "who printed with blocks a book of images and letters," about A. D., 1433. John Faust established a printing office at Mentz in 1442. John Guttenberg invented cut motal type. William Caxton set up the first printing press in Londen. Eug-land, in 1471. The first pewspaper was printed in Eng-land in 1568. The first printing in America was done at Cambridge, Mass., in 1639, whon the "Freeman's Oath" and an almanac was printed. We would also add that the public generally are indebted to Granville Stokes, the feabioner and clothier, No. 609 Chestrut street, for the ashioner and clothier, No. 609 Chestnut street, for th many recent fashionable and improved styles of garments which he disposes of at unprecedented low prices. MARINE INTELLIGENCE.
