THE SALT QUESTION.—A final meeting of FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. the committee to take into consideration the propriety of prohibiting the salting of the railway tracks, was held yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Nathen Taylor was first examined. He was opposed to the salting of streets; he was a manufacturer of leather, and contended that salt water would rot it very quickly; he had seen new carriages also injured by the salt slush; he thought the system was a grand nuisance, and should be abated; in Boston the salting of streets is prohibited by the authorities; at one time salting was allowed in New York, but was abolished as a nuisance; the railway companies in Boston are compelled to cart all their snow away; he had seen thousands of loads deposited on Boston Common.

Mr. Wetherill, one of the committee, here interretal, and wished to know why all these questions were asked Mr. Taylor about Boston, when they had refused to consult the mayor of that city?

Mr. Taylor continued, and said he had seen the smow removed from the tracks in Boston by means of sleds. He had made numerous experiments with salt on leather, and found that whenever the atmosphere became damp the leather rotted.

A long discussion relative to the effects of salt on leather new took place between Mr. Davis, one of the committee, and Mr. Taylor, both gentlemen representing the leather trade

Mr Taylor thought that salt injures leather, from its tendency to absorb moisture. ted; in Boston the salting of streets is prohibited its tendency to absorb moisture. By greasing the leather it can be reserved, because the grease counteracts the effect of moisture.

Mr. Cassin, another of the committee, took a mewhat different view from Mr. Taylor relative to the city of Boston.

Mr. Werherill said this diversity of opinion wernerin said this alversity or opinion showed the folly of the committee, who had refraced, at the last meeting, to adopt a resolution calling on the mayor of Boston for information which is now being doubted.

Dr. J. S. LeConte, of the U. S. Sanitary Commission, appeared. He said by using salt the atmosphere is made wetter and colder; he thought that that and snow water did not fifter through leather as freely as well was the salt water model.

to open the pores of the skin; he contended that horses travelling through this salt slush were injured, as their feet came into contact with a colder look than the snow itself and which they are not used to. Simon Gartland was called. He exhibited some Teather which he had experimented upon, and found that that soaked in salt and water was more porous than that placed in the pure water; he found a difference of two degrees in ice water and falt water, the latter being the coldest. The extraordinary demands upon the railroads, The extraordinary demands upon the railroads, for the transportation of troops and municions of war, caused so great an advance in all carrying rates that, for some time, the shipment of produce, from certain localities in the West to the East, was almost prohibited. On the article of corn, for instance, after the payment of freights and other thanges, not over seven cents per bushel remained as a compensation. Flour, and other kinds of produce it may be presented way in a degree of produce, it may be presumed, was in a degree milarly affected, and, in this instance, the flour and grain trade, represented by the Corn Exchange association, has doubtlessly suffered an important egative loss. But as this difficulty appeared to be asyoliable, under all the circumstances, an allumination to it ought not to be regarded as an utterpresent on to it ought not to be reg rded as an utterance

An agreeable, and at the same time conservative cature of this organization, as evinced in the habits of the members on "change," is the absence of all Intemperate discussions of a political character.

This should be observed at all times, but religiously so at the present moment. Our country must now realize the power of that grand truism.

New York Stock Exchange-January 28.

THE MONEY MARKET.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 28, 1862. At the first heard to day Pennsylvania Railroad shares advanced to 40%, recovering the decline noted yesterday; the first mortgage bonds rose to 100 %, and the second morigage bonds to 92. Reading Railroad shares rose to 2014; North Pennsylvania Railroad 6 per cent. scrip sold at 6234, and City sixes sold at 97 for the new issue and 91 for the old issue. Between boards, Reading Railroad shares fell to 20, and at the second board to 193. Pennsylvania Railroad shares advanced at the second board to 40% for two shares, but sold after boards at 40%, Schuylkill Navigation preferred sold at the first board at 12%, and after the second board at 12%.

The news from the Burnside Expedition, though cried upon the streets as the "wreck" of the Burnside Expedition, had no effect upon the stock or money market.

The brokers are full of orders to purchase good paying securities, and all first mortgage bonds are appreciating in consequence. Even Reading bonds of 1849, by no means a favorite security, bave gone to 95, Sunbury and Evia Railroad sevens gold at S3. Morris Canal bonds at 95, and Lehigh Navigation sixes at 102%.
Yesterday we noticed the sale of West Branch Canal bonds, which to-day advanced to 30% for ten thousand dollars of bonds.

This latter arrangement, if adopted, will do more to keep the value of the Government issues at par than any enactment making them a legal tender in payment of debts. It is very justly urged against the plan making these notes a legal tender, that the very effort to compel their acceptance for debts implies that they are not vo-luntarily so taken, and puts the stamp of depreciation upon them in the beginning. They will not pass current of themselves, and therefore the stamp of the Government, fixing an arbitrary value, is put upon them. It is certain that people of fixed incomes, men of small means, and depositors in savings banks will all be losers; in fact, all the past accumulations of labor will suffer depreciation if a depreciating paper currency is made a legal tender. Hence, it is argued by experienced financiers that the demand notes issued by the Government should be strictly redeemable in coin, and that the issue of such notes should be quite limited in amount. Other notes should be made payable at some future day, and should have a fixed rate of interest, which would bring them upon the same plane with the great mass of promissory paper always affoat in the country, and prevent them from affecting, in any way, the currency of the country, which regulates the exchangeable value of all commodities. It is further urged that the issue of such interest-bearing notes will avoid any inflation of the currency, and will furnish paper that may be issued in setdement of business transactions; that may be pledged as collateral for loans, and that will, in the course of a short time, be absorbed as investments. The New York Evening Post of to-day says The stock market opened very inactive and prices fell iff a trifle, though the general tone was steady, but to-wards the close the exaggerated account of the disaster to the Burnside Expedition produced a pressure to sell, and quotations after the Board were @ per cent.lower quotations after the Board were *X ® % per cent. lower than on the "first c4ll."

The speculative movement in gold has taken the unward turn again, and the news from Burnside's Expedition tends to strengthen it. The price is very sonsitive to unfavorable news, but not so easily affected by snecteres. At 363% per cent. speculators seem to regard gold as a safe venture. CITY ITEMS. Recruiting in Philadelphia

We yesterday paid a visit to the barracks of the One Iundred and Ninth Regiment, P. V., in the large building. No. 533 Chestnut street, and were gratified, not only with the exceedingly comfortable quarters of the men, and the excellent discipline enforced by the officers, but also with the material of which this growing young re-giment is composed, and of which it is officered. The entire building, above the first story, is occupied by them, and fitted up with every convenience that could conduce to health and comfort. The major part of the second and third stories are used for ledging purposes, being amply provided with bunks, benches, and convenience for washing and cooking.

From the savory meal in course of preparation whilst we were there (of which we courselves tasted with a good relish,) we have reason to know that their fare is excellent. A quantity of beef, bought, as we were informed by an officer, at 14% cents per pound, was at hand, rendy for use, and all the necessary itensils for making it available for provender. Cleanliness and system are appearent throughout, reflecting much credit upon the energy and administrative capacity of Quarthat of all the recruiting stations in this city that we have yet visited few are as inviting as the barracks of still incomplete, but filling up rapidly, is officered as follows: Colonel, H. J. Stainrook; lieutenant colonel, C. M. Harris; major, W. A. Gray. Staff Officers—Adjutant, W. R. MoAdam; quartermaster, James B. Rodgers. We were also informed that a weekly prayermeeting, at which most of the men attend, is regul larly held in the second story of the building, every Thursday evening. LECTURE IN AID OF THE KINGSESSING HOSPI-TAL AID SOCIETY .- To-morrow evening, a lecture will be delivered at Concert Hall, by James M. Sommerville, M. D., on "Pictures-Their Origin and Influence." This is a capital subject for a popular lecture, and the cause in whose behalf it will be given is worthy of liberal upport. The proceeds are to be devoted for the benefit of the Kingsessing Hospital Aid Society.

CANNED SUMMER FRUITS .- Mr. C. H. Mattson, dealer in fine groceries, Arch and Tenth streets, has a fine assortment of preserved summer fruits—peaches, tomatoes, peas, green corn, et cetera. The natural flavor of these fruits, we can say from experience, is preserve in great perfection. MR. A. L. VANSANT, manufacturer of the finest fancy and plain Confectionery made in this country, has taken, and will soon occupy, the elegant new store on the corner of Chestnut and Ninth streets, under the Continental Hotel. His fee for an examination with the Respirometer is three dollars, but as so many were disappointed from a distance, he has concluded to see and examine all that see fit to call on him that day. - ja29-3t* THE TUSCARORA AND THE NASHVILLE .- At the latest accounts the pirate Nashville was at anchor in the latest accounts the pirate Nashville was at anchor in the harbor of Southampton, and the United States gun-bout Tuscarora was watching her sharply. DR. J. H. SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS, for disease of the Liver, or a gentle Cathartic.

These three medicines are all frequently required in curing Consumption.

It is of great importance to keep the Liver and Stomach in a healthy condition; if the appetite is gone the patient rannet get strength. The Sea-Weel Tonic assists the Pulmonic Syrup in giving a tone to the stomach, then the Syrup ripens the matter and restores the lungs to a healthy condition.

PHILLSBEIFGIA, P.A., January 2, 1862.

DR. J. H. Schanck—Dear Sir. As you have cured my wife of a well-marked consumption, when she was, as it were, in the very jaws of death, justice to yourself, as well as duty to my fellow man, impels me to address you this letter, and detail the condition of my wife and the very remarkable effects of your medicines in her case. More than three years ago, she was taken with a copious bleeding from the lungs, attended with a very bad cough, loss of appetite, pain between her shoulders, headache, colâ feet and a gradual decline of her physical powers.

A DECIDED CASE OF CONSUMP-TION CURED BY SCHENOR'S PULMONIC SYRUP.

Ag it is doubted by many that Consumption is ever listen to the consumption in the dry, hacking cough, attended with headache, loss of appetite, constipation, and an increasing debility. I placed myself under the care of an eminent physician of this city, and remained under his care several months, and followed the directions strictly, but kept getting weaker and worse all the time. I lost in three or four months twenty-eight pounds of fiesh. I was exceedingly eable, had a very bad cough and pain in my chest, hectic fever, and copious night-sweats. About this time I was taken with an excessive bleeding from the lungs, and raised nearly a quart of blood. In this alarming condition I felt I must die soon if I was not speedily helped, and many of my friends thought there was not much hope for me. I procured some of Dr. Schenek's PULMONIC SYRUP, which seemed to agree with me. I then sent for Dr. Schenek, who came over to my residence, in Mantha, and examined my lungs cardully with his Bespirometer, and found my right lung very much diseased, and my other lung in an ulcerated condition. He prescribed, in addition to his Syrup, the free use of his MANDRAKE PILLS AND SEAWEED TONIC. I determined to give his medicines a fair trial, as I felt that if he could not cure me. no one else could. It was not lone before I felt his medicines were doing me good. I found my appetite and strength improving, and, best of all, the Pulmonic Syrup seemed to tipen the matter in my lungs, and, for days, I would sometimes bring up a quart of matter and corruption. I continued using the medicines for three or four months, until all the matter was expelled from my lungs, and they were entirely healed and sound. I regained my flesh and strength, and am well and hearty to-day, and able to attend to my business as usual. I have recommen

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 27th, 1861. Dr. Schenck will be at his office, No. 29 N. SIXTH Street, every Saturday, to give advice and examine lungs with his Respirometer. His usual charge for an examination is three dollars, but on Saturday, February 1st, he will examine everybody that may come free of charge. ja29-31*

ja29-6t 324 CHESTAUT Street, below FOURTH. FOR SALE—The entire STOCK and FIX URES of an AGRICULTURAL and SECOND WILLIAM AGRICULTURAL AND PROPERTY OF THE STOCK AND THE STOCK AND THE STOCK ASSET OF THE STOCK ASSET. Will be said, at public sale, at 2 o'clock P. M., on TUESDAY, the fourth day of February, 1862, at the public house of W. L. DeBOR SON, in the city of Pasaling, the property known as the READING STEAM FORGE, in said city.

Baid Forgalism stantially built, and completely equipped with all the modern improvements, including a neven-ton haemyth hammer and three Kirk steam hammers, each with heating funaces and boilers extached. A tyresteding muchine and oven, three readiling furnaces, including a second beating funaces, one had been supported by the content of the content with fire proof, &c., on the premises, which contents office, 21% acres.

Said Forge is most conveniently located fir business, adjoining the Reading Kultroad, and so connected therewith that locomotives can take away and delivercars of fron, coal, and other freight, without cost for harding. Shutes run outside the building, by which coal, acrap iron, &c., can be dumped close to each furnace, with the text cost for hauling or labor. This Forge is capable of executing the heavist work, havings forged and fainstach the main shafts of the "Adriatic," (believed to be the largest ever made.) besides complete sets of forgings for numerous stramships for Government and others. The city of Reading presents peculiar advantages for the successful operation of such a forge. It is within 53 miles of Philadelphia, connected therewith by the Reading Raifroad, and the Schuylkill (160 ton) canal, 123 miles by rail direct from New York, 138 from Baltimore, 54 from Harrisburg, and 34 from the Schuylkill coal region, whence the best-mathractic coal can be placed at the furnace doors for about $2.25 per ton. Reading is situated in one of the finest agricultural districts of Pennsylvania, has a population of 26,000, and is noted for its general health and the purity of its water. As Berks county contains more furnaces than any other in the United States, iron of overy description can be prouved by the forge at the lowest prices. Title clear of all incumbrance Tossession given immediately, and terms made easy, to suit purchasers.
