Mr. WILLIAMS entered upon a general review of the question. In days of old, in Athens, a certain fund was set apart to be expended for the annual amusement of the people, and a law was enacted making it death to propose its expenditure for any other purpose. One man, however, in time of war, was found who was bold enough to use this fund for the defence of the State. In our era of trouble, when the Union totters for existence, the fund drawn from the community and set apart for their special use, is diverted from its true channel and finds its way into the pockets of a great corporation.

The one method is purely Athenian, the other purely Pennsylvanian.

In the legislative halls, in 1861, scenes were witnessed without a parallel. Members whom it was almost impossible, in ordinary sensons, to keep in Harrisburg on Saturdays, or even Fridays, willingly consented to fix strange and unusual times for the consideration of the Jwin radiroad infiguities, while the main agent in the mission stood in the halls apparently holding the line gover the members. dwin railroad iniquities, while the main agent in the mission stood in the halls apparently holding the line power the members.

He had supposed that the Assembly was a deliberative body, embracing men of a variety of opinions. Holding these views, he was naturally astonished to find the manimity of members of the Legislature of 1861 who would not even allow the change of a single word in the railroad bills. It was recorded of the monarch Charles that he collected a number of watches, and endeavored to make them keep uniform time. Failing in this, he came to the conclusion that if it was impossible to harmonize mechanical contrivances, it was useless to attempt to harmonize the different opinions of men. But the Pennsylvania Railroad had evidently accomplished the miracle.

He continued further, declaring that the press of Philadelphia had been substidized, as well as that of Harrisburg, and that no speech which he might make, even now, would find its way in print in Philadelphia.

Mr. ABBOTT trusted that the act, which had originally created this discussion, would come before the House on its merits before the close of the session, presuming that one of the objects of the proposed investigation was to denounce or repeal this act.

The subject was further discussed by Messrs, Honkins.

TRUSTEES OF THE STATE LUNATIC ASYLUM—THE PROPOSED PHILADELPHIA EXPEDITION.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 29.—J. J. Barclay, of Philadelphia Dr. Atlee, of Lancaster; and D. W. Gross, of Harrisburg, have been appointed Trustees of the State Lunatic Asylum by Governor Curtin, for the ensuing year. The valuable services rendered in this capacity by Dr. Kirkbride are lost to the State, as ho declined a reappointment. ment.

A special order has been issued by the Governor, Instructing Surgeon General Smith to visit the Eleventh Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers, Colonel Coulter, at Annapolis, and make every provision for the comfort of the sick, and report the sanitary condition of the camp. This order was issued in componence of well-authenticated reports regarding the large number sick, and their want of grover as a and attention.

Anis of Ger was issued in consequence of wan-aumentacated reports regarding the large number sick, and their want of proper ca e and attention.

Philadelphians should awaken to their own interests.

Governor Curtin is strongly urging upon the National Government the propriety of fitting out at Philadelphia an exclusively Pennsylvania navalexpedition, if in harmony with the plans of the Government and Commanderin-Chief of the army. Notwithstanding the immense number of men we now have in the field, the Governor Offers a whole division, consisting of over twelve regiment-, fiull, complete, and ready to embark before the means of transportation can be furnished.

The public-spirited citizens of Philadelphia should take hold of this matter at once, and by means of their active co-operation secure to the mechanics and laboring classes of Philadelphia the expenditure of over a million follars of Government money, which otherwise will be furned to some Eastern seaport. The additional honor and glory which must inevitably accrue to Pennsylvania through this enterprise should be another incentive to active exertions on the part of the citizens of Philadelphia, and its failure will probably be the result of the apathy and indifference of its people. From Key West and Fort Pickens.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS: I notice in your list of Pennsylvania regiments, now in the field, with their location, you have marked the Ninety-seventh, Col. H. R. Guss. at Washington, D. THE PHILADELPHIA PRISONERS IN RICHMOND. -We had the pleasure of a personal interview. last evening, with Dr. William B. Fletcher, surgeon of the Sixth Indiana Regiment, who was taken prisoner some time since in Western Virginia, and has just been released. Having left Richmond on the 28th inst., he passed through the city yesterday, on his way to his home in Indianapolis, Indiana. We are indebted to him for the following

The blockade is having a disastrous effect upon the rebels, causing great scarcity of the necessaries of life. Sugar, coffee, etc., are selling at enormous prices, and considerable disastisfaction is expressed by the people against the Confederate authorities, and their do-nothing war policy.

The Doctor, who was on his parole in Richmond, informs us that numerous citizens had expressed themselves "sick and tired" of the war; and the authorities fear the coming expiration of the term of unlistment, the 22d of February.

Captain Keffer, of this city, who is held as hostage for the rebel pirates, is considerably "under the weather." and his present accommodations are represented as being horrible." resented as being "horrible."
Lieutenant Kinny, Kern, and others, of the California Regiment, are well and in good spirits.
Messrs. McCleary and Morris, formerly connected with the press, held subordinate positions under Adjutant Wm. H. Sloanaker, of the Prison Brigade.
Adjutant Sloanaker, having given his parole, is at full liberty within the limits of Richmond. He messes with General Winder's staff, and performs his duties to the setisfaction of the Confederate authorities.

Generals Wool and Winder's admirable system of mail communication insures the prompt delivery of all money and clothing directed to the prisoners. All the prisoners who were taken at Ball's Bluff, and have since been released, were released on account of their ill health, and in no other case. COMBINATION OF THE MERCANTILE AND ATHE-

COMBINATION OF THE MERCANTILE AND ATHEREUM LIBRARIES.—A correspondent sends us the following intere-ting news, relative to two of our most popular public libraries:

CITY EDITOR PRESS: Perceiving by the annual report of the Mercantile Library Company for the past year, that a proposition had been started to unite that institution with the Athenæum, giving to each shareholder of the Athenæum three shares of stock or a life membership in the new institution, on making inquiries. I find that the measure was started at the last annual meeting of the Athenæum members, and that the board of that company was directed to correspond with the board of the Mercantile Library; the consequence was the above proposition, the title of the new company to be the Mercantile Library and Athenæum. The reason for considering one share of the Athenæum stock equal t three shares of the Mercantile Library is that the property of the two is of about an equal value; while property of the two is of about an equal value; while the Athenaeum has only about 400 members, the Mercantile Library has about 2,000; it was thought best, therefore, to equalize them according to the par value of the stock, which is $25 in the Athenaeum and $10 in the Mercantile. Now, to unite these institutions upon this fair basis, would, I think, has a great advantage to both and particularly. s a great advantage to both, and particularly to the Atlenceum, as it would at once bring its stock to aboutpar, while it cannot now be sold at one dollar pre share; the Mercantile Library stock sell-ing readiy at S8 50 to S9. Of late years, the Atheneum has been declining in consequence of the ex-bestive mount of tax which has to be charged upon tach share—namely, 87 per annum; while the Mer-sontile; ives much more for $2. But the main thing to be considered is the great benefit the unity would be to the city, as it would enlarge the sphere of action and it is likely that soon, with the united or action and it is likely that soon, with the united properties and energy, the new company would be enabled b build and stock a large fire-proof building, which would compare favorably with the great public livrary of Beston, or the Astor Library of New Yorl; with such an institution Philadelphia would rival those cities. At present, they are far ahead of u. It is certain that the two can do a great deal more combined than either will do alone. The Atheneum board has determined to refer the matter back to the stockholders, with a negative recomhack to the stockholders, with a negative recom-mendation. The annual meeting will be held at their building on next Monday, the 3d of February. As very few attend the meetings, the measure may be killed because the members know nothing of it, there being I believe, no notice of it in any paper. I am satisfied that a majority would be favorable, THIRD REGIMENT RESERVE BRIGADE,-At a meeting of the officers of the Third Regi-ment Reserve Brigade, held on Tuesday evening, it was resolved, that if the services of the Reserve Brigade are desired by the Government of the United States, those of the Third Regiment be tendered, through General F. INCREASE OF IMPORTATIONS .- Within the INCREASE OF IMPORTATIONS.—Within the last two weeks the officers of the custom house have been kept busily engaged in discharging several heavy cargoes of coffee, sugar, molasses, etc. The principal part of these commodities have been thrown into bond. The importers have deemed it financially prudent to withhold them from the market for the present, hoping thereby to continue an additional rise in the price of these articles, especially in coffee, in which there is considerable speculation, thereby filling their coffers to the disadvantage of those who are compelled to use these advantage of those who are compelled to use these

The stock market is decidedly firmer to-day, the official account of the disaster to the Burnside expedition reading much more favorable than the first reports by the way of Fortress Monroe. In fact, it seems to be a subject of congratulation that no heavier losses were sus-tained, when the violence and duration of the storm are ject of congratulation that no heavier losses were sustained, when the violence and duration of the storm are considered. Buyers consequently came forward this morning in large numbers and for large amounts, at an advance of $4.2\% per cent. on the prices of last evening, and in several instances the improvement is equal to $1.2\% per cent., with considerable buoyancy.

The strongest of the speculative list is Cleveland and Toledo. Bumor says that the directors are large buyers, and that some plan is about agreed upon which shall wipe out the small floating debt that has stood for a long time in the way of a dividend on the stock. Nothing official, however, has transpired, but the course of the stock would seem to confirm these rumors of the market. The purchases have been very heavy within a few days, the price advancing to-day to 40\% cash, and 40\% buyer thirty days.

Railroad bonds continue to exhibit great firmness. Hudson first sold as high as 109, Michigan Southern firsts 90, and Eric firsts 106\%. Low-priced bonds are also active at a large improvement on the prices of a week ago. State stocks remain quiet. There is little doing in Missouris at 42% ad2%; Tennessees 41%; Californias are very firm, rising to 81%.

The Government list is dull and rather heavy, pending the action of Congress on the treasury note and tax bills. The sixes of 1881 are % per cont. lower, and the fives of 1874 &

CITY ITEMS. THE PLACE TO BUY MUSLINS .- We need hardly inform our readers that one of the palpable effects of the war has been a great advancement in the price of cotton, and, consequently, in the cost of all manufactured cotton goods. Notwithstanding this, however, there is a vast difference in the prices of these fabrics in different stores. For some years past the house of Messrs. R. D. &

W. H. Pennell, No. 1021 Market street, below Eleventh, has had the reputation of giving their numerous customers the best goods, for the money, to be had in the city, more vance in cottons they had sagaciously laid in a very heavy stock of them, and, foreseeing the prospective advance for some months to come, they bought heavily in adventages, as the consequence has been to literally crowd their store with customers, in all kinds of weather and at all hours of the day. Their general stock of Dry Goods is also very superior. We refer the reader to their appouncement of prices in another column of The Press by all prudent housekeepers. Dr. Sommerville's Lecture at Concert

HALL, THIS EVENING .- Our readers should not forget Dr. James M. Sommerville, for the benefit of the King-sessing Hospital Aid Society. His subject will be "Pic-tures—their Origin and Influence." PARMY APPOINTMENT.—We are gratified to learn that Mr. J. S. Brobst, of Catawissa, Pa., has been tendered an appointment in the army. Mr. Brobst is a highly esteemed citizen of Pennsylvania, an energetic business man, and entirely fitted for any position to which he may be assigned by the department. he may accept the appointment offered to him. AN ARTICLE FOR INVALIDS .- Mr. C. H. Mattson, dealer in fine family groceries, Arch and Tenth streets, has just received a fresh invoice of superior old Port and Madeira Wines, specially adapted for invalids also, Brandies of the purest quality, endorsed as such by some of our most eminent physicians. A GREAT COAT .- The buttons on the coat of John Hancock were of silver, and of American manufacture. The device was a shepherd shearing his sheepthe motto, "You gain more by our lives than by our deaths." History does not state where the coat was made, but we have no doubt, had this great statesman been living at the present day, all his garments would have been purchased at the Renowned Clothing Establishment of Granville Stokes, No. 609 Chestnut street, (one or above Harnden's Express Office,) as at this Fashiona-An AWKWARD CURRENCY.—The giving out

But a bale of the floculent fibre must be rather as awkward purse of specie. Just imagine a "Socesh" applying for a new suit at the Brown Stone Clothing street, above Sixth, and offering in payment a bale of "For 't ain't quite handy to pass off one o' your six

An' git your halves an' quarters back in gals an' picka ninnies."
Neither such customers nor their peculiar currency are wanted at the establishment named. SANITARY SUGGESTIONS .- The last number of Hall's Journal of Health has the following: "If the thermometer is below thirty, no child or lady should be skating;" to which Vanily Fair replies: "If the lady is below thirty and good looking, let her skate, thermometer or otherwise. If she is the reverse, let her The Journal of Health continues: "The grace, exercise, and healthfulness of skating on ice can be had without any of its dangers by the use of skates with oil-cloth." plenty of good stale gas. Yet we don't see the necessity or being "covered with oil-cloth," as directed. It seems to us we would prefer the Schmylkill and a covering of warm winter clothing from Chas. Stokes' "One-price,' under the "Continental."

Said Forge is substantially built, and completely equipped with all the modern improvements, including a seyen-top Nashiyth hainmer and three Kirk steam hammers, each with heating furnaces and boilers attached. A tyrebending machine and oven, three pudding furnaces, five blacksmith's forges, two thirty-ton crawes, ore

2% acres.
Said Forge is most conveniently located for lunsings, alswith sheet iron roof, a carpentershop, and brick office, with fire proof, &c., on the premises, which contain over 2% acres.
Said Forge is most conveniently located for business, &dsioling the Reading Raifeoid, and so connected therewith that locomotives can take away and deliver cars of iron, coal, and other freight, without cost for hauling. Shutes run outside the building, by which coal, scrap iron, &c., can be dumped close to each furnace, without extra cost for hauling or labor. This Forge is capable of executing the heaviest work, having forged and finished the main shafts of the "Adriatic," (believed to be the largest ever made.) besides complete sets of forgings for numerous steamships for Government and others. The city of Reading presents peculiar advantages for the successful operation of such a forge. It is within 38 miles of Philadelphia, connected therewith by the Reading Railroad, and the Schuytkiii (100 ton) canal, 128 miles by rail direct from New York, 138 from Baltimore, 54 from Harrisburg, and 34 from the Schuytkiil coal region, whence the best anthracite coal can be placed at the furnace doors for about $2.25 per ton. Theading is situated in one of the finest agricultural districts of Pennsylvania, has a population of 25,600, and is noted for its general health and the purity of its water. As Berks county contains more furnaces than any other in the United States, iron of every description can be procured by the forge at the lowest prices. Title clear of all incumbrance Possession given immediately, and terms made easy, to suit purchasers. The Forge is in complete order, and is furnished with every necessary tool and appurtenance to commence work immediately on taking possession.
