CITY ITEMS.

PURE LIQUORS FOR MEDICINAL PURPOSES .-Mr. C. H Mattson, dealer in fine groceries, corner of Arch and Tenth streets, has, at the solicitation of a large number of his patrons, numbering some of the best families in this city, been induced to keep constantly on hand, for medicinal purposes, a stock of the finest and purest Brandies, and Port and Madeira Wines, to be found in this country. So well is the reputation of his store established in this respect, that some of our leading physicians recommend their patients to try his liquors in preference to any others, in cases where their use is deemed essential.

REV. ALFRED NEVIN, D. D., will lecture in the Union Presbyterian Church, Thirteenth street, below Spruce, this evening, at 7% o'clock. Subject-"Make Your Mark ." lickets 25 cents, to be had at the door.

Men of sense avoid coquettes, and buy their suits at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixtb. THILADELPHIA BAPTIST INSTI-TUTE.—The Third Lecture before this Institute for this season will be delivered in the SPRUGE-STREET BAPTIST CHURCH, below FIF'H Street, THIS EVENING, at 7% o'clock, by Rev. N. B. BALDWIN. Subject-- "Progress and Triumph of Baptist Principles." The public are invited. 11*

ELECTION OF HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS .-Another caucus was held yesterday afternoon by the ruling party of City Councils, relative to the nominations for the heads of departments. The number of candidates is large, and the contest will be close and spirited, and some little difficulty will no doubt be experienced in inking selections, as all the applicants, generally, are good and honest men, who, like others of the same class, wisely purchase their garments at the cheap and fash-ionable clothing establishment of Granville Stokes, No.

THE NEW PLAN.-THE FRANKLEN Sabotiation, recently formed, will hold their FIEST CONCERT, THIS AFTERNOON, at 3 o'clock, at SANSOM-STREET CHURCH. The Constitution will be read. Address will be given by one or more ce-lebrated persons from New Eugland A good band of music, new songs, by the young ladies of the celebrated Grammar School; plans explained Alfogether, it will be the Concert of the season. The public are invited. The ladies will be sure to attend. Admission 10 cents, at the door. For the Association, The number of ex-office-holders is a prominent feature in the above list, not quite equalled by the number of ex-councilmen. We had intended to append to each name the occupation in life of the candidate, but some have been so long in public position, that we found it impossible to ascertain their original calling. In some instances, the office sought compared with the profession of the candi-date, strikes one as somewhat incongruous. Al-though there are many very clever gentlemen and worthy persons on the list, there are but few whose profession would appear to indicate any pe-culiar propriety in the candidacy for the position. As exceptions to this we remark, that all the candi-dates for Engineer of the Water Works are practi-cel engineers or machinists; while a practical butcher is "out?" for Commissioner of Markets. A tanner, a hatter, and a grocer, are the only candi-609 Chestnut street, one door above Harnden's Express office.
