CONVERSION OF THE REPUBLIC OF MEXICO INTO A MONARCHY.

ONVERSION OF THE REPUBLIC OF MEXICO INTO A MONARCHT. The Morning Post (supposed organ of Palmerston) are that it has now been determined, with the assent of Great Britain, by the Courts of Paris and Madrid, that their armies shall march direct from Yera Cruz to the capital of Mexico, and there suppress the existing execu-tive. England will limit her active military co-opera-tion to the presence of a powerful squadron in the Gulf of Mexico, and to garrisoning the port of San Juan d'Ulloa, with a force of seven hundred marines, during the continuance of the healthy season on that cosst. This force, when the season grows unbealthy, is to be replaced by acclimatized Cuban troops. The Post adds: "Wa believe that it is a probable result of this march of the allies on Mexico that that unhappy and distracted republic will respect to the world as a constitutional monarchy, and that the Archduke Maximilian, brother of Francis Joseph, Emperor of Austris, will assume the funds necessary to maintain an army of occupation in sup-port of the new Government are provided, until it will have derived sufficient stability to stand alone. The Mexicans bare tride a republi, and it ins suck away under a succession of strocious military tyraunites. Thoy are believed to be convinced that a monarchy will en-mert be only freedom they can possibly maintain." The Addition to the troops alroady sent off, four more bas-taries of artillery have received orders to hold themselves in readiness to start at an hour's notice. The Patric says the allied troops are to advance on the Gif of Mexic orally in March. There will be no moninal commander-in-chief. The military commanders and the admirsla will act according to the decisions of council of war, as in the expedition to China.

E"Margaret Howth : a Story of To-day," to be published in a neat 16mo volume in a few days, has ran through the Atlantic Monthly, as a serial, and in that fragmental form attracted much attention. In the same periodical, "A Tale of the Iron Mills," by the same writer, appeared last year. Judging from internal evidence, this new author must be young and womanly. No man could have drawn the character, showing us the heart, of the heroine, nor created such a being as poor Loisthat truest of good Christians with weak brain but strong and noble spirit and faith. Other characters also show power : Knowles and Holmes, so well contrasted, the old schoolmaster and his wife, Old Yare and Joel, with his earth-oil. The publishers are Ticknor and Fields, who, somehow or other,

AN ADVENTUROUS UHARACTER IN Tows.-Mr. L. C. Baker, the Chief of the Government Police, was in town on Saturday, on a visit to Chief Franklin. Mr Baker has just been transferred from the State to the War Department, with his entire torce, num-bering more then sixty experts. He has not resigned, according to the statement of the Associated Press, but properly take cognizance of detective matters. He passed with the full concurrence of Mr. Foward, who complimented him in bigh terms for his usefuluess. Mr. Baker has personally arrested upwards of ninety traitors, the most of whom have been consigned to Forts Mc-Hearry, Lafayette, or Delaware. These wore contra-bandists, spice, informatics, dialoyal mail agents or newspaper men, legislators, etc. He has been a witness in almost every trial for tresson, and is now here to tes-tify in the Gilchrist teason case. No. Mr. Baker arrested Stone in person, and will be a lead-ing witness sgainst him at the coming court-martial. Two spice have been lately arrested, and one named B. H. Jenkins, that be took from Kennedyville, Keut county, Maryland, will assuredly be shot, his commission in the rebel army having been obtained, and his muster roll, uniform, etc., discovered. The second spy had a letter from Beauregard upon his person. The Episcopal clergyman, Wobster, a renagade from Massachusetts, was also arrested by Mr. Baker two weeks ago in Alexandria, Virginia. Mr. Baker was one of the worshippers in the body of the church, when Web-rier announced that he had been directed by his bishop to pray for the wolfare of Jefferson Davis, but that owing to the presence of a "truffian soldiery" he would defer the appeal. Mr. Baker then rose in his place and requested that the neual prayer for the President of the United States might be repeated. Weblarded doug this, and Baker at once walked to the pulpit and took him in charge. The congregation scattered instantiy. The arploits of Baker among the disloyal postmaster, sung-giers, etc., on the lower Potomac constitute a strange chapter in the annals of the war. His personal courage was often severily tested, but his presence of mind, de-clision, and daring, always redeemed him from peril or mortification. He was several times put in charge of a wasel, with which he emised down the Potoma and through the Ohespreake, a matter, at that time, of con-siderable danger. In Ganada, his assistants havo teen constantly employed, watching the machinations of Bri-tiah and Secession residents, and in Toronto he captured a roll containing a long list of names and a subscription of $20,000 to the Confederacy. The editors of the Baltimore South were arrested on Monday, by order of Mr. Baker. The South was a reckless sheet, edited by irresponsible adventurers, who could be nowhere found. Provet Marshal McPhail and Mr. Baker finally fixed upon the managers of the con-carn, and arrested them.

AGAIN IN CUSTODY.—Yesterday morn-ing William Smith, halling from Washington city, was bo-fore Alderman Beilder upon the charge of having stolen a gold watch valued at $130, from the establishment of Messrs Perrett & Brother, on Chostnut street. He was also charged with the larceny of two gold rings. The watch was stolen about eight weeks since, and was ro-covered by the police at a pawnbroker's office. Smith's plan of operation is to examine articles under the pre-tence of a desire to purchase. He concludes, hewever, to call again, but in the meantime has managed to silp into his pocket a watch or some other piece of jewelry. The accused was committed in default of $2,000 bail. He is an old offender, and his photograph hangs in the Rogue's Gallery.

A BAD BOY IN SCHOOL. — Before Judge Allison, yestenday morning, Mr. Thos. M. Pierce, principal of the Monree Grammar School, Eleventh and Buttonwood streets, was tried on a charge of assault and battery upon Lewis Eppelsheimer, one of his scholars. Eppelsheimer was suspended for laughing at another boy, when Mr. Pierce asked him his father's name, and received for a reply, "Why, Lewis." Hetook this as impertinence, and struck the boy on the mouth. A struggle ensued, and the boy was thrown on the plat-form, and complained that he was stranged. The defence called a large number of the scholars, who testified that Eppelsheimer was a disorderly scholar, and upon this occasion was very imperiment to Mr. Pierce. The case was handed to the jury, and they had not made their appearance up to the time when the court ad-journed.

The rush for office at the different newly-elected heads of departments is very great. The front of the State House row and the Council Chambers are daily besieged by a crowd of hungry politicians. The members of Councils make themselves scarce, as they are being con-tinually bored by office-seekers.
